22 My God hath sent his angel, and hath † shut the lions mouths that they have not hurt me: forasmuch as before him, t innocency was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I done no hurt.

23 Then was the king exceeding glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den: so Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he u believed in his God.

24 ¶ And the king commanded, & they brought those men which had v accused Daniel, and they f cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives: and the lions had the mastery of them, and g brake all their bones in pieces, or ever they came at the bottom of the den.

25 ¶ Then king Darius h wrote unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth, Peace be multiplied unto you.

26 † I make a decree, that in every dominion of my kingdom, men tremble & i fear before the God of Daniel: for he is the living God, & stedfast for ever, and his kingdom that which shal not be * destroied, and his dominion shal be even unto the end.

27 k He delivereth and rescueth, & he worketh signs & wonders in heaven and in earth: who hath delivered Daniel from the † power of the lions.

28 So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of * Cyrus the Persian.

CHAP. VII.

Daniels vision of four beasts.

IN the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel † had a dream, and visions of his head upon his bed; * then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the † matters.

2 Daniel spake, and said, I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of the heaven strove upon the great sea.

3 And four great beasts came up from the sea, divers one from another.

4 b The first was like a lion, and had eagles wings: & I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, * and it was lifted up from the earth, & made stand upon the feet as a man, and a mans heart was given to it.

5 And behold, another beast, a second, like to a bear, and * it raised up it self on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh.

6 After this I beheld, and lo, another like b a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl, the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it.

7 After this I saw in the night visions, and behold, c a fourth beast, d dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly, and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it, and it was divers from all the beasts that were before it, and it had ten horns.

7 I considered the horns, and e behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and behold, f in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking g great things.

9 ¶ h I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his i wheels as burning fire.

10 k A fiery stream issued, and came forth from before him: * l thousand thousands ministred unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the * books were opened.

11 I beheld then, because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake: I beheld even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame.

12 As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away: yet † their lives were prolonged for a season and time.

13 I saw in the night visions, and behold, one like the Son of man, came with the clouds of heaven, m & came to the ancient of days, and they brought him near before him.

14 And there was given him dominion and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages should serve him: his dominion is * an everlasting dominion, which shal not pass away, and his kingdom, that which shal not be destroyed.

15 ¶ I Daniel was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my † body, and the visions of my head troubled me.

16 I came near unto one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth of all this: so he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things.

17 These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, which shal arise out of the earth.

18 But the saints of the † most High shal take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever.

19 Then I would know the truth of the fourth beast, which was diverse † from all the others, exceeding dreadful, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass, which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet.

20 And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell, even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, d whose look was more stout than his fellows.

21 I beheld, and the same horn b made war c with the saints, and † prevailed against them;

22 Until the d ancient of days came, and judgment was given e to the saints of the most High; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.

23 Thus he said, The fourth beast shal be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shal be divers from all kingdoms, and shall devour the f whole earth, and shal tread it down, and break it in pieces.

24 And the ten horns out of this kingdom, are ten kings that shall arise: and another shal rise after them, and he shal be divers from the first, and he shal subdue three kings.

25 g And he shal speak great words against the most High, and shal wear out the saints of the most High, and think to i change times and laws: and they shal be given into his hand, until a i time and times, and the dividing of time.

26 But the judgment shal sit, and they shall take away his dominion, k to consume, and to destroy it unto the end.

27 And the l kingdom, and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all * dominions shal serve and obey him.

28 Hitherto is the end of the matter. As for me Daniel, my cogitations much troubled me, and my countenance changed in me: but I kept the matter m in my heart.

CHAP. VIII.

Daniels vision of the ram, &c.

IN the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar, a vision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me a at the first.

2 And I saw b in a vision (and it came to pass when I saw, that I was at Shushan in the c palace, which is in the province of † Elam) and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ulai.

3 Then I lifted up mine eyes and saw, and behold, there stood before the river, a n ram which had two horns, and the two horns were high; but one was higher than † the other, and the higher came up last.

4 I saw the ram pushing e westward, and north-ward, and south-ward: so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand, f but he did according to his will, and became great.

5 And as I was considering, behold, an he-goat came from the west on the face of the whole earth, & * touched not the ground: and the goat had g a notable horn between his eyes.

6 And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power.

7 And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was moved with choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns, and there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand.

8 Therefore the he-goat waxed very great, and when he was strong, the great horn was broken: and for it came up four notable ones, * toward the four winds of heaven.

9 And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and

10 And it waxed great, even * to the host of heaven, and it cast down some of the host, and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them.

11 Yea, he magnified himself even * to the prince of the host, and * by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down.

12 And an * host was given him against the daily sacrifice, by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground, and it practised and prospered.

13 ¶ Then I heard one Saint speaking, and another Saint said unto * that certain Saint which spake, How long shal be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression * of desolation, to give both the sanctuary, and the host to be trodden under foot?

14 And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred † days: then shal the sanctuary be † cleansed.

15 ¶ And it came to pass when I, even I Daniel had seen the vision, and sought for the meaning, then behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man.

16 And I heard a mans voice between the banks of Ulai, which called, and said, * Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision.

17 So he came near where I stood: and when he came, I was afraid, and fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O Son of man: for at the time of the end shall be the vision.

18 Now as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face toward the ground: but he touched me, and † set me upright.

19 And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shal be in the last end of the indignation: for at the time appointed the end shal be.

20 The ram which thou sawest having two horns, are the kings of Media and Persia.

21 And the rough goat is the king of Grecia, and that great horn that is between his eyes, is the first king.

22 Now that being broken, whereas four stood up for it, four kingdoms shal stand up out of the nation, but not in his power.

23 And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressours † are come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding † dark sentences shal stand up.

24 And his power shal be mighty, but not by his own power: and he shal destroy wonderfully, and shal prosper, and practise, and shal destroy the mighty, and the † holy people.

25 And through his policy also he shal cause craft to prosper in his hand, and he shal magnifie himself in his heart, and by * peace shal destroy many: he shal also stand up against the prince of princes, but he shal be * broken without hand.

26 And the vision of the evening, and the morning which was told, is true, wherefore shut thou up the vision, for it shal be for many days.

27 And I Daniel a fainted, and was sick certain days, afterward I rose up, and did the kings business, and I was astonished at the vision, but none understood it.

Daniel confesseth his sins, &c.

IN the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, * which was made king over the realm of the Caldeans.

2 In the first year of his reign, I * Daniel understood by books the number of the years, whereof the word of the LORD came to * Jeremiah the prophet, that he would accomplish seventy years in the a desolation of Jerusalem.

3 ¶ And I set my face unto the LORD God, to b seek by prayer, and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth and ashes.

4 c And I prayed unto the LORD my God, & made my confession, and said, O * Lord, the great and dreadful God, keeping the covenant, and mercy, to them that love him, and to them that keep his commandments.

5 * d We have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled even by departing from thy precepts, and from thy judgments.

6 Neither have we e hearkned unto thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy Name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

7 O LORD, righteousness belongeth unto thee, but unto us confusion of faces, as at this day: to the men of Judah, & to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, & unto all Israel that are near, and that are far off, thorow all the countreys whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespasses that they have trespassed against thee.

8 O LORD, * f to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee.

9 g To the LORD our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him.

10 Neither have b we obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us, by his servants the prophets.

11 Yea, all Israel have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice, therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the * law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him.

12 And he hath confirmed his words which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath not been done, as hath been done upon Jerusalem.

13 d As it is written in the law of Moses, All this evil is come upon us: yet † made we not our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth.

14 Therefore hath the LORD * watched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: for the LORD our God is righteous in all his works, which he doth: for we obeyed not his voice.

15 And now, O LORD our God, that that hast † brought thy people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and hast * gotten thee renown as at this day, we have sinned, we have done wickedly.

16 ¶ O LORD, according to all thy righteousnesse, I beseech thee, let thine anger, and thy fury be turned away from thy f city Jerusalem, thy holy mountain: because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and thy people are become a g reproach to all that are about us.

17 Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, and h cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that is desolate, for the LORDS sake.

18 O my God, encline thine ear, and hear: open thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city, † which is called by thy Name: for we do not † present our supplications before thee for our righteousnesses, but for thy great mercies.

19 O LORD hear, O LORD forgive, O LORD hearken and do: defer not for thine own sake, O my God; for thy city, and thy people are called by thy Name.

CHAP. X.

Daniel is comforted by the angel.

IN the third year of Cyrus king of Persia, a thing was revealed unto Daniel, (whose name was called Belteshazzar) and the thing was true, † but the time appointed was long: and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision.

2 In those days, I Daniel was mourning three † full weeks,

3 I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh, nor wine in my mouth: neither did I anoint my self at all till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

4 And in the four and twentieth day of the first moneth, as I was by the side of the great river, which is * Hiddekel.

5 Then I lift up mine eyes, and looked, and behold, † a certain man cloathed in linen, whose loins were * girded with fine gold of Uphaz.

6 His body also was like the beril, and his face as the appearance of lightning, & his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms, & his feet like in colour to polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude.

7 And I Daniel n alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.

8 Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my §* comliness was turned in me into corruption, & I retained no strength.

9 b Yet heard I the voice of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I in a deep sleep on my face, and my face toward the ground.

10 ¶ And behold, d an hand touched me, which † set me upon my knees, and upon the palms of my hands.

11 And he said unto me, O Daniel † a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and † stand upright: for unto thee am I now sent; and when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling.

12 Then said he unto me, Fear not, Daniel; for from the first day that thou didst † set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thy self before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words.

13 But the prince of the kingdom of Persia, withstood me one and twenty days: but lo, Michael * one of the chief princes came to help me, and I remained there with the kings of Persia.

14 Now I am come to make thee understand what shal befall thy people in the g latter days: for yet the vision is for h many days.

15 And when he had spoken such words unto me, I set my face toward the ground, and I became dumb.

16 And behold, one like the similitude of the sons of men touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my Lord, by the vision my sorrows are turned upon me,

18 Then there came again and touched me one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthned me,

19 And said, O man i greatly beloved, fear not, peace be unto thee, be strong, yea, be strong. And when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthned, and said, Let my LORD speak; for thou hast strengthned me.

20 Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? and now will I return to fight with the k prince of Persia: and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of Grecia shal come.

21 But I will shew thee l that which is noted in the scripture of truth: and there is m none that † holdeth with me in these things, but Michael your prince.

CHAP. XI.

The overthrow of Persia by the king of Grecia.

A Lso I, in the first year of a Darius the Mede, even I stood to confirm and to strengthen him.

2 And now will I shew thee the truth, Behold, there shal stand up yet three kings in Persia, and the fourth shal be † far richer than they all: and by his strength through his riches he shal stir up all against the realm of Grecia.

3 And a mighty king shal b stand up, that shal rule with great dominion, and do according to his will.

4 And when he shal stand up, his kingdom shal be broken, and shal be divided toward the four winds of heaven; and not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdom shal be pluckt up, even for others besides those.

5 ¶ And the king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes, and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion: c his dominion shall be a great dominion.

6 And in the end of years they shal † joyn themselves together: for the kings daughter of the south shal come to the king of the north to make † an agreement: but she shal not retain the power of the arm, neither shal he stand, nor his arms; but she shal be given up, and they that brought her, and he that begat her, & he that strengthned her in these times.

7 But out of a branch of her roots, shal one stand up in his estate, which shall come with an army, and shal enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shal deal against them, * and shal prevail:

8 And shal also carry captives into Egypt, d their gods with their princes, and with their † precious vessels of silver & of gold, and he shal continue more years than the king of the north.

9 So the king of the south shal come into his kingdom, and shal return into his own land.

10 But e his sons * shal be stirred up, and shal assemble a multitude of great forces; and one shal certainly come and overflow, and pass through: then shal he return, and be stirred up even to his fortress.

11 And the king of the south shal be moved with choler, and shal come forth, and fight with him, even with the king of the north: & he shal † set forth a great multitude, but the multitude shal be given into his hand.

12 And when he hath taken away the multitude, f his heart shal be lifted up: and he shal cast down many ten thousands; but he shal not be strengthned by it.

13 For the king of the north shal return, & shal set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shal certainly † come (after certain years) with a great army, and with much riches.

14 And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also † the robbers of thy people shal exalt themselves g to establish the vision, but they shal fall.

15 So the king of the north shal come, and cast up a mount, and take † the most fenced cities, and the arms of the south shal not withstand, neither † his chosen people, neither shal there be any strength to withstand.

16 But he that cometh against him, shal do according to his own will, and none shal stand before him, and he shal stand in the * glorious land, which by his hand shal be consumed.

17 He shal also set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and * upright ones with him: thus shal he do, and he shal give him the daughter of women † corrupting her: but she shal not stand on his side, neither be for him.

18 After this shal he turn his face unto the isles, and shal take many, but a prince † for his own behalf shal cause † the reproach offered by him to cease without his own reproach he shal cause it to turn upon him.

19 Then he shal turn his face towards the fort of his own land: but he shal stumble and fall, and not be found.

20 Then shal stand up in his estate † a raiser of taxes in the glory of the kingdom, but within few days he shal be destroyed, neither in † anger, nor in battel.

21 And in his estate shal stand up a vile person, to whom they shal not give the honour of the kingdom: but he shal come in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom by flatteries.

22 And with the arms of a flood shal they be overflown from before him, and shal be broken: yea, also the prince of the covenant.

23 And after the league made with him, he shal work deceitfully: for he shal come up, and shal become strong with a small people.

24 He shal enter * peaceably even upon the fattest places of the province, and he shal do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers fathers, he shal scatter among them the prey and spoil, and riches: yea, & he shal † fore-cast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time.

25 And he shal stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army, and the king of the south shal be stirred up to battel with a very great and mighty army; a but he shal not stand: for they shal fore-cast devices against him.

28 Then shal he return into his land with great riches, e and his heart shal be against the holy covenant: and he shal do exploits, and return to his own land.

29 At the time appointed he shall return, and come toward the south, but it shal not be as the former, or as the latter.

30 For the ships of Chittim shall come against him: therefore he shal be b grieved and return, and have indignation against the holy covenant: so shal he do, he shal even return, and have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant.

36 And the king shal do according to his will, and he shal exalt himself, and e magnifie himself above every god, and shal speak marvellous things against the God of gods, and shal prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined, shal be done.

CHAP. XII.

Michael shal deliver Israel.

AND at that time shal a Michael stand up, the great prince b which standeth for the children of thy people, and there shal be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation, even to that same time; and at that time thy people shal be delivered, every one that shal be found written in the book.

2 And many of them that sleep c in the dust of the earth d shal awake, † some to everlasting life, and e some to shame and everlasting contempt.

3 And they that be * wise, shal † shine as the brightness of the firmament, and they that turn many to righteousness, f as the stars for ever and ever.

4 But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: g many shal run to & fro, and knowledge shal be increased.

5 ¶ Then I Daniel looked, and behold, there stood other two, the one f on this side of the bank of the river, and the other on that side of the g † bank of the river.

6 And one said to the man clothed in * linen, which was * upon the waters of the river; How long shall it be to the end of these wonders?

8 And I heard, but * understood not: then said I, O my LORD, what shal be the end of these things?

9 And he said, Go thy way, Daniel, for the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end.

10 Many shal be purified and made white, and tried: but the wicked shal do wickedly: and none of the wicked shal understand, but the wise shal understand.

11 And from the time that the daily sacrifice shal be taken away, and † the abomination * that maketh desolate, set up, there shal be a thousand two hundred and ninety days.

CHAP. I.

Gods judgment for spiritual whoredom.

THE word of the LORD that came unto Hosea the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah kings of Judah, and in the days of a Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel.

2 † The beginning of the word of the LORD by Hosea: and the LORD said to Hosea, Go, take unto thee a wife of whoredoms, and children of whoredoms: for the land hath committed great whoredom, departing from the LORD.

3 So he went, and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim, which conceived and bare him a son.

4 And the LORD said unto him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will † avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and will cause to cease the kingdom of the house of Israel.

5 And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel.

6 ¶ And she conceived again, and bare a daughter, and God said unto him, Call her name * Lo-ruhamah: for † I will no more have mercy upon the house of Israel; * but I will utterly take them away.

7 But I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battel, by horses, nor by horsemen.

8 ¶ Now when she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived & bare a son.

9 Then said God, Call his name * Lo-ammi; for ye are not my people, and I will not be your God.

10 ¶ Yet the number of the children of Israel shal be as the sand of the sea; which cannot be measured nor numbred, * and it shal come to pass, that * in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shal be said unto them, Ye are the sons of the living God.

11 Then shal the children of Judah and the children of Israel be * gathered togeather, and appoint themselves one head, and they shal come up out of the land; for great shall be the day of Jezreel.

CHAP. II.

The idolatry of the people.

SAy ye unto your brethren, * Ammi, and to your sisters, § Ruhamah.

2 Plead with your mother, plead † for § she is not my wife, neither am I her husband: let her therefore put away her whoredoms out of her sight, and her adulteries from between § her breasts:

3 a Lest I strip her naked, and set her as in the b day that she was § born, and make her as a wilderness, & set her like a dry land, and c slay her with thirst.

4 And I will not have mercy upon her children, for they be the children, d of whoredoms.

5 For their mother hath played the harlot: she that conceived them hath done shamefully, for she said, I will go after my lovers that gave me my bread and my water, my wool, and my flax, mine oil, and my § drink.

6 ¶ Therefore behold, I will e hedge up thy way with thorns, and † make a wall, that she shal not find her paths.

7 And she shal follow after her f lovers, but she shall not overtake them, & she shal seek them, but shall not find them: then shal she say, I will go, and return to my first husband, for then was it better with me than now.

8 For she did not know that I gave her corn, and wine and oyl, and multiplied her silver and gold, § which they g prepared for Baal.

9 Therefore will I return, and take away my corn in the time thereof, & my wine in the season thereof, and will recover my wool, and my flax given to cover her nakedness.

10 And now will b I discover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none shal deliver her out of mine hand.

11 I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her feast days, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn feasts.

12 And I will † destroy her vines, and her fig-trees, whereof she hath said, These are my rewards that my lovers have given me; and I will make them a forrest, and the beasts of the field shal eat them.

13 And I will visit upon her the days of Baalim, wherein she burnt incense to them, and she decked her self with her ear-rings, and her Jewels, and she went after her lovers, and forgat me, saith the LORD.

14 ¶ Therefore behold, I will allure her, & bring her into the wilderness, i and speak * comfortably unto her.

15 And I will give her her vineyards from thence, and the valley of Achor for a door of hope, and she shal sing there as k in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt.

16 And it shal be at that day, saith the LORD, that thou shalt call me § Ishi, & shalt call me no more § Baali.

17 For l I will take away the names of Baalim out of her mouth, and they shal no more be remembred by their name.

18 And in that day will I make a § covenant for them with the beasts of the field, & with the fowls of heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground: and I will break the bow, and the sword, and the battel out of the earth; and will make them to lie down safely.

19 And I will betroth thee unto me for ever; yea, I will betroth thee unto me in righteousness, & in judgment, & in loving kindness, and in mercies.

20 I will even betroth thee unto me a in faithfulness, b and thou shalt know the LORD.

21 And it shal come to pass in that day, I will hear, saith the LORD, c I will hear the heavens, and they shal hear the earth, 22 And the earth shal hear the corn, and the wine, and the oyl, and they shal hear Jezreel.

23 And d I will sow her unto me in the earth, and I will have mercy e upon her that had not obtained mercy, & I § will say to them which were not my people, Thou art my people, and they shal say, Thou art my GOD.

CHAP. III.

The desolation of Israel.

THen said the LORD unto me, Go yet, love a woman (beloved of her friend, yet an adulteress) according to the love of the LORD toward the children of Israel, who look to other gods, and love a flagons † of wine.

2 So I brought her to me for fifteen pieces of silver, and for an homer of barley, and an † half homer of barely.

3 And I said unto her, Thou shalt * abide for me many dayes, thou shalt not play the harlot, and thou shalt not be for another man, so will I also be for thee.

4 For the children of Israel shal abide many dayes without a king, and without a prince, and without a sacrifice, and without † an image, and without an ephod, and without teraphim.

5 Afterward shal the children of Israel return, and seek the LORD their God * and David their king, and shal fear the Lord, and his goodness in the * latter dayes.

CHAP. IV.

Gods judgements for idolatry.

HEar the word of the LORD, ye children of Israel, for the LORD hath a * controversie with the inhabitants of the land, because there is not truth nor mercy, nor kdowledge of God in the land.

2 By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they break out, and blood toucheth † bloud.

3 Therefore shal the land mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shal languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven, yea the fishes of the sea also shal be taken away.

4 Yet let no man strive, nor reprove another: for this people are as they that strive with the Priest.

5 Therefore shalt thou fall in the day, and the propher also shal fall with thee in the night, and I will † destroy thy mother.

6 My people are † destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

7 As they were increased so they sinned against me: therefore will I change their glory into shame.

8 They eat up the sin of my people, and they † set their heart on their iniquity.

9 And there shal be like people, like priest, and I will † punish them for their wayes, and † reward them their doings.

10 For they shal eat, and not have enough: they shal commit whoredom, and shal not increase, because they have left off to take heed to the LORD.

11 Whoredom, and wine, and new wine, take away the heart.

12 My people ask counsel at their stocks, and their staffe declareth unto them: for the spirit of whordoms hath caused them to erre, and they have gone a whoring from under their God.

13 They sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains, & burn incense upon the hills under oaks, and poplars, and elms, because the shadow thereof is good: therefore your daughters shal commit whoredom, and your spouses shal commit adultery.

14 I will not punish your daughters, when they commit whoredom, nor your spouses when they commit adultery: for themselves are separated with whores, & they sacrifice with harlots: therefore the people that doth not understand * shal fall.

15 Though thou Israel play the harlot, yet let not Judah offend, and come not ye unto Gilgal, neither go ye up to * Beth-aven, nor swear, The LORD liveth:

16 For Israel slideth back, as a back-sliding heifer: now the Lord will feed them as a lamb in a large place.

17 Ephraim is joyned to idols: let him alone.

18 Their drink † is sowre: they have committed whoredom continualy: her † rulers with shame do love, Give ye.

19 The wind hath bound her up in her wings, and they shal be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

CHAP. V.

Gods judgements against sin.

HEar ye this, O priests, and hearken ye house of Israel, and give ye ear, O house of the king: for judgement is toward you, because ye have been a snare on Mizpah, and a net spread upon Tabor.

2 And the revolters are profound to make slaughter, * though I have been a † rebuker of them all.

3 I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hid from me: for now, O Ephraim, thou committest whoredom, and Israel is defiled.

4 † They will not frame * their doings to turn unto their God: for the spirit of whoredoms is in the midst of them, and they have not known the LORD.

5 And the pride of Israel doth testifie to his face: therefore shal Israel and Ephraim fall in their iniquity: Judah also shal fall with them.

6 They shal go with their flocks, & with their herds, to seek the LORD: but they shal not find him, he hath withdrawn himself from them.

7 They have dealt treacherously against the Lord: for they have begotten strange children, now shal a moneth devour them with their portions.

8 Blow ye the corner in Gibeah, & the trumpet in Ramah: cry aloud at Beth-aven: after thee, O Benjamin.

9 Ephraim shal be desolate in the day of rebuke: among the tribes of Israel have I made known that which shal surely be.

10 The princes of Judah were like them that remove the bound: therefore I will pour out my wrath upon them like water.

11 Ephraim is oppressed, and broken in judgement: because he willingly walked after the commandment.

12 Therefore will I be unto Ephraim as a moth: and to the house of Judah as * rottenness.

15 ¶ I, will go, and return to my place, h till they acknowledge their offence, and seek my face: in their affliction they will seek me early.

CHAP. VI.

An exhortation to repentance.

COme, and let us return unto the LORD: a for he hath torn, and he will heal us: he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

2 * After two dayes will he revive us, in the third day he will raise us up, and we shal live in his sight.

3 b Then shal we know, if we follow on to know the Lord: his going forth is prepared as the morning; & he shal come unto us as the rain; as the latter, and former rain unto the earth.

4 ¶ O Ephraim, what shal I do unto thee? O Judah, what shal I do unto thee? for your * goodness is as a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goeth away.

5 Therefore have I hewed them by the prophets: c I have slain them by the words of my mouth, * & thy judgments are as the light that goeth forth

6 For I desired * mercy, and not sacrifice; and the knowledge of God, more than burnt-offerings.

7 But they * like men have transgressed me covenant: there have they dealt treacherously against me.

8 Gilead is a city of them that work iniquity, & is * pollured with blood.

9 And as troops of robbers wait for a man, so the company of priests murder in the way † by consent: for they commit lewdness.

10 I have seen an horrible thing in the house of Israel: There is the whordom of Ephraim, Israel is defiled

11 Also, O Judah, he hath set an harvest for thee, when I returned the captivity of my people.

CHAP. VII.

Wrath against hypocrisie.

WHen I would have healed Israel, then the iniquity of Ephraim was discovered and the † wickedness of Samaria, for they commit falshood: and the thief cometh in, and the troop of robbers † spoileth without.

2 And they † consider not in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness: now their own doings have beset them about, they are before my face.

3 They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes with their lies.

4 They are all adulterers, as an oven heated by the baker: * who ceaseth from raising after he hath kneaded the dough, until it be leavened.

5 In the day of our king, the princes have made him sick * with bottles of wine, he stretched out his hand with scorners.

6 For they have * made ready their heart like an oven, whiles they lie in wait: their baker sleepeth all the night, in the morning it burneth as a flaming fire.

7 They are all a hot as an oven, and have devoured their judges: all their kings are fallen, there is none among them that calleth unto me.

8 Ephraim he hath mixed himself among the people: Ephraim is a cake not turned.

9 Strangers have devoured his strength, and he knoweth it not: yea, gray hairs are here and there upon him, yet he knoweth not 10 And the * pride of Israel testifieth to his face, and they do not return to the Lord their God, nor seek him for all this.

11 ¶ Ephraim also is like a silly dove, without heart: b they call to Egypt, they go to Assyria.

12 When they shal go, I will spread my net upon them, I will bring them down as the fouls of the heaven: I will chastise them as their congregation hath heard.

13 Wo unto them, for they have fled from me: † destruction unto them, because they have transgressed against me: though I have redeemed them, yet they have spoken lies a gainst me.

14 And a they have not cried unto me with their heart, when they howled upon their beds: they assembled themselves for corn and wine, and they rebell against me.

15 Though I have * bound, and strengthened their arms, yet do they imagine mischief against me.

16 They return, but not to the most High: b they are like a deceitful bow: their princes shal fall by the sword, for the * rage of their tongue:
this shal be their derision in the land of Egypt.

CHAP. VIII.

Destruction threatned to Israel.

a SEt the trumpet to † thy mouth:
he shal come b as an eagle against the house of the LORD, because they have transgressed my covenant, and trespassed against my law.

2 Israel shal c cry unto me, My God, d we know thee.

3 Israel hath cast off the thing that is good: the enemy shal pursue him.

4 They have set up kings, but not by me: they have made princes and I knew it not: of their silver, and their gold have they made them idols, that they may be cut off.

5 ¶ Thy calf, O Samaria, hath cast thee off: mine anger is kindled against them; how long will it be ere they attain to innocency?

6 For from Israel was it also, the workman made it, therefore it is not

CHAP. IX.

The judgement of Israel.

REjoyce a not, O Israel, for joy, as other people: for thou hast gone a whoring from thy God, thou hast loved * a reward * upon every cornfloor.

2 The floor and the * wine-press shal not feed them, and the new wine shal fail in her.

3 They shal not dwell in the Lords land: but Ephraim shal a return to Egypt, and they shal b eat unclean things in Assyria.

4 They shal not c offer wine-offerings to the LORD: neither shal they be pleasing unto him: their sacrifices shal be unto them as the bread of mourners: all that eat thereof shal be polluted: for their bread d for their soul shal not come into the house of the LORD.

5 What will ye do in the solemn day, and in the day of * the feast of the LORD?

6 For lo, they are gone, because of † destruction: Egypt shal gather them up, Memphis shal bury them: * the pleasant places for their silver, e nettles shal possess them: thorns shal be in their tabernacles.

7 The dayes of visitation are come, the dayes of recompense are come, Israel shal know it: the propher is a fool, † the spiritual man is mad, for the multitude of thine iniquity, and the great hatred.

8 The watchman of Ephraim was with my God: but the prophet is a snare of a fowler, in all his ways, and hatred * in the house of his God.

9 They † have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of * Gibeah: therefore he will remember their iniquity, he will visit their sins.

10 f I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness: I saw your fathers as the first ripe in the fig-tree at her firstime: but they went to * Baal-peor, and separated themselves unto that shame, and their abominations were according as they loved.

11 As for Ephraim, their glory shal flee away like a bird from the birth; and from the womb, and from the conception.

12 Though they bring up their children, yet will g I bereave them, that there shal not be a man left: yea, wo also to them when I depart from them

13 Ephraim, h as I saw Tyrus, is planted in a pleasant place: but Ephraim shal bring forth his children to the murderer.

14 a Give them, O LORD: what wilt thou give? give them a † miscarrying womb, and dry breasts.

15 All their wickedness i is in Gilgal: for there I hated them: for the wickedness of their doings I will cast them out of mine house, I will love them no more: all their princes are revolters.

16 Ephraim is smitten, their root is dried up, they shal bear no fruit: yea, though they bring forth, yet will I slay even † the beloved fruit of their womb.

Israel reproved of idolatry.

ISrael is * an empty vine, he bringeth forth fruit unto himself: according to the multitude of his fruit, he hath increased the altars, according to the goodness of his land they have made † images.

2 † Their heart is divided: now shal they be found faulty: he shal † break down their altars: he shal spoil their images.

3 For (now they shal say) we have no king, because we feared not the LORD, what then should a king do to us?

4 They have spoken words, swearing falsly in making a covenant: thus judgement springeth up as hemlock in the furrows of the field.

5 The inhabitants of Samaria shal fear, because of the calves of Beth-aven: for the people thereof shal mourn over it, & the * priests thereof that rejoyced on it, for the glory thereof, because it is departed from it.

6 It shal be also carried unto Assyria for a present to * king Jareb: Ephraim shal receive shame, and Israel shal be ashamed of his own counsel.

10 It is in my desire that I should chastise them: and the people shal be gathered against them, * when they shal bind themselves in their two furrows.

11 And Ephraim is as an heiffer that is taught, and loveth to tread out the corn, but I passed over upon her fair neck: I will make Ephraim to ride: Judah shal plow, and Jacob shal break his clods.

The ingratitude of Iſrael.

WHen * Iſrael was a child, then I loved him, and * called my ſon out of Egypt.

2 As they called them, ſo they went from them: they ſacrificed unto Baalim, & burnt incenſe to graven images

6 And the ſword ſhal abide on his cities, and ſhal conſume his branches, and devor them, becauſe of their own counſels.

7 And my people are bent to backſliding from me: though they called them to the moſt High, † none at all would exalt him.

8 How ſhall I give thee up, Ephraim? how ſhal I deliver thee, Iſrael? how ſhal I make thee as * Admah? how ſhal I ſet thee as Zeboim? b mine heart is turned within me, my repentings are c kindled together.

9 I will not execute the fierceneſs of mine anger, I will not return to deſtroy Ephraim: for d I am God, and not man, the holy one in the midſt of thee, & I will not enter into the city.

10 They ſhal walk after the LORD he ſhal e roar like a lion: when he ſhal roar, then the children ſhal tremble from the weſt.

11 They ſhal tremble, as a bird out of Egypt, and f as a dove out of the land of Aſſyria: and I will place them in their houſes, ſaith the LORD.

CHAP. XII.

An Exhortation to repentance.

EPhraim feedeth on wind, and followeth after the eaſt wind: he daily encreaſeth lies and deſolation, and they do make a covenant with the Aſſyrians, & oyl is caried into Egypt.

2 The LORD hath alſo a controverſie with Judah, and will † puniſh Jacob according to his ways, according to his doings will he recompenſe him.

3 ¶ He took his brother * by the heel in the womb, and by his ſtrength he † * had power with God.

4 Yea, he had power over the angel and prevailed: he wept and made ſupplication unto him: he found him in * Bethel, & there he ſpake with us.

5 Even the LORD God of hoſts, the LORD is his * memorial.

6 Therefore return thou to thy God: keep mercy and judgement, and wait on thy God continually.

7 ¶ He is * a merchant, the balances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to * oppreſs.

9 And I that am the LORD thy God from the land of Egypt, will yet make thee to dwell in tabernacles, as in the days of the ſolemn feaſt.

10 I have alſo ſpoken by the prophets, and I have multiplied viſions and uſed ſimilitudes, † by the miniſtry of the prophets.

11 Is there iniquity in Gilead? ſurely they are vanity, They ſacrifice bullocks in * Gilgal, yea, their altars are as heaps in the furrows of the fields.

12 And Jacob * fled into the countrey of Syria, and Iſrael ſerved for * a wife, and for a wife he kept ſheep.

13 And * by a propher the LORD brought Iſrael out of Egypt, and by a propher was he preſerved.

14 Ephraim provoked him to anger † moſt bitterly: therefore ſhal he leave his † blood upon him, and his reproach ſhal his LORD return unto him.

CHAP. XIII.

Ephraims Glory Gods mercy.

WHen Ephraim ſpake trembling, he exalted himſelf in Iſrael: but when he offended in Baal, he died.

2 And now † they ſin more and more, and have made them molten images of their ſilver, and idols according to their own underſtanding, all of it the work of the craftmen; they ſay of them, Let the * men that ſacrifice, * kiſs the calves.

3 Therefore they ſhal be as the morning cloud, & b as the early dew that paſſeth away, as the chaff that is driven with a whirlwind out of the floor, and as the ſmoak out of the chimney.

JOEL.

CHAP. I.

Joel prescribeth a fast.

THe word of the LORD that came to Joel the son of Pethuel.

2 Hear this, ye old men, and give ear all ye inhabitants of the land: hath this been in your days, or even in the days of your fathers?

3 a Tell ye your children of it, & let your children tell their children, & their children another generation.

4 † That which the palmer-worm hath left, † hath the locust eaten: and that which the locust hath left, hath the canker-worm eaten, and that which the canker-worm hath left, hath the catterpillar eaten.

5 Awake ye drunkards, and weep, and howl all ye drinkers of wine, because of the new wine, for it is cut off from your mouth.

6 For a e nation is come up upon my land, strong and without number, whose teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he hath the cheek-teeth of a great lion.

7 He hath laid my vine waste: and † barked my fig-tree: he hath made it clean bare, and cast it away, the branches thereof are made white.

8 ¶ Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth d for the husband of her youth.

9 The meat-offering, and the drink-offering is cut off from the house of the LORD, the priests the LORDS ministers mourn.

10 The field is wasted, the land mourneth; for the corn is wasted, the new wine is * dried up, the oil languisheth.

11 Be ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen; f howl, O ye vine-dressers, for the wheat, and for the barley; because the harvest of the field is perished.

12 The vine is dried up, and the fig-tree languisheth: the pomegranate-tree, the palm-tree also, and the apple-tree, even all the trees of the field are withered: because g joy is withered away from the sons of men.

13 Gird your selves, and lament, ye priests: howl ye ministers of the altar: come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God: for the meat-offering, & the drink-offering is withholden from the house of your God.

14 ¶ * Sanctifie ye a fast: call a * solemn assembly: gather the elders, and all the inhabitants of the land into the house of the Lord your God, and b cry unto the LORD.

15 i Alas for the day, for * the day of the Lord is at hand, & as a destruction from the Almighty shal it come.

16 Is not the meat cut off before your eyes, yea, & joy and gladness from the house of our God?

17 The † seed is rotten under their clods: the garners are laid desolate: the barns are broken down: i for the corn is withered.

18 a How do the beasts groan? the herds of cattle are perplexed, because they have no pasture; yea, the flocks of sheep are made desolate.

19 O LORD, to the will I cry: for the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and the flame hath burnt all the trees of the field.

20 The beasts of the field b cry also unto thee: for the rivers of waters are dried up, and the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

CHAP. II.

Gods judgements, he exhorteth to repentance

BLow ye the * trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain; let all the inhabitants of the land tremble; for the a day of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at hand.

2 A b day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains: a c great people and a strong, a there hath not been ever the like, neither shal be any more after it, even to the years † of many generations.

behind them a flame burneth: the land is as the e garden of Eden before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness, yea, and nothing shall escape them.

4 f The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses, and as horsemen, so shall they run.

5 Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains g shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in a battel aray.

6 Before their face the people shall be much pained: all faces shall gather † blackness.

7 They shall run like mighty men, they shall climb the wall like men of war, and they shall march every one on his wayes, and they shall not break their ranks.

8 Neither shall one thrust another, they shall walk every one in his path: and when they fall upon the * sword, they shall not be wounded.

9 They shall run to and fro in the city: they shall run up on the wall, they shall climb up upon the houses: they shall enter in at the windows like a thief.

10 The * earth shall quake † before them, the heavens shall tremble, b the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining.

11 And the LORD shall utter his voice before his army: for his camp is very great: for he is strong that executeth his word. for the * day of the LORD is great and very terrible, and who can abide it?

12 ¶ Therefore also now, saith the LORD, c Turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning.

13 b And rent your heart and not your garments, and turn unto the LORD your God: For he is c gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil.

14 d Who knoweth if he will return and repent, and leave a blessing behind him, even a meat-offering, and a drink-offering unto the LORD your God?

15 ¶ f Blow the trumpet in Zion, g sanctifie a fast, call a solemn assembly

16 Gather the people: h sanctifie the congregation: assemble the elders: gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the bridgroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet.

17 Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep i between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O Lord, & give not thy heritage to reproach, that the heathen should * rule over them: k wherefore should they say among the people, Where is there God?

18 ¶ Then will the Lord be l jealous for his land, and pity his people:

19 Yea, the LORD will answer and say unto his people, Behold, I will send you corn and wine, and oyl, and ye shall be satisfied therewith; and I will no more make you a reproach among the heathen.

20 But I will remove far off from you the northern army, and will drive him m into a land barren and desolate, with his face towards the east sea, and his hinder part towards the utmost sea, and his stink shall come up, and his ill savour shall come up, because † he hath done great things.

21 ¶ Fear not, O land, be glad and rejoyce: for the LORD will do great things.

22 Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field: for the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth her fruit, the fig-tree and the vine do yield n their strength.

23 Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoyce in the LORD your God: for he hath given you the * former rain † moderatly; and he o will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first moneth.

24 And the floors shall be full of wheat, and the fats shall overflow with wine and oyl.

25 And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the canker worm, and the catterpiller, and the palmer-worm, my great army which I sent among you.

26 And ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, that hath dealt wonderously with you: and my people shall never be ashamed.

27 And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the Lord your God, and none else: and my people shall never be ashamed.

28 And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will a pour out my Spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesie, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions:

29 And also upon the servants, and upon the handmaids in those days, will I pour out my Spirit.

30 And I will shew b wonders in the heavens, and in the earth, blood and fire, and pillars of smoak.

31 c The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the LORD come.

32 And it shall come to pass, that d whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered; for in mount Zion, and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the e LORD hath said, and in f the remnant whom the LORD shall call.

CHAP. III.

God will be known in his judgment.

FOr behold, in those days, and in that time, when I shall bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem,

2 I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat, and will plead with them there for my people, and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land.

3 And they have b cast lots for my people, and have given a boy for an harlot, and sold a girle for wine, that they might drink.

4 Yea, and what have ye to do with me, O Tyre and Zidon, and all the coasts of Palestine? will ye render me a d recompense? and if ye recompense me, swiftly and speedily will I

CHAP. I.

Gods judgment upon Syria.

THE words of Amos, who was among the herdmen of a Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel, in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two year before the * earth-quake.

2 And he said, The LORD will * roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem: and the habitations of the shepherds shall mourn, and the top of Carmel shall wither.

3 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of Damascus, and † for four I will not turn † away the punishment thereof: because they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron.

4 But I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, which shal devour the palaces of Benhadad.

5 I will break also the bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from the * plain of Aven, and him that holdeth the sceptre from the * house of Eden, and the people of Syria shal go into captivity unto Kir, saith the LORD.

6 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of * Gaza, and for four I will not turn away the punishment thereof: because they † carried away captive the whole captivity, to deliver them up to Edom.

7 But I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, which shal devour the palaces thereof.

8 And I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod, and him that holdeth the sceptre from Ashkelon, and I will turn mine hand against Ekron: and the remnant of the Philistines shal perish, saith the LORD GOD.

9 Thus saith the Lord, For three transgressions of a Tyrus, & for four I will not turn away the punishment thereof: because they delivered up the whole captivity to Edom, and remembred not † the b brotherly covenant.

10 But I will send a fire on the wall of Tyrus, which shal devour the palaces thereof.

11 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of c Edom, & for four I will not turn away the punishment thereof: because he did pursue his brother with the sword, and did † cast off all pity, and his anger did tear perpetually, and kept his wrath for ever.

12 But I will send a fire upon Teman, which shal devour the palaces of Bozrah.

13 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of the children of Ammon, and for four I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have ript up the women with child of Gilead, that they might enlarge their border.

14 But I will kindle a fire in the wall of e Rabbah, and it shal devour the palaces thereof, with shouting in the day of battel, with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind.

15 And their king shal go into captivity, he, and his princes together, saith the LORD.

four, I will b not turn away the punishment thereof, because he * burnt the bones of the king of Edom into lime.

2 But I will send a fire upon Moab, and it shal devour the palaces of Kerioth, and Moab shal die with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the trumper.

3 And I will cut off c the judge from the midst thereof, and will slay all the princes thereof with him, saith the LORD.

4 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; for three transgressions of Judah, and for four I will not turn away the punishment thereof: because they have despised the law of the LORD, and have not kept his commandments, and their lies caused them to err, after the which their fathers have walked.

5 But I will send a fire upon Judah, and it shal devour the palaces of Jerusalem.

6 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, for three transgressions of Israel, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof, because * they sold the righteous for silver, and the poor for a pair of shoes.

7 That pant after the dust of the earth on the head of the poor, & turn aside the way of the meek; and a man, and his father will go in unto the same * maid to profane my holy name,

8 And they lay themselves down upon the clothes b laid to pledge, by every altar, and they drink the wine of the * condemned in the house of their god.

9 ¶ Yet destroyed I * the c Amorite before them, d whose height was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed his e fruit from above, and his roots from beneath.

10 Also f I brought you up from the land of * Egypt, and led you fourty years through the wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorites.

11 And I raised up of your sons for prophets, and of your young men for h Nazarites, Is it not even thus, O ye children of Israel, saith the LORD?

12 But ye gave the Nazarites wine to drink, and commanded the i prophets, * saying, Prophesie not:

13 Behold, I am pressed under you, as a cart is pressed that is full of sheaves.

14 Therefore the flight shal perish from the swift, and the strong shal not strengthen his force, neither shal the mighty deliver † himself:

15 Neither shal he stand that handleth the bow, and he that is swift of foot, shal not deliver himself, neither shal he that rideth the horse, deliver himself.

16 And he that is † couragious among the mighty, shal flee away naked in that day, saith the LORD.

CHAP. III.

Gods judgments against Israel.

HEar this word that the LORD hath spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying,

2 You only have I known of all the families of the earth; therefore I will † punish you for all your iniquities.

3 Can two walk together, except they be agreed?

4 Will b a lion roar in the forrest, when he hath no prey? will a young lion † cry out of his den, if he hath taken nothing?

5 Can c a bird fall in a snare upon the earth, where no gin is for him? shal one take up a snare from the earth, and have taken nothing at all?

6 Shal a trumpet be blown in the city, and the people * not be afraid, d shal there be evil in a city * and the LORD hath not done it?

7 Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he e revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets.

8 The lion hath roared, who will not fear? the Lord GOD hath spoken, who can but prophesie?

9 ¶ Publish in the palaces at Ashdod, and in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say, assemble your selves upon the mountains of Samaria: and behold the great tumults in the midst thereof, and the * oppressed, in the midst thereof.

10 For they know not to do right, saith the LORD, who store up violence, and * robbery in their palaces.

11 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, f an adversarie there shal be even round about the land: and he shal bring down thy strength from thee, and thy palaces shal be spoiled.

12 Thus saith the LORD, as the shepherd † taketh out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear, so shal the children of Israel be taken out that dwell in Samaria, in the corner of a bed, and in Damascus * in a couch.

13 Hear ye, and testifie in the house of Jacob, saith the Lord GOD, the God of hosts:

14 That in the day that I shal * visit the transgressions of Israel upon him, I will also visit the altars of Beth-el, and the horns of the altar shal be cut off, and fall to the ground.

15 And I will smite the g winter-house with the summer-house, and the houses of b ivory shal perish, and the great houses shal have an end, saith the LORD.

CHAP. IV.

Israel reproved for oppression.

HEar this word ye a kine of Bashan that are in the mountain of Samaria, which oppress the poor, which b crush the needy, which say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink.

2 The Lord GOD hath sworn by his holiness, that lo, the days shal come upon you, that he will take you away with hooks, and your posterity b with fish-hooks.

3 And ye shal go out at the breaches, every cow at that which is before her, and * ye shal cast them into the palace, saith the LORD.

4 ¶ c Come to Beth-el and transgress, at Gilgal multiply transgression; and bring your sacrifices every morning, and your tithes after † three years.

5 And † offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leaven, and proclaim and publish the free-offerings: for † this liketh you, O ye children of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAP. V.

A lamentation for Israel.

HEar ye this word which I take up against you, even a lamentation, O house of Israel.

2 a The virgin of Israel is fallen, she shal no more rise: she is forsaken upon her land, there is none to raise her up.

3 For thus saith the Lord GOD, The city that went out by a thousand, shal leave an hundred, and that which went forth by an hundred, shal leave ten to the house of Israel.

4 ¶ For thus saith the LORD unto the house of Israel, b Seek ye me, and ye shal live.

5 But seek not  c Beth-el, nor enter into Gilgal, & pass not to d Beersheba: for Gilgal shal surely go into captivity, and e Beth-el shal come to nought.

6 Seek the LORD, and ye shal live, lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and devour it, and there be none to quench it in Beth-el.

7 Ye who a turn judgment  to worm-wood, and leave off righteousness in the earth.

8 Seek him that b maketh the  seven stars and Orion, and turneth the shadow of death into the morning, and maketh e the day dark with night: that  calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: the LORD is his name.

9 That strengtheneth the † spoiled against the strong: so that the spoiled shal come against the fortress.

10 They hate him that d rebuketh in the gate: and they abhor him that speaketh uprightly.

11 Forasmuch therefore as your treading is upon the poor, and ye take from him burdens of wheat,  e ye have built houses of hewen stone, but ye shal not dwell in them: ye have planted † pleasant vineyards, but ye shal not drink wine of them.

12 For I know your manifold transgressions, and your mighty sins: they afflict the just, they take  a bribe, and they turn aside the poor in the gate from their right.

13 Therefore the prudent shal keep silence in that time: for it is an evil time.

14 Seek good and not evil, that ye may live: and so the LORD, the God of hosts, shal be with you; as ye have spoken.

15  f* Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gates: g it may be that the Lord God of hosts will be gracious unto the remnant of Joseph.

16 Therefore the LORD, the God of hosts, the LORD saith thus, wailing shall be in all streets, and they shal say in all the high ways, Alas, alas: and they shal call the husbandman to mourning, and h such as are skilful of lamentation, to wailing.

17 And in all vineyards shall be wailing; for I will pass through thee, saith the LORD.

18  i* Wo unto you k that desire the day of the LORD: to what end is it for you: the day of the LORD is darkness, and not light.

19 l As if a man did flee from a lion and a bear met him, or went into the house, and leaned his hand upon the wall, and a serpent bit him.

20 Shal not the day of the LORD be darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it?

21 ¶  I hate, I despise your feast days, and I will  not smell in your solemn assemblies.

22 Though ye offer me burnt-offerings, and your meat-offerings, I will not accept them, neither will I regard the  peace-offerings of your fat beasts.

23 Take thou away from me the noise of thy songs; for I will not hear the melody of thy viols.

24 But let judgment run down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream.

25 * Have ye offered unto me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness fourty years, O house of Israel?

26 But ye have born the  tabernacle of your Moloch, and Chiun your images, the a star of your God, which ye made to your selves.

CHAP. VII.

The judgment of grashoppers.

THus hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me, and behold, he formed * grashoppers in the a beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth, and lo, it was the latter growth after the kings mowings.

2 And it came to pass, that when they had made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, O Lord GOD, forgive, I beseech thee; * by whom shal Jacob arise? for he is small.

3 The b LORD repented for this, It shal not be, saith the LORD.

4 ¶ Thus hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me, and behold, the Lord GOD called to contend c by fire, and it devoured d the great deep, c and did eat up a part.

5 Then said I, O Lord GOD, cease I beseech thee; by whom shal Jacob arise? for he is small.

6 The LORD repented for this: This also shal not be, saith the Lord GOD.

7 ¶ Thus he shewed me, and behold, the LORD stood upon a wall made by a plumb-line, with a plumb-line in his hand.

8 And the LORD said unto me, Amos, what seest thou? and I said, A plumb-line. Then said the LORD, Behold, I will set a plumb-line in the midst of my people Israel, I will not again pass by them any more.

9 And the high places of Isaac shal be desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel shal be laid waste: and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.

10 ¶ Then f Amaziah the priest of Beth-el g sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, Amos hath conspired against thee, in the midst of the house of Israel; the land is not able to bear all his words.

11 For thus Amos saith, b Jeroboam shal die by the sword, and Israel shal surely be led away captive out of their own land.

12 Also Amaziah said unto Amos, O thou seer, go, flee thee away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesie there.

13 k But prophesie not again any more at Beth-el: for it is the kings * chappel, and it is the kings † court.

14 ¶ Then answered Amos, and said to Amaziah, I was l no prophet, neither was I a prophets son; but I was an m herdman, and a gatherer of * sycomore fruit.

15 And the LORD took me † as I followed the flock, and the LORD said unto me, Go, prophesie unto my people Israel.

16 ¶ Now therefore hear thou the word of the LORD: Thou sayest, Prophesie not against Israel, & * drop not thy word against the house of Isaac.

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD, a Thy wife shal be an b harlot in the city, and thy sons and thy daughters shal fall by the sword, and thy land shal be divided by line: and c thou shalt die in a polluted land, and Israel shal surely go into captivity forth of his land.

CHAP. VIII.

A famine of the word threatned.

THus hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me, and behold, a basket of summer fruit.

2 And he said, Amos, What seest thou? And I said, A basket of summer fruit. Then said the LORD unto me, The end is come upon my people of Israel; I will not again pass by them any more.

3 And the a songs of the temples † shal be howlings in that day, saith the Lord GOD: there shal be many b dead bodies in every place, they shal cast them forth † with silence.

4 ¶ Hear this, O ye that swallow up the needy, even to make the poor of the land to fail,

CHAP. IX.

The certainty of the desolation.

I Saw the LORD standing upon the altar, a and he said, Smite the * lintel of the door that the posts may shake: and * cut them in the head all of them, & I will slay the last of them with the sword: he that fleeth of them shal not flee away; and he that escapeth of them, shal not be delivered.

2 * Though they dig into hell, thence shal mine hand take them: b though they climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down:

3 And though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out thence: and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the serpent, and he shal bite them.

4 And though they go into captivity before their enemies, c thence will I command the sword, and it shal slay them: and d I will set mine eyes upon them for evil and not for good.

5 And the Lord GOD of hosts is he that toucheth the land, and it shal melt, and all that dwell therein shal mourn: and it shal rise up wholly like a flood, and shal be drowned as by the flood of Egypt.

6 It is he that buildeth his * stories in the heaven, and hath founded his * troop in the earth: he that * calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: the LORD is his name.

7 Are ye not as children of the Ethiopians unto me, O children of Israel, saith the LORD? have not I brought up Israel out of the land of Egypt? and the * Philistines e from Caphtor, and † the Syrians from Kir.

8 Behold, the eyes of the Lord GOD are upon the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the face of the earth, saving, That I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob, saith the LORD.

9 For lo, I will command, and I will † sift the house of Israel among all nations like as corn is sifted in a sieve, yet shal not the least * grain fall upon the earth.

10 All the sinners of my people shal die by the sword, which say, The evil shal not overtake nor prevent us.

11 ¶ In that day will I raise up the * tabernacle of David that is fallen, and † close up the breaches thereof, and I will raise up his ruines, and I will build it as in the days of old.

12 That they may possess the remnant of Edom, and of all the heathen, † which are called by my name, saith the LORD, that doth this.

13 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the plowman shal overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him that † soweth seed, and the mountains shal drop § * sweet wine, and all the hills shal melt.

14 And I will bring again the captivity of my people of Israel: and they a shal build the waste cities, and inhabit them: and they shal plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof: they shal also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them.

15 b And I will plant them upon their land, and they shal no more be pulled up out of their land which I have given them, saith the LORD thy God.

¶ JONAH.

CHAP. I.

Jonah sent to Nineveh.

§ Called Mat. 12. 39 Jonas Gen. 10 11, 12. a Acts 21. 39 Gen. 10. 4 † Called also Joppa Acts 9. 36 Josh. 19. 46 2 Chr. 2. 16 7 Heb. cast forth † Heb. thought to be broken

NOw the word of the LORD came unto § Jonah the son of Amittai, saying,

2 Arise, go to Nineveh that § great city, and cry against it: for their wickedness is come up before me.

3 But Jonah rose up to flee unto a Tarshish from the presence of the Lord, and went down to † Joppa, and he found a ship going to Tarshish: so he payed the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish from the presence of the Lord.

4 ¶ But the LORD † sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship † was like to be broken.

5 Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto his god, & cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them: but Jonah was gone down into the sides of the ship, & he lay, & was fast asleep.

6 So the ship-master came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.

7 And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they c cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah.

c Pro. 16. 33

8 Then said they unto him, Tell us we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us? what † is thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? & of what people art thou?

† Heb. thy works

9 And he said unto them, I am an Hebrew, and I fear the LORD the God of heaven, which hath made the sea, and the dry land.

† Heb. with great fear

10 Then were the men † exceedingly afraid, and said unto him: Why hast thou done this; (for the men knew that he fled from the presence of the Lord, because he had told them.)

† Heb. may be silent from Or, § wrought, and was tempestuous

11 ¶ Then said they unto him, What shal we do unto thee, that the sea † may be calm unto us? (for the sea § wrought, and was tempestuous)

12 And he said unto them, Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea, so shal the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for my sake this great tempest is upon you.

† Heb. went hard to bring it to the land, but they could not: for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous against them:

13 Nevertheless the men † rowed

† Heb. stood

14 Wherefore they cryed unto the Lord, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish, for this mans life, and lay not upon us innocent blood: for thou, O LORD, hast done as it pleased thee.

† Heb. sacrificed vows

15 So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea, and the sea § ceased from her raging.

§ Mat. 12. 40

16 Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly, and † offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, and made vows.

16, 4 Ju. 11 † Heb. bowels § Psal. 10. 1 Or, out of mine affliction

17 ¶ Now the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow up § Jonah. and Jonah was in the † belly of the fish three days, and three nights.

CHAP. II.

Jonah delivered from the fish.

THen Jonah prayed unto the Lord his God out of the fishes belly,

2 And said, I § cried § by reason of mine affliction unto the LORD, and he

he heard me, out of the belly of § hell cried I, and thou heardest my voice.
3 For thou hadst cast me into the deep in the † midst of the seas, and the floods compassed me about: all thy billows & thy waves passed over me.
4 Then I said, I am cast out of thy sight: yet I will look again toward thy holy temple.
5 The § waters compassed me about even to the soul: the depth closed me round about; the weeds were wrapt about my head.
6 I went down to † the bottoms of the mountains: the earth with † her bars was about me for ever: yet hast thou brought up my life from § corruption, O LORD my God.
7 When my soul fainted within me, I remembered the LORD, and my prayer came in unto thee, into thine holy temple.
8 They that observe † lying vanities, forsake their own mercy.
9 But I will sacrifice unto thee with the voice of § thanksgiving, I will pay that that I have vowed; § salvation is of the LORD.
10 ¶ And the LORD spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.

CHAP. III.

Jonah preacheth to the Ninevites.

AND the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the second time, saying,
2 Arise, go unto Nineveh that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee.
3 So Jonah arose, and went unto Nineveh, according to the word of the Lord: now Nineveh was an † exceeding great city, of three days journey.
4 And Jonah began to enter into the city a days journey, and he cried, and said, § Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown.
5 ¶ So the people of Nineveh § believed God, & proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them, even to the least of them.
6 For word came unto the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with a sackcloth, and sat b in ashes.
7 And he caused it to be proclaimed, and † published through Nineveh, (by the decree of the king and his † nobles) saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock taste any thing; let them not feed, nor drink water.
8 But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry † mightily unto God: yea, let them turn every one from his evil way, and from the c violence that is in their hands.
9 § Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?
10 ¶ And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way, and d God repented of the evil that he had said, that he would do unto them, and he did it not.

CHAP. IV.

Jonah repineth at Gods mercy, &c.

BUT it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry.
2 And he prayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, § O Lord, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore I fled before unto Tarshish: for I know that thou art a § gracious God and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil.
3 Therefore now, O LORD, take, I beseech thee, my life from me, for † it is better for me to die than to live.
4 ¶ Then said the LORD, § Doest thou well to be angry?
5 So Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might see what would become of the city.
6 And the Lord GOD prepared a § gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his grief. So Jonah was † exceeding glad of the gourd.
7 But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd that it withered.
8 And it came to pass when the sun did arise, that God prepared § a vehement east wind, and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and wished in himself to die, and said, it is better for me to die, than to live.
9 § And God said unto Jonah, § Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? and he said, § I do well to be angry, even unto death.
10 Then said the LORD, Thou hast § had pity on the gourd, for the which thou hast not laboured, neither madest it grow, which † came up in a night, and perished in a night:
11 And should not I spare Nineveh, that great city, wherein are more than six score thousand persons, that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand, and also much cattel?

¶ MICAH.

CHAP. I.

Gods wrath against Jacob, &c.

THE word of the LORD that came to Micah the Morasthite, in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.
2 † Hear § all ye people, hearken O earth, and † all that therein is, and let the Lord God be witness against you, the Lord from his holy temple.
3 For behold, § the LORD cometh forth out of his § place, and will come down and tread upon the § high places of the earth.
4 And § the mountains shall be molten under him, and the valleys shall be cleft: as wax before the fire, and as the waters that are poured down a † steep place.
5 For the transgression of Jacob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Israel: what is the transgression of Jacob? is it not Samaria? and what are the high places of Judah? are they not Jerusalem?

CHAP. II.

A reproof of injustice and idolatry.

WO to them that a devise iniquity, and work evil b upon their beds, when the c morning is light they practise it, because it is in the power of their hand.

2 And they covet * fields, and take them by violence: and houses, and take them away: so they * oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage.

3 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, against this family do I devise an evil, from which ye shal not remove your necks, neither shal ye go haughtily: for this time is evil.

4 ¶ In that day shal one take up a parable against you, and lament with a † doleful lamentation, and say, we be utterly spoiled: he hath changed the portion of my people: how hath he removed it from me: * turning away he hath divided our fields.

5 ¶ Therefore thou shalt have none that shal * cast a cord by lot in the congregation of the LORD.

6 * † Prophesie ye not, say they to them that prophesie; a they shal not prophesie to them, that they shal not take shame.

7 ¶ O thou that are named the house of Jacob, is the b spirit of the * LORD * straitned? are these his doings, do not my words do good to him that walketh † uprightly.

8 † Even of late my people is risen up as an enemy: ye pull off the robe † with the garment, from them that pass by securely, as men averse from war.

9 The † women of my people have ye cast out from their pleasant houses, from their children have ye taken away my glory for ever.

10 Arise ye and depart, for this is not your rest: because it is polluted, it shal destroy you even with a sore destruction.

11 If a man † walking in the spirit and falshood, do lie, saying, I will prophesie unto thee of wine and of strong drink, he shal even be the prophet of this people.

12 ¶ I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all of thee: I will surely gather the remnant of Israel, I will put them together as the sheep of Bozrah, as the flock in the midst of their fold, they shal make a great noise by reason of the multitude of men.

13 The breaker is come up before them: they have broken up, and have passed thorow the gate, and are gone out by it, and their king shal pass before them, and the LORD on the head of them.

CHAP. III.

The cruelty of the princes.

AND I said, Hear, I pray you, O heads of Jacob, and ye princes of the house of Israel: Is it not for you to know d judgment?

2 Who hate the good, & love the evil, who pluck off their skin from off them and their flesh from off their bones:

3 b Who also eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them, and they break their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as flesh within the caldron.

4 d Then shal they cry unto the LORD, but he will not hear them: he will even hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings.

5 ¶ Thus saith the LORD a concerning the prophets that make my people err, that b bite with their teeth, and cry, peace: and he that putteth not into their mouths, they even prepare war against him:

6 d Therefore e night shall be unto you † that ye shal not have a vision, and it shal be dark unto you, † that ye shal not divine, and the sun shal go down over the prophets, and the day shal be dark over them.

7 Then shal the f seers be ashamed, and the diviners confounded: yea, they shal all † cover their lips, for there is no answer of God.

8 ¶ But truly I am full of power by the Spirit of the LORD, and of judgment, and of might, g to declare unto Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin.

9 Hear this, I pray you, ye heads of the house of Jacob, and princes of the house of Israel, that abhor judgment, and pervert all equity.*

10 They b build up Zion with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity.

12 Therefore shall Zion for your sake be ploughed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house, as the high places of the forrest.

CHAP. IV.

The glory of the church, &c.

BUt in the a last days it shall come to pass, that the b mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills, and people shall flow unto it.

2 And many nations shall come, and say, Come & let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Jacob, and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zion, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

3 ¶ And he shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations c afar off, and they shall beat their swords into d plow-shares, and their spears into * pruning hooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

4 But they shall e sit every man under his vine, and under his fig-tree, and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it.

5 For all people will walk every one in the name of his God, and we will walk in the Name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.

6 In that day, saith the LORD, g will I assemble her that halteth, and I will gather her that is driven out, and her that I have afflicted.

7 And I will make her that b halted a remnant, and her that was cast far off, a strong nation; and the Lord a shall reign over them in mount Zion, from henceforth even for ever.

8 ¶ And thou, b O tower of the flock, the strong hold of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come, even the first dominion, the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem.

9 ¶ Now why doest thou d cry out aloud? is there no king in thee? is thy counsellour perished? for pangs have taken thee, as a woman in travail.

10 Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail, for now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt go even to Babylon: there shalt thou be delivered: there the Lord shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies.

11 ¶ Now also many nations are gathered against thee, that say, Let her e be defiled, and let f our eye look upon Zion.

12 But they knew not the thoughts of the LORD, neither understand they g his counsel: for he shall gather them as the sheaves into the floor.

13 b Arise, and thresh, O daughter of Zion: for I will make † thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass, and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: and I will consecrate their gain unto the LORD, and their substance unto the LORD of the whole earth.

CHAP. V.

The birth of Christ.

NOw gather thy self in troops, O daughter of troops: he hath laid siege against us: they shall smite the judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek.

2 But thou a Beth-lehem b Ephratah though * thou be little among the c thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me, that is to be ruler in Israel: whose going forth have been from of old, † from everlasting.

3 Therefore will he give them up, d until the time that she which travaileth, hath brought forth: then the remnant of his brethren shall return unto the children of Israel.

4 ¶ And he shall stand and * feed in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the Lord his God, and they shall abide: for now shall he be great unto the ends of the earth.

5 And this man shall be the peace, when the Assyrian shall come into our land: and when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we raise against him seven shepherds, and eight † principal men,

6 And they shall † waste the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod * in the entrances thereof: thus shall he deliver us from the Assyrians, when he cometh into our land, and when he treadeth within our borders.

7 And the remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many people, a as a dew from the LORD, as the showers upon the grass, b that tarrieth not for man, nor waiteth for the sons of men.

8 ¶ And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles, in the midst of many people, as a lion among the beasts of the forrest, as a young lion among the flocks of * sheep, who if he go through, both treadeth down, and reareth in pieces, and none can deliver.

9 Thine hand shall be lift up upon thine adversaries, and all thine enemies shall be cut off.

10 d And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, that e I will cut off thy horses out of the midst of thee, and I will destroy thy chariots.

11 And I will cut off the cities of thy land, and throw down all thy strong holds:

12 And I will cut off witchcrafts out of thine hand, and thou shalt have no more soothsayers.

13 Thy graven images also will I cut off, and thy * standing images out of the midst of thee, and thou shalt no more worship the work of thine hands.

14 And I will pluck up thy g groves out of the midst of thee: so will I destroy thy * cities.

15 And I will execute vengeance in anger, and fury upon the heathen, such as b they have not heard.

a Hear ye. O mountains, the Lords controversie, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for the LORD hath a controversie with his people, and he will plead with Israel.

3 O my people, a what have I done unto thee, and wherein have I wearied thee? testifie against me.

4 For I brought thee up out of the land of c Egypt, and redeemed thee out of the house of servants, & I sent before thee, Moses, Aaron & Miriam.

5 O my people, remember now what f Balak king of Moab consulted, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him from g Shittim unto Gilgal, that ye may know the righteousness of the LORD.

6 Wherewith shal I come before the LORD, and bow my self before the high God? shal I come before him with burnt-offerings, with † calves of a year old?

7 Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oyl? shal I give my first-born for my transgression, the fruit of my † body for the sin of my soul?

8 He hath b shewed thee, O man, what is good: and what doth the LORD require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to † walk humbly with thy God?

9 The LORDS voice crieth unto the city, and § the man of wisdom shal see thy name: hear ye the rod, and who hath appointed it.

10 ¶ § Are there yet the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the † scant measure that is abominable?

11 § Shall I count them pure with the wicked ballances, and with the bag of deceitful weights?

12 For the rich men thereof are full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof have spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.

13 Therefore also will I make thee sick in smiting thee, in making thee desolate, because of thy sin.

14 Thou shalt eat, but not be satisfied, and thy casting down shall be in the midst of thee, and thou shalt take hold, but shalt not deliver, and that which thou deliverest, will I give up to the sword.

15 Thou shalt a sow, but thou shalt not reap: thou shalt tread the olives, but thou shalt not anoint thee with oyl, and sweet wine, but shalt not drink wine.

16 ¶ For § the statures of b Omri are kept, and all the works of the house of Ahab, and ye walk in their counsels, that I should make thee a § desolation, and the inhabitants thereof an hissing: therefore ye shal bear the reproach of my people.

CHAP. VII.

The churches complaint.

WO is me, for I am as when they have gathered the † summer fruits, as the grape gleanings of the vintage: there is no cluster to eat: my soul desired the first ripe fruit.

2 b The § good man is perished out of the earth, and there is none upright among men, they all lie in wait for blood: they hunt every man his brother with a net.

3 ¶ That they may do evil with both hands earnestly, the prince asketh, and the judge asketh for a reward: and the great man he uttereth his † mischievous desire; so they wrap it up.

4 The best of them is as a brier: the most upright is sharper than a thorn-hedge: the day of thy watchmen, and thy visitation cometh; now shal be their perplexity.

5 ¶ Trust ye not in a friend, put ye not confidence in a guide: keep the doors of thy mouth from her that lyeth in thy bosom.

6 For a the son dishonoureth the father: the daughter riseth up against her mother: the daughter in law against her mother in law; & a mans enemies are the men of his own house.

7 Therefore I will look unto the LORD: I will wait for the God of my salvation: my God will hear me.

8 ¶ Rejoice not against me, O mine enemy: when I fall, I shal arise; when I sit in darkness, the LORD shal be a light unto me.

9 I will bear the indignation of the LORD, because I have sinned against him, until he plead my cause, and execute judgment for me: he will bring me forth to the light, and I shal behold his righteousness.

10 Then § she that is mine enemy shal see it and shame shal cover her b which said unto me, Where is the LORD thy God? mine eyes shall behold her, now shal† she be troden down as the mire of the streets.

11 In the day that thy c walls are to be built, in that day shal the decree be far removed.

12 In that day also d he shal come even to thee from Assyria, and § from the fortified cities, and from the fortresse, even to the river, and from sea to sea, & from mountain to mountain.

13 § Notwithstanding the land shal be desolate, because of them that dwell therein, for the fruit of their doings.

14 ¶ † Feed thy people with thy rod, the flock of thine heritage, which dwelleth solitary in the wood, in the midst of Carmel: let them feed in Bashan & Gilead, as in the days of old.

15 According to the days of thy coming out of the land of Egypt will I shew unto him marvellous things.

16 ¶ The nations shal see, and be confounded at all their might: they shal lay their hand upon their mouth: their ears shal be deaf.

17 They shal lick the f dust like a serpent, they shal move out of their holes like § worms of the earth, they shal be afraid of the LORD our God, and shal fear because of thee.

18 Who is a God like unto thee, that g pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever: because he delighteth in mercy.

19 He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us: he will subdue our iniquities, and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.

20 Thou wilt perform the truth to Jacob, and the mercy to Abraham, which thou hast sworn unto our fathers from the days of old.

CHAP. I.

Gods majesty and goodness.

THE burden of Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

2 * God is a jealous, and the Lord revengeth: the LORD revengeth and is furious, the LORD will take vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies.

3 The LORD is † slow to anger, & great in power, & will not at all acquit the wicked; the Lord hath his way in the whirlwind, and in the storm, & the clouds are the dust of his feet.

4 He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and dryeth up all the rivers: Bashan languisheth, and Carmel, and the flower of Lebanon languisheth.

5 The mountains quake at him, and the hills melt, and the earth is burnt at his presence, yea, the world and all that dwell therein.

6 Who can stand before his indignation? and who can † abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him.

7 The LORD is good, a * strong hold in the day of trouble, and he knoweth them that trust in him.

8 But with an over-running flood he will make an utter end of the place thereof, and darkness shal pursue his enemies.

9 What do ye imagine against the LORD? he will make an utter end: affliction shal not rise up the second time.

10 For while they be folden together as thorns, and while they are drunken as drunkards, they shal be devoured as stubble fully dry.

11 There is one come out of thee, that imagineth evil against the Lord: a † wicked counseller.

12 Thus saith the LORD, * though they be quier, and likewise many, yet thus shal they be † cut down, when he shal pass thorow: though I have afflicted thee, I will afflict thee no more.

13 For now will I break his yoke from off thee, and will burst thy bonds in sunder.

14 And the LORD hath given a commandment concerning thee: that no more of thy name be sown: out of the house of thy gods will I cut off the graven image, and the molten image, I will make thy grave, for thou art vile.

15 Behold upon the c mountains the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; O Judah, † keep thy solemn feasts, perform thy vows: for the † wicked shal no more pass thorow thee, he is utterly cut off.

CHAP. II.

Gods armies against Nineveh.

HE * that dasheth in pieces is come up before thy face: keep the munition: watch the way: make thy loins strong: fortifie thy power mightily.

2 a For the LORD hath turned away the * excellency of Jacob, as the excellency of Israel: for the emptiers have emptied them out, and marred their vine-branches.

3 The shield of his mighty men is made red, the valiant men are * in scarlet: the chariots shal be with † flaming torches in the day of his preparation, and the fir-trees shal be terribly shaken.

4 The chariots shal rage in the streets, they shal justle one against another in the broad ways: † they shal seem like torches, they shal run like the lightnings.

5 He shal recount his † worthies: they shal stumble in their walk: they shal make haste to the wall thereof, and the defence shal be prepared.

6 The gates of the river shal be opened, and the palace shal be † dissolved.

7 And * Huzzab shal be * led away captive, the shal be brought up, and her maids shal lead her as with the voice of doves, tabring upon their breasts.

8 But Nineveh is * of old like a pool of water: yet they shal flee away. Stand, stand, shal they cry: * but none shal look back.

9 Take ye the spoil of silver, take the spoil of gold: * for there is none end of the store, and glory out of all the pleasant † furniture.

10 She is empty, and void, and waste, and the b heart melteth, and the knees smite together, and much pain is in all loins, and the faces of them all gather blackness.

11 Where is the dwelling of the lions, and the feeding place of the young lions? where the lion, even the old lion walked, and the lions whelp, and none made them afraid.

12 The lion did tear in pieces enough for his whelp, and strangled for his lionesses, & filled his holes with prey, & his dens with ravine.

13 Behold, I am against thee, saith the Lord of hosts, & I will burn her chariots in the smoak, & the sword shal devour thy young lions, & I will cut off thy prey from the earth, & the voice of thy messengers shal no more be heard.

CHAP. III.

The miserable ruine of Nineveh.

4 Because of the multitude of the whoredoms of the well-favoured harlot, the mistress of * witch-crafts, that selleth nations through her whoredomes, and families through her witch-crafts.

5 Behold I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will discover thy skirts upon thy face, and I will shew the nations thy nakedness: and the kingdoms thy shame.

6 And I will cast abominable filth upon thee, and make thee vile, and will set thee as a gazing stock.

¶ HABAKKUK.

CHAP. I.

Gods vengeance by the Chaldeans.

THE a burden which Habakkuk the propher did see.

2 O LORD, how long shal I cry, and thou wilt not hear? even cry out unto thee of violence; and thou wilt not save?

3 Why dost thou shew me iniquity, and cause me to behold grievance? for spoiling, and violence are before me; and there are that raise up strife and contention.

4 Therefore the law is slacked, and judgment doth never go forth: for the b wicked doth compass about the righteous: therefore ✲ wrong judgment proceedeth.

5 ¶ c Behold ye among the heathen, and regard, and wonder marvelously, for I will work a work in your days, which ye will not believe, though it be told you.

6 For lo, I raise up the Caldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, which shal march thorow the † breadth of the land, to possess the dwelling places that are not theirs.

7 They are terrible and dreadful: ✲ their judgment and their dignity shal proceed of themselves.

8 Their horses also are swifter than leopards, and are more † fierce than the a evening wolves: and their horsemen shal spread themselves, and their horsemen shal come from far, they shal flee as the eagle that hasteth to eat.

9 They shal come all for violence: † their faces shal sup up as the east-wind, and they shal gather the captivity as the sand.

10 And they shal scoff at the kings, and the princes shal be a scorn unto them, they shal deride every strong hold: for they shal heap dust and take it.

11 Then shal his mind change, and he shal pass over and offend, imputing this his power unto his god.

13 Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on ✲ iniquity wherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked devoureth the man that is more righteous than he?

14 And makest men as the fishes of the sea, as the ✲ creeping things that have no ruler over them.

15 They take up all of them with the angle: they catch them in their net, & gather them in their ✲ drag: therefore they rejoyce and are glad.

16 Therefore they a sacrifice unto their net, & burn incense unto their drag: because by them their portion is fat, and their meat ✲ plenteous.

17 Shal they therefore empty their net, and not spare continually to slay the nations.

CHAP. II.

Habakkuk must wait by faith.

I Will a stand upon my watch, and set me upon the † tower, and will watch to see what he will say ✲ unto me, and what I shal answer ✲ when I am reproved.

2 And the LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it.

3 For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shal speak and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it: because it will b surely come, it will not tarry.

10 Thou hast consulted shame to thy house, by cutting off many people, and hast sinned against thy soul.

11 For the stone shal cry out of the wall, and the * beam out of the timber shal answer it.

12 ¶ Wo to him that buildeth a town with † blood, and stablisheth a city by iniquity.

13 Behold, is it not of the LORD of hosts, that the people shal labour in the very fire, and the people shal weary themselves for * very vanity.

14 For the earth shal be filled * with the † knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

15 ¶ Wo unto him that giveth his neighbour drink: that puttest thy bottle to him, and makest him drunken also; that thou mayest look on their nakednes.

16 Thou art filled * with shame for glory; † drink thou also, and let thy foreskin be uncovered: the cup of the Lords right hand shal be turned unto thee, and shameful spewing shal be on thy glory.

17 For the violence of Lebanon shal cover thee: and the spoil of beasts, which made them afraid, because of mens blood: and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

18 ¶ What profiteth the graven image, that the maker thereof hath graven it; the molten image, and a † teacher of lies, that † the maker of his work trusteth therein, to make dumb idols?

19 Wo unto him that saith to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise, it shal teach: behold, it is laid over with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it.

20 But d the LORD is in his holy temple: † let all the earth keep silence before him.

CHAP. III.

Habakkuk trembleth at Gods majesty.

A Prayer of Habakkuk the prophet * upon Sigionoth.

2 O LORD, I have heard † thy speech, and was afraid, O LORD, † revive the work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make it known, in wrath remember mercy.

3 God came from * Teman, and the Holy One from mount Paran. Selah. His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise.

4 And his brightnes was as the light: he had * horns coming out of his hand, and there was the hiding of his power.

5 Before him went the pestilence, and * burning coals went forth at his feet.

6 He stood and measured the earth: he beheld and drove asunder the nations, and the everlasting mountains were scattered: the perpetual hills did bow: his ways are everlasting.

7 I saw the tents of * Cushan * in affliction: and the curtains of the land of Midian did tremble.

8 Was the LORD displeased against the rivers? was thine anger against the rivers? was thy wrath against the sea, that thou didst ride upon thine horses, and * thy chariots of salvation?

9 Thy bow was made quite naked according to the oaths of the tribes, even thy word. Selah. * Thou didst cleave the earth with rivers.

10 The mountains saw thee, and they trembled: * the overflowing of the water passed by: the deep uttered his voice, and lift up his hands on high.

11 The sun and moon stood still in their habitation: * at the light of thine arrows they went, and at the shining of thy glittering spear.

12 Thou didst march thorow the land in indignation, thou didst thresh the heathen in anger.

13 Thou wentest forth for the salvation of thy people, even for salvation e with thine anointed, thou woundest the head out of the house of the wicked, † by discovering the foundation unto the neck. Selah.

14 Thou didst strike thorow with his staves the head of his villages: they † came out as a whirlwind to scatter me: their rejoycing was as to devour the poor secretly.

15 Thou didst walk thorow the sea with thine horses, thorow the * heaps of great waters.

16 When I heard, my belly trembled: my lips quivered at the voice: rot entred into my bones: and I trembled in my self: that I might rest in the day of trouble: when he cometh up unto the people, he will invade them with his troups.

17 Although the fig-tree shall not blossom, neither shal fruit be in the vines: the labour of the olive shal fail, and the fields shal yield no meat, the flocks shal be cut off from the fold, and there shal be no herd in the stalls.

18 Yet I will rejoyce in the LORD, I will joy in the God of my salvation.

19 The Lord GOD is my strength, and he will make my feet like hindes feet, and he will make me to walk upon mine high places. To the chief singer on my † stringed instruments.

CHAP. I.

Gods judgment against Judah.

THE word of the LORD which came unto Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hizkiah in the days of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah.

2 † I will utterly consume all things from off † the land, saith the LORD.

3 I will consume man and beast: I will consume the a fowls of the heaven, and the fishes of the sea, and the * stumbling blocks with the wicked: and I will cut off man from off the b land, saith the LORD.

4 I will also stretch out mine hand upon Judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and I will cut off the b remnant of Baal from this place, and the name of the c Chemarims with the d priests:

5 And them that worship the host of heaven upon the house tops: and them that f worship, and that swear * by the LORD, and that swear by Malcham:

6 And them that are turned back from the LORD, and those that have not sought the LORD, nor enquired for him.

7 Hold thy peace at the presence of the LORD God; for the day of the LORD is at hand: for the Lord hath prepared a sacrifice, he hath * bid his guests.

8 And it shall come to pass in the day of the LORDS sacrifice, that I will † punish the princes, and the kings children, and all such as are clothed with strange apparel.

9 In the same day also will I punish all those that leap on the threshold, which fill their masters houses with violence and deceit.

10 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, that there shall be the noise of a cry from the fish gate, & an howling from the second, and great crashing from the e hills.

11 * Howl ye inhabitants of Maktesh, for all the merchant people are cut down: all they that bear silver are cut off.

12 And it shall come to pass at that time, that I will b search Jerusalem with candles, and punish the men that are † settled on their lies, that say in their heart, The LORD will not do good, neither will he do evil.

13 Therefore their goods shall become a booty, and their houses a desolation: they shall also build houses, but e not inhabit them, and they shall plant vineyards, but not drink the wine thereof.

14 The great day of the LORD is near, it is near, and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the LORD, the mighty man shall cry there bitterly.

15 That day is a day of d wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of darkness, and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness,

16 A day of the trumpet and alarm against the fenced cities, and against the high towers.

17 And I will bring distress upon men, that they shall walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the LORD, and their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh as the dung.

18 e Neither their silver, nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the LORDS wrath: but the whole land shall be f devoured by the fire of his jealousie: for he shall make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land.

CHAP. II.

An exhortation to repentance.

GAther your selves together, yea gather together, O nation * not desired.

2 Before the decree bring forth, before the day pass as the chaff, before the fierce anger of the LORD come upon you, before the day of the Lords anger come upon you.

3 Seek ye the Lord, all ye a meek of the earth, which * have wrought his judgment, seek righteousness, seek meekness: b it may be, ye shall be hid in the day of the LORDS anger.

4 ¶ For c Gaza shal be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation: they shall drive out d Ashdod at the noon-day, and Ekron shal be rooted up.

5 Wo unto the inhabitants of the e sea coast, the nation of the f Cherethites; the word of the LORD is against you, O g Canaan, the land of the Philistines, I will even destroy thee, that there shal be no inhabitant.

6 And the sea coast shall be dwellings, and cottages for shepherds, and folds for flocks.

7 And the coast shall be for the remnant of the house of Judah, they shal feed thereupon, in the houses of Ashkelon shall they lie down in the evening: * for the LORD their God shall visit them, and turn away their captivity.

8 ¶ b I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the revilings of the children of Ammon, whereby they have reproached my people, and i magnified themselves against their border.

9 Therefore as I live, saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely k Moab shal be as Sodom, and the l Children of Ammon as Gomorrah, even the breeding of nettles, and salt pits, and a perpetual desolation, the residue of my people shal spoil them, and the remnant of my people shal possess them.

10 This shall they have m for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of the LORD of hosts.

11 The LORD will be terrible unto them: for he will † famish all the gods of the earth, and men shal worship him, every one from his place, even all the isles of the heathen.

12 ¶ Ye Ethiopians also, ye shal be slain by my sword.

13 And he will stretch out his hand against the north, and destroy Assyria, and will make Nineveh a desolation, and dry like a wilderness.

14 And flocks shall lie down in the midst of her, all the beasts of the nations both the * cormorant, and the bittern shal n lodge in the * upper lintels of it: their voice shall sing in the windows, desolation shal be in the thresholds: * for he shal uncover the cedar work,

Israel reproved for sin.

WO to her that is * filthy and polluted, to the oppressing city.

2 She obeyed not the voice: she received not correction: she trusted not in the LORD: she drew not near to her God.

3 Her princes within her are roaring a lions; her judges b are evening wolves, they gnaw not the bones till the morrow.

4 Her c prophets are lightness and treacherous persons: her priests have polluted the sanctuary, they have done d violence to the law.

5 The just LORD is in the midst thereof: he will not do iniquity: † every morning doth he bring his judgment to light, he faileth not: * but the unjust knoweth no shame.

6 I have cut off the nations; their † towers are desolate, I made their streets waste, that none passed by: their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, that there is no inhabitant.

7 I said, Surely thou wilt fear me: thou wilt receive instruction: so their dwelling should not be cut off, howsoever I punished them: but * they rose early, and corrupted all their doings.

8 ¶ Therefore wait ye upon me, saith the LORD, until the day that I rise up to the prey, for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger; for all the earth shall be devoured, with the fire of my † jealousie.

9 For then will I turn to the people a pure † language, that they may all call upon the Name of the LORD, to serve him with one † consent.

10 g From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia, my suppliants, even the daughter of my dispersed shall bring mine offering.

11 In that day b shalt thou not be ashamed for all thy doings, wherein thou hast transgressed against me: for then I will take away out of the midst of thee them that rejoyce in thy pride, and thou shalt no more be haughty † because of mine holy mountain.

12 I will also leave in the midst of thee an afflicted and poor people: and they shall trust in the Name of the LORD.

13 The remnant of Israel shall not do iniquity, nor speak lies: neither shall a k deceitful tongue be found in their mouth: for they shall feed and lie down, and none shall make them afraid.

14 ¶ Sing, O l daughter of Zion: shout, O Israel: be glad and rejoyce with all the heart, O daughter of Jerusalem.

15 The LORD hath taken away thy judgment: he hath cast out thine enemy, the king of Israel, even the LORD is in the midst of thee: thou shalt not see evil any more.

16 In that day it shall be said to Jerusalem, Fear thou not, and to Zion, let not thine hands be slack.

17 The Lord thy God in the midst of thee is mighty, he will save, he will rejoyce over thee with joy: † he will rest in his love, he will joy over thee with singing.

18 I will gather them that are sorrowful for the solemn assembly, who are of thee, to whom the † reproach of it was a burden.

19 Behold, at that time I will undo all that afflict thee, and I will save her that halteth, and gather her that was driven out, and † I will get them praise and fame in every land, † where they have been put to shame.

20 At that time will I bring you again, even in the time that I gather you: for I will make you a name, and a praise among all people of the earth; when I turn back your captivity before your eyes, saith the LORD.

¶ HAGGAI.

CHAP. I.

Haggai reproveth the people, &c.

IN a the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth moneth, in the first day of the moneth, came the word of the Lord † by Haggai the prophet unto b Zerubbabel the son of c Shealtiel, * governour of Judah, and to Joshuah the son of Josedech the high priest, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the Lord of hosts, saying, This people say, The time is not come, the time that the LORDS house should be built.

3 Then came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, saying,

4 Is it time for you, O ye to dwell in your ceiled houses, and this house lie waste?

5 Now therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts; † consider your ways.

6 Ye have d sown much, and bring in little: ye eat, but ye have not enough, ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink: ye clothe you, but there is none warm: e and he that earneth wages, earneth wages to put it into a bag † with holes.

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Consider your ways.

8 Go up to the mountain, and bring wood, and build the house, and f I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, saith the LORD.

9 Ye looked for much, and lo, it came to little, and when ye brought it home, I did * blow upon it: why saith the LORD of hosts: because of mine house that is waste: and ye run every man unto his own house.

10 Therefore g the heaven over you is stayed from dew, and the earth is stayed from her fruit.

12 ¶ Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshuah the son of Josedech the high priest, with all the remnant of the people obeyed the voice of the Lord their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, (as the Lord their GOD had sent him) and the people did fear before the LORD.

13 Then spake Haggai the LORDS a messenger b in the LORDS message unto the people, saying, I am with you, saith the LORD.

14 And it the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governour of Judah, and the spirit of Joshuah the son of Josedech the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people, and they came, and did work in the house of the LORD of hosts their God.

15 In the four and twentieth day of the sixth moneth, in the second year of Darius the king.

CHAP. II.

He encourageth them to the work.

IN the a seventh moneth, in the one and twentieth day of the moneth, came the word of the LORD †by the prophet Haggai, saying,

2 Speak now to Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, governour of Judah, and to Joshuah the son of Josedech, the high priest, and to the residue of the people, saying,

3 Who is left among you that saw this house in her first glory? and how do ye see it now? Is it not in your eyes, in comparison of it, as nothing?

4 Yet now c be strong, O Zerubbabel, saith the LORD, and be strong, O Joshuah, son of Josedech the high priest, and be strong all ye people of the land, saith the Lord, and work: for I am with you, saith the LORD of hosts.

5 According to the word that I covenanted with you, when ye came out of Egypt, so my d Spirit remaineth among you, fear ye not.

6 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, e Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land.

7 And I will shake all nations, and *the desire of all nations shall come, and I will fill this house with glory, saith the LORD of hosts.

The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith the LORD of hosts.

9 The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, saith the LORD of hosts: and in this place g will I give peace, saith the LORD of hosts.

10 ¶ In the four and twentieth day of the ninth moneth, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the Lord by Haggai the prophet, saying,

11 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, a Ask now the priests concerning the law, saying,

12 If one bear holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt do touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oyl, or any meat; shall it be holy? and the priests answered, and said, No.

13 Then said Haggai, If one that is unclean b by a dead body, touch any of it, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered, and said, It shall be unclean.

14 Then answered Haggai, and said, So is this people, and c so is this nation before me, saith the LORD, and so is every work of their hands, and d that which they offer there is unclean.

15 And now, I pray you, consider, from this day and upward, e from before a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of the LORD.

16 Since those days were, f when one came to an heap of twenty measures, there were but ten: when one came to the press-fat for to draw out fifty vessels out of the press, there were but twenty.

17 I smote you with blasting, and with mildew, and with hail in all the labours of your hands: yet ye turned not to me, saith the LORD.

18 Consider now from this day & upward, from the four and twentieth day of the ninth moneth: even from the day that the foundation of the Lords temple was laid, consider it.

19 Is the seed yet in the barn? yea, as yet the vine, and the fig-tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive-tree hath not brought forth: from this day will I bless you.

20 And again the word of the LORD came unto Haggai, in the four & twentieth day of the moneth, saying,

21 Speak to Zerubbabel governour of Judah, saying, g I will shake the heavens and the earth;

22 And I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms, and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the heathen, and I will overthrow the chariots, and those that ride in them, and the horses and their riders shall come down, every one by the sword of his brother.

23 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, will I take thee, O Zerubbabel my servant: the son of Shealtiel, saith the LORD, and will make thee as a signet: for I have chosen thee, saith the LORD of hosts.

¶ ZECHARIAH.

CHAP. I.

Zechariah exhorteth to repentance.

IN the eight moneth, in the a second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah the son of Barachiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying,

2 The LORD hath been § sore displeased with your fathers.

3 Therefore say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, b Turn ye unto me, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will turn unto you, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 c Be not as your fathers, unto whom the former prophets have cryed, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Turn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but they did not hear, nor hearken unto me, saith the LORD.

5 Your fathers, where are they? and the prophets, do they live for ever?

6 But my words and my statutes which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not § take hold of your fathers? and d they returned, and and said, e like as the LORD of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so hath he dealt with us.

7 ¶ Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh moneth, which is the moneth Sebat, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the Lord unto Zechariah, the son of Barachiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying,

8 I saw by night, and behold, a a man riding upon b a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle-trees that were in the bottom, and behind him were there red c horses, * speckled and white.

9 Then said I, O my LORD, what are these? And the angel that talked with me, said unto me, I will shew thee what these be.

10 And the man that stood among the myrtle-trees, answered, and said, these are they, whom the LORD d hath sent to walk to and fro thorow the earth.

11 And they answered the angel of the LORD, that stood among the myrtle-trees, and said, we have walked to and fro thorow the earth: and behold, all the earth sitteth still, and is * at rest.

12 ¶ Then the angel of the Lord answered, and said, O Lord of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem, and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation these threescore and ten years?

13 And the LORD answered the angel that talked with me, with good words, and comfortable words.

14 So the angel that communed with me, said unto me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I am f jealous for Jerusalem, and for Zion, with a great jealousie.

15 g And I am very sore displeased with the heathen that are at ease; for I was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction.

16 Therefore thus saith the Lord a I am turned to Jerusalem with mercy: my house shal be built in it, saith the LORD of hosts, and a line shal be stretched forth upon Jerusalem.

17 Cry yet, saying, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, My cities through † prosperity shall yet be * spread abroad, and the Lord shal b yet comfort Zion, and shal yet choose Jerusalem.

18 ¶ Then lift I up mine eyes, and saw, and behold c four horns.

19 And I said unto the angel that talked with me, What be these? And he answered me, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.

20 And the LORD shewed me four * carpenters.

21 Then said I, what come these to do? And he spake, saying, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, so that no man did lift up his head, but these are come to fray them, to cast out the horns of the Gentiles, which lift up their horn over the land of Judah to scatter it.

CHAP. II.

Gods care of Jerusalem.

I Lift up mine eyes again, and looked, and behold a man with a a measuring line in his hand.

2 Then said I, whither goest thou? And he said unto me, To measure Jerusalem, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof.

3 And behold the angel that talked with me, went forth, and another angel went out to meet him:

4 And said unto him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, Jerusalem shal be inhabited as towns without walls, for the multitude of men and cattel therein.

6 ¶ Ho, ho, come forth, and flee from the land of the north, saith the LORD, for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, saith the LORD.

7 Deliver thy self, O Zion that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon.

8 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you; for he that b toucheth you, toucheth the apple of his eye.

9 For behold, I will shake mine hand upon them, and they shal be a spoil to their servants, & ye shal know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me.

10 ¶ c Sing and rejoyce, O daughter of Zion: for lo, I come, and I d will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the LORD.

11 And many nations shall be joyned to the LORD in that day, and shal be my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee, and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto thee.

12 And the LORD a shal inherit Judah his portion in the holy land, and shal chuse Jerusalem again.

AND he shewed me Joshuah the high priest, standing before the angel of the LORD, and * Satan standing at his right hand † to resist him.

2 And the LORD said unto Satan, a The LORD rebuke thee, O Satan, even the LORD, that hath b chosen Jerusalem, rebuke thee: Is not this c a brand pluckt out of the fire.

3 Now Joshuah was clothed with d filthy garments, and stood before the angel.

4 And he answered, and spake e unto those that stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said, Behold, † I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and I will cloath thee with change of raiment.

5 And I said, Let them set a fair mitre upon his head. So they set a fair mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments, and the angel of the LORD stood by.

6 And the angel of the LORD protested unto Joshuah, saying,

By the golden Candlestick, &c.

A Nd the angel that talked with me, came again & waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep.

2 And said unto me, What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and behold a * candlestick all of gold, † with a bowl upon the top of it, and his seven lamps thereon, and * seven pipes to the seven lamps which were upon the top thereof.

3 And two olive trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof.

4 So I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these my LORD?

5 Then the angel that talked with me, answered, and said unto me, know est thou not what these be? and I said, No, my LORD.

6 Then he answered, and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the Lord unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by * might, nor by power, but † by my Spirit, saith the LORD of hosts.

7 a Who art thou, O great mountain? before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain, and he shal b bring forth the c head-stone thereof with shoutings, crying, Grace, grace, unto it.

8 Moreover the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

9 The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the d foundation of this house: his hands shall also e finish it, and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you.

10 For who hath despised the day of small things? * for they shal rejoice, and shall see the † plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel with these seven: f they are the eyes of the LORD, which run to and fro thorow the whole earth.

11 Then answered I, and said unto him; What are these two olive-trees upon the right side of the candlestick, and upon the left side thereof?

12 And I answered again and said unto him, What be these two olive branches, which † thorow the two golden pipes * empty † the golden oyl out of themselves?

13 And he answered me, and said, Knowest thou not what these be? and I said, No, my LORD.

14 Then said he, These are the two † anointed ones that stand by the LORD of the whole earth.

CHAP. V.

The curse of thieves and swearers.

T Hen I turned, and lift up mine eyes, and looked; and behold, a flying a roll.

2 And he said unto me, What seest thou? & I answered, I see a flying roll, the length thereof is twenty cubits,

3 Then said he unto me, This is the curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth: for † every one that stealeth shal be cut off as * on this side, according to it; and every one that sweareth shal be cut off as on that side, according to it.

4 I will bring it forth, saith the LORD of hosts, and it shal enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him that sweareth falsly by my Name: and it shal remain in the midst of his house, and shal consume it, with the timber thereof, and the stones thereof.

5 ¶ Then the angel that talked with me, went forth, and said unto me, Lift up now thine eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth.

6 And I said, What is it? And he said, This is an * ephah that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their * resemblance thorow all the earth.

7 And behold, there was lift up a * talent of lead: and this is a woman that sitteth in the midst of the ephah.

8 And he said, This is wickedness; and he cast it into the midst of the ephah, and he cast the weight of lead upon the mouth thereof.

9 Then lift I up mine eyes, and looked: and behold, there came out two women, and the wind was in their wings, (for they had wings like the wings of a stork) and they lift up the ephah between the earth and the heaven.

10 Then said I to the angel that talked with me, Whither do these bear the ephah?

11 And he said unto me: To build it an house in the land of Shinar, and it shall be established and set there upon her own base.

2 In the first chariot were † red horses, and in the second chariot c black horses.

3 And in the third chariot d white horses, and in the fourth chariot grizled and † bay horses.

4 Then I answered, and said unto the angel that talked with me, What are these, my LORD.

5 And the angel answered, and said unto me, These are the four † spirits of the heavens, which go forth e from standing before the LORD of all the earth.

6 The black horses which are therein, go forth into the north countrey, and the white go forth after them, and the grizled go forth toward the south countrey.

7 And * the bay went forth, and sought to go, that they might walk to and fro thorow the earth: and f he said, Get ye hence, walk to and fro thorow the earth, so they walked to and fro thorow the earth.

The captives enquire of fasting, &c.

AND it came to pass in the fourth year of king Darius, that the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah, in the fourth day of the ninth moneth, even in Chisleu,
2 When they had sent unto the house of God, Sherezer, & Regemmelech, & their men † to pray before the LORD.
3 And to speak unto the priests which were in the house of the Lord of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, Should I weep in the fifth moneth, separating my self, as I have done these so many years?
4 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD of hosts unto me, saying,
5 Speak unto all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When ye a fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh moneth, even those seventy years, did ye at all fast unto me, even to me?

Jerusalem restored, good promises.

AGain the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,
2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I was jealous for Zion, with great jealousie; and I was a jealous for her with great fury.
3 Thus saith the LORD, I am returned unto Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem, and Jerusalem shal be called a b city of truth, and the mountain of the LORD of hosts, the holy mountain.
4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, There shal c yet old men, and old women dwel in the streets of Jerusalem, and every man with d his staff in his hand † for very age.
5 And the streets of the city shal be full of boyes and girls, playing in the streets thereof.

10 For before these days there was no * hire for man, nor any hire for beast, neither was there any peace to him that went out, or came in, because of the affliction: for I set all men, every one against his neighbour.
11 But now I will not be unto the residue of this people as in the former days, saith the LORD of hosts.
12 For the seed shal be prosperous: the vine shal give her fruit, and the ground shal give her increase, and the heavens shal give their dew: and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things.
13 And it shal come to pass that as ye were a curse among the heathen, O house of Judah, and house of Israel: so will I save you, and ye shal be a blessing; fear not, but let your hands be strong.

OPen thy doors, O Lebanon, that the fire may devour thy cedars.

2 Howl fire-tree, for the cedar is fallen, because all the * mighty are spoyled: howl, O ye oaks of Bashan, for * the forrest of the vintage is come down.

3 ¶ there is a voyce of the howling a of the shepherds; for their glory is spoiled: a voice of the roaring of young lions: for b the pride of Jordan is spoiled.

4 Thus saith the LORD my God, Feed the flock of the slaughter;

5 Whose possessours slay them, and c hold themselves not guilty: and they that sell them, say, d Blessed be the LORD, for I am rich: and their own shepherds pity them not.

6 For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land, saith the Lord: but lo, I will deliver the men every one into his neighbours hand, and into the hand of a his king, and they shal smite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them.

7 And I will feed the flock of slaughter, even you, O * poor of the flock: and I took unto me two staves; the one I called beauty, and the other I called * Bands, and I fed the flock.

8 Three shepherds also I cut off in one moneth, and my soul † loathed them, & their soul also abhorred me.

9 Then said I, I * will not feed you: that that dieth let it die: and that that is to be cut off, let it be cut off, and let the rest eat, every one the flesh of * another.

10 And I took my staffe, even Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the people.

11 And it was broken in that day, and so * the poor of the flock that waited upon me, knew that it was the word of the LORD.

12 And I said unto them, § if ye think good, give me my price; and if not forbear: so they § weighed for my price thirty pieces of silver.

13 And the LORD said unto me, Cast it unto the * potter, a goodly price, that I was prized at of them. And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them to the potter in the house of the LORD.

14 Then I cut asunder mine other staffe, even * Bands, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

15 * And the LORD said unto me, Take unto thee yet the instruments of a foolish shepherd.

16 For lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, which shal not visit those that be § cut off, neither shal seek the young one, nor heal that that is broken, nor § feed that that standeth still: but he shal eat the flesh of the fat, and rear their claws in pieces.

17 § Woe to the idol shepherd that leaveth the flock: the sword shal be upon his arm, and upon his right eye: his arm shal be clean dried up, and his right eye shal be utterly darkned.

Jerusalem a cup of trembling.

THe burden of the word of the Lord for Israel, saith the LORD, which stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and formeth the spirit of man within him.

2 Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of § trembling unto all the people round about, § when they shal be in the siege, both against Judah, and against Jerusalem.

3 ¶ And in that day will I make Jerusalem a a burdensome stone for all people, all that burden themselves with it, shal be cut in pieces; though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.

4 In that day, saith the LORD, b I will smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness, and I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the people with blindness.

5 And the governours of Judah shal say in their heart, § The inhabitants of Jerusalem shal be my strength in the LORD of hosts their God.

6 ¶ In that day will I make the c governours of Judah like a harth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire in a sheaf; and they shal devour all the people round about, on the right hand, and on the left: and Jerusalem shal be inhabited again in her own place, even in Jerusalem.

7 The LORD also shal save the d tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David, and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem do not magnifie themselves against Judah.

8 In that day shal the LORD defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and e he that is § feeble among them at that day shal be as David; and the house of David shal be as God, as the angel of the LORD before them.

9 ¶ And it shal come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

10 f And I will g pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem the h spirit of grace, and of supplications, and they shal look upon me, whom they have pierced and they shal k mourn for him as one mourneth for his only son, and shal be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his first-born.

CHAP. XIII.

The death of Christ.

IN that day there shal be a a fountain opened to the house of David, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin and for † uncleanness.

2 ¶ And it shal come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will * cut off the names of the idols out of the land: and they shal no more be remembred: & also I will cause the prophets, and the unclean a spirit to pass out of the land.

3 And it shal come to pass, that when any shal yet prophesie, then his father and his mother that begat him shal say unto him, Thou shalt not live: for thou speakest lies in the Name of the Lord; and his father and his mother that begat him, shal thrust him thorow when he prophesieth.

4 And it shal come to pass in that day, that the prophets shal be ashamed every one of his visions when he hath prophesied: neither shal they wear † a rough garment † to deceive.

5 But he shal say, I am no prophet, I am an husbandman: for man taught me to keep cattel from my youth.

6 And one shal say unto him, what are these wounds in thine hands? then he shal answer; Those with which I b was wounded in the house of my friends.

7 ¶ Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, and against the man that is c my fellow saith the Lord of hosts: d smite the shepherd, and the sheep shal be scattered, and e I will turn mine hand upon the little ones.

8 And it shal come to pass, that in all the land, saith the LORD, f two parts therein shal be cut off, and die: but the third part shal be left therein.

9 And g I will bring the third part thorow the fire, and will h refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: they shal call on my Name, and I will hear them, I will say, It is my people, and they shal say, the LORD is my God.

CHAP. XIV.

Christs coming and kingdom.

BEhold, the day of the LORD cometh, and thy spoyl shal be divided in the midst of thee.

2 For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battel, and the a city shal be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished, and half of the city shal go forth into captivity, b and the residue of the people shal not be cut off from the city.

3 Then shal the LORD go forth and fight † against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battel.

4 ¶ And his feet shal stand in that day upon the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east, and the mount of Olives shal cleave in the midst thereof toward the east, and toward the west, and there shal be a very great valley, & half of the mountain shal remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south.

5 And ye shal flee to the valley of the mountains: * for the valley of the *mountains shal reach unto Azel: yea ye shal flee like as ye fled from before the † earth-quake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah: and the LORD *my God shal come, and all the Saints with thee.

6 And it shal come to pass in that day, that the light shal not be † clear nor † dark.

7 But * it shal be b one day, c which shal be known to the LORD, not day nor night: but it shal come to pass that at evening time it shal be light.

8 And it shal be in that day, that living waters shal go out from Jerusalem: half of them toward the * former sea, and half of them toward the hinder sea: in summer and in winter shal it be.

9 And the LORD shal be king over all the earth: in that day shal there be one LORD, and his Name one.

10 All the land shal be * turned as a plain from Geba to Rimmon, south of Jerusalem, and it shal be lifted up and * inhabited in her place: from Benjamins gate unto the place of the first gate, unto the corner gare, and from the tower of Hananiel unto the kings wine-presses.

11 And men shal dwell in it, & there shal be no more utter destruction: but Jerusalem * shal be safely inhabited.

12 ¶ And this shal be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite all the people, that have fought against Jerusalem: their flesh shal consume away, while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shal consume away in their holes, and their tongue shal consume away in their mouth.

13 And it shal come to pass in that day, that a great tumult from the Lord shal be among them, & they shal lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbour, and his hand shal rise up against the hand of his neighbour.

14 And * Judah also shal fight * at Jerusalem, and the wealth of all the heathen round about shal be gathered together, gold, and silver, and apparel in great abundance.

15 And so shal be a the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the ass, & of all the beasts that shal be in these tents, as this plague.

16 ¶ And it shal come to pass, b that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem, shal even go up from year to year to worship the King, the Lord of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles.

17 And it shal be that whoso will not come up, of all the families of the earth unto Jerusalem, to worship the King the LORD of hosts, even upon them shal be no rain.

18 And if the family of Egypt go not up, and come not, that † have no rain: there shal be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite the heathen that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

¶ MALACHI.

CHAP. I.

Complaint against Israel.

THe a burden of the word of the LORD to Israel by † Malachi.

2 I have loved you, saith the LORD: yet ye say, Wherein hast thou loved us? was not Esau Jacobs brother, saith the LORD? yet I loved Jacob.

3 And I c hated Esau, and laid his mountains, and his heritage waste, for the dragons of the wilderness.

4 Whereas Edom saith, d We are impoverished, but we will return, and build the desolate places: Thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shal build, but I will throw down: and they shal call them, the border of wickedness, & the people against whom the LORD hath indignation, for ever.

5 And your eyes shal see, and ye shal say, The LORD will be magnified * from the border of Israel.

6 ¶ A son honoureth his father, and a servant his master: If then I be a father, where is mine honour? & if I be a master, where is my fear? saith the LORD of hosts unto you, O priests that dispise my Name; and ye say, Wherein have we dispised thy Name?

7 * Ye offer a pollured b bread upon mine altar, and ye say, Wherein have we pollured thee? in that ye say, The table of the LORD is contemptible.

8 d And if ye offer the blind † for sacrifice, is it not evil? and if ye offer the lame and sick, is it not evil? offer it now unto thy governour: will he be pleased with thee, or accept thy person, saith the LORD of hosts?

9 And now I pray you, beseech † God that he will be gracious unto us: this hath been † by your means: will he regard your persons saith the LORD of hosts?

10 Who is there even among you that would shut the doors for nought? neither do ye kendle fire on mine altar for nought, I have no pleasure in you saith the LORD of hosts, neither will I accept an offering at your hand.

11 For from the rising of the sun, even unto the going down of the same, my Name shal be great among the d Gentiles, and in every place incense shal be offered unto my Name, and a pure offering: for my Name shal be great among the heathen, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 ¶ But ye have profaned it, in that ye say, The table of the LORD is polluted, and the fruit thereof, even his meat is contemptible.

13 Ye said also, Behold, what a weariness is it, and * ye have snuffed at it, saith the LORD of hosts, & ye brought that which was torn and the lame, and the sick: thus ye brought an offering, should I accept this of your hand, saith the LORD?

14 But cursed be the deceiver, † which hath in his flocke a male, & voweth: and sacrificeth unto the Lord a corrupt thing; for I am a great king, saith the LORD of hosts, and my name is dreadful among the heathen.

CHAP. II.

The priests cursed, &c.

ANd now, O ye priests, this commandment is for you.

2 a If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my Name, saith the LORD of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings: yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart.

3 Behold, I will * corupt your seed, and spread b dung upon your faces, even the dung of your solemn feasts, and * one shal take you away with it.

4 And ye shal know that I have sent this commandment unto you, that my covenant might be with Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

5 c My covenant was with him of life and peace, and I gave them to him for d the fear, wherewith he feared me, and was afraid before my Name.

6 The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and equity, and did turn many away from iniquity.

7 e For the priests lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: for he is the † messenger of the LORD of hosts.

8 But ye are departed out of the way: ye have caused many to * stumble at the law: ye have corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith the Lord of hosts

9 Therefore have I also made you contemptible, and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my wayes, but have * been partial in the law.

10 ¶ Have we not all one father? hath not one God created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers?

11 ¶ Judah hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem: for Judah hath prophaned the holiness of the Lord which * he loved, and hath married the daughter of a strange god.

12 The LORD will a cut off the man that doth this: the * master and the scholer out of the tabernacles of Jacob, and him that offereth an offering unto the LORD of hosts.

13 And this have ye b done again, covering the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with crying out, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, or receiveth it with good will at your hand.

14 ¶ Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the Lord hath been witness between thee, & the wife of thy youth against whom thou hast dealt treacherously, yet yet is the thy companion and the wife of thy covenant.

15 And did not he make one? yet had he the * residue of the spirit: and wherefore one? that he might seek †a godly seed, therefore take heed to your spirit, & let none deal *treacherously against the wife of his youth.

16 For the LORD, the God of Israel, saith, that * he that hateth † putting away: for one covereth violence with his garment, saith the LORD of hosts, therefore take heed to your spirit that ye deal not treacherously.

17 ¶ Ye have wearied the Lord with your words: yet ye say, wherein have we wearied him? when ye say, Every one that doth evil, is good in the sight of the Lord, & he delighteth in them, or where is the God of judgement?

CHAP. III.

Of the majesty of Christ.

BEhold, I a will send b my messenger, and he shall c prepare the way before me; and the LORD, d whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple; even the e messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in, behold he shall come saith the LORD of hosts.

2 But g who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiners fire, and like fullers sope.

3 And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and he shall purifie the h sons of Levi, and purge them as gold & silver, that they may offer unto the Lord an offering in righteousness.

4 ¶ Then shall the offerings of Judah, and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the LORD, as in the days of old, and as in * former years.

5 And I will i come near to you to judgement, and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false sweaters, and against those that * oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, & that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the LORD of hosts.

6 m For I am the LORD, I change not, therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed.

7 Even from the dayes of your fathers ye are gone away from mine ordinances, and have not kept them: a return unto me, and I will return unto you saith the Lord of hosts: But ye said, Wherein shal we return?

8 ¶ b Will a man rob God? yet ye have robbed me: But ye say, wherein have we robbed thee? c In tithes, and offerings.

9 Ye are cursed with a curse: for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation.

10 Bring ye all the tithes into the d store-house, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith saith the LORD of hosts: e if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and † pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.

11 And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes: and he shal not † destroy the fruits of your ground, neither shal your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 And all nations shal call you blessed: for ye shal be a delightsome land, saith the LORD of hosts.

13 ¶ Your words have been f stout against me, saith the LORD: yet ye say, What have we spoken so much against thee?

14 Ye have said, g it is vain to serve God: and what profit is it that we have kept † his ordinance, and that we have walked † mournfully before the LORD of hosts.

15 And now we call the proud happy: yea, they that work wickedness † are set up: yea, they that h tempt God are even delivered.

16 ¶ Then they that feared the LORD, spake often one to another, and the LORD harkned, and heard it; and a book of remembrance was written before him, for them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon his Name.

17 i And they shal be mine, saith the LORD of hosts, in that day when I make up my * jewels, and b I will spare them as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.

18 Then shal ye return, and discern between the righteous & the wicked, between him that serveth God, and him that serveth him not.

CHAP. IV.

Gods judgement on the wicked.

FOr behold a the day cometh that shal burn as an oven, and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly shal be b stubble: and the day that cometh shal burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shal leave them c neither root nor branch.

2 ¶ But unto you that fear my Name, shal the d Son of righteousness arise, with e healing in his wings: and ye shal f go forth, and g grow up as calves of the stall.

3 And ye shal tread down the wicked: for they * shal be ashes under the soles of your feet, in the day that I shal do this, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 ¶ Remember ye the law of Moses my servant, which I commanded unto him in Horeb for all Israel, with the statutes and judgements.

5 ¶ Behold, I will send k you Elijah the prophet, before the coming of the l great and dreadful day of the LORD.

6 And m he shal turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I g come & smite the earth with a curse.

CHAP. I.

The genealogy of Christ, and birth.

THE book of the * generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

2 a Abraham begat Isaac, and b Isaac begat Jacob, and c Jacob begat Judas and his brethren.

3 And d Judas begat Pharez and Zara of e Thamar, and f Pharez begat Esrom, and Esrom begat Aram,

4 And Aram begat Aminadab, and Aminadab begat * Naasson, and Naasson begat Salmon,

5 And Salmon begat Booz of Rachab, and Booz begat Obed of Ruth, and Obed begat Jesse,

6 g And Jesse begat David the king. and b David the king begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Urias,

7 And i Solomon begat Roboam, and Roboam begat Abia, and Abia begat Asa,

8 And Asa begat Josaphat, and Josaphat begat Joram, and Joram begat Ozias,

9 And Ozias begat Joatham, and Joatham begat Achas, and Achas begat Ezekias,

10 And k Ezekias begat Manesses, and Manasses begat Amon, and Amon begat Josias, 11 And * Josias begat Jechonias, and his brethren, about the time they were carried away to Babylon.

12 And after they * were brought to Babylon, l Jechonias begat Salathiel, and Salathiel begat Zorobabel,

13 And Zorobabel begat Abiud, and Abiud begat Eliakim, and Eliakim begat Azor,

14 And Azor begat Sadoc, and Sadoc begat Achim, and Achim begat Eliud,

15 And Eliud begat Eleazar, and Eleazar begat Matthan, and Matthan begat Jacob,

16 And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David, are fourteen generations: and from David until the carrying away into Babylon, are fourteen generations: and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ, are fourteen generations.

18 Now the a birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: when as his mother Mary was b espoused to Joseph (before they came together) she was † found with child c of the holy ghost.

19 Then Joseph d her husband being a just man, and not willing to make her a publick example, was minded to put her away privily.

20 But while he † thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: † for that which is conceived in her, is of the holy ghost.

21 And she shal e bring forth a Son, and thou shalt call his name Jesus: for he shal † save his people from their sins.

22 (Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

23 Behold, a virgin shal be with child, and shal bring forth a Son, and * they shal call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is God with us)

24 Then Joseph being raised from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife:

25 And knew her not till she had brought forth her first born Son; and he called his name Jesus.

CHAP. II.

The wise men come to Christ.

NOw when a Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem,

2 Saying, Where is * he that is born king of the Jews: for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

3 When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and a all Jerusalem with him.

4 And when he had gathered all the b chief priests and c scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born.

5 And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judea: for thus it is written by the prophet.

6 d And thou Bethlehem in the land of Juda, art not the least among the † princes of Juda: for out of thee shal come a governour that shal * rule my people Israel.

7 Then Herod when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go, and search diligently for the young child, and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

9 When they had heard the king, e they departed, and lo, the star which they saw in the east, f went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

10 When they saw the star, they g rejoyced with exceeding great joy.

11 ¶ And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and b fell down and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they * presented unto him gifts, gold and frankincense, and myrrhe.

12 And being k warned of God in a dream, that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

13 And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into l Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.

14 When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt.

15 And was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, m Out of Egypt have I called my Son.

16 ¶ Then Herod, when he saw was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, & in all the coasts thereof, from two years old, and under, according to the time which he had diligently enquired of the wise men.

17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by n Jeremy the prophet, saying,

18 o In Rama was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

19 ¶ But when Herod was dead: behold an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt:

20 Saying, Arise, and take the young child, and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for a they are dead b which sought the young childs life.

21 And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel.

22 But when he heard that Archelaus did reign in Judea, in the room of his father Herod, c he was afraid to go thither: notwithstanding, being d warned of God in a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Galilee.

23 And he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the e prophets, f He shall be called a Nazarene.

CHAP. III.

John preacheth and baptizeth.

IN a those days b came John the baptist, c preaching in the d wilderness of Judea.

2 And saying, Repent ye: for the e kingdom of heaven is at hand.

3 For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Esaias, saying, f The voice of one crying in the wilderness g prepare ye the way of the Lord, b make his paths straight.

4 And the same John had his raiment of camels hair, and a leathern girdle k about his loins, and his meat was i locusts and m wilde honey.

5 Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judea, and all the region round about Jordan.

6 And were baptized of him in Jordan, n confessing their sins.

7 ¶ But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptisme, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance.

9 And think not to say within your selves, o We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these p stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

10 And now also the ax is laid unto the root of the trees: q therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewen down and cast into the fire.

11 r I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me, is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shal baptize you with the holy Ghost, and with fire.

12 Whose s fan is in his hand, and he will throughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner: but will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

13 ¶ t Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to Jordan, unto John, to be baptized of him.

14 But John forbad him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me?

15 And Jesus answering, said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffered him.

16 And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straight way out of the water: and lo, the heavens a were opened b unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending c like a dove, and lighting upon him.

17 And lo, a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

CHAP. IV.

Christ fasteth and is tempted.

THen was a Jesus led b up of the spirit into the c wilderness, to be d tempted of the devil.

2 And when he had fasted e fourty days, and fourty nights, he was afterward f an hungred.

3 And when the g tempter came to him, he said, b If thou be the Son of God, i command that these stones be made bread.

4 But he answered, and said, k It is written, Man shal not live by bread l alone, but by every word that i proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

5 m Then the devil n taketh him up into the holy city, and setteth him o on a pinacle of the temple,

6 And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thy self down: for it is written, p he shal give his angels charge concerning thee, and in their hands they shal bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

7 Jesus said unto him, It is written l again, q Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

8 Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them:

9 And saith unto him, all these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me.

10 Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, r Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

11 Then the devil s leaveth him, and behold, angels came and ministred unto him.

12 ¶ t Now when Jesus had heard that John was u cast into prison, he departed into Galilee.

13 And leaving Nazareth, he came x and dwelt in Capernaum, which is upon the sea coast in the borders of Zebulun and Nephtali.

14 That it might be fulfilled, which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying,

15 x The land of Zabulun, and the land Nephtali, by the way of the sea beyond Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles.

16 The people which sat in darkness, saw great light: and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death, light is sprung up.

17 ¶ x From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent: for the kingdom kingdom of heaven is at hand.

15 ¶ a And Jesus walking by the b the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, Simon, called c Peter, and Andrew his brother, d casting a net into the sea, (for they were e fishers.)

19 And he saith unto them, Follow me: and I will make you f fishers of men.

20 And they g straightway left their nets, and followed him:

21 And going on from thence, he saw other two brethren, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets: and he called them.

22 And they immediatly left the ship, b and their father, and followed him.

23 ¶ And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing f all manner of sickness, and all manner of disease among the people.

24 And his fame went throughout all k Syria: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases, & torments, & those which were * possessed with devils, & those that were lunatick, and those that had the palsie, & he healed them.

25 And there followed him great multitudes of people from Galilee, and from Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, and from Judea, and from beyond Jordan.

CHAP. V.

Who are the light of the world.

AND seeing the a multitudes, he went up into a b mountain, and when he was c set, his disciples came unto him.

2 And he d opened his mouth and taught them, saying,

3 e Blessed are the f poor in spirit; for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

4 Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

5 g Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

6 Blessed are they which do hunger, and thirst after righteousnes: h for they shall be filled.

7 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

8 i Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

9 Blessed are the peace-makers: for they shall be called the children of God

10 k Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousnes sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

11 Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you † falsely for my sake.

12 Rejoyce, and be exceeding glad, for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets, which were before you.

13 ¶ Ye are the a salt of the earth: b but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? It is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be troden under foot of men.

14 Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill, cannot be hid.

15 Neither do men light a c candle, and put it under a * bushel: but on a candlestick, and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

16 Let your light so shine before men, d that they may see your good works, and glorifie your father which is in heaven.

17 ¶ Think not that I am come to destroy the law or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

18 For verily I say unto you, * Till heaven and earth pass, one jot, or one tittle shal in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled:

19 e Whosoever therefore shal break one of these least commandments, and shal teach men so, he shal be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shal do and teach them, the same shal be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

20 For I say unto you, that f except your righteousnes shal exceed the righteousnes of the Scribes and Pharisees, ye shal in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

21 Ye have heard, that it was said † by them of oid time; g thou shalt not kill: and whosoever shal kill, shal be in danger of the judgment.

22 But I say unto you, that whosoever is angry with his brother b without a cause, shal be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shal say unto his brother * Racha, shal be in danger of the council: but whosoever shal say, Thou fool, shal be in danger of hell fire.

23 Therefore if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there remembrest that thy brother hath ought against thee;

24 Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.

25 i Agree with thine adversarie quickly whiles thou art in the way with him: lest at any time the adversarie deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison.

26 Verily I say unto thee, thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing.

27 Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, k thou shalt not commit adultery.

28 But I say unto you, that whosoever l looketh on a woman, to lust after her, hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.

29 m And if thy right eye * offend thee, n pluck it out, and cast it from thee; for it is profitable for thee, that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

30 And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

31 It hath been said, a Whosoever shal put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement.

32 But I say unto you, b that whosoever shal put away his wife, † saving for the cause of fornication: causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shal marry her that is divorced, committeth adultery.

33 Again, ye have heard that it hath

45 That ye may be the children of your father which is in heaven: for he maketh the sun to rise on the evil, and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just, and on the unjust.

46 q For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicanes the same?

47 And if ye salute your brethren only, what do you more than others, do not even the publicanes so?

48 Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven, is perfect.

CHAP. VI.

Christ continueth his sermon, &c.

TAke heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward * of your Father which is in heaven.

2 Therefore when a thou doest thine alms, * do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues, and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, they have † their reward:

3 But when thou doest alms, b let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth.

4 That thine alms may be c in secret, and thy Father which seeth in secret, himself shal reward thee d openly.

5 ¶ And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to e pray standing in the synagogues, and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

6 But thou when thou prayest enter into thy * closet, and when thou which is in secret, and thy Father which seeth in secret shal reward thee openly.

7 But when ye pray, use not * vain repetitions as the heathen do: for they think that they shal be heard for their much speaking.

8 Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of before ye ask him.

9 f After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which g art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

10 Thy kingdom come. h Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

11 Give us this day our daily bread.

12 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

13 And i lead us not into temptation, but deliver us * from evil: for thine k is the kingdom, & the power, and the glory, for ever, Amen.

14 For l if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you.

15 But, if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 * Moreover, when ye fast, be not as the hypocrites of a m sad countenance, for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

17 But thou when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face:

18 That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret shal reward thee openly.

19 ¶ n Lay not up for your selves treasures upon earth, where * moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal.

20 p But lay up for your selves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal.

21 For where your treasure is, there will q your heart be also.

22 r The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shal be full of light.

23 But if thine eye be b evil, thy whole body shal be full of darkness: If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness.

24 ¶ c No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will hold to the one and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and d mammon.

25 Therefore I say unto you, * Take no thought for your life, what ye shal eat, or what ye shal drink, nor yet for your body, what ye shal put on: is not the life more than meat? and the body more than ralment?

26 Behold, the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns, yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?

27 Which of you by taking thought, can add one cubit unto his stature?

28 And why take ye thought for ralment? † Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: they toil not, neither do they spin.

30 Wherefore if God so clothe the g graſs of the field, which b to day is, and to morrow is caſt into the oven, ſhal he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?

31 Therefore take no thought, ſaying, What ſhal we eat, or what ſhal we drink, or wherewithal ſhal we be clothed?

32 (For after all theſe things do the Gentiles ſeek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth, that ye have need of all theſe things.

33 But ſeek ye firſt the i kingdom of God, and k his righteouſneſs: and all theſe things ſhal be l added unto you.

34 Take therefore no thought for to morrow: for the l morrow ſhal take thought for the things of it ſelf: ſufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

CHAP. VII.

Chriſt reproveth raſh judgment.

JUdge a not, that ye be not judged.

2 For b with what judgment ye judge, ye ſhal be judged: c and with what meaſure ye mete, it ſhal be meaſured to you again.

3 d And why beholdeſt thou the mote that is in thy brothers eye, but conſidereſt not the beam that is in thine own eye.

4 Or how wilt thou ſay to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye, and behold, a beam is in thine own eye?

5 Thou hypocrite, firſt caſt out the beam out of thine own eye, and then thou ſhalt ſee clearly to caſt out the mote out of thy brothers eye.

6 a Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither caſt ye your pearls before ſwine, leſt they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rent you.

7 ¶ b Ask, and it ſhal be given you; ſeek, and ye ſhal find: knock, and it ſhal be opened unto you.

8 For every one that asketh, c receiveth: and he that ſeeketh findeth: and to him that knocketh, it ſhal be opened.

9 d Or what man is there of you, whom if his ſon ask bread, will he give him a ſtone?

10 Or if he aſk a fiſh, will he give him a ſerpent?

11 If ye then being evil, know how to give goodgifts unto your children, how much more ſhal your Father which is in heaven, give e good things to them that aſk him?

12 Therefore all things f whatſoever ye would that men ſhould do to you, do ye even ſo to them: for this is the law and the prophets.

13 ¶ g Enter ye in at the ſtrait gate, for wide is the gate, and broad is the way that leadeth to deſtruction, and many there be which go in thereat:

14 * Becauſe ſtrait is the gate, and narrow is the way which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

15 b Beware of i falſe prophets k which come to you in ſheeps clothing: but inwardly they are ravening * wolves.

16 Ye ſhal know them by their fruits: * Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thiſtles?

17 Even ſo every good tree bringeth forth good fruit: but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit.

18 A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

19 * Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewn down and caſt into the fire.

20 Wherefore by their fruits, ye ſhal know them.

21 ¶ Not every one that ſaith unto me, p Lord, Lord, ſhal enter into the kingdom of heaven: but he that doth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

22 Many will ſay to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophecied in thy name? and in thy name have q caſt out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

23 And then will I profeſs unto them, r I never knew you: ſ depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

24 ¶ Therefore t whoſoever heareth theſe ſayings of mine, and doth them, I will liken him unto a wiſe man, which built his houſe upon a rock,

25 And the rain deſcended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that houſe: and it fell not, for it was founded upon a rock.

26 And every one that heareth theſe ſayings of mine, and doth them not, ſhal be likened unto a fooliſh man, which built his houſe upon the ſand:

27 And the rain deſcended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that houſe, and it fell, and great was the fall of it.

28 And it came to paſs, when Jeſus had ended theſe ſayings, b the people were aſtoniſhed at his doctrine.

29 For he taught them as one having authority, and not as the ſcribes.

CHAP. VIII.

Chriſt cleanſeth the leper.

WHen he was a come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.

2 b And behold, there came a leper, and worſhipped him, ſaying, Lord, c if thou wilt, d thou canſt make me clean.

3 And Jeſus put forth his hand, and e touched him, ſaying, I will, f be thou clean. And immediately his leproſie was cleanſed.

4 And Jeſus ſaith unto him, See thou g tell no man, but go thy way, ſhew thy ſelf to the prieſt, and offer the gift that b Moſes commanded, for a teſtimony unto them.

5 ¶ i And when Jeſus was entred into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion, beſeeching him,

6 And ſaying, Lord, my k ſervant † lieth at home ſick of the palſie, grievouſly tormented.

7 And Jeſus ſaith unto him, l I will come and heal him.

8 The centurion anſwered, and ſaid, Lord, I am m not worthy that thou ſhouldeſt come under my roof: but ſpeak the word only, and my ſervant ſhal be healed.

10 When Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no not in Israel.

11 And I say unto you, that n many shal come from the east, and west, and o shal sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven:

12 But the * children of the kingdom shal be cast out into utter darkness: there shal be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

13 And Jesus said unto the Centurion, Go thy way, and q as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the self same hour.

14 ¶ r And when Jesus was come into Peters house, he saw his wives mother laid, and sick of a fever:

15 And he touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose, and ministred unto them.

16 ¶ s When the even was come, they brought unto him many that were possessed with devils; and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick.

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, a Himself took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses.

18 ¶ Now when Jesus saw great multitudes about him, he gave commandment to depart unto the other side.

19 b And a certain scribe came, and said unto him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest:

20 And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests: but the d son of man hath not where to lay his head.

21 And another of his disciples e said unto him, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

22 But Jesus said unto him, Follow me, and f let the dead bury their dead.

23 ¶ And when he was entred into a ship, his disciples followed him.

24 g And behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was b covered with the waves: but he was i asleep.

25 And his disciples came to him and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish.

26 And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of k little faith? then he arose, and l rebuked the winds and the sea, and there was a great m calm.

27 But the n men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him?

28 ¶ o And when he was come to the other side, into the country of the Gergesenes, there met him two possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs, p exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way.

29 And behold, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee, Jesus, thou son of God, art thou come hither to q torment us before the time?

30 And there was a good way off from them, an herd of many swine feeding.

31 So the devils besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to 32 And he said unto them, r Go. And when they were come out, they went into the herd of swine: and behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea, and perished in the waters.

33 And they that kept them, fled, and went their ways into the city, and told every thing, and what was befallen to the possessed of the devils.

34 And behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus: and when they saw him, they besought him that he would s depart out of their coasts.

CHAP. IX.

Christ cureth the palsie.

AND he entred into a ship, and passed over, and came into his own city.

2 b And behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsie, lying on a bed; and Jesus c seeing their faith, said unto the sick of the palsie, Son d be of good cheer, thy sins be forgiven thee.

3 And behold, certain of the scribes said e within themselves, This man blasphemeth.

4 And Jesus † knowing their thoughts, said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts?

5 For whether is it easier to say, thy sins be forgiven thee, or to say, Arise and walk?

6 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (Then saith he to the sick of the palsie) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house.

7 And he arose, and departed to his house.

8 But when the multitude saw it, they marvelled, and glorified God, which had given such power unto men.

9 ¶ f And as Jesus passed forth from thence, he saw a man named Matthew, sitting at the receit of custom, and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and g followed him.

10 And it came to pass, as Jesus sate at meat b in the house, behold, many Publicanes and sinners came, and sate down with him, and his disciples.

11 And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your master with publicanes and sinners?

12 But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick.

13 But go ye, and learn what that meaneth: i I will have mercy, and k not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, l but sinners m to repentance.

14 ¶ Then came to him the disciples of John, saying, n Why do we and the Pharisees fast oft, but thy disciples fast not?

15 And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of the bride-chamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the days will come when the bridegroom shal be taken from them, and then shal they fast.

18 ¶ p While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came a certain ruler, and worshipped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come, and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live.

19 And Jesus arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples.

20 (And behold, a woman which was diseased with an issue of blood a twelve years, b came behind him and touched the c hem of his garment.

21 For she said within her self, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole.

26 And * the fame thereof went abroad into all the land.

27 And when Jesus departed thence, two blind men followed him, crying, and saying, f Thou son of David, have mercy on us.

28 And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him: And Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They said unto him, Yea, Lord.

29 Then touched he their eyes, saying, g According to your faith be it unto you.

30 And their b eyes were opened, and Jesus strairly charged them, saying, See that no man know it.

31 But they, when they were departed, spread abroad his fame in all that countrey.

32 ¶ As they went out, behold, they brought to him a dumb man possessed with a devil.

33 And when the devil was cast out, the dumb spake, and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Israel.

34 But the Pharisees said, k He casteth out the devils through the prince of the devils.

35 ¶ And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, & preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness, and every disease among the people.

36 ¶ m But when he saw the multitude, he was moved with compassion on them, because they * fainted, and were scattered abroad, n as sheep having no shepherd.

he Apostles sent and comforted.

AND a when he had called unto him his twelve disciples, he gave them power † against unclean spirits to cast them out, and to heal b all manner of sickness, and all manner of diseases.

2 Now the names of the twelve Apostles are these: The first Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother:

3 Philip and Bartholomew, Thomas, and Matthew the d Publican, James the son of Alpheus, and Lebbeus, whose surname was Thaddeus.

4 Simon the Canaanite: and Judas Iscariot: who also betrayed him.

5 These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not into the way of the e Gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritanes enter ye not

6 f But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

7 And as ye go, preach, saying, The g kingdom of heaven is at hand.

8 Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils, freely ye have received, freely give.

9 b † Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor brass in your purse.

10 Nor scrip for your journey: neither two coats, neither shoes, nor yet staves: (for the workman is worthy of his meat.)

11 And into whatsoever city or h town ye shal enter, enquire who in it is l worthy, and there abide till ye go thence.

12 And when ye come into an house, m salute it.

13 And n if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it: but o if it be not worthy, p let your peace return to you.

14 l And whosoever shal not receive you, nor hear your words: when ye depart out of that house or city, r shake off the dust of your feet.

15 Verily I say unto you, It shal be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgement, than for that city.

16 Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore † wise as serpents, and † harmless as doves.

17 But beware of men, for they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will † scourge you in their synagogues:

18 And ye shal be brought before governours and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them, and the Gentiles:

19 s But when they deliver you up take no thought, how or what ye shal speak: for it shal be given you in that same hour what ye shal speak.

20 For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father, which speaketh in you.

21 n And the brother shal deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shal rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death.

22 And ye shal be hated of all men for my name sake; a but he that endureth unto the end, shal be saved.

25 It is enough for the disciple, that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord: If they have called the master of the house d Beelzebub, how much more shal they call them of his houshold?

35 For I am come to set a man at variance m against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.

36 And a mans foes shall be they of his own houshold.

37 n He that loveth father or mother more than me, is not worthy of me: & he that loveth son or daughter more than me, is not worthy of me.

39 p He that findeth his life, shal loſe it: and he that loſeth his life for my sake, shal find it.

40 ¶ q He that receiveth you, receiveth me; and he that receiveth me, receiveth him that sent me.

41 He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet, shal receive a prophets reward: and he that receiveth a righteous man, in the name of a righteous man, shal receive a righteous mans reward.

42 And r whosoever shal give to drink unto one of these little ones, a cup of cold water only, in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shal in no wise loſe his reward.

Christs testimony of John, &c.

AND it came to paſs, when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and to preach a in their cities.

2 b Now when John had heard † in the prison, the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples.

3 And ſaid unto him, Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another?

4 Jesus answered and ſaid unto them, Go and shew John again those things which ye do hear and see:

5 c The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk: the lepers are cleanſed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raiſed up, and c the poor have the gospel preached to them.

6 f And blesſed is he, whosoever shal not be offended in me.

7 ¶ And as they departed, Jesus began to say unto the multitude concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderneſs to see? a reed shaken with the wind?

8 But what went ye out for to see? a man cloathed in ſoft raiment? Behold, they that wear ſoft clothing are in kings houſes.

9 But what went ye out for to see; A prophet? yea, I say unto you, and more than a prophet.

10 For this is he of whom it is written, g Behold, I send h my meſsenger before thy face, which shal prepare thy way before thee.

11 Verily I say unto you, Among them † that are born of women, there hath not riſen a greater than John the Baptiſt: notwithſtanding, he that is leaſt in the kingdom of heaven, is greater than he.

12 i And from the days of John the baptiſt until now, the kingdom of heaven ᵛ ſuffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.

13 For all the prophets, and the law propheſied until John.

14 And if ye will receive it, this is k Elias, which was for to come.

15 He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

16 l But whereunto shal I liken this generation? It is like unto children ſitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows, 17 And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced: we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented.

18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a devil.

19 The ſon of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a wine bibber, a friend of publicanes, and ſinners: but a wiſdom is juſtified of her children.

20 ¶ b Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein moſt of his mighty works were done, because they repented not.

21 Wo unto thee Chorazin, wo unto thee Bethſaida: for if the mighty works which were done in you, had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, ſitting in ſackcloth and aſhes.

22 But I say unto you, It shal be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you.

23 And thou Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

24 But I say unto you, that it shal be more tolerable for the land of Sodom, in l John. 4.1.2

AT that time a Jesus went on the sabbath day thorow the corn, and his disciples were an hungred, and b began to pluck the ears of corn, and to eat.
2 But when the pharisees saw it, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples c do that which is not lawful to do upon the sabbath day.
3 But he said unto them, Have ye not read, what d David did when he was an hungred, and they that were with him.
4 How he entred into the house of God, and did eat thee shew-bread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, e but only for the priests.
5 Or have ye not read in the law, how that on the sabbath day the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blameless?
6 But I say unto you, that in this place is one greater than the temple.
7 But if ye had known what this meaneth, g I will have mercy and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless.
8 For the son of man is Lord even of the sabbath-day.
9 h And when he was departed thence, he went into their synagogue.
10 ¶ And behold, there was a man which had his hand withered, i and they asked him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath-days? that they might accuse him.
11 And he said unto them, what man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep, & if it fall into a pit on the sabbath-day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out?
12 How much then is a man f better than a sheep? wherefore it is lawful to do well on the sabbath-days.
13 Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand; and he stretched it forth, and it was restored whole, like as the other.
14 ¶ Then the pharisees went out and k held a counsel against him, how they might destroy him.
15 But when Jesus knew it, g he withdrew himself from thence; and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all:
16 And charged them that they should not make him known.
17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying,
18 Behold, h my servant whom I have chosen, my beloved in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put i my spirit upon him, and he shall shew judgment to the Gentiles.
19 He shall not strive, k nor cry, neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets.
20 l A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoaking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victory.
21 And in his Name shall the Gentiles trust.
22 ¶ m Then was brought unto him one o possessed with a devil, blind and dumb: and he healed him, insomuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw.
23 And all the people were amazed, and said, Is not this the son of David?
24 p But when the pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by Beelzebub the prince of the devils.
25 And Jesus knew their thoughts, & said unto them, Every kingdom * divided against it self, is brought to † desolation: & every city or house divided against it self shall not stand.
26 And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself, how shall then his kingdom stand?
27 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your children q cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges.
28 But if I cast out devils by the spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you.
29 Or else, how can one enter into a strong mans house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man, and then he will spoil his house?
30 He that is not with me, is against me: and he that gathereth not with me, scattereth abroad.
31 ¶ Wherefore I say unto you, b All manner of sin, and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men.
32 And whosoever speaketh a word against the son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, d neither in this world, neither in the world to come.
33 Either make the tree good, and his fruit good: or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit.
34 O e generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? f for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.
35 g A good man out of the good treasure of his heart, bringeth forth good things: & an evil man out of the evil treasure, bringeth forth evil things.
36 k But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall i give account thereof in the day of Judgement.

The parable of the sower, &c.

a Mark 4.1 Joh.6.1 b Chap. 12.38 c Mark 5.31 Luk.5.1 d Luke 8.5 e Chap. 12.2

THe same day went Jesus out of the house, a and sat by the sea-side.

2 And b great multitudes were gathered together unto him, so that he c went into a ship, and sat, and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

3 And he spake many things unto them in parables, saying, d Behold, a sower went forth to sow.

4 And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the e way side, and the fowls came and devoured them up.

5 Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up: because they had no deepness of earth.

6 And when the sun was up, they were scorched: and because they had no root, they withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns: and the thorns sprung up, and choked them.

8 But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit: f some an hundred fold, some sixty fold, some thirty fold.

9 g Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 b And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables?

11 He answered, and said unto them, Because it is given i unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

12 k For whosoever hath, to him shal be given, and he shal have more abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shal be taken away, even that he hath.

13 Therefore speak I unto them in parables: because they seeing see not: and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand.

14 And in them is fulfilled the prophesie of Esaias, which saith, l By hearing ye shal hear, and shal not understand: and seeing, ye shal see, and shal not perceive.

15 For this peoples heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed, lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

16 But a blessed are your eyes, b for they see: and your ears, for they hear.

17 For verily I say unto you c that many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them: and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

18 ¶ Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower.

19 When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart; this is he which received seed by the way side.

20 But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anone d with joy receiveth it:

21 Yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while: * for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offended.

22 He also that received seed among the thorns, is he that heareth the word, and the e cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches choak the word, and he becometh unfruitful.

23 But he that received seed into the good ground, is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it, which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundred fold, some sixty, some thirty.

24 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field.

25 But while men f slept, his g enemy came and sowed * tares b among the wheat, and went his way.

26 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

27 So the servants of the householder came, & said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? From whence then hath it tares?

28 He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?

29 But he said, Nay: lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.

30 Let both grow together until the harvest, and in the time of harvest, I will say to the reapers, i Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

31 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, k The kingdom of heaven is like a grain of mustard-seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field.

32 which indeed is the † least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the † greatest amongst herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come, & lodge in the branches thereof

33 ¶ Another parable spake he unto them, The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three † measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

34 b All these things spake Jesus unto the multitude in parables, & without a parable spake he not unto them:

35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the propher, saying, c I will open my mouth in parables, I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.

36 Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.

37 He answered, and said unto them, He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man.

38 The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one.

39 The enemy that sowed them, is the devil; d the harvest is the end of the world, and the reapers are the angels.

40 As therefore the tares are gathered, and burnt in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world.

41 The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all * things that offend, and them which e do iniquity;

42 And shall cast them into a f furnace of fire, there shall be wailing, and gnashing of teeth.

43 g Then shall the righteous shine forth as the b sun in the† kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

44 ¶ Again the kingdom of heaven is like unto a treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, h he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth, and i selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

45 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls;

46 Who when he had found m one pearl of great price, he went, and sold all that he had, and bought it.

47 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind.

48 Which when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but n cast the bad away.

49 So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just;

50 And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing, and gnashing of teeth.

51 Jesus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? they say unto him, yea, LORD.

52 Then said he unto them, therefore a every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven, is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure, things new and old.

53 ¶ And it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these parables, hee departed thence.

54 d And when he was come into his e own country, he taught them in their synagogues, insomuch that they were astonished, & said. Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these f mighty works?

55 g Is not this the carpenters son? Is not his mother called Mary? And h his brethren, James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas?

56 And his sisters are they not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things?

57 And they were offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, † A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, & in his own house.

13 When Jesus b heard of it, he i departed thence by ship into a desert place apart: and when the people had heard thereof, they followed him on foot out of the cities.

14 And Jesus a went forth and saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their sick.

15 ¶ b And when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the † time is now past; send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves victuals.

16 But Jesus said unto them, They need not depart, give ye them to eat.

17 And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes.

18 He said, c bring them hither to me.

19 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves and the two fishes; and d looking up to heaven, he blessed, and e brake, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

20 And they did all eat, & were filled, & they took up of the fragments that remained g twelve baskets full.

21 And they that had eaten were about five thousand men, beside women and children.

22 ¶ g And straightway Jesus constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away.

23 b And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: i and when the evening was come, he was there alone.

24 But the ship was now in the midst of the sea tossed with waves; for the wind was contrary.

25 And k in the fourth watch of the night, Jesus went unto them walking on the sea.

26 And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a † spirit: and they cried out for fear.

27 But Jesus straightway spake unto them, saying, Be of † good cheer: It is I, be not afraid.

28 And Peter answered him, and said Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water.

29 And he said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water to go to Jesus.

30 But when he saw the wind * boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord save me.

31 And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, & caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?

32 And when they were come into the ship, the wind † ceased.

33 Then they that were in the ship came and worshipped him, saying, Of a † truth thou art the Son of God.

34 ¶ m And when they were gone over, they came into the land of Genesareth.

16 ¶ And behold one came and said unto him, Good master, What good thing shal I do, that I may have eternal life?
17 And he said unto him, Why calleſt thou me good? there is none good o but one, that is God, but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments.
18 He saith unto him, Which? Jesus said, f thou shalt do no murder; Thou shalt not commit adultery; Thou shalt not steal: Thou shalt not bear false witness;
19 Honour thy father and thy mother, and Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self.
20 The young man saith unto him, g All these things have I kept from my youth up; What lack I yet?
21 Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, and a follow me.
22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.
23 ¶ Then said Jesus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, that b a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven.
24 Again I say unto you, † It is easier for a camel to go thorow the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.
25 When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, who then can be saved?
26 But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.
27 ¶ c Then answered Peter, and said unto him, behold, we have forsaken all, and followed thee, what shall we have therefore?

CHAP. XX.

The labourers sent into the vineyard.

FOr the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard:
2 And when he had agreed with the labourers for a * penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard.
3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the a market-place,
4 And said unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way.
5 Again, he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise.
6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, why stand ye here all the day idle?
7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right, that shal ye receive.
8 So when even was come, the Lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first.
9 And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a peny.
10 But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more, and they likewise received every man a peny:
11 And when they had received it, they murmured against the good man of the house,
12 Saying, These last * have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal with us which have born the burden, and heat of the day.
13 But he answered one of them, and said, Friend, I do thee a no wrong: didst thou not agree with me for a peny.
14 b Take that thine is, and go thy way, I will give unto this last, even as unto thee.
15 Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? c is thine eye evil, because I am good?
16 d So the last shal be first, and the first last; for many be called: but few chosen.
17 ¶ e And Jesus going up to Jerusalem, took the twelve disciples apart in the way, and said unto them,
18 Behold, we go up f to Jerusalem, and the Son of man shal be g betrayed unto b the chief priests, and unto the Scribes, and they shal i condemn him to death:
19 And shal deliver him to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucifie him: and the third day he shal † rise again.
20 ¶ k Then came to him the mother of Zebedees Children, with her sons, worshipping him, and desiring a certain thing of him.
21 And he said unto her, What wilt thou? She saith unto him, Grant that l these my two sons may sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left hand, in thy kingdom.
22 But Jesus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of the m cup that I shal drink of: and to be baptized with the n baptism that I am baptized with? They say unto him, We are able.
23 And he saith unto them, o Ye shal drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give, but it shal be given to them, for whom it is prepared of my Father.

33 ¶ Hear another parable: There was a certain housholder, a which planted a vineyard, and b hedged it round about, and digged a wine-preſs in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husband-men, and went into a far country.

34 And when the time of the fruit drew neer, he ſent his ſervants to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it.

35 And the husbandmen took his ſervants, and beat one and killed another, and ſtoned another.

36 Again he ſent other ſervants more than the firſt: and they did unto them likewiſe.

37 But laſt of all he ſent unto them his ſon, ſaying, They will reverence my ſon.

38 But when the husbandmen ſaw the ſon, they ſaid among themſelves, c This is the heir, come let us kill him, & let us ſeize on his inheritance.

39 And they caught him, and d caſt him out of the vineyard, & ſlew him.

40 When the Lord therefore of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto thoſe husbandmen?

41 They ſay unto him, He will miſerably deſtroy thoſe wicked men, and will let out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which ſhal render him the fruits in their ſeaſons.

42 Jeſus ſaith unto them, e Did ye never read in the Scriptures, The ſtone which the builders rejected, the ſame is become f the head of the corner; This is the Lords doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes.

CHAP. XXII.

The Marriage ſupper.

AND Jeſus anſwered, a and ſpake unto them again by parables, and ſaid,

2 The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a marriage for his ſon.

3 b And ſent forth his ſervants to call them that were bidden to the wedding, and they would not come.

4 c Again he ſent forth other ſervants, ſaying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage.

5 But they made light of it, and went their wayes, one to his farm, another to his marchandiſe:

6 And the remnant took his ſervants, and intreated them ſpightfuly, and ſlew them.

7 But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth, and he ſent forth his armies, and deſtroyed thoſe murderers, and burnt up their city.

8 Then ſaid he to his ſervants, the wedding is ready, but they which were bidden, were a not worthy.

9 Go ye therefore into the b high ways, and as many as ye c ſhal find, bid to the marriage.

10 So thoſe ſervants went out into the high ways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both d bad and good, and the wedding was furniſhed with gueſts.

11 And when the king came in to ſee the gueſts, he ſaw there a man, which had not on a e wedding garment:

12 And he ſaith unto him; Friend how cameſt thou in hither, not having a wedding garment? And he was † ſpeechleſs.

17 Tell us therefore, What thinkeſt thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Ceſar, or not?

which was spoken unto you by God, saying,

36 Master, which is the great e commandment in the law?

37 Iesus said unto him, f Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

38 This is the first and great commandment.

39 And the second is like unto it, g Thou shalt love b thy neighbour as thy self.

40 On these two commandments *hang all the law and the prophets.

41 i While the pharisees were gathered together, Iesus asked them,

42 Saying, what think ye of Christ whose son is he? They say unto him, The son of David.

43 He saith unto them, How then doth David in spirit call him Lord, saying, 44 The Lord said unto my Lord, k Sit thou on my right hand, l till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

45 If David then call him Lord, how is he his son?

46 And no man was able to answer him a word, neither durst any man (from that day forth) ask him any more questions.

CHAP. XXIII.

Christ denounceth eight woes.

THen spake Iesus to the † multitude, and a to his disciples,

2 Saying, the scribes and the pharisees sit in Moses seat;

3 All therefore what soever they bid you, observe, that observe and do; but do not ye after their works, for they say and do not.

4 c For they bind heavy burdens, and grievous to be born, and lay them on mens shoulders, but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.

5 But all their works they do for a to be seen of men: b they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments,

6 And love the † uppermost rooms at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues

7 And greetings in the markets, and to be called of men Rabbi, Rabbi.

8 d But be not ye called Rabbi: e for one is your Master, even Christ, and all ye are brethren.

9 And call no man your father upon the earth, f for one is your father which is in heaven.

10 g Neither be ye called masters, for one is your master, even Christ.

11 But he that is greatest among you, shall be your servant.

12 h And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased: and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted.

13 ¶ i But woe unto you scribes and pharisees, hypocrites; for ye k shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in your selves, neither suffer ye them that are entring to go in.

14 Wo unto you scribes & pharisees, hypocrites: for ye devour widows houses, and for a pretence make long prayers: therefore ye shal receive the greater damnation.

15 l Wo unto you scribes & pharisees, hypocrites: for ye compass sea & † land to make one proselyte, & when he is made, ye make him two fold more the child of hel than your selves.

16 Wo unto you ye blind guides, which say, whosoever shal swear by the temple, it is nothing: but whosoever shal swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor.

17 Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold?

18 And whosoever shal swear by the altar, it is nothing: but whosoever sweareth by the gift that is upon it, he is * guilty.

19 Ye fools and blind, for whether is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the gift?

20 Whoso therefore shal swear by the altar: sweareth by it, and by all things thereon.

21 And whoso shal swear by the temple, sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein:

22 And he that shal swear by heaven, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.

23 Wo unto you scribes and pharisees, hypocrites; m for ye pay tithe of mint, and annise, and commin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

24 Ye blind guides, which strain at a n gnat and swallow a camel.

25 Wo unto you, scribes and pharisees, hypocrites; o for ye make clean the outside of the cup, and of the platter, but within they are full of * extortion and * excess:

26 Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first a that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also.

27 Wo unto you scribes and pharisees, hypocrites: for ye are like unto b whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautifull outward, but are within full of dead mens bones, and of all uncleanness.

28 Even so, ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisie and iniquity.

29 Wo unto you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites: because ye build the tombs of the prophets, & garnish the sepulchres of the righteous:

30 And say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.

31 Wherefore ye be witnesses * unto your selves, that ye are the children of them which killed the prophets.

35 That upon you may come i all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, k from the blood of righteous Abel, unto the blood of l Zacharias, son of Barachias, whom m ye slew between the temple and the altar.

36 Verily I say unto you, All these things shal come upon this generation.

37 n O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that o killest the prophets, p and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered q thy children r together: even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and s ye would not.

38 Behold, your house is left unto you desolate:

39 For I say unto you, Ye shal not see me henceforth, till ye shal say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

The destruction of the temple.

Mark 13.1. Luke 21.5. Luke 19.44 Hag: 2.15. Mark 13.3.

AND a Jesus went out and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him, for to shew him the building of the temple.

2 And Jesus said unto them, See ye all these things? Verily I say unto you, b There shal not be left here one * stone upon another, that shal not be thrown down.

3 ¶ And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, c the disciples came unto him d privately, saying, Tell us when shal these things be? and what shal be the signe of thy coming, and of the end of the world?

4 And Jesus answered and said unto them: Take heed that no man deceive you:

5 For many shal come in my name, saying, I am Christ: and shal deceive many.

6 And ye shal hear of wars, and rumours of wars: see that ye be b not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

7 c For nations shal rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there shal be d famines, and e pestilence, and earth-quakes in divers places.

8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.

10 And then shal b many be offended, and shal betray one another, and shal hate one another.

11 And many i false prophets shal rise, and shal deceive many.

12 And because k iniquity shal abound, the love of many shal wax cold

13 But he that shal endure unto the end, the same shal be saved.

14 And this gospel of the kingdom shal be preached l in all the world for a witness unto all nations, and then shal the end come.

15 m When ye therefore shal see the abomination of desolation spoken of by x Daniel the prophet, stand in the o holy place, (whoso readeth let him y understand.)

16 Then let them which be in Judea, flee q into the mountains,

17 Let him which is on the house top, not come down to take anything out of his house:

18 Neither let him which is in the field, return back to take his cloths.

19 And wo unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days.

20 But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath day:

21 For then shal be great tribulation, f such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shal be.

22 And except those days should be shortned, r there should no flesh be saved: but for the elects sake, those days shal be shortned.

23 u Then if any man shal say unto you, lo here is Christ, or there, believe it not.

24 For there shal arise x false Christs, and false prophets, and shal y shew great signs and wonders, insomuch that if it were possible they shal deceive the very elect.

25 Behold, I have told you before.

26 Therefore, if they shal say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert, go not forth: Behold, he is in the secret chambers, believe it not.

27 For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west: so shal also the coming of the son of man be.

28 a For wheresoever the carcase is, there will the eagles be gathered together.

29 ¶ Immediately after the tribulation of those days, b shal the sun be darkned, and the moon shal not give her light, and the stars shal fall from heaven, and the powers of the heaven shal be shaken.

30 And then shal appear c the sign of the Son of man in heaven, and then shal all the tribes of the earth d mourn, and they shal see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven, with power and great glory.

31 f And he shal send his angels with * a great sound of a trumpet, and they shal gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

32 Now learn a parable of the figtree: when his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh:

33 So likewise ye, when ye shal see all these things; know that it is near even at the doors.

34 Verily I say unto you, This generation shal not pass, till all these things be fulfilled.

35 g Heaven & earth shal pass away, but my words shal not pass away.

36 ¶ But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no not the angels of heaven, but my Father only.

37 But as the dayes of Noe were, so shal also the coming of the Son of man be.

in marriage, until the day that Noe entred into the ark:

39 And knew not until the flood came, & took them all away: so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

40 k Then shall two be in the field, the one shal be taken, and the other left.

41 Two women shal be grinding in the mill: the one shal be taken, and the other left.

42 q m Watch therefore, for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come.

43 n But know this, that if the good man of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up:

44 Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as you think not, the Son of man cometh.

45 o Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath p made ruler over his houshold; to give them q meat in due season?

46 Blessed is that servant whom his lord when he cometh shal find so doing.

47 Verily, I say unto you, that he shal make him ruler over all his goods

48 But and if that evil servant shal say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming:

49 And shal begin to smite his fellow servants, and to eat and drink with the drunken.

50 The lord of that servant shal come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of:

51 And shal * cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the * hypocrites: there shal be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

CHAP. XXV.

The parable of the ten virgins.

THen shal the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the Bridegroom.

2 And five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oyl with them:

4 But the wise took oyl in their vessels with their lamps.

5 While the bridegroom tarried, they a all slumbred and slept.

6 And at midnight there was a cry made, behold, the bridegroom cometh, go ye out and meet him.

7 Then all those virgins arose, and b trimmed their lamps.

8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oyl, for our lamps are * gone out.

9 And the wise answered, saying, Not so, lest there be not enough for us and you, but go ye rather to them that sel, and d buy for e your selves.

10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came, and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage, and the f door was shut.

11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, g Lord, Lord, b open to us.

12 But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, i I know you not.

13 k Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.

14 q l For the kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods:

15 f And unto one he gave five * talents, to another two, and to another one, to every man o according to his severall ability, and straightway took his journey.

16 Then he that had received the five talents, went and traded with the same, & made them other five talents.

17 And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two.

18 But he that had received one, went and digged in the earth, and hid his lords money.

19 After a long time the lord of those servants p cometh, and reckoneth with them.

20 And so he that had received five talents, came and brought other five talents, saying, lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents, behold, I have gained besides them five talents more

21 His lord said unto him, Well done thou good and faithful servant, thou hast been faithful over q a few things, I will make thee ruler r over many things, enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

22 He also that had received two talents came and said, lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents, behold I have gained two other talents besides them.

23 His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithfull servant, thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

24 Then he which had received the one talent, came, and said, Lord I knew thee that thou art an † hard man, reaping when thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strawed.

25 And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine.

26 His lord answered and said unto him, thou wicked and slouthful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strawed.

27 Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers; and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury.

28 Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him which hath ten talents.

29 d For unto every one that hath shal be given, and he shal have abundance: but from him that hath not, shal be taken away, even that which he hath.

30 And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness, there shal be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

31 q When the son of man shal come in his glory, and all the f holy angels with him, then shal he sit upon the throne of his glory.

32 And before him shal g be gathered all nations, and he shal b separate them one from another, as a the shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats.

33 And he shal set the k sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left.

34 Then shal i the King say unto them,

CHAP. XXVI.

A conspiracy against Christ.

AND it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said unto his disciples,

2 a Ye know that after two days is the feast of the passeover, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified.

3 b Then assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas,

4 And c consulted that they might take Jesus by subtilty, and kill him.

5 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar among the people.

6 ¶ c Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper

7 There came unto him f a woman, having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and g poured it on his head, as he sat at meat.

8 But when his b disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste?

9 For this ointement might have been sold for much, and given to the i poor.

10 When Jesus understood it, he said unto them, why trouble ye the woman: for she hath wrought a good work upon me.

11 k For ye have the poor always with you, but me ye have not always.

12 For in that she hath poured this ointment on my body, she did it for l my burial.

13 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shal be preached in the whole world, there shal also this, that this woman hath done, be told m for a memorial of her.

14 ¶ n Then one of the twelve, o called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests.

15 And said unto them, what will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? and they covenanted with him for a thirty pieces of silver.

16 And from that time he sought * opportunity to betray him.

17 ¶ b Now the first day of the feast of unleavened bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passeover?

18 And he said Go into the city c to such a man, and say unto him, the master saith, My time is at hand; I will keep the passeover at thy house, with my disciples.

19 And the disciple did as Jesus had appointed them, and they made ready the passover.

20 Now when the even was come, he sat down with the twelve.

21 And as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shal betray me.

22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, Is it I?

23 And he answered, and said, d He that dippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shal betray me.

24 The Son of man goeth as it is written of him; but woe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed: it had been good for that man if he had not been born.

25 Then Judas who betrayed him, answered and said, Master is it I? He said unto him, thou hast said.

26 And as they were * eating, Jesus took bread, and * blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, take, eat, this is b my body.

27 And he took the f cup, and g gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, f Drink ye all of it:

28 For this is my m bloud of the new Testament, which is shed n for many, for the o remission of sins.

29 But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my fathers kingdom.

30 And when they had sung an * hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

31 Then saith Jesus unto them, p All ye shal be offended because of me this night: for it is written, q I will smite the Shepherd, & the sheep of the flock shal be scattered abroad.

32 But after I am risen again, r I will go before you into Galilee.

33 Peter answered, and said unto him, Though all men shal be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended.

34 Jesus said unto him, s Verily I say unto thee, that this night before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

35 Peter said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

36 ¶ t Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here while I go and pray yonder.

37 And he took with him Peter, and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful, and a very heavy.

38 Then saith he unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch with me.

39 And he went a little further, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let b this cup pass from me: Nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt.

40 And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them c asleep, and saith unto Peter, What could ye not watch with me one hour?

41 Watch and pray, d that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me except I drink it, f thy will be done.

43 And he came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy.

44 And he left them, and went away again, & g prayed the third time, saying the same words.

45 Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest, behold the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands h of sinners.

46 Arise, l let us be going: behold, he is at hand that doth betray me.

47 ¶ And k while he yet spake, lo, Judas one of the twelve came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves from the chief priests and elders of the people.

48 Now he that betrayed him, gave them a sign, saying, † whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he, hold him fast.

49 And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail master, and k kissed him.

50 And Jesus said unto him, Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they and laid hands on Jesus, and took him.

51 And behold m one of them which were with Jesus stretched out his hand & drew his sword, & stroke a servant of the high priests, & smote off his ear.

52 Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into his place: n for all they that take the sword, shall perish with the sword.

53 Think est thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me more than ° twelve legions of angels?

54 But how then shall the scriptures be fulfilled, ᵖ that thus it must be?

55 In that same hour said Jesus to the multitude, Are ye come out as against a thief with swords and staves for to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me.

56 But all this was done, that the ᵖ scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples forsook him and fled.

57 ¶ q And they that laid hold on Jesus, led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled.

58 But Peter followed him afar off unto the high priests palace, and went in, and sat with the servants to see the end.

59 Now the chief priests and elders, and all the council, sought false witness against Jesus to put him to death.

60 a But found none, yea, though many false witnesses came, yet found they none. At the last came b two false witnesses, 61 And said, This fellow said, c I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.

62 And the high priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing, what is it, which these witness against thee?

63 But Jesus held his peace. And the high priest answered, and said unto him, d I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us, whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God.

64 Jesus saith unto him, thou hast said: Nevertheless, I say unto you, e hereafter shal ye see the Son of man f sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

65 Then the high priest g rent his clothes, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy, what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard his blasphemy.

66 What think ye? They answered, and said, He is guilty of death.

67 h Then did they spit in his face, and buffered him, and others smote him with the ° palms of their hands,

68 Saying, i Prophesie unto us thou Christ, who is he that smote thee?

69 k Now Peter sat without in the palace: and a damsel came unto him saying, Thou also wast with Jesus of Galilee:

70 But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest.

71 And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jesus l of Nazareth.

72 And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man.

73 And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou also art one of them, for m thy speech bewrayeth thee.

74 Then began he to ° curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew.

75 And Peter n remembred the words of Jesus, which said unto him, Before the o cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and q wept bitterly.

they led him away, and a delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governour.

3 ¶ Then Judas which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned: † repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

4 Saying, I have sinned, in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that.

5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, b and departed, and went and * hanged himself.

6 And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful for to put them into the treasury, because it is the c price of blood.

7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potters field, to bury e strangers in.

8 Wherefore that field was called, f the field of blood unto this day.

9 (Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying, g And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, * whom they of the children of Israel did value;

10 And gave them for the potters field, as the Lord appointed me.)

11 And Jesus stood before the governour, and the governour asked him, saying, Art thou the king of the Jews? and Jesus said unto him, † thou sayest.

12 And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he i answered nothing.

13 Then saith Pilate unto him, Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee?

14 And he answered him to never a word, insomuch that the governour marvelled greatly.

15 k Now at that I feast the governour was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would.

16 And they had then a m notable prisoner called Barrabas.

17 Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you, Barrabas, or Jesus which is called Christ?

18 For he knew that for envy they had delivered him.

19 When he was set down on the judgment seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, † Have thou nothing to do with that n just man; for I have suffered many things this day in a dream, because of him.

20 o But the chief priests, and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Barrabas, & destroy Jesus.

21 The governour answered, and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? they said, Barrabas.

22 Pilate said unto them, what shall I do then with Jesus, which is called Christ? They all said unto him, Let him be crucified.

23 And the governour said, Why, what evil hath he done? but they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

24 ¶ When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and a washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this b just person: see ye to it.

25 Then answered all the people, and said, c His blood be on us, and on our children.

26 Then released he Barrabas unto them, and when he had d scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.

27 e Then the souldiers of the governour took Jesus into the * common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band of souldiers.

28 And they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe.

29 And when they had plated a crown of thorns; they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they f bowed the knee before him and mocked him, saying, Hail king of the Jews.

30 And they g spit upon him, and took the reed and smote him on the head.

31 And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him: and led him away to crucifie him.

32 h And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they i compelled to bear his cross.

33 k And when they were come unto a place called Golgatha, that is to say, a place of a skul.

34 They gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall, and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink.

35 And they l crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, m they parted my garments among them, and on my vesture did they cast lots.

36 And sitting down they watched him there.

37 And set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

38 Then were there two thieves crucified with him: one on the right hand, and another on the left.

39 And n they that passed by, reviled him, o wagging their heads

40 And saying, Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thy self, if thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross.

41 Likewise also the chief priests * mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said,

42 He p saved others, himself he cannot save, if he be the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, q and we will believe him.

43 r He trusted in God, let him deliver him now if he will have him: * for he said, I am the Son of God.

44 * The thieves also which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth.

45 Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour.

46 And about the ninth hour Jesus cryed with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani, that is to say, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

47 Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, this man calleth for Elias.

54 Now when the centurion, and they that were with him h watching Jesus, saw the earth-quake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the i Son of God.

55 And many women were there (beholding k afar off) which l followed Jesus from Galilee, ministring unto him.

56 Among which was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the m mother of James, and Joses the mother of Zebedees children.

57 n When the even was come, there came a rich man of o Arimathea named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus disciple.

58 He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus: then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered.

59 And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth.

60 And laid it in his p own new tomb which he had hewen out in the rock, and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed.

61 And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.

62 Now the next day that followed the q day of the preparation, the chief priests, and pharisees came together unto Pilate.

63 Saying, Sir, we remember that that r deceiver f said, while he was yet alive, after three days I will rise again.

64 Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: so the last errour shal be worse than the first.

65 Pilate said unto them, Ye have a watch, go your way, make it as sure as ye can.

66 So they went and made the sepulchre sure, t sealing the stone, and setting a watch.

CHAP. XXVIII.

Christs resurrection declared.

IN the a end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn, towards the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, to see the sepulchre.

2 And behold there * was a b great earth-quake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

3 c His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow.

4 And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and become as dead men.

5 And the angel answered, and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus which was crucified.

6 He is not here: for he is risen, d as he said: Come, e see the place where the f Lord lay.

7 And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead. And behold, he goeth before you g into Galilee, there shal ye see him: lo, I have told you.

8 And they departed quickly from the sepulchre, with fear and great joy, and did run to bring his disciples word.

9 And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came, and held him by the feet, and worshipped him.

10 Then said Jesus unto them, Be not afraid: go tell my a brethren, that they go into Galilee, and there shal they see me.

11 Now when they were going, behold, some of the watch came into the city, and shewed unto the chief priests all the things that were done.

12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave * large money unto the souldiers.

13 Saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him away, while we slept.

14 And if this come to the governours ears, we will perswade him, and secure you.

15 So they took the money, and did as they were taught. And this † saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

16 Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, into a mountain where Jesus had appointed them.

17 And when they saw him, they worshipped him; but some doubted.

18 And Jesus came, and spake unto them, saying, All power is given b unto me c in heaven and d in earth.

19 e Go ye therefore, and † teach f all nations, baptizing them † in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the holy ghost.

6 And John was f clothed with g camels hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loins, and he did eat h locuſts, and i wild honey.

7 And preached, ſaying, There cometh one mightier than I after me, the latcher of whoſe ſhoes I am not worthy to ſtoop down, and unlooſe.

8 I indeed have baptized you with water: but he ſhal baptize you with the holy ghoſt.

9 a And it came to paſs in thoſe days, that Jeſus came from Nazareth of Galilee: and was baptized of John in Jordan.

10 And ſtraightway b coming up out of the water, he ſaw the heavens * opened, and the Spirit like a dove deſcending upon him.

11 And there came a voice from heaven, ſaying, Thou art my beloved ſon, in whom I am well pleaſed.

12 c And * immediatly the Spirit driveth him into the wilderneſs.

13 And he was there in the wilderneſs fourty days tempted of Satan, and was with the d wild beaſts, and the angels miniſtred unto him.

14 Now after that John was put in priſon, e Jeſus came into Galilee preaching the goſpel of the kingdom of God.

15 And ſaying, f The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the goſpel.

16 g Now as he walked by the h ſea of Galilee, he ſaw Simon and Andrew his brother caſting a net into the ſea, (for they were fiſhers.)

17 And Jeſus ſaid unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fiſhers of men.

18 And i ſtraightway they k forſook their nets and followed him.

19 And when he had gone a little further thence, he ſaw James the ſon of Zebedee, and John his brother, who alſo were in the ſhip * mending their nets.

20 And ſtraightway he called them: and they a left their father Zebedee in the ſhip, with the hired ſervants, and b went after him.

21 c And they went into Capernaum, and ſtraightway on the ſabbath day he entred into the ſynagogue and taught.

22 And they were † aſtoniſhed at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the ſcribes.

23 d And there was in their ſynagogue a man with an unclean ſpirit, and he cried out,

24 Saying, Let us alone, what have we to do with thee, e thou Jeſus of Nazareth? art thou come to f deſtroy us? g I know thee who thou art, The holy h one of God.

25 And Jeſus rebuked him, ſaying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

26 And when the unclean ſpirit had † torn him, and i cried with a loud voice, he came out of him.

27 And they were all amazed, inſomuch that they queſtioned * among themſelves, ſaying, what thing is this?

9: 24 Lu. 1: 35 † Gr. properly is rent as do with cloves † Gen. 27: 33 * Or, within what k new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean ſpirits, & they do obey him.

28 And immediatly his fame ſpread abroad throughout all the region round about Galilee.

29 l And forthwith when they were come out of the ſynagogue, they entred into the houſe of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.

30 But Simons wives mother lay ſick of a fever: and anon they tell him of her.

31 And he came and took her by the hand, and lift her up, and immediatly the fever left her, and ſhe miniſtred unto them.

32 And at even when the ſun did ſet, they brought unto him all that were diſeaſed, and them that were poſſeſſed with devils.

33 And all the city was gathered together at the door.

34 And he healed many that were ſick of divers diſeaſes, and caſt out many devils, and ſuffered not the devils * to ſpeak, becauſe they knew him.

35 And in the morning, riſing up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a ſolitary place, and there prayed.

36 And Simon, and they that were with him, followed after him.

37 And when they had found him, they ſaid unto him, All men ſeek for thee.

38 And he ſaid unto them, Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there alſo; for therefore came I forth.

39 And he preached in their ſynagogues throughout all Galilee, and caſt out devils.

40 m And there came a leper to him beſeeching him, and kneeling down to him, and ſaying unto him, If thou wilt, thou n canſt make me clean.

41 And Jeſus moved with compaſſion, put forth his hand, and touched him, and ſaith unto him, o, I will, be thou clean.

42 And aſſoon as he had ſpoken, immediatly the leproſie departed from him, and he was cleanſed.

43 And he ſtrairly charged him, and forthwith ſent him away.

44 And ſaith unto him, d See thou ſay nothing to any man: but go thy way, e ſhew thy ſelf to the prieſt, and offer for thy cleanſing thoſe things which Moſes commanded, f for a teſtimony unto them.

45 g But he went out, and began † to publiſh it much, and to blaze abroad the matter, inſomuch that Jeſus could no more openly enter into the city, but was without in deſert places: and they came to him from every quarter.

6 But there were certain of the ſcribes ſitting there, and reaſoning in their hearts.

7 Why doth this man thus ſpeak blaſphemies? e Who can forgive ſins but God only?

14 b And as he paſſed by, he ſaw Levi the ſon of Alpheus, ſitting * at the receit of cuſtom, and ſaid unto him, Follow me. And he aroſe, and followed him.

15 And it came to paſs, that as Jeſus ſat at meat in his houſe, many publicans & ſinners ſat alſo together with Jeſus and his diſciples; for there were many, and they followed him.

16 And when the ſcribes and Phariſees ſaw him eat with publicans and ſinners, they ſaid unto his diſciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and ſinners?

17 When Jeſus heard it, he ſaith unto them, They that are whole have no need of the phyſician, but they that are ſick: I came not to call the righteous, but d ſinners to repentance.

18 e And the diſciples of John, and of the phariſees uſed to faſt: and they come, and ſay unto him, Why do the diſciples of John, and of the phariſees faſt, but thy diſciples faſt not?

22 And no man putteth new wine into old bottels, elſe the new wine doth burſt the bottels, and the wine is ſpilled, and the bottels will be marred: but new wine muſt be put into * new bottles.

23 b And it came to paſs, that he went through the corn fields on the ſabbath-day. i and his diſciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears of corn.

24 And the phariſees ſaid unto him, Behold, why do they on the ſabbath day, that which is not lawful?

25 And he ſaid unto them, Have ye never read what David did, when he had need, and was an hungred, he, and they that were with him?

26 How he went into the houſe of God, in the days of * Abiathar the high prieſt, & did eat the ſhew bread, which is not lawful to eat, but for the prieſts, and gave alſo unto them which were with him?

27 And he ſaid unto them, The ſabbath was made for man, and not man for the ſabbath:

28 Therefore the Son of man, is Lord alſo of the ſabbath.

CHAP. III.

The withered hand healed.

AND he a entred again into the ſynagogue, and there was a man there which had a withered hand:

2 And they b watched him whether he would heal him on the ſabbath-day, that they might accuſe him.

3 And he ſaith unto the man which had the withered hand, Stand forth.

4 And he ſaith unto them, Is it lawful to do good on the ſabbath-days? or to do evil? to ſave life, or to kill? but they held their peace.

5 And when he had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved for the * hardneſs of their hearts, he ſaith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he ſtretched it out: and his hand was reſtored whole as the other.

6 And the phariſees went forth, and ſtraight way c took counſel with the * Herodians againſt him, how they might deſtroy him.

7 But Jeſus withdrew himſelf with his diſciples to the ſea: and a great multitude from Galilee followed him, and from Judea.

8 And from Jeruſalem, and from Idumea, and from beyond Jordan, and they about Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, when they had heard what great things he did, came unto him.

9 And he ſpake unto his diſciples, that a ſmall ſhip ſhould wait on him, becauſe of the multitude, leſt they ſhould throng him.

10 For he had healed many, inſomuch that they † preſſed upon him for to touch him, as many as had plagues.

25 And if a house be divided against it self, that house cannot stand.

26 And if Satan rise up against himself, and be divided, he cannot stand, but he hath an end.

33 And he answered them, saying, Who is my mother, or my brethren?

34 And he looked round about on them which sat about him, and said, Behold, my mother, and my brethren:

35 For whosoever shal do the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother.

CHAP. IV.

The parable of the sower.

AND a he began again to teach by the sea side, and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that he entred into a ship, and b sat in the sea, and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land.

2 And he taught them many things by *parables, and said unto them in his doctrine.

3 Hearken, behold, there went out a sower to sow:

4 And it came to pass as he sowed, some fell by the way side, & the fowls of the air came, and devoured it up.

5 And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth, and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth.

6 But when the sun was up, it was scorched, and because it had no root, it withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choaked it, and it yielded no fruit.

8 And other fell on good ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased, & brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred.

9 And he said unto them: c He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And when he was alone, they that were about him, with the twelve, asked of him the parable.

11 And he said unto them, Unto you d it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto them that d are without, all these things are done in parables:

12 b That seeing, they may see, and not perceive; and hearing, they may hear, and not understand: lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them.

13 And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable? And how then will you know all parables?

14 The sower soweth the word.

15 And these are they by the way side, where the word is sown, but when they have heard, c Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in d their hearts.

16 And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground, who when they have heard the word, immediately receive it e with gladness.

17 And have no root in themselves, and so † endure but for a time: afterward when affliction or persecution ariseth for the words sake, immediately f they are offended.

18 And these are they which are sown among thorns: such as hear the word,

19 And the cares of this world, g and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things, entring in, b choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful.

20 And these are they which are sown on good ground, such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirty fold, some sixty, and some i an hundred.

21 k And he said unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under a *bushel, or under a bed, and not be set on a candlestick?

22 l For there is nothing hid which shal not be manifested: neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad.

23 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

24 And he said unto them, Take heed what you hear: with what measure ye mete, it shal be measured to you: and unto you that hear, shal more be given.

25 m For he that hath, to him shal be given: and he that hath not, from him shal be taken, even that which he hath.

26 And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground.

27 And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.

28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of her self: first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.

37 And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full.

38 And he was in the hinder part of the ship, * asleep on a pillow: & they awake him, and say unto him, Master, carest thou not that we perish?

40 And he said unto them, Why are ye fearful? How is it that you have no faith?

41 And they feared † exceedingly, and said one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

CHAP. V.

The devils enter into the swine.

AND a they came over unto the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarens.

2 And when he was come out of the ship: immediatly there met him out of the tombs, a man † with an unclean spirit:

3 Who had his dwelling among the * tombs, and no man could bind him: no not with chains:

4 Because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any man tame him.

5 And always night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones.

6 But when he saw Jesus afar off, he ran, and worshipped him.

7 And cried with a loud voice, and said, † What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the most high God? I adjure thee by God, that thou b torment me not.

8 (For he said unto him, Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit.)

9 And he asked him, What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is legion: for we are many.

10 And he besought him much, that he would not send them away out of the country.

11 Now there was there nigh unto the mountains, a great herd of swine, feeding.

12 And all the * devils, besought him, saying, Send us into swine, that we may enter into them.

13 And forthwith Jesus a gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entred into the swine, and the herd † ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they were about two thousand) and were choaked in the sea.

14 And they that fed the swine, fled, and told it in the city, and in the countrey. And they went out to see what it was that was done.

15 And they came to Jesus, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his * right mind; and they were afraid.

16 And they that saw it, told them how it befel him that was possessed with the devil, and also concerning the swine.

17 And they began to pray him b to depart out of their coasts.

18 And when he was come into the ship, he that had been possessed with the devil, prayed him that he might be with him.

19 Howbeit Jesus suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go home to thy friends: and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee.

20 And he departed, and began to publish in * Decapolis, how great things Jesus had done for him, and all men did marvel.

21 And when Jesus was passed over again by ship unto the other side, much people gathered unto him, and he was nigh unto the sea.

22 d And behold, there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name, and when he saw him, he fell at his feet.

23 And besought him greatly, saying, My little daughter † lieth at the point of death. I pray thee come, and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed, and she shal live.

29 g And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of that † plague.

30 And Jesus immediatly knowing in himself, that vertue had gone out of him, turned him about in the preass, and said, who touched my clothes?

32 And he looked round about to see her that had done this thing.

40 And they d laughed him to scorn: but when he had put them all out, he taketh the father and the mother of the damsel, and them that were with him, and entreth in where the damsel was lying.

41 And he took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, * Talitha cumi, which is being interpreted, Damsel (I say unto thee) Arise.

42 And straightway the damsel arose, and walked: for she was of the age of twelve years: and they were astonished, with a great astonishment.

43 And he charged them straitly, that no man should know it: and commanded that something should be given her to eat.

CHAP. VI.

Christ is contemned of his countreymen.

AND a he went out from thence, and came into his b own countrey; and his disciples follow him.

2 And when the c sabbath-day was come, he began d to teach in the synagogue, and many hearing him, were astonished, saying, From whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands?

3 Is not this the c carpenter, the son of Mary, the brother of James, and Joses, and of Judas, and Simon? and are not his sisters here with us? and they were offended at him.

4 But Jesus said unto them, f A prophet is not without g honour, save in his own countrey, and among his own kin, and in his own house.

5 And he h could there do no mighty works, save that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them.

6 And he marvelled because of their unbelief. i And he went round about the villages teaching.

7 And he calleth unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two, and gave them power † over unclean spirits.

8 And commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, save a staff only, no scrip, no bread, no * money in their purse:

9 But be shod with sandals: and not put on two coats.

10 And he said unto them, In what place soever ye enter into an house, there abide till ye depart from that place.

11 a And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence, k shake off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gommorrah in the day of judgment, than for that city.

12 And they went out and preached that men should repent.

13 And they cast out many devils: c and anointed with oyl many that were sick, and healed them.

14 d And king Herod heard of him (for his name was spread abroad:) and he said that John the Baptist was risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.

15 Others said, That it is Elias. And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets.

16 e But when Herod heard thereof, he said, It is John, whom I beheaded, he is risen from the dead.

17 For Herod himself had sent forth, and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for Herodias sake, his brother Philips wife, for he had married her.

18 For John had said unto Herod f It is not lawful for thee to have thy brothers wife.

19 Therefore Herodias had * a quarel against him, and would have killed him, but she could not.

20 For Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just man, and an holy, and * observed him: and when he heard him, he did many things and heard him b gladly.

21 And when a convenient day was come, that Herod on his birth-day i made a supper to his lords, high captains, and chief states of Galilee.

22 And when the daughter of the said herodias came in, and danced, and pleased Herod, and them that sat with him, the king said unto the damsel, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give it thee.

23 And he swore unto her, Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto the half of my kingdom.

24 And she went forth, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the Baptist.

25 And she came in straightway * with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou give me † by and by in a charger the head of John the Baptist.

26 And the king was exceeding sorry; yet for his oaths sake, and for their sakes which sat with him, he would not reject her.

10 For Moses said, a honour thy father and thy Mother, and whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

14 ¶ And

14 ¶ c And when he had called all the people unto him, he said unto them, Hearken unto me every one of you, and understand.

15 There is nothing from without a man, that entring into him can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man.

16 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

17 And when he was entred into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.

18 And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also? Do ye not perceive that whatsoever thing from without entreth into the man, it cannot defile him:

19 Because it entreth not into his heart, but into the belly, & goeth out into the draught, purging all meats?

20 And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man.

21 For from within, out of the heart of men proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders.

22 Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness:

23 All these evil things come from within, and defile a man:

24 ¶ And from thence he arose and went into the border of Tyre and Sidon, and entred into an house, and would have no man know it, but he could not be hid.

25 For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet.

26 (The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation,) and she besought him that he would cast forth forth the devil out of her daughter.

27 But Jesus said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the childrens bread, and to cast it unto the dogs.

28 And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord, yet the dogs under the table eat of the childrens crumbs.

29 And he said unto her; For this saying, go thy way, the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

30 And when she was come to her house, she found the devil gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

31 And again, departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, he came unto the sea of Galilee, thorow the midst of the coasts of Decapolis.

32 And they bring unto him one that was † deaf, and had an impediment in his speech: and they beseech him to put his hand upon him.

33 And he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears: and he spit, and touched his tongue.

34 And b looking up to heaven, he sighed, and saith unto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened.

35 And straightway his ears were opened, and the string or his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain.

36 And he charged c them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it.

37 And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well, he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

CHAP. VIII.

Christ feedeth the people, &c.

IN those days the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them.

2 I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me b three days, and have c nothing to eat:

3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will † faint by the way, for divers of them came from far.

4 And his disciples answered him, From whence can a man satisfie these men with bread here in the d wilderness?

5 And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven.

6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground, and he took the seven loaves, and e gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them: and they did set them before the people.

7 And they had a few small fishes, and he blessed, and commanded to set them also before them.

8 So they did eat, and were filled, and they took up of the broken meat that was left, seven baskets.

9 And they that had eaten, were about four thousand, and he sent them away.

10 And straightway he entred into a ship, with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

11 And the Pharisees came forth and began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him.

12 And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a signe? Verily I say unto you, † There shall no signe be given unto this generation.

13 And he left them and, entering into the ship again, departed to the other side.

14 ¶ a Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf.

15 And he charged them, saying, † take heed, b beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, & of the c leaven of Herod.

16 And they reasoned † among themselves, saying, It is a because we have no bread.

17 And when Jesus knew it, he saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? Perceive ye not yet, neither understand? Have ye your hearts yet d hardened?

18 Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember?

19 When I brake the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve.

20 And when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seven.

21 And he said unto them, How is it

27 ¶ And Jesus went out, and his disciples, into the towns of Cesarea Philippi: and by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am?

28 And they answered, John the Baptist: but some say Elias: and others, * one of the prophets.

29 And he saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Peter answereth and saith unto him, Thou art the Christ.

30 And he charged them, that they should tell no man of him.

31 And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and g be rejected of the elders and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

32 And he spake that saying * openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him.

33 But when he had turned about and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behind me, Satan: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men.

34 And when he had called the people unto him, with his disciples also, he said unto them, a Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

35 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake, and the gospels, the same shall save it.

36 For what shall it profit a man if he shall gain the whole world, and † lose his own soul?

37 Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

38 b Whosoever therefore shall be c ashamed of me, and of my words, in this d adulterous & sinful generation, e of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father, with the holy angels.

CHAP. IX.

Jesus transfigured, &c,

AND he said unto them, a Verily I say unto you, that there be some of them that stand here which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power.

2 b And after six days, Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and leadeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them.

3 And his raiment became shining, exceeding white as snow; so as no fuller on earth can white them.

4 And there appeared unto them Elias with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus.

5 And Peter answered and said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here, & let us make three * tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

6 For he wist not what to say; for they were sore afraid.

7 And there was a cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, d This is my beloved son: hear him.

8 And suddenly when they had looked round about; they saw no man any more save Jesus only with themselves.

9 And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead.

10 And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another, what the a rising from the dead should mean.

11 And they asked him, saying, Why say the scribes that Elias must first come?

12 And he answered, and told them, Elias verily cometh first, & restoreth all things, and b now it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and be set at nought.

13 But I say unto you, That Elias is indeed come, and they have done unto him c whatsoever they listed, as it is written of him.

14 * And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them.

15 And straight way all the people when they beheld him, were greatly amazed and running to him, saluted him.

16 And he asked the scribes, What question ye * with them?

17 And one of the multitude answered, and said, Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit:

18 And wheresoever he taketh him, he * teareth him, and he foameth and gnasheth with his teeth, and † pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples, that they should cast him out, and they could not.

19 He answered him, and said, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him unto me.

20 And they brought him unto him, and when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him, and he fell on the ground, and wallowed, foming.

21 And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him, And he said, Of a child.

22 And oft times it hath cast him † into the fire, and into the waters to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, † have compassion on d us, and help us.

23 Jesus said unto him, † If thou canst believe, e all things are possible to him that believeth.

CHAP. X.

Christ disputeth concerning divorce.

A Nd a he rose from thence, & cometh into the coast of Judea by the farther side Jordan: and the people resort unto him again: and as he was wont, he taught them again.

2 ¶ And the pharisees came to him, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man † to put away his wife? tempting him.

3 And he answered, and said unto them, What did Moses command you?

4 And they said, Moses suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away.

5 And Jesus answered, and said unto them, For the hardness of your hearts he wrote you this precept.

6 But from the beginning of the creation, God made them d male and female.

7 e For this cause shal a man leave his father and mother, and † cleave to his wife.

8 And they twain shal be one flesh, so then they are no more twain, but † one flesh.

9 What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

10 And in the house his disciples asked him again of the same matter.

11 And he saith unto them, f Whosoever shal put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her.

12 And if a woman shal put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.

13 g And they brought b young children to him, that he should touch them, and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.

14 But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased: & said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

15 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shal not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shal not enter therein.

16 And he † took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

17 ¶ i And when he was gone forth into the way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shal I do that I may inherit eternal life?

22 And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved, for he had † great possessions.

23 ¶ And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches, enter into the kingdom of God?

24 And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus, answereth again, & saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them that a trust in riches, to enter into the kingdom of God?

25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves; Who then can be saved?

27 And Jesus looking upon them, saith, with men it is impossible, but not with God: for b with God all things are possible.

28 ¶ c Then Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee.

29 And Jesus answered, and said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sister, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the Gospels,

30 † But he shall receive an hundred fold now in this time, houses, and brethren, & sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come eternal life:

32 ¶ e And they were in the way going up to Jerusalem: and Jesus went before them, and they were f amazed, and as they followed g they were afraid: and he took again the twelve, and began to tell them what things should happen unto him.

33 Saying, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and the Son of man shall be * delivered unto the chief priests, and unto the scribes, & they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him h to the Gentiles.

34 And they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him, and the third day he shall rise again.

35 ¶ i And James, and John, the sons of Zebedee came unto him, * saying, Master, we would that thou should'st do * for us whatsoever we shal desire.

36 And he said unto them; what would ye that I should do for you?

37 They said unto him, Grant unto us, that we may sit one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand k in thy glory.

38 But Jesus said unto them, l Ye know not what ye ask; Can ye drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with the baptisme that I am baptized with?

39 And they said unto him, We can. And Jesus said unto them, Ye shall indeed * drink of the cup that I drink of, and with the baptism that I am baptized withall, a shal ye be baptized:

40 But to sit on my right hand, and on my left hand is not mine to give, but it shal be given to them, for whom it is prepared.

41 And when the ten heard it, they began to be much b displeased with James and John.

42 But Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, c Ye know that they which are accounted to * rule over the Gentiles, exercise Lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them.

43 But so shal it not be among you: but whosoever will be great among you, d shal be your minister:

44 And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all.

45 e For even the Son of man came not to be ministred unto, but to minister, and f to give his life a ransome for h many.

46 i And they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho with his disciples, and a great number of people: blind Bartimeus, the son of Timeus, sat by the high way-side, begging.

47 And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus thou son of David, have mercy on me.

48 And many charged him that he should hold his peace; But he cryed the more a great deal, Thou son of David have mercy on me.

49 And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called, & they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise, he calleth thee.

50 And he casting away his garment, rose, and came to Jesus.

51 And Jesus answered, and said unto him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? The blind man said unto him, Lord, that I might receive my sight.

52 And Jesus said unto him, Go thy way, thy faith hath * made thee whole and immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way.

9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, ſaying, * Haſanna, bleſſed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord.

10 Bleſſed be the kingdom of our father David, that cometh in the Name of the Lord, Hoſanna in the higheſt.

11 And Jeſus entred into Jeruſalem, and into the temple, and when he had a looked round about upon all things, and now the eventide was come, he went out unto Bethany with the twelve.

12 And on the morrow when they were come from Bethany, b he was hungry.

13 c And ſeeing a fig-tree afar off, having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon, and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves: d for the time of figs was not yet.

14 And Jeſus anſwered, and ſaid, unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his diſciples heard it.

15 ¶ e And they come to Jeruſalem, and Jeſus went into the temple, and began to caſt out them that ſold and bought in the temple, & overthrew the tables of the money changers, and the ſeats of them that ſold doves.

16 And would not ſuffer that any man ſhould carry any veſſell thorow the temple.

17 And he taught, ſaying unto them, Is it not written, My houſe ſhall be called * of all nations the houſe of prayer? but ye have made it a f den of thieves.

18 And the ſcribes, and chief prieſts heard it, and ſought how they might deſtroy him: g for they feared him, becauſe all the people was aſtoniſhed at his doctrine.

19 And when even † was come, he went out of the city.

20 h And in the morning, as they paſſed by, they ſaw the fig-tree dryed up from the roots.

21 And Peter calling to remembrance ſaith unto him, Maſter, behold, the fig-tree which thou curſedſt, is withered away.

22 And Jeſus anſwering, ſaith unto them, * Have faith in God.

The parable of the vineyard.

And he a began to ſpeak unto them by parables, A certain man planted a vineyard, and ſet an hedge about it, and digged a place for the † wine-fat, and built a tower, and let it out to husband men, and went into a far country.

2 And at the ſeaſon he ſent to the husband men a ſervant, that he might receive from the husband men of the fruit of the vineyard.

3 And they caught him, and beat him, and ſent him away empty.

4 And again, he ſent unto them another ſervant, & at him they caſt ſtones, & wounded him in the head, & ſent him away ſhamefully handled.

5 And again he ſent another, and him they killed: and many others, beating ſome, and killing ſome.

6 Having yet therefore one ſon, his well beloved, he ſent him alſo laſt unto them, ſaying, They will reverence my ſon.

7 But thoſe husbandmen, ſaid amongſt themſelves, This is the heir, come, let us kill him, and the inheritance ſhall be ours.

8 And they took him, and killed him, and caſt him out of the vineyard.

9 What ſhall therefore the Lord of the vineyard do? a He will come, and deſtroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others.

10 b And have ye not read the Scripture? The ſtone which the builders rejected, is become the head of the corner.

11 This was the Lords doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes.

12 And they ſought to lay hold on him, but feared the people; for they knew that he had ſpoken the parable againſt them: and they left him, and went their way.

13 c And they ſent unto him certain of the Phariſees, and of the Herodians to † catch him in his words.

14 And

14 And when they were come, they say unto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for † thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawfull to give tribute to Cesar or not?

15 Shall we give, or shal we not give? but he knowing their hypocrisie, said unto them, Why tempt ye me? bring me a * peny that I may see it.

16 And they brought it: and he said unto them; Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him Cesars.

17 And Jesus answering, said unto them, Render to Cesar * the things that are Cesars: and to God the things that are Gods; and they marvelled at him.

18 d Then come unto him the Sadducees, which say, there is no resurrection, and they asked him, saying,

19 Master; Moses wrote unto us, If a mans brother die and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and † raise up seed unto his brother.

20 Now there were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying, left no seed.

21 And the second took her, and died, neither left he any seed, and the third likewise.

22 And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman died also.

23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife.

24 And Jesus answering, said unto them, Do ye not therefore erre, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage: but are as the angels which are in heaven.

26 And as touching the dead, that they rise: have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, a I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob:

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly erre.

28 ¶ b And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, & perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him which is the first commandment of all?

29 And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is one Lord:

30 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy minde, and with all thy strength; This is the first commandment.

31 And the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self; there is none other commandment greater than these.

32 And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast † said the truth; for there is one God, and there is none other but he.

33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, c it is more than all whole burnt-offerings and sacrifices.

34 And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. And no man after that durst ask him any question.

35 d And Jesus answered and said, while he taught in the temple, How say the scribes, that Christ is the Son of David?

36 For David himself said † by the holy Ghost, The Lord said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy foot-stool.

37 David therefore himself calleth him Lord, and whence is he then his son? And the common people heard him gladly.

38 f And he said unto them in his Doctrine, Beware of the scribes which love to go in † long clothing and love salutations in the market places.

39 And the chief seats in the synagogues, and the uppermost rooms at feasts:

40 g Which devour b widows houses, and for a prefence, make long prayers, these shall receive greater damnation.

41 * And Jesus sat over against the treasury; and beheld how the people cast * money into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much.

42 And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two * mites which made a farthing.

43 And he called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cast more in, than all they which have cast into the treasury.

44 For all they did cast in of their abundance; but she of her want did cast in a all that she had, even all her living.

CHAP. XIII.

Christ foretelleth the temples destruction.

AND a as he went out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, Master, b see what manner of stones, and what buildings are here.

2 And Jesus answering said unto him, Seest thou those great buildings? there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be † thrown down.

3 And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, over against the temple, Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew asked him privily;

4 c Tell us when shall these things be? and what shall be the signe when all these things shall be fulfilled.

5 And Jesus answering them, began to say, Take heed lest any man deceive you:

6 For many shall come in my name, saying, † I am Christ, and shall deceive many.

7 And when ye shal hear of wars, and rumours of wars, be ye not troubled, For such things must needs be; but the end shall not be yet.

13 And ye shall be hated of all men for my Names sakes, but he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 e But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not (let him that readeth understand) then let them that be in Judea, flee to the mountains.

20 And except that the Lord had shorthned those days, no flesh should be saved: b but for the elects sake whom he hath chosen, he hath shortned the days.

21 c And then, if any man shal say to you, Lo, here is Christ, or lo, he is there; believe him not.

22 d For false Christs, and e false prophets shall rise, and shall † shew f signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect.

25 And the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken.

26 And then shal they see the Son of man k coming in the clouds, with great power, and glory.

27 And then shall he send * his angels, l and shall gather together † his elect from the four winds, from the m uttermost parts of the earth, to the uttermost part of heaven.

28 Now learn a parable of the fig-tree, When her branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near.

29 So ye in like manner, when ye shall see these things come to pass, know that it is nigh, even at the doors.

30 Verily I say unto you, that this generation shall not pass, till all these things be done.

31 Heaven and earth shal pass away: but my words shal not pass away.

32 But of that day, and that hour, knoweth no man, no not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father.

33 Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is.

34 For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch.

35 Watch ye therefore (for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cock-crowing, or in the morning)

36 Lest coming suddenly, he find you sleeping.

37 And, what I say unto you, I say unto all, n watch.

CHAP. XIV.

A conspiracy against Christ.

AFter a two days was the feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread, and the chief Priests, and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.

2 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar of the people.

3 ¶ b And being in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of * spikenard, very precious, and she brake the box, and poured it on his head.

4 And there, were c some that had indignation † within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?

5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor: and they murmured against her.

6 And Jesus said, Let her alone, † why trouble you her? she hath wrought a good work upon me.

7 For d ye have the poor with you, always, & whensoever ye will ye may do them good; but me ye have not always.

8 She hath done what she could: she is come e aforehand to anoint my body to the burying.

9 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shal be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done, shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

10 ¶ And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, † went unto the chief priests to betray him unto them.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him.

12 ¶ And the first day of unleavened bread, when they * killed the passeover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go, and prepare, that thou mayest eat the passeover?

13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water; follow him.

34 And ſaith unto them, My ſoul is exceeding ſorrowful unto death: tarry ye here, and watch.

35 And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed, that if it were poſſible, the hour might paſs from him.

36 And he ſaid, p Abba, Father, all things are poſſible unto thee, take away this cup from me: nevertheleſs, 37 And he cometh, and findeth them ſleeping, and ſaith unto Peter, Simon, ſleepeſt thou? Couldeſt not thou watch one hour?

38 Watch ye and pray, leſt ye enter into temptation: The ſpirit truly is ready, but the fleſh is weak.

39 And again he went away, and prayed, and ſpake the ſame words.

40 And when he returned, he found them aſleep again, (for their eyes were heavy) neither wiſt they what to anſwer him.

41 And he cometh the third time, and ſaith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your reſt: it is enough, the hour is come: behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands q of ſinners.

b Luke 22: 66 John 18: 28

AND a straightway in the morning b the chief priests held a consultation with the elders, and scribes, and the whole counsell, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate.
2 And Pilate asked him, Art thou the king of the Jews? and he answering said unto him, Thou sayest it.
3 And the chief priests accused him of * many things: but he answered nothing.
4 c And pilate asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? Behold how many things they witness against thee.
5 But Jesus yet answered † nothing, so that Pilate marvelled.
6 d Now at the feast he released unto them * one prisoner, whomsoever they desired.
7 And there was one named e Barrabas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him: who had committed murder in the insurrection.
8 And the multitude crying aloud, began to desire him to do * as he had ever done unto them.
9 But Pilate answered them, saying, will ye that I release unto you the king of the Jews?

12 And Pilate answered, and said again unto them, what will ye then that I shall do unto him, whom ye call the King of the Jews?
13 And they cryed out again, Crucifie him.
14 Then Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? and they cryed out the more exceedingly, crucifie him.
15 And so Pilate, † willing to content the people, released Barrabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus when he had scourged him, to be crucified.
16 And the souldiers led him away into the hall called Pretorium, and they call together the whole band.
17 a And they clothed him with * purple, & platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head.
18 And began to salute him, Hail, king of the Jews.
19 And they smote him on the head with a reed, & did spit upon him, and † bowing their knees worshipped him
20 And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucifie him.

22 And they bring him unto the Place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, the place of a skull.
23 And they gave him to drink, wine mingled with myrrhe: but he received it not.
24 And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take.
25 And it was the third hour, and they c crucified him.
26 And the superscription of his accusation was written over THE KING OF THE JEWS.
27 And with him they crucifie two thieves, the one on his right hand, and the other on his left.
28 And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, d And he was numbred with the transgressours.
29 And they that passed by, railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days.
30 Save thy self, and come down from the cross.
31 Likewise also the chief priests mocking, said among themselves with the scribes, He saved others, himself he cannot save.
32 Let Christ the king of Israel descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe: and they that were crucified with him reviled him.
33 And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land, until the ninth hour.
34 And at the ninth hour Jesus cryed with a loud voice, saying, * Eloi, Eloi lama sabachthani? which is, being interpreted, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?
35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Elias.

3 And they said among themselves, Who shal roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?

4 And when they † looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great.

5 a And entring into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side clothed in a long white garment, and they were affrighted.

6 And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: ye seek Jesus of Nazareth which was crucified, he is risen, he is not here: behold the place where they laid him.

7 But go your way, tell his disciples, b and Peter, that he goeth before you into Galilee, there shal ye see him, c as he said unto you.

8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre, for they trembled and were amazed: neither said they any thing to any man, for they were afraid.

9 ¶ d Now when Jesus was risen early, the first day of the week, d he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven devils.

10 And she went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept,

11 And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, e they believed not.

12 After that he appeared in f another form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the countrey.

13 And they went & told it unto the residue, neither believed they them.

14 g Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them that had seen him after he was risen.

15 b And he said unto them, i Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to k every creature.

16 He that believeth, and is baptized, shal be saved: l but he that believeth not, shal be damned.

10 g And the whole multitude of the people were praying b without at the time of incense.

11 And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord, standing on the right side of the i altar of incense.

12 And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, & fear fell upon him.

13 But the angel said unto him, Fear not Zacharias, for thy prayer is heard, and thy wife Elisabeth shal bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John.

14 And thou shalt have joy and gladness, and many shal rejoyce at his birth:

15 For he shal be great in the sight of the Lord, & and shal drink neither wine nor strong drink, and he shal be filled with the holy Ghost, even l from his mothers womb.

16 m And many of the children of Israel n shal he turn to the Lord their God.

17 And he shal go before him in the spirit, and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.

18 And Zacharias said unto the angel, Whereby shal I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years,

19 And the angel answering, said unto him, I am p Gabriel that stand q in the presence of God, and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these glad tidings.

20 And behold thou shalt be dumb, and not be able to speak, until the day that these things shal be performed: because thou believest not my words, which shal be fulfilled in their season.

21 And the people r waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them, and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple: for he beckned unto them, and remained speechless.

23 And it came to pass, that as soon as the days of his ministration a were accomplished, he departed to his own house.

24 And after those days his wife Elisabeth conceived, and hid her self five moneths, saying,

25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me, in the days wherein he looked on me, to take away b my reproach among men.

26 And in the sixth moneth the angel Gabriel was sent from God, unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, 27 To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David, and the virgins name was Mary.

28 And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail thou that art * highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: Blessed art thou among women.

29 And when she saw him, she was * troubled at his saying, and cast in her minde what manner of salutation this should be.

30 And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary, For thou hast found favour with God.

31 e And behold thou shalt conceive In thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt d call his Name Jesus.

32 He shal be great, and shal be called the Son e of the highest, and the Lord God shal give unto him the throne of his father David.

33 f And he shal reign over the house of Jacob for ever, and of his kingdom there shal be no end.

34 Then said Mary unto the angel, How shal this be, seing I know not a man?

35 And the angel answered, and said unto her, The holy Ghost shal come upon thee, and the power of the highest shal g overshadow thee; Therefore also that holy thing which shal be born of thee, shal be called the h Son of God.

36 And behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age, and this is the sixth moneth with her who was called barren:

37 For with God i nothing shal be unpossible.

38 And Mary said, Behold, the handmaid of the Lord, be it unto me according to thy word: and the angel departed from her.

39 And Mary arose in those days, and went into the *hill countrey with haste, into a city of Juda.

40 And entred into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elisabeth.

41 And it came to pass, that when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb, & Elisabeth was filled with the holy ghost

42 And she spake out with a loud voyce, and said, Blessed art thou a mong women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

43 And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?

44 For lo, as soon as the voyce of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.

45 And blessed is she * that believed, for there shal be a performance of these things which were told her from the Lord.

46 And Mary said, a My soul doth magnifie the Lord,

47 And my spirit hath rejoyced in God my Saviour:

48 For he hath regarded the b low estate of his hand-maiden: for behold from henceforth all generations shal call me blessed.

49 For he that is c mighty hath done to me great things, and holy is his Name.

50 And his mercy is on them that fear him, from generation to generation.

51 d He hath shewed strength with his arm, he hath * scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

NOw in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Cesar, Pontius Pilate being governour of Judea, and Herod being Tetrarch of Galilee and his brother Philip Tetrarch of Iturea, and of the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias the Tetrarch of Abilene.

2 a Annas and Caiaphas being the high priests, b the word of God came unto John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness.

3 c And he came into all the countrey about Jordan, preaching the baptisme of repentance, for the remission of sins.

4 As it is written in the book of the words of Esaias the propher, saying, d the voice of one crying in the wilderness prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

5 Every valley shal be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low, and the * crooked shal be made straight, and the rough ways shal be made smoth.

6 e And all flesh shal see the salvation of God.

7 Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, f O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come.

8 Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within your selves, we have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

9 And now also the ax is laid unto the root of the trees; every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

10 And the people asked him, saying, g what shal we do then:

11 He answereth and saith unto them, h he that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none, and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.

12 Then came also Publicans, to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shal we do?

13 And he said unto them, exact no more than that which is appointed you.

14 And the souldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shal we do? And he said unto them, * Do violence to no man, neither * accuse any falsly, and be content with your * wages.

15 And as the people were * in expectation

CHAP. IV.

Christ is tempted, with victory.

AND a Jesus being full of the holy Ghost, returned from Jordan, and was b led by the spirit into the c wilderness.

2 Being fourty days tempted of the devil, and in those days he did eat nothing: and when they were ended, he afterward hungred.

3 And the devil said unto him, if thou be the Son of God command this stone that it be made bread.

4 And Jesus answered him, saying, It is d written, that man shal not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.

5 And the devil taking him up into an e high mountain, shewed unto him f all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.

6 And the devil said unto him, all this powr will I give thee, & the glory of them: for that is g delivered unto me, & to whomsoever I will, I give it.

7 If thou therefore wilt * worship me, all shal be thine.

8 And Jesus answered, and said unto him, Get thee behind h me, Satan: for it is i written, Thou shalt † worship the Lord thy God, and him j only shalt thou serve.

9 And he brought him to Jerusalem, and set him on a pinacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thy self down from hence.

10 For it is k written he shal give his angels charge over thee to keep thee.

11 And in their hands they shal bear thee up, least at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

12 And Jesus answering, said unto him, l It is said, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

13 And when the devil had ended all the temptations, he departed from him m for a season.

14 And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee, and there went out a fame of him thorow all the region round about.

15 And he taught in their Synagogues, being glorified of them all.

16 And he came to n Nazareth where he had been brought up, and as his custome was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and o stood up for to read.

17 And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Esaias, and when they had opened the book, he found the place where it was writ-

18 The spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the Gospel to the poor, he hath sent me to heal the broken hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, & recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised;
19 To preach the a acceptable year of the Lord.

20 And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister: and b he sat down: and the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue, were c fastned on him.

21 And he began to say unto them, This day *is this scripture fulfilled in your ears:

22 And all bare him witness: and wondered at the † gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth, and they said, Is not this Joseph's son?

23 And he said unto them, Ye will surely say unto me this proverb, Physician heal thy self: whatsoever we have heard done in Capernaum, do also here in thy country.

24 And he said, Verily I say unto you, c no prophet is accepted in his own country.

25 But I tell you of a truth, f Many widows were in Israel in the days of Elias, when the heaven was shut up three years & six moneths, when great famine was thorow out all the land.

26 But unto none of them was Elias sent, save unto Sarepta a city of Zidon, unto a woman that was a widow.

27 g And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Elizeus the prophet, and none of them was cleansed, saving Naaman the Syrian.

28 And all they in the Synagogue, when they heard these things, were b filled with wrath.

29 And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him unto the * brow of the hill (whereon their city was built) that they might cast him down headlong.

30 i But he passing thorow the midst of them, k went his way:

31 And came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and taught them on the sabbath-days.

32 And they were astonished at his doctrine: l for his word was with power.

33 m And in the synagogue there was a man which had a spirit of an unclean devil, and cryed out with a loud voice,

34 Saying, *Let us alone, † what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the holy One of God.

35 And Jesus * rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the devil had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him and hurt him not.

36 And they were all amazed, and spake among themselves, saying, what a word is this? for with authority, and power he commandeth the unclean spirits and they come out.

37 And the fame of him went out into every place of the country round about.

38 ¶ a And he arose out of the synagogue, & entred into Simons house: and Simons wives mother was taken with a great fever and they b besought him for her.

39 And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever, and it left her, and immediatly she arose, and ministred unto them.

40 c Now when the sun was † setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases, brought them unto him: and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them.

41 d And devils also came out of many, crying out, & saying, thou art Christ the Son of God, and rebuking them, suffered them not * to speak, for they knew that he was Christ.

42 And when it was day, he departed, and went into a desert place: and the people sought him, and came unto him, and stayed him, that he should not depart from them.

43 And he said unto them, I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also: for therefore am I sent.

44 And he preached in the synagogues of Galilee,

CHAP. V.

Christ teacheth out of the ship.

AND a it came to pass, that as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Genesareth.

2 And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And he entred into one of the ships, which were Simons, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land: and he sat down, and b taught the people out of the ship.

4 Now when he had left speaking, he said, unto Simon, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.

5 And Simon answering, said unto him, † Master we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless, at thy word I will let down the net.

6 And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes and their net brake.

7 And they beckened unto their partners which were in the other ship that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.

8 When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus knees saying, depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord.

9 For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of fishes which they had taken:

10 And so was also James and John, the sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not, from henceforth thou shalt * catch men:

11 And when they had brought their ships to land, they a forsook all, and followed him.

12 ¶ b And it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold, a man full of leprosie: who seeing Jesus, fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, c if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

14 And he charged him to tell no man, but go and shew thy self to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according f as Moses commanded for a testimony unto them.

15 But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him, and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.

16 ¶ And he withdrew himself into the wilderness and prayed

17 And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were pharisees and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Galilee, and Judea, and Jerusalem: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

18 ¶ g And behold, men brought in a bed, a man which was taken with a palsie: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in, because of the multitude, they went upon the house top, and let him down through the tiling, with his couch into the midst before Jesus.

20 And when he b saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee.

21 And the scribes and the pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? who can forgive sins but God alone?

22 But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?

23 Whether is it easier to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee: or to say, Rise up and walk?

24 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins (he said unto the sick of the palsie,) I say unto thee, Arise and take up thy couch, and go into thine house.

25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and he departed to his own house, glorifying God.

26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to day.

27 ¶ a And after these things he went forth, and saw a publicane named Levi, sitting at the *receipt of custom, and he said b unto him, Follow me.

28 And he c left all, rose up, and followed him.

29 d And Levi made him a great feast in his own house: and there was a great company of publicanes, and of others that sat down with them.

30 But their scribes and pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners?

31 And Jesus answering, said unto them, They that are whole need not a physician: but they that are sick.

32 I came not to call the righteous, but e sinners to repentance.

33 ¶ And they said unto him, f why do the disciples of John fast often, and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the pharisees; but thine eat and drink?

34 And he said unto them, g Can ye make the children of the bride-chamber fast while the bridegroom is with them?

35 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and b then shall they fast in those days.

36 ¶ And he spake also a parable unto them, no man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old: if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new agreeth not with the old.

37 And i no man putteth new wine into old bottles: else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish.

38 But new wine must be put into new bottles, and both are preserved.

39 No man also having drunk old wine, straightway desireth new: for he saith the old is better.

CHAP. VI.

Touching the ears of corn, &c.

AND a it came to pass on the b second sabbath after the first, that he went through the corn fields, and his disciples c plucked the ears of corn & did eat, rubbing them in their hands.

2 And certain of the pharisees said unto them, Why d do ye that which is not lawful to do on the sabbath days?

3 And Jesus answering them, said, Have ye not read so much as this, e what David did when himself was an hungred, and f they which were with him:

4 How he went into the house of God, and did take and eat the shew-bread, and gave also to them that were with him, a which is not lawful to eat, but for the priests alone.

5 And he said unto them, That the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

6 b And it came to pass also on an other sabbath, that he entred into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered.

7 And the scribes and pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath-day: that they might find an accusation against him.

8 But he d knew their thoughts, & said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose, and stood forth.

9 Then said Jesus unto them, I will ask you one thing, Is it lawful on the sabbath-days, to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it?

10 And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

11 And they were e filled with madness, and communed one with another what they might do to Jesus.

12 And it came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain to pray, and continued f all night in prayer to God.

13 ¶ And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples: g and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named * Apostles.

19 And the whole multitude sought to touch him: k for there went vertue out of him, and healed them all.
20 ¶ And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, & said, l blessed be ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of God.

39 And he spake a parable unto them, q Can the blind lead the blind, shal they not both fall into the ditch?
40 r The disciple is not above his Master: but every one * that is perfect, shal be as his Master.
41 s And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brothers eye? but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye:
42 Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thy self beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brothers eye.
43 t For a good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit, neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.
44 For every tree is known by his own fruit: for of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble-bush, gather they grapes.
45 a A good man out of the good treasure of his heart, bringeth forth that which is good: and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart, bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.
46 b And why call ye me Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?
47 Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doth them: I will shew you to whom he is like.
48 He is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation c on a rock: and when the d flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, e and could not shake it: for it was founded upon a rock.
49 But he that heareth, f and doth not, is like a man that without a foundation, built an house upon the earth, against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediatly it fell, & the ruine of that house was great

The centurions faith.

NOw when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, a he entred into Capernaum.
2 And a certain * centurions servant * who was dear unto him, was sick, and ready to die.
3 And when he heard of Jesus, he sent unto him the elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal b his servant.
4 And when they came to Jesus, they besought him instantly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this.
5 For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue.
6 Then Jesus went with them And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thy self, for c I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter under my roof.

7 Wherefore neither thought I my d Psal. 44.4 selfworthy to come unto thee; but d say in a word, and my servant shal be healed;

8 For I also am a man set under authority, having under me souldiers;
and I say unto one, Go, and he goeth:
and to another, Come, and he cometh:
and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

9 When Jesus heard these things,
* to wit as man * he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people, that followed him, I say unto you,
I have not found so great faith, no not in Israel.

10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick.

11 ¶ And it came to pass, the day after, that he went into a city called Nain: and many of his disciples went with him, and much people.

12 Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow, and a much people of the city was with her.

13 And when the Lord b saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, t weep not.

14 And he came and touched the
* Or, coffin bier (and they that bare him stood still) and he said, Young man, I say unto thee, Arise.

15 And he that was dead, d sat up and began to speak: and he delivered him to his mother.

16 And there came a fear on all, and they glorified God, saying, That a great prophet is risen up among us, and that God hath * visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth through all Judea, and throughout all the region round about.

18 e And the disciples of John shewed him of all these things.

19 ¶ And John calling unto him
f two of his disciples, sent them to Jesus, saying, g Art thou he that should come, or look we for another?

20 When the men were come to him, they said, John Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, art thou he that should come, or look we for another?

21 And in the same hour he cured many of their infirmities, & plagues, and of evil spirits, and unto many that were blind he † gave sight.

22 Then Jesus answering, said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard, how that the h blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised; to the poor the gospel is preached,

23 And blessed is he whosoever shal not be offended in me.

24 ¶ And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning John:
What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? k a reed shaken with the wind?

25 But what went ye out for to see?
A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparrelled, and live delicately, are in kings courts.

26 But what went ye out for to see?
a prophet, Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet.

27 This is he of whom it is written,
I behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shal prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say unto you, among those that are born of women, there is not a greater prophet than John the baptist: but he that is least in the kingdom of God, is greater than he.

29 And all the people that heard him, and the publicanes, a justified
God, being baptized with the bap-tisme of John.

30 But the pharisees and lawyers * rejected the counsel of God * against themselves, being not baptized of him

31 ¶ And the Lord said, b whereunto then shal I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like?

32 ¶ They are like unto children sitting in the marker place, and calling one to another, and saying, we have piped unto you, and ye have not danced: we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.

33 For John the baptist came neither eating bread, nor drinking wine, and ye say, c he hath a devil.

34 d The Son of man is come eating and drinking, and ye say, Behold, a gluttonous man, and a wine-biber, a friend of publicanes and sinners.

35 But e wisdom * is justified of all her children.

36 ¶ * And one of the pharisees desired him, that he would eat with him. And he went into the pharisees house, and sat down to meat.

37 And behold, a woman in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at meat in the pharisees house, brought an alabastar box of ointment.

38 And stood at his feet, behind him, weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, & did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment

39 Now when the pharisee which had bidden him, saw it, he spake within himself, saying, This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who, & * what manner of woman this is that toucheth him, for he is a sinner.

40 And Jesus answering, said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master, say on.

41 There was a certain creditour, which had two debters: the one ought five hundred pence, & the other fifty.

42 And when they had nothing to pay, he f frankly forgave them both.
Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most.

43 Simon answered and said, I suppose that he to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged.

44 And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entred into thine house, thou gavest me * no water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head.

CHAP. VIII.

Women minister unto Christ.

AND it came to pass afterward, that he a went throughout every city and village, * preaching, and shewing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him.
2 And certain women which had been healed of evil spirits, and infirmities: Mary, called g Magdalene, b out of whom went seven devils,
3 And Joanna, the wife of Chuza, Herods steward, and * Susanna, and many others which c ministred unto him of their substance.
4 ¶ d And when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable:
5 A sower went out to sow his seed, and as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it.
6 And some fell upon a rock, and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture.
7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.
8 And others fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundred fold. And when he said these things, he cryed, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.
9 And his disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable be?
* 10 And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables, that seeing, they might not see, and hearing, they might not understand.
11 e Now the parable is this, f The seed is the word of God.
12 Those by the way side, are they that hear: then cometh the devil and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.
13 They on the rock, are they which when they hear, receive the word g with joy, and these have no root, which for a while b believe, and in time of temptation i fall away.
14 And that which fell among thorns, are they which when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares, and riches, and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.
15 But that on the good ground, are they which in an honest, and good heart having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit * with patience.
16 ¶ a No man when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed: but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in, may see the light.
17 b For nothing is secret, that shal not be made manifest: neither any thing hid, that shal not be known, and come abroad.
18 Take heed therefore how ye hear: c For whosoever hath, to him shal be given: and whosoever hath not, from him shal be taken, even that which he seemeth to have.
19 ¶ d Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the press.
20 And it was told him by certain which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without desiring to see thee.
21 And he answered, and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these that hear the word of God, and do it.
22 ¶ e Now it came to pass on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples: and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake, and they launched forth.
23 But as they sailed, he fell asleep, and there came down a storm of wind on the lake, and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy.
24 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, * Master, master, we perish. Then he arose and rebuked the wind, and the raging of the waters: and they ceased, and there was a calm.
25 And he said unto them, Where is your faith? and they being afraid, wondered, saying, one to another, what manner of man is this? for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him.
26 ¶ f And they arrived at the countrey of the Gadarens, which is over against Galilee.
27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city g a certain man which had devils long time, and wore no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs.
* 28 When he saw Jesus, he cryed out, & fell down before him, & with a loud voice, said, what have I to do with thee, Jesus thou Son of God most high? I beseech thee b torment me not.
29 For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man: for oftentimes it had caught him, and he was kept bound with chains, and in fetters: and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.
30 And Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? and he said, Legion: because many devils were entred into him.
31 And they besought him, that he would not command them to go out into a the deep.
32 And there was there a herd of many swine feeding on the mountains, and they besought him that he would b suffer them to enter into them; and he suffered them:
33 Then went the devils out of the man, and entred into the swine: and the herd † ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked.
34 When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city, and in the countrey.
35 Then they went out to see what was done, and came to Jesus & found the man out of whom the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed

36 They also which saw it, told them by what means he that was possessed of the devils, was healed.

37 ¶ Then the whole multitude of the country of the Gadarens round about, besought him to depart from them: for they were taken c with great fear: and he went up into the ship, and returned back again.

38 Now the man out of whom the devils were departed, besought him that he might be with him, but Jesus sent him away, saying,

39 Return to thine own house, and shew how great things God d hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city, how great things Jesus d had done unto him.

40 And it came to pass, that when Jesus was returned, the people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him.

41 ¶ e And behold there came a man named * Jairus, and he was † a ruler of the synagogue, and he fell down at Jesus feet, and besought him that he would come into his house:

42 For he had one onely daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. (But as he went the people thronged him)

43 ¶ And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, f neither could be healed of any,

44 Came behind him, and touched the border of his garment, and immediately her issue of blood stanched.

45 And Jesus said, Who touched me? when all denied, Peter and they that were with him said, Master, the multitude throng thee, and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

46 And Jesus said, Some body hath touched me: for I perceive that vertue is gone out of me.

47 And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediatly.

48 And he said unto her, Daughter, * be of good comfort, thy faith hath made thee whole, go in peace.

49 ¶ While he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogues house, saying to him: Thy daughter is dead, trouble not the Master.

50 But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not, believe only, and she shal be made whole.

51 And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Peter, and James, and John, and the father, and the mother of the maiden.

52 And all wept, and † bewailed her, but he said, Weep not, she is not dead, but sleepeth.

53 And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.

54 And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid, arise.

55 And her spirit came again, and she arose straightway: and he commanded to give her meat.

56 And her parents were astonished: but he charged them that they should tell no man what was done.

CHAP. IX.

Christ sendeth out his Apostles.

THen he a called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases.

2 And he sent them to preach b the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.

3 And he said unto them, c Take no thing for your journey, neither staves nor scrip, neither bread, neither money, neither have two coats a piece.

4 And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.

5 And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, d shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them.

6 And they departed, and went through the towns preaching the gospel, and healing every where.

7 e Now Herod the Tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplexed, f because that it was said of some, That John was risen from the dead:

8 And of some, That g Elias had appeared: and of others, that one of the old prophets was risen again.

9 And Herod said, John have h I beheaded: but who is this of whom I hear such things? And i he desired to see him.

10 ¶ And the Apostles when they were returned, told him all that they had done, k and he took them, & went aside privatly into a desert place, belonging to the city called Bethsaida.

11 And the people when they knew it, followed him, and he received them, and spake unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had need of healing.

12 a And when the day began to † wear away, then came the twelve, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns, and countrey round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a desert place.

13 But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat, And they said, We have no more but five loaves, and two fishes, except we should go and buy meat for all this people.

14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company.

15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.

16 And he took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and b looking up to heaven, he c blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.

17 And they did eat, and d were all filled. And there was taken up of * fragments that remained to them, twelve baskets.

18 ¶ e And it came to pass, as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him; and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am?

19 They answering, said, John f the baptist: but some say, g Elias, and others say, That one of the old prophets is risen again.

20 He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter answering, said, The Christ of God.

21 And he straightly charged them and and commanded them to [b] tell no man that thing.

22 Saying, [j] The Son of man must suffer many things, & be rejected of the elders, and chief priests, and scribes, and be slain, & be raised the third day.
23 ¶ [k] And he said unto them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his [l] cross daily, and follow me.
24 For whosoever will save his life, shal lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shal save it.
25 [m] For what is a man advantaged if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away?
26 [n] For whosoever shal be ashamed of me, and of my words, of him shal the Son of man be ashamed, when he shal come in his own glory, and in his Fathers, and of the holy angels.
27 [o] But I tell you of a truth, There be some standing here, which shal not taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God.
28 ¶ [p] And it came to pass about an eight days after these * sayings, he took Peter, and John, and James, and went up into a mountain to pray.
29 And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistering.
30 And behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and Elias.
31 Who appeared in glory, and spake of his † decease which he should accomplish at Jerusalem.
32 But Peter, and they that were with him, were [a] heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him.
33 And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is * good for us to be here, and let us make three tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias: not knowing what he said.
34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and [b] over-shadowed them, and they feared as they entred into the cloud.
35 And there came [c] a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my [d] beloved Son, [e] hear him.
36 And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone: and they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of these things which they had seen.
37 ¶ [f] And it came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him.
38 And behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee look upon my son, for he is my only child.
39 And lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out, and it teareth him, that he fometh again, and bruising him, hardly departeth from him.
40 And I besought thy disciples to cast him out, but they could not.
41 And Jesus answering, said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shal I be with you, and suffer you? bring thy son hither.
42 And as he was yet a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare him:

and Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father.
43 ¶ And they were [b] all amazed at the mighty power of God: but while they wondred every one at all things which Jesus did, he said unto his disciples,
44 [i] Let these sayings † sink down into your ears: for the Son of man shal be delivered into the hands of men.
45 But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that saying.
46 ¶ [k] Then there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest.
47 And Jesus perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him,
48 And said unto them, Whosoever shal receive this child in my name, receiveth me: and whosoever shal receive me, receiveth him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, the same shal be great.
49 ¶ [l] And John answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name, and we forbade him, because he followeth not with us.
50 And Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: for he that is not against us, is for us.
51 ¶ And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he stedfastly * set his face to go to Jerusalem,
52 And sent messengers before his face, and they went and entred into a village of the Samaritans to make ready for him.
53 And they did not receive him, because [a] his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem.
54 And when his disciples, James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as [a] Elias did?
55 But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of.
56 For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.
57 [d] And it came to pass, that as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.
58 And Jesus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests: but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.
59 [e] And he said unto another, Follow me: But he said, Lord suffer me first to go and bury my father.
60 Jesus said unto him, Let [f] the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.
61 And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee: but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at home at my house.
62 And Jesus said unto him, No man having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

sent them two and two before his face into every city, and place, whither he himself would come.

2 Therefore said he unto them, b The harvest truly is * great, but the labourers are few, pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest.

3 Go your wayes: c Behold, I send you forth as lambs among d wolves.

4 Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes, and salute no man by the way.

5 e And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house.

6 And if the son of peace be there your peace shal rest upon it: if not, it shal turn to you again.

7 And in the same house remain, eating & drinking such things as they give: for the a labourer is worthy of his hire: Go not from house to house.

8 And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you.

9 And heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, the b kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

10 But into whatsoever city ye enter and they receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say,

11 Even the very c dust of your city which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you, notwithstanding, be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

12 But I say unto you, that it shal be more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city.

13 d Wo unto thee Chorazin; wo unto thee Bethsaida; for if the mighty works had been done in e Tyre and f Sidon, which have been done in you, they had a great while ago repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

14 But it shal be g more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgement, than for you.

15 And thou Capernaum, which art exalted to heaven, shalt be thrust down to hell.

16 h He that heareth you, heareth me: and he that dispiseth you dispiseth me: and he that dispiseth me, dispiseth him that sent me.

17 ¶ And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy Name.

18 And he said unto them; I beheld satan as lightning fall from heaven.

19 Behold, I give unto you k power to tread on serpents and scorpions, & over all the power of the enemy: & nothing shal by any means hurt you.

20 Notwithstanding in this rejoyce not that the spirits are subject unto you, but rather rejoyce, because l your names are written in heaven.

21 m In that hour Jesus rejoyced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto * babes: even so Father, for so it seemed good in thy sight.

22 g * All things are delivered to me of my Father, and no man knoweth who the son is, but the Father: and who the Father is, but the son, & he to whom the son will reveal him.

23 ¶ And he turned him unto his disciples, and said privately, o Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see.

24 For I tell you, that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see & have not seen them, and to hear those things which ye hear, & have not heard them.

25 And behold, a certain lawyer stood up and tempted him, saying, ? Master what shal I do to inherit eternal life? He said unto them, 26 d What is written in the law? How readest thou.

27 And he answering, said, b Thou shalt love the Lord thy God, with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind, and c thy neighbour as thy self.

28 And he said unto him, thou hast answered right; d this do, and thou shalt live.

29 But he willing to justifie himself, said unto Jesus: And who is my neighbour?

30 And Jesus answering, said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

31 And by chance there came down a certain priest that way; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

32 And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

33 But a certain Samaritane as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him.

34 And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oyl and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an Inne, and took care of him.

35 And on the morrow, when he departed, he took out two f pence and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him, & whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee.

36 Which now of these three thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves.

37 And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Jesus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

38 Now it came to pass as they went, that he entred into a g certain village, and a certain woman named Martha, received him into her house.

39 And she had a sister called Mary, which also g sate at Jesus feet, and heard his word.

40 But Martha was cumbred about much serving, and came to him, and said, Lord dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she * help me.

41 And Jesus answered, and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art careful, & troubled about many things.

42 But one thing is needful: & Mary hath chosen that good part, which shal not be taken away from her.

3 Give us * day by day our daily bread.

4 And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. d And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us e from evil.

5 And he said unto them, Which of you shal have a friend, and shal go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves.

6 For a friend of mine * in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him.

7 And he from within shal answer, and say, Trouble me not, the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee.

8 I say unto you; though he will not rise, and give him: because he is his friend: yet because of his † importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth.

9 f And I say unto you, ask, & it shal be given you, seek, and ye shal find: knock, & it shal be opened unto you.

12 Or if he shal ask an egge, will he offer him a scorpion?

13 If ye then being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shal your heavenly Father give the holy Spirit to them that ask him.

14 ¶ b And he was casting out a devil, and it was dumb. And it came to pass, when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake: and the people wondred.

15 But some of them said, i He casteth out devils through Beelzebub the chief of the devils.

16 And others tempting him, * k sought of him a sign from heaven.

17 l But he knowing their thoughts said unto them, Every kingdom divided against it self, is brought to desolation: and an house divided against a house falleth.

19 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do m your sons cast them out? therefore shal they be your judges.

20 But if I n with the finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you.

26 Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in, and dwell there, and the last state of that man f is worse than the first.

27 ¶ And it came to pass, as he spake these things, a certain woman of the company lift up her voice, and said unto him, Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the papes which thou hast sucked.

28 But he said, Yea, rather blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

29 g And when the people were gathered thick together, he began to say, This is an evil generation, they seek a sign, and there shal no sign be given it, but the sign of Jonas the prophet.

30 For b as Jonas was a sign unto the Ninevites: so shal also the Son of man be to this generation.

31 i The queen of the south shal rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and condemn them, for she came from the utmost parts of the earth, to hear the wisdom of Solomon: and behold a greater than Solomon is here.

32 k The men of Nineveh shal rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shal condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonas, and behold a greater than Jonas is here.

33 l No man when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a m bushel, but on a candlestick, that they which come in may see the light.

35 Take heed therefore, that the light which is in thee be not darkness.

36 If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shal be full of light, as when the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light.

37 ¶ And as he spake, a certain pharisee besought him to dine with him: and he went in, and sat down to meat.

38 And when the o pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he had not p first washed before dinner.

39 q And the Lord said unto him, Now do ye pharisees make clean the outside of the cup, and the platter, but your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness.

41 But rather give alms of such things * as you have; and behold, b all things are clean unto you.

IN a the meantime, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all. Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisie.

2 b For there is nothing covered, that shal not be revealed; neither hid that shal not be known.

3 Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness, shal be heard in the light: and that which you have spoken in the ear in closets, shal be proclaimed upon the house tops.

4 c And I say unto you my friends; Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that, have no more that they can do.

5 But I will forwarn you whom you shal fear: fear him, which after he hath killed, hath power to cast into hell, yea, I say unto you, fear him.

6 Are not five sparrows sold for two d farthings, and not one of them is forgotten before God;

7 But even the very hairs of your head are all numbred: Fear not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows.

8 e Also I say unto you, Whosoever shal confess me before men, him shal the Son of man also confess before the angels of God.

37 Blessed are those servants, whom the Lord, when he cometh, shal find watching: Verily, I say unto you, that he shal gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them.

38 And if he shal come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants.

39 g And this know, that if the good man of the house, had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken through.

40 Be ye therefore ready also: for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not.

41 Then Peter said unto him, Lord, speakest thou this parable unto us, or even unto all?

42 And the Lord said, Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shal make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season.

43 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh, shal find so doing.

44 Of a truth, I say unto you, that he will make him ruler over all that he hath.

45 But and if that servant say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shal begin to beat the men-servants, and maidens, and to eat, and drink, and to be drunken:

46 The lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers.

47 And that servant which knew his lords will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shal be beaten with many stripes.

48 But, he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes shal be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shal be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more.

49 ¶ a I am come to send fire on the earth, and what will I, if it be already kindled?

53 d The father shal be divided against the son, and the son against the father; the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother: the mother in law against her daughter in law, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.

54 ¶ And he said also to the people, e When ye see a cloud rise out of the west, straightway ye say, There cometh a showre, and so it is.

55 And when ye see the south wind blow, ye say, There will be heat, and it cometh to pass.

56 Ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the skie, and of the earth: but how is it, that ye do not discern this time?

57 Yea, and why even of your selves, judge ye not what is right!

58 ¶ f When thou goest with thine adversary to the magistrat: as thou art in the way give diligence that thou mayest be delivered from him, lest he hale thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and the officer cast thee into prison.

AND he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man which had a † steward, and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.

2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? Give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward.

3 Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig, to beg I am ashamed.

4 I am resolved what to do, that when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

5 So he called every one of his lords debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord?

6 And he said, An hundred * measures of oyl. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.

7 Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, an hundred * measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore.

8 And the lord a commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the b children of light.

9 And I say unto you, c Make to your selves friends of the * mamon of unrighteousness, that when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.

10 He that is faithfull in that which is d least, is faithfull also in much; and he that is unjust in the least, is unjust also in much.

11 If therefore ye have not been faithfull in the unrighteous * mamon, who will commit to your trust the true riches.

12 And if ye have not been faithfull in that which is another mans, who shall give you that which is your own?

13 ¶ e No servant can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other: or else he will hold to the one, and dispise the other: ye cannot serve God and mamon.

14 And the Pharisees also who were covetous, heard all these things, and they * derided him.

15 And he said unto them, Ye are they which justifie your selves before men, but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among st men, is abomination in the sight of God.

16 a The law and the prophets were until John; since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it.

17 b And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one title of the law to fall.

18 c Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband, committeth adultery.

19 There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in d purple, & fine linen, & fared sumptously every day.

20 And there was a certain begger, named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate full of sores.

21 And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich mans table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.

22 And it came to pass, that the begger died, and was carried by the angels into e Abrahams bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried.

23 And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham a far off, & Lazarus in his bosom.

24 And he cried, and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, & cool my tongue, for I am tormented in this flame.

25 But Abraham said, f Son, remember that thou in thy life time receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.

26 And besides all this, between us and you there is a great * gulf fixed so that they which would pass from hence to you, cannot, neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.

27 Then he said, I pray thee therefore father, that thou wouldest send him to my fathers house.

28 For I have five brethren, that he may testifie unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment.

29 Abraham saith unto him, They have g Moses and the prophets, let them hear them.

14 And when he saw them, he said unto them, m Go shew your selves unto the priest. And it came to pass, that as they went, they were cleansed.

15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God.

16 And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritane.

17 And Jesus answering, said, were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine?

18 There are not found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger.

19 And he said unto him, Arise, go thy way, thy faith hath made thee whole.

22 And he said unto the disciples, The days will come, when ye shall a desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it.

23 b And they shall say to you, See here, or, see there: go not after them, nor follow them.

24 For as the lightning that lighteneth out of the one part under heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven: so shall also the Son of man be in his day.

The importunate widow.

AND he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought a always to pray, and not to † faint.

2 Saying, there was in a city a judge which feared not God, neither regarded man.

3 And there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary.

4 And he would not for a while; But afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man,

5 Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.

6 And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith.

7 And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

8 I tell you that a he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?

11 The b Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this Publicane.

12 I fast * twice in the week, I give c tithes of all that I Possess.

13 And the Publicane standing d a far off, would e not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven: but smote upon his breast, saying, God be mercifull to me a sinner.

14 I tell you, this man went down to his house g justified rather than the other: b for every one that exalteth himself, shall be abased, and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

15 i And they brought unto him also * infants, that he would touch them: but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

16 But Jesus called them unto him and said, suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

17 Verily I say unto you, k Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little childe shall in no wise enter therein.

* The word signifies children weaned not from the breast * That is those that brought them.

18 And a certain l ruler asked him, saying, Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternall life?

19 And Jesus said unto him; Why callest thou me good? none is good save one, that is God.

20 Thou knowest the commandements, m Do not commit adultery, do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these have I n kept from my youth up.

22 Now when Jesus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lakest thou one thing: Sell all that thou hast and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven, and come, follow me.

23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowfull; for he was very rich.

24 And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowfull, he said, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God?

25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needles eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they that heard it, said, Who then can be saved?

27 And he said, the things which are unpossible with men, a are possible with God.

28 b Then Peter said, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee.

29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren or wife, or children, for the kingdom of Gods sake,

30 Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting.

31 ¶ d Then he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished.

39 And they which went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace, but he cried so much the more, Thou g Son of David have mercy on me.

40 And Jesus stood, and commanded him to be brought unto him, and when he was come near, he asked him

41 Saying, What wilt thou that I shall do unto thee? and he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight.

42 And Jesus said unto him, receive h thy sight, thy faith hath saved thee.

3 And he sought to see Jesus a who he was, and could not for the presse, because he was little of stature.

4 And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycomore tree to see him, for he was to pass that way.

5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up and saw him, and said unto him: Zacheus make haste, and a come down, for to day I must abide at thy house.

6 And he b made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.

7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, that he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner

8 And Zacheus stood, and said unto the Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor, and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, c I restore him four-fold.

9 And Jesus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, for so much as he also is the d son of Abraham.

10 e For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

and delivered them ten pounds, and said unto them, a Occupy till I come.

14 But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, b We will not have this man to reign over us.

15 And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him to whom he had given the money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord thy pound hath gained ten pounds.

17 And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant, because thou hast been faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord thy pound hath gained five pounds.

19 And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities.

20 And another came, saying, Lord behold, here is thy pound which I have kept laid up in a napkin.

21 For I feared thee, because thou art an * austere man: thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow.

22 And he saith unto him, Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant: thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sowe.

23 Wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury?

24 And he said unto them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds.

25 And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.

26 For I say unto you, i That unto every one which hath, shall be given, and from him that hath not, even that he hath shal be taken away from him.

27 But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me.

28 And when he had thus spoken, c he went before, ascending up to Jerusalem.

29 d And it came to pass, when he was come nigh to Bethphage, and Bethany, at the mount called the mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples,

30 Saying, go ye into the village over against you, in the which at your entring ye shal find a colt tied, whereon yet never man sate: loose him, and bring him hither.

31 And if any man ask you, Why do ye loose him? Thus shall ye say unto him, Because the Lord hath need of him.

32 And they that were sent, went their way, and found even as he had said unto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, Why loose ye the colt?

34 And they said, The Lord hath need of him.

35 And they brought him to Jesus, and they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set Jesus thereon.

36 And as he went, they spread their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was come nigh, even now at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoyce and praise God with a loud voice, for all the mighty works that they had seen.

38 Saying, d Blessed be the King that cometh in the name of the Lord, e peace in heaven, and glory in the highest.

39 And some of the Pharisees, from among the multitude, said unto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

40 And he answered, and said unto them, I tell you, that if these should hold their peace, the f stones would immediately cry out.

41 ¶ And when he was come near, he beheld the city, and g wept over it.

42 Saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace; but now they are hid from thine eyes.

43 For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side.

44 And shall lay thee h even with the ground, and thy children within thee: and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another, because thou knewest not the time of thy k visitation.

45 l And he went * into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought.

46 Saying unto them, m It is written, My house is the house of prayer: but ye have made it a den of theeves.

47 And he taught daily in the temple. But the chief priests and the scribes, and the chief of the people sought to destroy him.

48 And could not find what they might do, for all the people * were very attentive to hear him.

to husbandmen, and went into a far countrey for a long time.

10. And at the season, he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.

11 And again he sent g another servant, and they beat him also, and entreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.

12 And again he sent b the third, and they wounded him also, and cast him out.

13 Then said the Lord of the vineyard: What shall I do? I will send my i beloved son. It may be they will reverence him, when they see him.

14 k But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir, come let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them?

16 He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others And when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

17 And he beheld them, and said, What is this then that is written, l the stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the m head of the corner.

18 Whosoever shal n fall upon that stone, shal be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

19 ¶ And the chief priests and the scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him, and they feared the people: for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.

20 And they watched him, and sent forth spies which should fain themselves just men, that they might take hold of his words that so they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governour.

21 And they asked him, saying, a Master, We know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither accepteth thou the person of any, but teachest the way of God * truely.

22 Is it lawfull for us to give tribute unto Cesar, or no?

23 But he perceived their craftiness, & said unto them, Why rempt ye me?

24 Shew me a b peny, Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Cesars.

25 And he said unto them, c Render therefore unto Cesar, the things which be Cesars, and unto God, the things that be Gods.

26 And they could not take hold of his words before the people, and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

27 ¶ d Then came to him certain of the Saducees (which deny that there is e any resurrection) and they asked him,

28 Saying, Master, f Moses wrote unto us, If any mans * brother die, having a wife, & he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

29 There were therefore seven brethren, and the first took a wife, and died without children.

30 And the second took her to wife, and he died childless.

31 And the third took her, and in like manner the seven also. And they left no children and died.

32 Last of all the woman died also.

33 Therefore in the resurrection, whose wife of them is she? for seven had her to wife.

34 And Jesus answering said unto them, The children of this world marry, and the given in marriage.

35 But they which shal be accounted worthy to obtain that world and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage.

36 Neither can they die any more, for they are equal unto the angels, and are the g children of God, being the children of the resurrection.

37 Now that the dead are raised, h even Moses shewed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord, The God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

38 For he is not a God of the dead but of the living: for all live unto him.

39 ¶ Then certain of the scribes answering, said, Master, thou hast well said.

40 And after that, they durst not ask him any question at all.

41 And he said unto them: i How say they that Christ is Davids son.

42 And David himself saith in the a book of Psalms, The Lord said to my Lord Sit thou on my right hand, 43 Till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

44 David therefore calleth him Lord, b how is he then his son?

45 Then in the audience of all the people, he said unto his disciples.

46 c Beware of the scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the markets, and the highest seats in the synagogues, and the chief rooms at feasts:

47 Which d devour widows houses, and for a * shew make long prayers: the same shal receive greater damnation,

CHAP. XXI.

Christ commendeth the poor widow.

AND he looked up, d and saw the rich men casting their gifts into the b treasury.

2 And he saw also a certain poor widow, casting in thither two mites.

3 And he said, of a truth, I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cast in d more than they all.

4 For all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of God: but she of her penurie hath cast in all the living that she had.

5 ¶ e And as some spake of the temple how it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts, he said,

6 As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in the which there shall not be left f one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

7 And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what signe will there be, when these things shall come to pass?

22 For these be the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.

23 But wo unto them that are with childe, and to them that give suck in those days, for there shall be great distresse in the land, and wrath upon this people.

24 And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall d be led away captive into all nations, and Jerusalem shall be troden down of the Gentiles, d until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled:

25 ¶ e And there shall be signes in the sun, and in the moone, and in the stars, and upon the earth distresse of nations, with perplexity, the sea, and the waves roaring,

27 And then shall they see the Son of man g coming in a cloud with power and great glory.

28 And when these things begin to come to pass, then h look up, and lift up your heads, for your redemption draweth nigh.

29 And he spake to them a parable,

30 When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand:

31 So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand.

32 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled.

33 i Heaven and earth shall pass away, but k my words shall not pass away.

34 ¶ And l take heed to your selves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with † surfeiting, and drunkennes, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares,

36 Watch ye therefore and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and a to stand before the Son of man.

37 And in the day time he was teaching in the temple, and at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called the mount of olives.

38 And all the people came b early in the morning to him in the temple, for to hear him.

CHAP. XXII.

Christ commendeth the poor widow.

NOw a the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the passeover.

2 And the chief priests, and scribes sought how they might kill him, for they feared the people.

3 ¶ b Then entred Satan into Judas, surnamed Iscariot, being one of the number of the twelve.

4 And he went his way and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray him unto them.

5 And they were glad, and covenanted to give him money.

6 And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them in the absence of the multitude.

7 ¶ c Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passeover must be killed.

8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go, and prepare us the passeover, that we may eat.

9 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare?

10 And he said unto them, Behold, whenye are entred into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water, follow him into the house where he entreth in.

11 And ye shall say unto the good man of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passeover with my disciples?

12 And he shall shew you a large upper room furnished, there make ready.

13 And they went, and found as he had said unto them, and they made ready the passeover.

14 e And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him.

15 And he said unto them, with desire I have desired to eat this passeover with you before I suffer.

18 For I say unto you, g I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, untill the kingdom of God shal come.

19 a And he took bread and gave thanks: and brake it: and gave unto them, saying, *This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me.

20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

22 And truely the Son of man goeth as it was determined, but wo unto that man by whom he is betrayed.

23 And they began to enquire among themselves, which of them it was, that should do this thing.

24 ¶ And there was also a strife among them; which of them should be accounted the greatest.

25 d And he said unto them: The kings of the Gentils exercise lordship over them, and they that exercise authority upon them, are called e benefactors.

26 But ye shal not be so; but he that f is greatest among you, let him be as the younger, and he that is chief as he that doth serve.

27 For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? Is not he that sitteth at meat? But I am among you as he that serveth.

28 Ye are they which have continued with me in g my temptations.

29 And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my father hath appointed unto me:

30 That ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, h and sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

31 And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold! Satan hath desired to have you, that he may k sift you as wheat.

32 But I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not; and when thou art converted l strengthen thy brethren.

33 And he said unto them, Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison and to death.

34 m And he said, I tell thee Peter, the cock shal not crow this day; before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me.

35 n And he said unto them, When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing.

36 Then said he unto them, But now he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likwise his scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one.

37 For I say unto you, That this that is written must yet be accomplished in me, o And he was reckoned among the transgressours: for the things concerning me have an end.

38 And they said, Lord, Behold, here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough.

39 ¶ And he came out, and went as he was wont, to the mount of Olives, and his disciples also followed him.

40 And when he was at the place, he said unto them, b Pray, that ye enter not into temptation.

41 And he was withdrawn from them about a stones cast, and kneeled down and prayed:

42 Saying, Father, c if thou be willing, remove this * cup from me: nevertheless, not my will, but d thine be done.

43 And there appeared e an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him.

44 And being in f an agony, he prayed more earnestly, and his sweat was as it were great † drops of blood falling down to the ground.

45 And when he arose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow, 46 And said unto them, Why sleep ye? Rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

47 ¶ And while he yet spake, g behold a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jesus to b kiss him.

48 But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss?

49 When they which were about him, saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord shal we smite with the sword?

50 ¶ And one of them smote the i servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

51 And Jesus ‡ answered and said, Suffer ye thus far, and he touched his ear and k healed him.

52 Then Jesus said unto the chief priests, and l captains of the temple, and the elders which were come to him, Be ye come out as against a thief with swords and staves?

53 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

54 ¶ m Then took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house, and Peter followed afar off.

55 n And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Peter sat down among them.

56 But a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him.

57 And he denied him, saying, woman I know him not.

58 And after a little while, another saw him, and said, thou art also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not.

59 And about the space of one hour after, another confidently affirmed, saying, of a truth this fellow also was with him: for he is a Galilean.

60 And Peter said, Man I know not what thou sayest: And immediately while he yet spake, the cock crew:

61 And the Lord turned and looked upon Peter; and Peter remembred the words of the Lord, how he had said unto him, o Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrise.

CHAP. XXIII.

Jesus accused, and sent to Herod.

AND a the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate.

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, we found this fellow b perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Cesar, saying, That he himself is Christ a king.

3 c And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the king of the Jews? And he answered him and said, Thou sayest it.

4 Then said Pilate to the chief priests and to the people, I find d no fault in this man.

5 And they were * the more fierce saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching thorowout all Jury, beginning from Galilee to this place.

6 When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilean.

7 And assoon as he knew that he belonged unto Herods jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself was also at Jerusalem at that time.

8 ¶ And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad, for he was desirous to see him of a long season, because he had heard many things of him, and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by him.

9 Then he questioned with him in many words, but he answered him nothing.

10 And the chief priests, and scribes stood, and vehemently accused him.

11 And Herod with his men of war set him at nought, and mocked him, and arayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pilate.

12 ¶ And the same day Pilate and Herod were made friends together, for before they were at emnity between themselves.

13 ¶ d And Pilate, when he had cal led together the chief priests, and the rulers, and the people,

14 Said unto them, Ye have brought this man unto me, as one that perverteth the people, and behold, I having examined him before you, having found no fault in this man, touching those things whereof ye accuse him.

15 No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him, and lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto him.

16 I will e therefore e chastise him, and release him.

17 d For of necessity he must release one unto them at the feast.

18 And they cryed out e all at once, saying, Away with this man, and release unto us Barabbas.

19 (Who for a certain sedition made in the city, and for murder, was cast in prison)

20 Pilate therefore willing to release Jesus, spake again unto them.

21 But they cryed, saying, Crucifie him, crucifie him.

22 And he said unto them the f third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him. I will therefore chastise him, and let him go.

23 And they were instant with loud g voices, requiring that he might be crucified: and the voices of them, and of the f chief priests prevailed.

24 And Pilate * gave sentence that it should be as they required.

25 And he released unto them, him that for sedition, & murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired: but he delivered Jesus to their will.

26 g And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon, a Cyrenian, coming out of the countrey, and on him they laid the crosse, that he might bear it h after Jesus.

27 And there followed him a great company of people, and of women, which also bewailed, and lamented him.

28 But Jesus turning unto them, said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but k weep for your selves and for your children.

29 For behold, the days are coming, in the which they shal say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck.

30 l Then shal they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us, and to the hills Cover us.

31 m For if they do these things in a green tree, what shal be done in the dry?

32 n And there were also two other malefactors led with him, to be put to death.

33 And when they were come to the place which is called * Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left.

34 Then said Jesus, Father, forgive a them; for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and b Cast lots.

35 c And the people stood beholding, and the rulers also with them derided him, saying, d He saved others let him save himself, if he be Christ, the chosen of God.

36 And the souldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him e vinegar.

37 And saying, If thou be the king of the Jews, save thy self.

39 ¶ And one of the malefactours which were hanged, f railed on him, saying, If thou be Christ, save thy self and us.

40 But the other answering, rebuked him, saying, Doest thou not fear God, seing, thou art in the same condemnation?

41 And we indeed justly, for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss.

42 And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom.

43 And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, g To day shalt thou be with me in Paradise.

44 And it was b about the sixt hour, and there was a darkness over all the e earth until the ninth hour.

45 And the sun was darkened, and * the vail of the temple was rent in the midst.

46 And when Jesus had cryed with a loud voice, he said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit, and having said thus, he gave up the ghost.

47 Now when the k Ceuturion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man.

48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, l smote their breasts, and returned.

49 And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Galilee, stood afar off, beholding these things.

50 ¶ m And behold, there was a man named Joseph, a counseller, and he was a good man, and a just:

51 (The same had not n consented to the counsel, and deed of them) he was * of Arimathea, a city of the Jews (who also himself waited for the kingdom of God.)

52 This man went unto Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus.

53 And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulchre that was hewen in stone, wherein never man before was laid.

54 And that day was the preparation, and the sabbath drew on.

55 And the women also which came with him from Galilee, followed after and beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was laid.

56 And they returned, and prepared spices, and ointments, and rested the sabbath day, d according to the commandment.

NOw upon the first day of the week, a very early in the morning b they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them.

2 And they found c the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

3 And they entred in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus.

4 And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed there about, behold, d two men stood by them in shining garments.

5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye the living among the dead.

6 He is not here, but is risen: e Remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee.

7 Saying, the son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinfull men: and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

8 And they remembred his words.

9 And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest.

10 It was Mary Magdalene, and f Joanna, and Mary the mother of James and other women that were with them, which told these things unto the apostles.

11 And their words seemed to them as * idle tales, and they believed them not.

12 ¶ Then arose Peter, and ran unto the sepulchre, and stooping down, he beheld the linen cloths laid by themselves, & departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to pass.

13 ¶ b And behold two of them went that same day to a village called Emaus, which was from Jerusalem about † threescore furlongs.

14 i And they talked together of all these things which had happened.

15 And it came to pass, that while they communed together, and reasoned, Jesus himself drew near, and went with them.

16 But their eyes were held, that they should not know him.

17 And he said unto them, What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are sad?

18 And the one of them, whose name was k Cleopas, answering, said unto him, Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these days?

19 And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, which was a prophet, a mighty in deed, and word b before God, and all the people.

20 And how the chief priests, & our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and hath crucified him.

21 But we * trusted that it had been he which should have * redeemed Israel: and beside all this, to day is the third day since these things were done.

22 Yea and certain women also of our company made us astonished, which were early at the sepulchre:

23 And when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was alive.

24 And certain of them which were with us went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said, but him they saw not.

25 Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken:

26 c Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter in to his glory?

27 And d beginning at Moses, and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures, the things concerning himself.

29 But they constrained him, saying, Abide with us, for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent: and he went in to tarry with them.

30 And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them: he e took bread and f blessed it, and brake, & gave to them.

31 And their eyes were opened, and they knew him, and he *vanished out of their sight:

32 And they said one to another g Did not our hearts burn within us while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?

35 And they told what things were done in the way, and how he was known of them in breaking of bread.

36 ¶ i And as they thus spake, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, k Peace be unto you.

37 But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.

38 And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled, and why do thoughts arise in your hearts?

39 Behold my hands, and my feet, that it is I my self: l handle me and see, for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.

40 And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his hands, and his feet.

41 And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, a have ye here any meat.

42 And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an hony comb.

43 And he took it, and did eat before them.

44 And he said unto them, b These are the words which I spake unto you, *while I was yet with you; that all things must be fulfilled which were written in the law of Moses: and in the prophets, and in the Psalms concerning me.

45 Then c opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures.

46 And said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day:

47 And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his Name a among all nations, b beginning at Jerusalem.

48 And c ye are witnesses of these things.

49 ¶ d And behold, I send e the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high.

50 And he led them out as far as to Bethany, and he lift up his hands, and blessed them.

51 f And it came to pass, while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven.

52 And they worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem, with great joy

53 And were continually in the temple, praysing & blessing God. Amen.

¶ The gospel according to S. IOHN.

CHAP. I.

The dignity and office of Christ.

IN a the beginning was the word, and the word was with God, and the word was God.

2 b The same was in the beginning with God.

3 c All things were made by him, and without him was not any thing made that was made.

4 d In him was life, and the life was the light of men.

5 e And the light shineth in darkness, and the darkness f comprehended it not.

6 g There was a man sent from h God, whose name i was John:

7 The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the light, that all men through him might believe.

8 He was k not that light, but was sent to bear witness of that light.

9 That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

10 He was in the world, and l the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

11 He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

12 But as many as received him, to them gave he *power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his Name:

13 Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 m And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us (and we n beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father) o full of grace and truth.

15 p John bare witness of him, and cried saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh after me is preferred before me, for he was before me.

16 And of his q fulness have all we received, and grace for grace.

17 For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.

18 a No man hath seen God at any time, the only begotten Son, which is in b the bosome of the Father, he hath declared him.

19 ¶ And this is the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, c Who art thou?

20 And he confessed, and denied not: but confessed I am not the Christ.

21 And they asked him, What then? d Art thou Elias? and he saith, I am not. Art thou *the prophet? And he answered, No.

22 Then said they unto him, who art thou, that we may give an answer to them that sent us? What sayest thou of thy self?

23 e He said, I am the voice of one crying in f the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaias.

24 And they which were sent, were of the g Pharisees.

25 And

26 John answered them, saying, b I baptize with water, but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not.

27 i He it is, who coming after me is preferred before me: whose shoes latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

28 These things were done in k Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

29 The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the l lamb of God, which * taketh away the sins of the world.

30 This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man, which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

31 And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water.

32 m And John bare record, saying, I saw the spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.

33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the holy Ghost.

34 And he saw, and bare record, that this is the Son of God.

35 ¶ Again the next day after John stood, and two of his disciples.

36 And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, Behold the lamb of God.

37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.

38 Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, what seek ye? They said unto him, Rabbi, (which is to say being interpreted, Master) where * dwellest thou?

39 He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was * about the tenth hour.

40 One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew Simon Peters brother.

41 He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, we have found the Messias, which is being interpreted * the Christ.

42 And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, thou art Simon the son of Jona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation * a stone.

43 The day following, Jesus would go forth into Galilee; and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, follow me.

44 Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.

45 Philip findeth Nathaniel, and saith unto him; we have found him of whom a Moses in the law and the prophets did write, Jesus of Nazareth the son of Joseph.

46 And Nathaniel said unto him Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, come and see.

47 Jesus saw Nathaniel coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile.

48 Nathanael saith unto him, whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou was under the fig tree I saw thee.

49 Nathanael answered, and saith unto him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of God, thou art the * King of Israel.

50 Jesus answered, and said unto him, because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig-tree believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these.

51 And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the d angels of God ascending, and descending upon the Son of man.

CHAP. II.

Christ turneth water into wine.

AND the third day there was a marriage in Cana of a Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there.

2 And both Jesus was called, and his disciples to the marriage.

3 And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine.

4 Jesus saith unto her, b Woman, what have I to do with thee? mine hour is not yet come.

5 His mother saith unto the servants, whatsoever he saith unto you, do it.

6 And there were set there six c water pots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three * firkins a piece.

7 Jesus saith unto them, Fill the water-pots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.

8 And he saith unto them. Draw out now, and bear unto the d governour of the feast. And they bare it.

9 When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine and knew not whence it was, (but the servants which drew the water knew) the governour of the feast called the bridegroom.

10 And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine, & when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now.

11 This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested forth his glory, and his disciples * believed on him.

12 After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and f his brethren, and his disciples, and they continued there not many days.

13 And the g Jews passeover was at hand, & Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

14 h And found in the temple those that * sold oxen, and sheep, and doves, and the changers of money, sitting.

15 And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen, and poured out the changers money, and overthrew the tables;

16 And said unto them that sold doves, take these things hence; make not my Fathers house a house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembered that it was written, i The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.

CHAP. V.

The impotent man healed.

A Fter a this there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

2 Now there is at Jerusalem by the sheep * market a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda, having five porches.

3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in, was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity b thirty and eight years.

6 When Jesus saw him lie, and c knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, d Wilt thou be made whole?

7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool, but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.

8 Jesus saith unto him, Rise, take up thy bed, and walk.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the sabbath.

10 The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath-day, e it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk?

13 And he that was healed, wist not who it was: for Jesus had † conveyed himself away, a * multitude being in that place.

14 Afterward Jesus findeth him f in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, g lest a worse thing come unto thee.

15 The man departed, and a told the Jews, that it was Jesus which had made him whole.

16 And b therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath day.

17 But Jesus answered them, c My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.

18 Therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, not only because he had broken the sabbath, but said also, that God was * his Father, making himself equal with God.

19 Then answered Jesus, and said unto them, Verily, verily I say unto you, d The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.

20 For the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.

21 For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickneth them: even so the Son quickneth whom he will.

22 For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son.

23 That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son, honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

24 Verily, verily I say unto you, He that heareth my word g and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation: but is passed from death unto life.

25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, & now is, when h the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear, shall live.

26 For as the Father hath life † in himself: so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself.

27 And hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man.

28 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice.

29 ¶ And shall come forth, k they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life, and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

30 I can of mine own self do nothing: l as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just: because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.

31 m If I bear witness of my self, my witness is not true.

32 ¶ n There is another that beareth witness of me, and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me, is true.

33 Ye sent unto John, o and he bare witness unto the truth.

34 But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved.

35 He was a burning and a † shining light, and ye were willing for a season * to rejoyce in his light.

36 But a I have greater witness than that of John, for the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me.

37 And the Father himself which hath sent me, b hath born witness of me.

3 And Jesus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples.

6 And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do.
7 Philip answered him, * Two hundred peny-worth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.
8 One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peters brother, saith unto him,
9 There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes: a but what are they among so many?
10 And Jesus said, make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.
11 And Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given a thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down, and likewise of the fishes, b as much as they would.
12 When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, c that nothing be lost.
13 Therefore they gathered them together, and d filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves which remained over and above, unto them that had eaten.

15 When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, f to make him a king, he g departed again into a mountain himself alone.
16 b And when even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea.
17 And entred into a ship, and went over the sea towards Capernaum; and it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them.
18 And the sea arose, by reason of a great wind that blew.
19 So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship: i and they were afraid.
20 But he saith unto them, * It is I, be not afraid.
21 Then they willingly received him into the ship, and immediatly the ship was at the land whither they went.
22 ¶ The day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea, saw that there was none other boat there, save that one where-into his disciples were entred, and that Jesus went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples were gone away alone.
23 Howbeit there came other boats from Tiberias nigh unto the place where they did eat bread after that the Lord had given thanks.
24 When the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus.
25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?
26 Jesus answered them, and said, Verily, verily I say unto you, ye seek k me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves and were filled.
27 † Labour not for the meat that perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shal give unto you: k for him hath God the Father sealed.
28 Then said they unto him, What shal we do that we might work the a works of God?
29 Jesus answered and said unto them, b This is the work of God: that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.
30 They said therefore unto him, c What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what doest thou work.
31 d Our fathers did eat * Manna in the desert, as it is written, he gave them bread from heaven to eat.
32 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven, but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.
33 For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.
34 Then said they unto him, Lord, e evermore give us this bread.
35 And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me, f shal never hunger, and he that believeth on me, shal never thirst.

36 But

36 But I said unto you, that ye also have seen me, and believe not.
37 All that the Father giveth me, shall come to me: and him that cometh to me, I will in no wise cast out.
38 For I came down from heaven, e Joh. 5.30 g not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me.
39 And this is the Fathers will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me, I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.
40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one that seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.
41 The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.
42 And they said, b Is not this Jesus the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven?
43 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among your selves.
44 No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me, draw him, and I will raise him up at the last day.
45 i It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Everyman therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father cometh unto me:
46 Not that any man hath seen the Father, k save he which is of God, he hath seen the Father.
47 Verily verily I say unto you, he that believeth on me, hath everlasting life.
48 I am that bread of life.
49 Your fathers did eat Manna in the wilderness, and are dead.
50 This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, l and not die.
51 I am the *living bread, which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give, is my flesh, which I will give a for the life of the world.
52 The Jews therefore strove amongst themselves, saying, b how can this man give us his flesh to eat?
53 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily I say unto you, c Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.
54 Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day.
55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.
56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him.
57 As the d living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.
58 This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat Manna and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever.
59 These things said he in the Synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.
60 Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is an hard saying, who can hear it?
61 When Jesus knew in himself, that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you?
62 *What and if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before?
63 It is the Spirit that quickeneth, the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are Spirit, and they are life.
64 But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning, who they were that believed not, and who should betray him.
65 And he said, therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were f given unto him of my Father.
66 ¶ From that time many of his disciples g went back, and walked no more with him.
67 Then said Jesus unto the twelve h will ye also go away?
68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? Thou hast the i words of eternal life.
69 * And we believe and are sure that thou art * that Christ * the Son of the living God.
70 Jesus answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a k devil?
71 He spake of Judas Iscariot the son of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

CHAP. VII.

Jesus reproveth his kinsmen.

AFter these things Jesus walked in Galilee, for he would not walk in Jury, a because the Jews sought to kill him.
2 b Now the Jews feast of tabernacles was at hand.
3 a His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest.
4 For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known † openly: if thou do these things, shew thy self to the world.
5 For neither did his brethren believe in him.
6 Then Jesus said unto them, My time is not yet come: but your time is alway ready.
7 b The world cannot hate you, but me it hateth, c because I testifie of it, that the works thereof are evil.
8 Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast, d for my time is not yet full come.
9 When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee.
10 But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, e not openly, but as it were in secret.
11 Then the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?
12 And there was much * murmuring among the people concerning him: for some said, He is a good man, others said, Nay, but he deceiveth the people.
13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him, f for fear of the Jews.

17 If any man will do his will, he ſhall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I ſpeak of my ſelf.

18 He that ſpeaketh of himſelf, ſeeketh his own glory: but he that ſeeketh his glory that ſent him, the ſame is true, and no unrighteouſneſs is in him.

19 g Did not Moſes give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? h why go ye about to kill me?

20 The people anſwered, and ſaid, † Thou haſt a devil: who goeth about to kill thee?

21 Jeſus anſwered and ſaid unto them, I have done one work, & ye all marvel

22 k Moſes therefore gave unto you circumciſion, (not becauſe it is of Moſes, but of the fathers) and ye on the ſabbath day circumciſe a man.

23 If a man on the ſabbath day receive circumciſion, * that the law of Moſes ſhould not be broken: are ye angry at me, becauſe I have made a man every whit whole on the ſabbath day?

24 m Judge not according to the † appearance, but judge righteous judgment.

25 Then ſaid ſome of them of Jeruſalem, Is not this he whom they ſeek to kill?

26 But lo he ſpeaketh boldly, and they ſay nothing unto him: Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Chriſt?

27 Howbeit we know this man whence he is; but when Chriſt cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.

28 Then cried Jeſus in the temple, as he taught, ſaying, Ye both know me, and ye know * whence I am; and I am not come of my ſelf, but he that ſent me is true, whom ye know not.

29 But I know him: for I am from him, and he hath ſent me.

30 Then they ſought to take him, but no man laid hands on him, becauſe † his hour was not yet come.

31 And many of the people believed on him, and ſaid, When Chriſt cometh, will he do more miracles than theſe which this man hath done?

32 The phariſees heard that the people murmured ſuch things concerning him: and the phariſees and chief prieſts ſent officers to take him.

33 Then ſaid Jeſus unto them, yet a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that ſent me.

34 Ye ſhall ſeek me, and ſhall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come.

35 Then ſaid the Jews among themſelves, Whither will he go that we ſhall not find him? will he go unto the diſperſed among the * Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles?

36 What manner of ſaying is this that he ſaid, Ye ſhall ſeek me, and ſhall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come?

37 a In the laſt day, that great day of the feaſt, Jeſus * ſtood and cried, ſaying, If any man thirſt, let him come unto me, and drink.

38 e He that believeth on me, as the ſcripture hath ſaid, out of his belly ſhall flow rivers of living water.

39 f (But this ſpake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him ſhould receive. For the holy Ghoſt was not yet given, becauſe that Jeſus was not yet glorified.)

40 Many of the people therefore when they heard this ſaying, ſaid, Of a truth, this is the prophet.

41 Others ſaid, This is the Chriſt. But ſome ſaid, Shal Chriſt come out of Galilee?

42 b Hath not the ſcripture ſaid, That Chriſt cometh of the ſeed of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem where David was?

43 So there was a diviſion among the people becauſe of him.

44 And ſome of them would have taken him, but no man laid hands on him.

45 Then came the officers to the chief prieſts and phariſees, and they ſaid unto them, Why have ye not brought him?

46 The officers anſwered, g Never man ſpake like this man.

47 Then anſwered them the phariſees, Are ye alſo deceived?

48 h Have any of the rulers, or of the phariſees believed on him?

49 But this people who knoweth not the law, are curſed.

50 Nicodemus ſaith unto them, (he that came to Jeſus by night, being one of them)

51 m Doth our law judge any man before it hear him, and know what he doth?

52 They anſwered and ſaid unto him, Art thou alſo of Galilee? ſearch, and look: for * out of Galilee ariſeth no prophet.

53 And every man went unto his own houſe.

CHAP. VIII.

The adulterous woman quitted.

JEſus went a unto the mount of Olives.

2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him, and he ſat down and taught them.

3 And the ſcribes and phariſees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery, and when they had ſet her in the midſt,

4 They ſay unto him, Maſter, this woman was taken in adultery, † in the very act.

5 b Now Moſes in the law commanded us, that ſuch ſhould be ſtoned: but what ſayeſt thou?

6 This they ſaid, tempting him, that they might have to accuſe him: but Jeſus ſtooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.

7 So when they continued asking him, he lift up himſelf, and ſaid unto them, c He that is without ſin among you, let him firſt caſt a ſtone at her.

8 And again, he ſtooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 And they which heard it, being † convicted by their own conſcience, d went out one by one, beginning at the eldeſt even unto the laſt. And Jeſus was left alone, and the woman ſtanding in the midſt.

10 When Jesus had lift up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, woman, where are those thine accusers? Hath no man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, e neither do I condemn thee: go and sin on more.

12 ¶ Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, f I am the light of the world: he that followeth me, shal not walk in darkness, but shal have the light of life.

13 The pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou beareſt record of thy self, thy record is not true.

14 Jesus answered, and said unto them, g Though I bear record of my self, yet my record is true; for I know whence I came, and whither I go, but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

15 Ye judge after the flesh, * I judge no man.

16 And yet if I judge, my judgement is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.

17 h It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.

18 I am one that bear witneſs of my self, and the Father that sent me beareth witneſs of me.

19 Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, ye neither know me, nor my Father; if ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.

20 These words spake Jesus in the a treasury, as he taught in the temple, and no man laid hands on him, b for his hour was not yet come.

21 Then said Jesus again unto them I go my way, and c ye shal seek me, and shal die in your sins: whither I go, d ye cannot come.

22 Then said the Jews, Will he kill himself? because he saith, whither I go, ye cannot come.

23 And he said unto them, Ye are from beneath, I am from above: ye are of this world, I am not of this world.

24 I said therefore unto you, that ye shal die in your sins, for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shal die in your sins.

25 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? And Jesus saith unto them, Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning.

26 I have many things to say, and to judge of you: but he that sent me is true, and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.

27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Jesus unto them, f When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shal ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of my self, but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

29 And he that sent me, is with me: the Father hath not left me alone for I do always those things that pleaſe him.

30 As he spake these words, many believed on him.

31 Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, g If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed.

32 And ye shal know the truth, and the truth shal make you b free.

33 They answered him, we be Abrahams seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayeſt thou, Ye shal be made free?

34 Jesus answered them, Verily, verily I say unto you, * Whosoever committeth sin, is the servant of sin.

35 And the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the son abideth ever.

36 If the son therefore shal make you free, ye shal be free indeed.

37 I know that ye are † Abrahams seed, but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no * place in you.

38 I speak that which I have seen with my Father: & ye do that which ye have seen with your father.

39 They answered and said unto him, Abraham is our Father, Jesus saith unto them, if ye were Abrahams children, ye would do the works of Abraham.

40 But now ye seek to kill me, a man that have told you the truth, which I have heard of God; this did not Abraham.

41 Ye do the deeds of a your father: Then said they to him, we be not born of fournication, we have b one Father, even God.

42 Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me, for I proceeded forth, and came from God: neither came I of my self, but he c sent me.

43 Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word.

44 a Ye are of your father the devil and the lusts of your father ye will do: he was † a murderer from c the beginning, and f abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him: When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the g father of it.

45 And because I tell you the truth ye believe me not.

46 Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do you not believe me.

47 b He that is of God, heareth Gods words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God.

48 Then answered the Jews, & said unto him, Say we not well, that thou art i a Samaritan, and k hast a devil?

49 Jesus answered, I have not a devil: but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me.

50 And I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth.

51 Verily, verily I say unto you, if a man keep my sayings, he shal never * see death.

52 Then said the Jews unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil: Abraham is dead, and the prophets, and thou sayeſt, If a man keep my saying, he shal never taste of death.

53 Art thou greater than our father? Abraham which is dead? and the prophets are dead: Whom makeſt thou thy self?

54 Jesus answered, If I honour my self, my honour is nothing; it is my Father that honoureth me, of whom ye say, that He is our God.

CHAP. IX.

A man born blind restored.

AND as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was a blind from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying Master, who did sin, this man, or his a parents, that he was born blind?

3 Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: b but that the works of God should be made manifest in him.

4 I must work the work of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh when no man can work.

5 As long as I am in the world, d I am the light of the world.

6 When ye had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he * anointed the eyes of the blind men with the clay.

7 And said unto him, e Go wash in the pool of f Siloam (which is by interpretation, Sent) He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing.

8 ¶ The neighbours therefore, and they which before had seen him, that he was blind, said, is not this he that sat and g begged?

9 Some said, This is he, others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he.

10 Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered, & said, A man that is called Jesus, made clay, & anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.

12 Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.

13 ¶ They brought to the Pharisees him that afore time was blind.

14 And it was the sabbath day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. he said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, & I washed, & do see.

16 Therefore said some of the Pharisees, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner, do such miracles? and there was h a division among them.

17 They say unto the blind man again; what sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, He is a prophet.

18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind: how then doth he now see?

20 His Parents answered them, and said, we know that this is our son, and that he was born blind.

21 But by what means he now seeth, we know not, or who hath opened his eyes we know not, he is of age, ask him: he shal speak for himself.

22 These words spake his parents, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had * agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue.

23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age, ask him.

24 Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, a Give God the praise, we know that this man is a sinner.

25 He answered, and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not, one thing I know, that whereas I was blind, now I see.

26 Then said they to him again What did he to thee? How opened he thine eyes?

27 He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear: wherefore would you hear it again? b will ye also be his disciples?

28 Then they reviled him, and said Thou art his disciple, but we are Moses disciples.

29 We know that God spake unto Moses: as for c this fellow, we know not from whence he is.

30 The man answered and said unto them, why, herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath b opened mine eyes.

31 Now we know that f God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God and doth his will g him he heareth.

32 Since the world began was it not heard, that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind.

33 h If this man were not of God, he could do nothing.

34 They answered, and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou k teach us? And they * cast him out.

35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out, and when he had l found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on the Son of God?

36 He answered and said, Who is he Lord, that I might believe on him?

37 And Jesus said unto him: Thou hast both seen him, and it is he that talketh with thee.

38 And he said, Lord m I believe, and he worshipped him.

39 ¶ And Jesus said, For judgement I am come into this world, that they n which see not, might see, and that they which see, might be made blind.

40 And some of the pharisees which were with him heard these words, and said unto him, Are we blind also.

41 Jesus said unto them, If ye were blind, ye should have o no sin: but now ye say, We see; therefore your sin remaineth.

to the sheepfold, but climeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

2 But he that entreth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.

3 To him the porter openeth, and the sheep hear his voice, and he calleth his own b sheep by name: and leadeth them out.

4 And when he putteth forth his own sheep, d he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.

5 And a b stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him, for they know not the voice of strangers.

6 This *parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

7 Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep.

8 All that ever came before me, are thieves, and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them.

9 I am the door, by me if any man enter in, e he shal be saved, and shal d go in and out, and find pasture.

10 The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy, I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

11 e I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.

12 But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth f the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep.

13 The hirling fleeth, because he is an hirling, & careth not for the sheep.

14 I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am knowen of mine.

15 As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep.

16 And f other sheep I have, vvhich are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice, b and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

17 Therefore doth my Father love me, i because I lay down my life, that I might take it again

18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of my self: I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. k This commandment have I received of my Father.

19 ¶ There was a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings

20 And many of them said: He hath a devil, and is mad, vvhy hear ye him?

21 Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a devil. Can a devil open the eyes of the blind?

22 ¶ And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the dedication, and it vvas vvinter.

23 And Jesus vvalked in the temple in Solomons porch.

24 Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, Hovv long doest thou *make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly

25 Jesus answered them, I told you and ye believed not: the works that I do in my Fathers Name, they bear witness of me.

26 But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you.

27 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me.

28 And I give unto them eternal life, and they shall never perish, neither shall any man a pluck them out of my hand.

29 My Father vvhich gave them me, is b greater than all: and no man is able to pluck them out of my Fathers hand.

30 v I and my Father are one.

31 Then the Jews took up stones again d to stone him.

32 Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shevved you from my Father: for which of those works do you stone me?

33 The Jews answered him, saying, For a good vvork vve stone thee not, e but for Blasphemy, and because that thou being a man, makest thy self God.

34 Jesus answered them, f Is it not vvritten in your law, I said, Ye are gods.

35 If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken.

36 Say ye of him, whom the Father hath g sanctified, and h sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am the son of God?

37 If I do not the vvorks of my Father, believe me not.

38 But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works: that ye may know and believe that the Father is in me, and I in him.

39 Therefore they sought again to take him: but he i escaped out of their hands.

40 And vvent avvay again beyond Jordan, into the place vvhere John at first baptized: and there he abode.

41 And many resorted unto him, and said, John did no miracle; but all things that John spake of this man, vvere true.

42 And many believed on him there.

CHAP. XI.

Lazarus raised, many of the Jews believe.

NOvv a certain man was sick, named Lazarus of * Bethany, the town of Mary, and her sister Martha.

2 (a It vvas that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and vviped his feet vvith her hair, vvhose brother Lazarus vvas sick.)

3 Therefore his sisters b sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he vvhom c thou lovest, is sick.

4 When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the d glory of God: that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.

5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, e and Lazarus.

6 When he had heard therefore that he vvas sick, he abode tvvo days still in the same place vvhere he vvas.

7 Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Judea again.

8 His disciples say unto him, Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee, and goest thou thither again?

9 Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man vvalk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this vvorld.

10 a But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things said he, and after that, he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus b sleepeth, but I go that I may awake him out of sleep.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shal * do wel.

13 Howbeit Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.

14 Then said Jesus unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes, that I was not there (to the intent ye may believe) never the lefs let us go unto him.

16 Then said Thomas, which is called ‡ Didymus, unto his fellow disciples, c Let us also go, that we may die with him.

17 Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lien in the grave four days already.

18 (Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, * about fifteen furlongs off.)

19 And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, d to comfort them concerning their brother.

20 Then Martha, assoon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him, but Mary sat still in the house.

21 Then said martha unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

22 But I know, that even now whatsoever thou will ask of God, God will give it thee.

23 Jesus saith unto her, thy brother shal rise again.

24 Martha saith unto him, e I know that he shal rise again in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Jesus said unto her, f I am the resurrection, and the g life; he that believeth in me though he were dead yet shal he live.

26 And whosoever liveth and h believeth in me, shal never die. Believest thou this?

27 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord, † I believe that thou art the Christ the son of God, which i should come into the world.

28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come and calleth for thee.

29 Assoon as he heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him.

30 Now Jesus was not yet come into the † town, but was in that place where Martha met him.

31 The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary that she arose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave, to weep there.

32 Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and † was troubled,

34 And said, Where have ye laid him? They say unto him, Lord, come and see.

35 k Jesus wept.

36 Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him.

37 And some of them said, Could not this man which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?

38 Jesus therefore again groaning in himself, cometh to the grave: It was a cave; and a stone lay upon it.

39 Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days.

40 Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that if thou wouldest c believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God?

41 d Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lift up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.

42 And I know that thou heares me always: but because of the people which stand by, I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.

43 And when he had thus spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus come forth.

44 And he that was dead, came forth bound hand and foot with grave clothes, and his face was bound about with a napkin: Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

45 Then many of the Jews which came to Mary, & had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him.

46 But some of them went their ways to the pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done.

47 e f Then gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a council, and said, What do we? for this man doth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, g all men will believe on him, and q the Romans shall come and take away both our place and nation.

49 And one of them named Caiaphas, being the high priest h that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all.

50 k Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 And this spake he not of himself, but being high priest that year, l he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation:

52 m And not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one, the children of God that were scattered abroad.

53 Then from that day forth, they * took counsel together for to put him to death.

54 Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews; but went thence unto a country near to the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 And the Jews † passeover was nigh at hand, and many went out of the countrey up to Jerusalem before the passeover, to ‡ purifie themselves.

56 Then sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that

CHAP. XII.

Jesus foretelleth his death.

THen Jesus six days before the passover, came to * Bethany, where Lazarus was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.

2 There they made him a supper, and Martha served: but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him.

3 a Then took Mary a pound of ointment of * spikenard very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

4 Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simons son, which should b betray him,

5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and c given to the poor?

6 d This he said, not that he cared for the poor: but because he was a thief, and e had the bag, and bare what was put therein.

7 Then said Jesus, Let her alone, against the day of my burying hath she kept this.

8 f For the poor always ye have with you, but me ye have not always.

9 Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there; and they came not for Jesus sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead.

10 ¶ But the chief priests consulted, that they might g put Lazarus also to death.

11 Because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

12 ¶ h On the next day, much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem;

13 Took branches of palm-trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, †Hosanna, blessed is the king of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord

14 And Jesus when he had found a young ass, sat thereon, as it is written,

15 i Fear not, daughter of Sion, behold, thy king cometh sitting on an asses colt.

16 These things understood not his disciples k at the first: but when Jesus l was glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him, when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record.

18 For this cause the people also met him, for that they had heard that he had done this miracle.

19 The pharisees therefore said among themselves, Perceive ye how c ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is d gone after him.

20 ¶ And there were certain * Greeks among them, that came up to worship at the feast:

21 The same came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus.

22 Philip cometh and e telleth Andrew: and again Andrew and Philip told Jesus.

23 ¶ And Jesus answered them, saying, The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

25 f He that loveth his life shall lose it: and g he that hateth his life in this world, shall keep it unto life eternal.

26 If any man serve me, let him follow me, and h where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour.

27 Now is my soul troubled, and what shall I say? Father, i save me from this hour, but k for this cause came I unto this hour.

28 Father, glorifie thy name. Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorifie it again.

29 The people therefore that stood by and heard it, said that it thundred: others said, An angel spake to him.

30 Jesus answered, and said, This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes.

31 Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be m cast out.

32 And I, if I be n lifted up from the earth, will draw o all men unto me.

33 (This he said, signifying what death he should die.)

34 The people answered him, p we have heard q out of the law, that Christ abideth for ever, and how sayest thou, the Son of man must be lift up? Who is this Son of man?

35 Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while is the light with you: walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness, knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light. These things spake Jesus, & departed, & did hide himself from them.

37 ¶ But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him:

38 That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled which he spake, a Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the * arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 Therefore they b could not believe, because that Esaias said again,

40 c He hath blinded their eyes, and hardned their heart, that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.

41 These things said Esaias, when he saw his glory, and spake of him.

42 ¶ Nevertheless, among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the pharisees they did d not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue.

43 e For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

48 He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: i the word that I have spoken, the same shal judge him in the last day.

49 For I have not spoken of my self: but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment what I should say, and what I should speak.

50 And I know that his commandment is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

CHAP. XIII.

Jesus washing his disciples feet.

NOw a before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, b he loved them unto the end:

2 And * supper being ended (the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simons son, to betray him)

3 Jesus knowing that the Father had given c all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God,

4 He riseth from supper, and laid aside * his garments, and took a towel, and girded himself.

5 After that he poureth water into a bason, and began d to wash the disciples feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.

6 Then cometh he to Simon Peter, and Peter saith unto him, Lord, doest thou wash my feet?

7 Jesus answered, and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter.

8 Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, a If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.

9 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, b not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.

10 Jesus saith to him, He that is washed, needeth not, save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit; c and ye are clean, but not all.

11 For he knew who should betray him, therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.

12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you.

13 Ye call me Master, and Lord, and ye say well, for so I am.

14 If I then your Lord and Master have washed your feet, d ye also ought to wash one another's feet.

15 For I have given you an example, that ye should do, as I have done to you.

16 e Verily, verily I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his Lord, neither he that is sent, greater than he that sent him.

17 If ye know these things, happy are ye, if ye do them.

18 ¶ I speak not of you all, g I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, b He that eateth bread with me hath * lift up his heel against me.

19 * Now I tell you before it come, that when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he.

20 i Verily, verily I say unto you, he that receiveth whomsoever I send, receiveth me: and he that receiveth me, receiveth him that sent me.

21 k When Jesus had thus said, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily I say unto you, that one of you shal betray me.

22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

23 Now there was * leaning on Jesus bosom, one of his disciples whom Jesus loved.

24 Simon Peter therefore beckned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake.

25 He then lying on Jesus breast, saith unto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Jesus answered, He it is to whom k I shal give a * sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon.

27 And after the sop Satan entred into him. Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly.

28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.

29 For some of them thought, because Judas l had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, buy those things that we have need of against the feast; or that he should give something to the poor.

30 He then having received the sop, went * immediatly out: and it was b night.

31 ¶ Therefore when he was gone out, Jesus said, Now is the Son of man glorified: and God is glorified in him.

32 If God be glorified in him, God shal also glorifie him in himself, and shal straightway glorifie him.

33 Little children, Yet a little while I am with you, ye shal seek me, and as I said unto the Jews, whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say to you.

34 d A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another, as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

35 By this shal all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

36 Simon Peter said unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered him, Whither I go thou canst not follow me now: but thou shalt follow me afterwards.

37 Peter said unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will lay down my life for thy sake.

38 Jesus answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake? Verily, verily I say unto thee, The cock shal not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice.

Christ comforteth his disciples, &c.

1 LEt not your heart a be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also b in me.

2 In my Fathers house are many mansions, if it were not so, I would have told you: I go c to prepare a place for you.

3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, d I will come again, and e receive you unto my self, that where I am, there ye may be also.

4 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

5 Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whether thou goest: and how can we know the way?

6 Jesus saith unto him, I am f the way, the Truth, & the life: no man cometh unto the Father, b but by me.

7 If ye had known me, ye should have known my father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

8 Philip saith unto him, Lord, shew † us the Father and it sufficeth us.

9 Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? He that hath seen me, hath seen the father, and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father.

10 Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and i the Father in me? The words that I speak unto you, I speak not of * my self; but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doth the works.

11 Believe me, that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works sake.

12 Verily, verily I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do, a shal he do also, and greater works than these shal he do, because I go unto my Father.

13 b And whatsoever ye shal ask in my Name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

14 If ye shal ask any thing in my Name, I will do it.

15 c If ye love me, keep my commandments.

16 And I will pray the Father, and he shal give you another * Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever.

17 Even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him; but ye know him, for d he dwelleth with you, and shal be in you.

18 I will not leave you * comfortless, I will come to you.

19 Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more, but ye see me: because I live, ye shal live also.

20 At that day ye shal know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you.

21 He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me; and he that loveth me, shal be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and e will manifest my self to him.

22 Judas saith unto him, * not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thy self unto us, and not unto the world?

23 Jesus answered and said unto him, If any man love me, he will keep my words; and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

24 He that loveth me not, keepeth not my sayings: and the word which you hear is not mine, but the Fathers which sent me.

25 These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you.

26 But the comforter, which is the holy ghost, whom the Father will send in my Name, he shal teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

27 Peace I leave with you, f my peace I give unto you, not as the world giveth, give I unto you: let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

28 Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you, If ye love me, ye would rejoyce, because I said, I go unto the Father; for my Father g is greater than I.

29 And now I have told you before it come to pass, that when it is come to pass, ye might believe.

30 Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the h prince of this world cometh, and hath † nothing in me.

31 But that the world may know that I love the Father: and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do: Arise, let us go hence.

5 I am the Vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: * for without me ye can † do nothing.

6 If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, that is withered, and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, & they are burned.

10 h If ye keep my commandments, ye shal abide in my love, even as I have kept my Fathers commandments, and abide in his love.

Christ prayeth to his Father, &c.

THese words spake Jesus, and a lift up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come, glorifie thy Son, that thy Son also may glorifie thee.

2 b As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternall life to as many as thou hast given him.

3 And this is life eternall, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent.

4 I have glorified thee on the earth; I have c finished the work which d thou gavest me to do.

5 And now, O Father, glorifie thou me, with thine own self, with the glory which I had with thee e before the world was.

6 I have manifested thy Name unto the men which thou gavest me f out of the world: g thine they were, and thou gavest them me, and they have kept thy word.

7 Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me, are of thee.

8 For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me, and they have received them, h and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.

9 I pray for them, I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me, for they are thine.

10 And all mine are thine, & thine are mine: and i I am glorified in them.

11 And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee, Holy Father: keep through thy own k Name, those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me, I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the l son of perdition: m that the scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee, and these things I speake in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 I have given them thy word, and the world hath hated them, because (n they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world,

n 1 Pet. 4: 4

15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil.

16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

17 Sanctifie them through thy truth; thy word is truth.

18 As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.

19 And for their sakes I sanctifie my self, that they also might be *sanctified through the truth.

*Or truly sanctified, a Act. 4: 46 1 Cor. 1: 10 Ep. 4: 3 b Heb. 13: 21 2 Cor. 13: 9 c Cha. 12: 29 d Pro. 8: 22 21: 30 Ep. 1, 4

21 That they all may be a one: as thou Father art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.

22 And the glory which thou gavest me, I have given them, that they may be one, even as we are one.

23 I in them, and thou in me, that they may be b made perfect in one, and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me.

24 c Father, I will that they also whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am, that they may behold my glory which thou hast given me; for thou lovedst me d before the foundation of the world.

25 O righteous Father, the world hath e not known thee: but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me.

e Mat. 11: 27 Jo. 8: 55 & 7. 28 10: 15

26 And I have declared unto them thy Name, and will declare it: that the love wherewith thou hast loved me, may be in them, and I in them.

Judas betrayeth Jesus.

WHen Jesus had spoken these words, a he went forth with his disciples over the brook b Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entred and his disciples.

a Mat. 26: 36 b 1 Kin. 15: 13 2 Sam. 15: 22

2 And Judas also which betrayed him, Knew the place: for Jesus oftimes resorted thither with his disciples.

3 c Judas then having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns, and torches, and weapons.

c Mat. 26: 47 Mar. 14: 43

4 Jesus therefore knowing all things that should come upon him, d went forth and said unto them, Whom seek ye?

d Phil. 2: 7 e 1 Pet. 2: 22 f Pf. 22 *For alone was to suffer for our redemption.

5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, e I am he. And Judas also which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 Assoon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and f fell to the ground.

7 Then asked he them again, whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth.

8 Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he: If therefore ye seek me, *let these go their way.

9 That the saying might be fulfilled led which he ſpake, g Of them which thou gaveſt me, have I loſt none.

10 Then Simon Peter having a ſword, drew it, and ſmote the high prieſts ſervant, and cut off his right ear. the ſervants name was Malchus.

11 Then ſaid Jeſus unto Peter, Put up thy ſword into the ſheath: the cup which my Father b hath given me, ſhall I not drink it?

12 Then the band, and the captain, and officers of the Jews took Jeſus, and * bound him,

13 And led him away to Annas firſt, (for he was father in law to Caiaphas) which was the high prieſt that ſame year.

14 a Now Caiaphas was he which gave counſel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man ſhould die for the people.

15 ¶ b And Simon Peter followed Jeſus, and ſo did another diſciple, that diſciple * was known unto the high prieſt, and went in with Jeſus into the palace of the high prieſt.

16 But Peter ſtood at the door without. Then went out that other diſciple which was known unto the high prieſt, and ſpake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter.

17 Then ſaith the damſel that kept the door unto Peter, Art not thou alſo one of this mans diſciples? He ſaith, c I am not.

18 And the ſervants and officers ſtood there, who had made a fire of coals, (for it was cold,) And they d warmed themſelves, & Peter e ſtood with them, and warmed himſelf.

19 The high prieſt then asked Jeſus of his diſciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Jeſus anſwered him, I ſpake openly * to the world, I ever taught in the ſynagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always reſort, and in ſecret have I ſaid nothing.

21 Why askeſt thou me? Ask them which heard me, what I have ſaid unto them: Behold, they know what I ſaid.

22 And when he had thus ſpoken, one of the officers which ſtood by, g ſtrook Jeſus with * the palm of his hand, ſaying, Anſwereſt thou the high prieſt ſo?

23 Jeſus anſwered him, If I have ſpoken evil, bear witneſs of the evil: but if well, why ſmiteſt thou me?

24 b Now Annas had ſent him bound unto Caiaphas the high prieſt.

25 And Simon Peter ſtood and warmed himſelf: i They ſaid therefore unto him, Art not thou alſo one of his diſciples? He denyed it, and ſaid, I am not.

26 One of the ſervants of the high prieſt (being his kinſman, whoſe ear Peter cut off) ſaith, Did not I ſee thee in the garden with him?

27 Peter then denied again, and immediately the cock crew.

28 ¶ k Then led they Jeſus from Caiaphas, unto * the hall of judgement, and it was early. l And they themſelves went not into the judgement hall, leſt they ſhould be defiled; but that they m might eat the Paſſover.

29 Pilate then went out unto them, and ſaid, what accuſation bring you againſt this man?

30 They anſwered and ſaid unto him, n If he were not a malefactour, we would not have delivered him up unto thee.

31 Then ſaid Pilate unto them, Take ye him and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore ſaid unto him. It is not lawful for us to put any man to death.

32 o That the ſayings of Jeſus might be fulfilled which he ſpake, ſignifying what death he ſhould die.

33 p Then Pilate entred into the judgment hall again, and called Jeſus, and ſaid unto him, Art thou the king of the Jews?

34 Jeſus anſwered him, Sayeſt thou this thing of thy ſelf, or did others tell it thee of me?

35 Pilate anſwered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation, and a the chief prieſts, have delivered thee unto me: What haſt thou done?

36 Jeſus anſwered, * My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would b my ſervants fight, that I ſhould not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

37 Pilate therefore ſaid unto him, Art thou a king then? Jeſus anſwered, Thou ſayeſt that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cauſe came I into the world, that I ſhould bear witneſs unto the truth: every one that is of the truth heareth my voice.

38 Pilate ſaith unto him, q What is truth? And when he had ſaid this, he went out again unto the Jews, and ſaith unto them, I find in him d no fault at all.

39 e But ye have a cuſtome, that I ſhould releaſe unto you one at the paſſeover: will ye therefore that I releaſe unto you the king of the Jews?

40 f Then cried they all again, ſaying, Not this man, but * Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.

CHAP. XIX.

Chriſt ſcourged, and beaten, &c.

THen a Pilate therefore took Jeſus and b ſcourged him.

2 And the ſouldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe,

3 And ſaid, Hail King of the Jews: and they ſmote him with their * hands.

4 Pilate therefore went forth again, and ſaith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in him.

5 Then came Jeſus forth c wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate ſaith unto them, Behold the man.

6 When the chief prieſt therefore and officers ſaw him, they cried out, ſaying, Crucifie him, crucifie him. Pilate ſaith unto them. Take ye him and crucifie him: for I find no fault in him.

7 The Jews anſwered him, d We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, becauſe he made himſelf the Son of God.

8 ¶ When Pilate therefore heard that ſaying, he was the more afraid.

9 And went again into the judgement hall, and ſaith unto Jeſus.

11 Jesus answered, Thou couldest have no power at all against me, b except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee, hath the greater sin.

12 And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Cesars friend: whosoever maketh himself a king, speaketh against Cesar.

13 ¶ c When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgment seat, in a place that is called the * pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha.

14 And it was the preparation of the Passeover, and about the sixth hour, and he saith unto the Jews, d Behold your King.

15 But they cryed out, e Away with him, away with him, crucifie him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucifie your king. The chief priest answered, We have no king but f Cesar.

16 g Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified, and they took Jesus, and led him away.

17 And he h bearing his cross, went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew, * Golgotha.

18 Where they i crucified him, and k two other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst.

19 ¶ And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

20 This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified, was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latine.

21 Then said the chief Priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The king of the Jews: but that he said, I am king of the Jews.

22 Pilate answered, What I have written, I have written.

23 ¶ l Then the souldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments (and made four parts, to every souldier a part) and also his coat: Now the coat was without seam, * woven from the top thorowout.

24 They said therefore among themselves, Let not us rent it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: m that the scripture might be fulfilled which saith, they parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots. These things therefore the souldiers did.

26 When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, n whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold thy son.

27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother: And from that hour, that disciple took her unto his own home.

28 ¶ After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, o that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst.

29 Now there was set * a vessel full of vineger: And they filled a spunge with vineger, and put it upon p hyssope, and put it to his mouth.

30 When Jesus therefore had received the vineger he said, It is finished, and he bowed his head, and d gave up the ghost.

31 The Jews therefore, because it was e the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day (for that sabbath day was an high day) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

32 Then came the souldiers and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him.

33 But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs.

34 But one of the souldiers with a spear, * pierced his side, and forthwith came thereout blood and water.

35 And he that saw it, bare record, and his record is true, and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe.

36 For these things were done, f that the scripture should be fulfilled; A bone of him shall not be broken:

37 And again another scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced.

38 ¶ And after this, Joseph of Arimathea (being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews) besought Pilate, that he might take away the body of Jesus, and Pilate gave him leave: he came therefore and took the body of Jesus.

39 And there came also Nicodemus, which at the first came to Jesus by night, and brought a mixture of mirrhe and aloes, about an hundred pound weight.

40 Then took they the body of Jesus, and wound it in linen clothes, with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury.

41 Now in the place where he was crucified, there was a garden, and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid.

42 There laid they Jesus therefore, because of the Jews preparation-day, for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

Mary cometh to the sepulchre.

THe a first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early when it was b yet darck unto the sepulchre, & seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre.

a Mat. 28.1 Mark 16.2 b Mark 16.2 Luke 24.1 John 20.1

2 Then she runneth and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the c other disciple whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.

c Cha. 13.23 d Cha. 21.7

3 Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.

4 So they ran both together, and the other disciple did out-run Peter, and and came first to the sepulchre,

5 And he stoping down, and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying, yet went he not in.
6 Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie.
7 And the napkin that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes but wrapped together in a place by it self.
8 Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and * believed.
9 For a as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.
10 Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.
11 ¶ But Mary stood without at the sepulchre, b weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the sepulchre.
12 And seeth two angels c in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lyen.
13 And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.
14 And when she had thus said, she turned her self back, & saw Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus.
15 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? she supposing him to be the gardiner, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have born him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, & I will take him away.
16 Jesus saith unto her, Mary: She turned her self, and saith unto him, * Rabboni, which is to say, Master.
17 Jesus saith unto her, d Touch me not, for I am not yet ascended to my father, but go to my e brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto f my Father, and g your Father, and to my God, and your God.
18 Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples, that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her.
19 ¶ b Then the same day at even, being the first day of the week, when the i doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus, and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, k Peace be unto you.
20 And when he had so said, he shewed unto them his hands and his side. Then were the disciples l glad when they saw the Lord.
21 Then said Jesus unto them again, peace be unto you: As my father hath sent me, even so send I you.
22 And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the holy Ghost.
23 m Whosoever sins ye remeit, they are remitted unto them, and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.
24 ¶ But Thomas one of the twelve called § Dydimus, was not with them when Jesus came.
25 The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord: But he said unto them, Except I shal see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, n I will not believe.
26 ¶ And after eight days, again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you.
27 Then saith he to Thomas, o Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands, and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side, and be not faithless, but believing.
28 And Thomas answered, and said unto him, c My Lord, and my God. d Cha.
29 Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed; blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed. f Jo. 3. 36

31 But these are written, e that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ the Son of God, f and that believing ye might have life g through his Name.

CHAP. XXI.

Christ appeareth to his disciples.

AFter these things Jesus shewed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias, and on this wise shewed he himself.
2 There were together Simon Peter and Thomas called Dydimus, and a Nathaniel of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples.
3 b Simon Peter saith unto them, * I go a fishing. They say unto him, we also go with thee. They went forth & entred into a ship immediately, and that night they caught nothing.
4 But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore: but the disciples knew not that it was Jesus.
5 Then Jesus saith unto them, * Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No.
6 And he said unto them, c Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.
7 Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved, saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat unto him, (for he was naked) and did d cast himself into the sea.
8 And the other disciples came in a little ship (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits) dragging the net with fishes.
9 Assoon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread.
10 Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught.
11 Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three; and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.
12 Jesus saith unto them, Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.

14 This is now the * third time that Jesus shewed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

15 ¶ So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, loveſt thou me more than theſe? He ſaith unto him, Yea Lord, thou knoweſt that I love thee. He ſaith unto him, a Feed b my lambs.

16 He ſaith to him again the ſecond time, Simon, ſon of Jonas, loveſt thou me? He ſaith unto him, yea Lord, thou knoweſt that I love thee: He ſaith unto him, Feed c my ſheep.

17 He ſaith unto him the * third time, Simon ſon of Jonas, loveſt thou me? Peter was grieved, becauſe he ſaid unto him the third time, Loveſt thou me? And he ſaid unto him, Lord, d thou knoweſt all things, thou e knoweſt that I love thee: Jeſus ſaith unto him, Feed my ſheep.

18 Verily verily, I ſay unto thee, when thou waſt young, thou girdedſt thy ſelf, and walkedſt whither thou wouldeſt: but when thou ſhalt be old; thou ſhalt ſtretch forth thy hand, and * another ſhall gird thee, & f carry thee whither thou wouldeſt not.

19 This ſpake he, ſignifying, by what death he ſhould g glorifie God. And when he had ſpoken this, he ſaith unto him, b Follow me.

20 Then Peter turning about, ſeeth the diſciple i whom Jeſus loved, following, which alſo leaned on his breaſt at ſupper, and ſaid, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?

21 Peter ſeeing him, ſaith to Jeſus, Lord, and what ſhall this man do?

22 Jeſus ſaith unto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, & what is that to thee? Follow thou me.

23 Then went this ſaying abroad among the brethren, that that diſciple ſhould not die; yet Jeſus ſaid not unto him, He ſhall not die: but if I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee?

24 This is the diſciple which l teſtifieth of theſe things, and wrote theſe things, and we know that his teſtimony is true.

25 m And there are alſo many other things which Jeſus did, the which if they ſhould be written every one, I ſuppoſe that even the world it ſelf could not contain the books that ſhould be written. Amen.

CHAP. I.

A repetition of Chriſts paſſion.

THE former treatiſe have I made O a Theophilus, of all that Jeſus began both to do & teach,

2 Until the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the holy Ghoſt had given commandments unto the apoſtles, whom he had choſen.

3 To whom alſo he ſhewed himſelf alive after his paſſion, by many infallible proofs, being ſeen of them fourty days, and ſpeaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God.

4 And † being aſſembled together with them, commanded them that they ſhould not depart from Jeruſalem, but wait for the promiſe of the father, b which, ſaith he, ye have heard of me.

5 c For John truely baptized with water, but ye ſhall be baptized with the holy Ghoſt, not many days hence.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, ſaying, Lord, will thou at this time reſtore again d the kingdom to Iſrael?

7 And he ſaid unto them, e It is not for you to know the times or the ſeaſons, which the Father hath put in his own power.

8 * But ye ſhall receive * power, after that the holy Ghoſt is come upon you, and ye ſhall be witneſſes unto me, both in Jeruſalem, and in all Judea, and Samaria, and unto the * uttermoſt parts of the earth.

9 ¶ And when he had ſpoken theſe things, while they beheld, he was taken up, and a cloud received him out of their ſight.

10 And while they looked ſtedfaſtly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men ſtood by them in white apparel;

11 Which alſo ſaid, Ye men of Galilee, why ſtand ye gazing up into heaven? This ſame Jeſus, which is taken up from you into heaven, b ſhall ſo come in like manner as ye have ſeen him go into heaven.

12 Then returned they unto Jeruſalem from the mount called Oliver, which is from Jeruſalem a ſabbath dayes journey.

13 And when they were come in, they went up into an upper room, where abode both Peter and James, and John, & Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the ſon of Alpheus, and Simon Zelotes, and Judas the brother of James.

14 Theſe all continued with one accord in prayer & ſupplication, a with the women, and Mary the mother of Jeſus: and with his b brethren.

15 And in thoſe dayes Peter ſtood up in the midſt of the diſciples, and ſaid, (The number of the names together were about an hundred and twenty.)

16 Men and brethren, this ſcripture muſt needs have been fulfilled; c which the holy Ghoſt by the mouth of David ſpake before concerning Judas, which was d guide to them that took Jeſus.

17 For he was numbred with us, and had obtained part of this miniſtery.

CHAP. II.

The holy Ghost given.

AND when the a day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place.

2 a And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.

3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

4 And they were all filled with the holy Ghost, and began to speak with b other tongues, as the spirit gave them * utterance.

5 And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.

6 Now † when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were * confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language.

7 And they were all amazed, and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak, Galileans?

8 And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born?

9 Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judea, and Cappadocia, in Pontus and Asia.

10 Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Lybia, about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and * Proselytes.

11 Cretes, and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues, the wonderful works of God.

12 And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another what meaneth this.

13 Others † mocking, said, These men are full of † new wine.

14 ¶ But Peter standing up with the eleven, lift up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judea, & all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and † hearken to my words:

15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seing, it is but the third hour c of the day.

16 d But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel:

17 And it shal come to pass in the last days, (saith God) I will pour out of my spirit e upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shal prophesie, and your young men shal see visions, and your old men shal dream dreams.

18 And on my servants, & on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my spirit, and they shal prophesie.

19 And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signes in the earth beneath: blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke.

20 f The sun shal be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come.

21 g And it shal come to pass, that whosoever shal call on the Name of the Lord, shal be saved.

22 Ye men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you, by miracles, wonders and signes, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye your selves also know:

23 Him being delivered by the b determinate counsel & foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified, and slain.

24 Whom God hath a raised up, having loosed the pains of death, because it was not possible that he should be holden of it.

25 For David speaketh concerning him, b I foresaw the Lord always before my face, for he is * on my right hand, that I should not be moved.

26 Therefore did my heart rejoyce, and † my tongue was glad: moreover also, my flesh shal rest in hope.

27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine holy One to see c corruption.

28 Thou hast made known to me the ways of life, thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.

29 Men and brethren, * let me freely speak unto you of the patriarch David, that he is both dead & buried, & his sepulchre is with us unto this day

30 Therefore being a prophet, & knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne,

31 He seeing this before, spake of the resurrection of Christ, f that his soul was not left * in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption.

32 This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof we all are witnesses.

33 Therefore being by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the holy Ghost, he hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear.

34 For David is not ascended into the heavens, but he saith himself g the Lord said unto my Lord, b Sit thou on my right hand, 35 Until I make thy foes thy footstool.

36 Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ.

37 ¶ Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter, and to the rest of the Apostles, Men and brethren, what shal we do?

38 Then Peter said unto them, Repent & be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ, for the 46 And they continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and a breaking bread * from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart.

47 Praising God, and having favour with all the people. And b the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved.

CHAP. III.

Peter and John restore a cripple.

NOw Peter and John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the * ninth hour.

2 And a certain man lame from his mothers womb was caried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple, which is a called Beautifull, to ask alms of them that entred into the temple.

3 Who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, asked an alms.

4 And Peter fastning his eyes upon him with John, said, Look on us.

5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them.

6 Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none: but such as I have, give I thee; b in the Name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk.

7 And he took him by the right hand and lift him up, and immediately his † feet and ancle bones received strength.

8 And he leaping up, stood, and walked, and entred with them into the temple, walking and leaping, and praysing God.

9 And all the people saw him walking, and praysing God.

10 And they knew that it was he which sat for alms at the beautifull gate of the temple; and they were filled with wonder and Amazement at that which had hapned unto him.

11 And as the lame man which was healed, held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the porch that is called Solomons, greatly wondering.

12 ¶ And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvell ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness, we had made this man to walk?

13 The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, c the God of our fathers hath glorified his son Jesus; whom ye delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him go.

14 d But ye denied the holy One, and the just, and desired a murderer to be granted unto you,

15 And killed the prince of life, whom God hath raised from the dead, whereof we are witnesses.

16 And his name, through faith in his Name, hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know: yea, a the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

17 And now brethren, I wote that b through ignorance ye did it, as did also e your rulers.

18 But those things which God before had shewed by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled.

19 ¶ Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the d times of refreshing shal come from the presence of the Lord,

20 And he shal send us Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you

21 Whom the heaven must receive unto the times of e restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets, * since the world began.

22 For Moses truly said unto the fathers, f A prophet shal the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shal ye hear in all things whatsoever he shal say unto you,

23 And it shal come to pass, that every soul which will not hear that prophet, shal be destroyed from among the people.

24 Yea and all the prophets from Samuel, and all those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of those days.

25 g Ye are the children of the prophets, & of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And h in thy seed shal all the kindreds of the earth be blessed.

26 i Unto you first, God having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him k to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities.

4 Howbeit, many of them which heard b the word, believed, and the number of the men was about five thousand.

5 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes,

6 And Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were c gathered together at Jerusalem. 7 And 7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, by what power or by what name have ye done this?

8 Then Peter filled with the holy Ghoſt, ſaid unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Iſrael,

9 * If we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole;

10 f Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Iſrael, that by the Name of Jeſus Chriſt of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raiſed from the dead, even by him doth this man ſtand here before you whole.

11 g This is the ſtone which was ſet at nought of you builders, which is become the b head of the corner.

12 Neither is there ſalvation in any other: for there is none other Name under heaven given among men, whereby we muſt be i ſaved.

13 Now when they ſaw the k boldneſs of Peter, and John, and perceived that they were † unlearned, and ignorant men, they marvelled, and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jeſus.

14 And beholding the man which was healed ſtanding with them, they could ſay nothing againſt it.

15 But when they had commanded them to go aſide out of the council, they conferred among themſelves,

16 Saying, l What ſhal we do to theſe men? For that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them is manifeſt to all them that dwell in Jeruſalem, and we cannot deny it.

17 But that it ſpread no further among the people, let us ſtraitly threaten them, that they ſpeak henceforth to no man in this Name.

18 And they called them, and commanded them not to ſpeak at all, nor teach in the name of Jeſus.

19 But Peter and John anſwered, and ſaid unto them, m Whether it be right in the ſight of God, to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye.

20 For we cannot, but ſpeak the things which we have ſeen and heard.

21 So when they had further threatned them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might puniſh them becauſe of the people: for all men glorified God for that which was done.

22 For the man was above fourty years old, on whom this miracle of healing was ſhewed.

23 ¶ And being let go, they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief prieſts and elders had ſaid unto them.

24 And when they heard that, they lift up their voice to God with one accord, and ſaid, Lord, thou art God which haſt made heaven and earth, and the ſea, and all that in them is:

25 a Who by the mouth of thy ſervant David haſt ſaid, * Why did the heathen † rage, and the people imagine vain things?

26 The kings of the earth ſtood up, & the rulers were gathered together againſt the Lord, & againſt his Chriſt.

27 For of a truth, againſt thy b holy child Jeſus, whom thou haſt anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of Iſrael were gathered together.

28 For to do c whatſoever thy hand and thy counſell determined before to be done.

29 And now Lord, behold d their threatnings: and grant unto thy ſervants, that with all boldneſs they may ſpeak thy word.

30 By ſtretching forth thine hand to heal: and that ſignes and wonders may be done by the name of thy holy child Jeſus.

31 ¶ And when they had prayed, the place was ſhaken where they were aſſembled together, and they were all filled with the holy Ghoſt, and they ſpake the word of God with boldneſs.

32 And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart, and of one ſoul: neither ſaid any of them, that ought of the things which he poſſeſſed, was his own, but they had all things common.

33 And with great power gave the apoſtles witneſs of the reſurrection of the Lord Jeſus, and great grace was upon them all.

34 Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were poſſeſſours of lands, or houſes, ſold them, and brought the prices of the things that were ſold,

35 And laid them down at the apoſtles feet? and diſtribution was made unto every man according as he had need.

36 And Joſes, who by the Apoſtles was ſurnamed Barnabas (which is being interpreted, The ſon of conſolation) a Levite, and of the country of Cyprus, 37 Having land, ſold it, & brought the money, and laid it at the apoſtles feet.

CHAP. V.

Ananias and Saphira fall down dead.

BUt a certain man named Ananias, with Saphira his wife, ſold a poſſeſſion.

2 And a kept back part of the price, his wife alſo being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apoſtles feet.

3 But b Peter ſaid, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the holy Ghoſt, and to keep back part of the price of the land?

4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was ſold, was it not in thine own power? why haſt thou conceived this thing c in thine heart? thou haſt not lied unto men but d unto God.

5 And Ananias hearing theſe words e fell down, and gave up the Ghoſt: and great fear came on all them that heard theſe things.

6 And the young men aroſe, wound him up, and carried him out, and buried him.

7 And it was about the ſpace of f three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.

8 And Peter anſwered unto her, Tell me whether ye ſold the land for ſo much? And ſhe ſaid, Yea, for ſo much.

at his feet, and i yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, & found her dead, and carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.

11 And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.

12 ¶ And by the hands of the apostles were many k signs and wonders wrought among the people. (And they were all with one accord in Solomons porch.

13 And of the rest durst no man joyn himself to them; but the people l magnified them.

14 And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men m and women.)

15 Insomuch that they brought forth the sick into * the streets, and laid them on beds & couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by, might overshadow some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.

17 ¶ Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the Sadducees) and were filled with * indignation.

18 And laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison.

19 But the o angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said,

20 Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of p this life.

21 And when they heard that, they entred into the temple early in the morning, and taught: but the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told,

23 Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Now when the high priest, and the captain of the temple, and the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one and told them saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison, are standing in the temple, and q teaching the people.

26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: For they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the council, and the high priest asked them.

28 Saying, b Did not we straitly command you, that you should not teach in this name? and behold, ye have c filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this mans blood upon us.

29 ¶ Then Peter, and the other apostles answered, and said, We ought to obey God rather than men.

30 e The God of our fathers raised up Jesus whom f ye slew, and * hanged on a tree:

31 Him hath God, g exalted with his right hand, to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins.

32 And we are his witness of these things, and so is also the holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 ¶ When they heard that, they were * cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them.

34 Then stood there up one in the council, a pharisee, named † Gamaliel a doctour of law, had in reputation among all the people, & commanded to put the apostles forth a little space.

35 And said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to your selves, what ye intend to do as touching these men

36 For before these days rose up Theudas, boasting himself to be some body, * to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joyned themselves: who was slain, and all as many as * obeyed him, were scattered and brought to nought.

37 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee, in the days of the taxing, and drew away much people after him: he also perished, and all even as many as obeyed him were dispersed.

38 And Now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone, for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought.

39 But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it, lest happly ye be found even to fight against God.

40 And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles, & b beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the Name of Jesus, and let them go.

41 ¶ And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoycing, that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his Name.

42 And daily in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jesus Christ.

CHAP. VI.

The Apostles care for the poor.

AND in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplied, a there arose a murmuring of the Grecians against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministration.

2 b Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not reason that we should leave the word of God & serve tables.

3 Wherefore brethren, look ye out among you, seven men of d honest report, full of the holy Ghost, and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.

4 But we will d give our selves continually to prayer, and to the ministery of the word.

5 ¶ And the saying pleased e the f whole multitude: and they chose Steven, a man full of faith, and of the holy Ghost, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicholas, g a proselyte of Antioch;

CHAP. VII.

Stephen answereth his accusation.

THen said the high priest, Are these things so?

2 And he said, Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken, The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in *Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran.

3 And said unto him, a Get thee out of thy countrey, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shal shew thee.

4 Then came he out of the land of the *Caldeans, and dwelt in Charran; and from thence, when his father was dead, he removed him into this land wherein ye now dwell.

5 And he gave him none inheritance in it, no not *so much as to set his foot on: yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet ye had no child.

6 And God spake on this wise, that his seed should sojourn in a strange land, and that they should bring them into bondage, & intreat them evil *four hundred years.

7 And the nation to whom they shal be in bondage * will I judge, saith God: And after that shal they come forth and serve me in this place.

8 d And he gave him the covenant of circumcision: and so Abraham begat Isaac and circumcised him the eight day: f and Isaac begat Jacob, & Jacob begat the twelve patriarches.

9 g And the patriarches moved with envy, sold Joseph unto Egypt: but b God was with him,

10 And delivered him out of all his afflictions, i and gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he made him governour over Egypt, and all his house.

11 k Now there came a dearth over all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction, and *our fathers found no sustenance.

12 m But when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first.

13 And at the second time Joseph was made known to his brethren, and Josephs kindred was made known unto Pharaoh.

14 Then sent Joseph, and called his father Jacob to him, and all his kinred, threescore and fifteen souls.

15 So Jacob went down into Egypt, and died, he, and our fathers.

16 And were carried over into Sichem, a and laid in the sepulchre that Abraham bought for a sum of mony of the sons of Emor the father of Sichem.

17 But when the time of the b promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grevv and multiplied in Egypt.

18 Till another king arose, which c knew not Joseph.

19 The same dealt subtilly vvith our kindred, and evil entreated our fathers, so that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live.

20 d In which time Moses was born, and e * was exceeding fair, and f nourished up in his fathers house three moneths:

21 And when he was cast out, Pharaohs daughter g took him up, and nourished him for her own son.

22 And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, & was mighty in words h and in deeds.

23 And when he was full fourty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel.

24 i And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was k oppressed, and smote the Egyptian.

25 For he supposed his brethren would have understood, how that God by his hand, would deliver them l but they understood not.

26 And the next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are m brethren, Why do ye wrong one to another.

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong n thrust him away, saying, who made thee a ruler, & a judge over us?

28 Will thou kill me as thou didst the Egyptian yesterday?

29 Then fled Moses at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Midian, where he begat two sons.

30 o And when fourty years vvere expired, there appeared unto him in the wildernes of mount Sina, an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush

31 When Moses saw it he wondred at the sight: and as he drew near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came unto him.

32 Saying, I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, & the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, & durst not behold.

33 Then said the Lord to him, p put off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground.

34 q I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people which is in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning and am r come down to deliver them: And now come, I will send thee into Egypt.

35 This Moses whom they refused, saying, who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send to be a ruler and deliverer, by the hands of the angel which appeared to him in the bush.

36 s He brought them out, after that he had shewed wonders and signes in the land of Egypt, and in the Red sea, and in the wilderness fourty years.

37 ¶ This is that Moses which said unto the children of Israel, a A prophet shal the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, * like unto me: him shal ye hear.

38 b This is he that was in the * church in the wilderness, with the angel, which spake to him in the mount Sina, & with our fathers: who received the lively oracles to give unto us.

39 To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Egypt.

40 c Saying unto Aaron, make us gods to go before us: for as for this Moses which brought us out of the land of Egypt we wot not what is become of him.

41 And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifices unto the idol, and rejoyced in the works of their own hands.

42 Then God turned, and e gave them up to worship the s host of heaven, g as it is written in the book of the prophets, O ye house of Israel, have ye offered to me slain beasts, and sacrifices, by the space of fourty years in the wilderness.

43 Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the * star of your god Remphan, figures which ye made, to worship them: and I will carry you away beyond Babylon.

44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, speaking unto Moses, b that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen.

45 Which also our fathers that came after, brought in with Jesus into the possession of the Gentiles, whom God drave out before the face of our fathers, unto the days of David,

46 Who found favour before God, and i desired to find a tabernacle for the God of Jacob

47 k But Solomon built him an house.

48 l Howbeit the most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands, as saith the prophet.

49 m Heaven is my throne, and earth is my foot-stool: what house will ye build me, saith the Lord? Or what is the place of my rest?

50 Hath not my hands made all these things.

51 ¶ Ye stiff-necked, and n uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the holy Ghost; as your fathers did, so do ye.

52 Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? & they have slain them which shewed before of the coming of the o just One, of whom ye have been now the betrayers, and murderers;

53 Who have received the law by the p disposition of angels, and have not kept it.

54 ¶ When they heard these things, they were q cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him, with their teeth.

55 But he being full of the holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God

56 And said, behold, I see the r heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God.

57 Then they cryed out with a loud voyce, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord.

58 And cast him out of the city, and stoned him, and the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young mans feet whose name was Saul.

59 And they stoned Steven, t calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus receive my spirit.

60 And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord u lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell x asleep.

CHAP. VIII.

The church planted in Samaria.

AND Saul * was consenting unto his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem, and they were all scattered abroad thorow out the regions of Judea, and Samaria, except the apostles.

2 And devout men carried Steven to his burial, and made great a lamentation over him.

3 As for Saul, he made havock of the church, entring into every house, and haling men and women, committed them to prison.

4 Therefore they that were scattered abroad, went every where preaching the word.

5 Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and * preached Christ unto them.

6 And the people with one accord d gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.

7 For unclean spirits, crying with a loud voice came out of many that were possessed with them, and many taken with palsies, and that were lame were healed.

8 And there was great e joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man called Simon, which before time in the same city used sorcery, and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one.

10 To whom they all gave heed from the least to the greatest, Saying, This man is the * great power of God.

11 And to him they had regard, because that of long time, he had bewitched them with sorceries.

12 But when they believed Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the Name of Jesus Christ, they were a baptized both men and women.

13 Then Simon himself b believed also: and when he was baptized.

32 The place of the scripture, which he read, was this o he was led as a sheep to the slaughter, and like a lamb dumb before the shearer, so opened he not his mouth:
33 In his p humiliation, his judgment q was taken away, and who shall declare his generation? For his 15 For I will shew him d how great things he must suffer for my Names sake.

16 And Ananias went his way, and entred into the house, and putting his hands on him, said, brother Saul, the Lord (even Jesus that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest) hath sent me, that thou mightest e receive thy sight, and be filled with the holy Ghost.

17 And immediatly there fell from his eyes as it had f been scales, and he received sight forthwith, and arose and was baptized.

18 And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. Then was g Saul certain dayes with the disciples which were at Damascus.

19 And h straight way he preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God.

20 But all that heard him were amazed, and said, Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this Name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?

21 But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus. * proving that this is very Christ.

22 ¶ And after that i many dayes were fulfilled, the Jews took counsel to kill him.

23 k But their laying await was known of Saul, and they watched the gates day and night to kill him.

24 Then the disciples l took him by night, and let him down by the wall in a basket.

25 And when Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to joyn himself to the disciples, m but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple.

26 But Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the Name of Jesus.

27 And he was n with them coming in, and going out at Jerusalem.

28 And he o spake boldly in the Name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the Grecians: but they went about to slay him.

29 Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Cesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

30 q And the Churches rest thorowout all Judea, and Galilee, and Samaria, and b were edified, and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the holy Ghost were multiplied.

31 r And it came to pass, as Peter passed thorowout all quarters, he came down also to the saints, which dwelt at * Lydda.

32 And there he found a certain man named Æneas, which had kept his bed c eight years, and was sick of the palsie.

33 And Peter said unto him, Æneas, s Jesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediatly.

34 And all that dwelt at Lydda, and * Saron saw him and turned to the Lord.

35 Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called Dorcas: this woman was full of good works and alms deeds which she did.

*The country between Cesaria and Tabor.

36 And it came to pass in those dayes that she was sick, and died: whom when they had t washed, they laid her in an upper chamber.

37 And forasmuch, as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not * delay to come to them.

*Or be grieve.

38 Then Peter arose, and went with them: when he was come they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments, which Dorcas made while she was with them.

39 But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled down, and prayed, and running him to the body, said, Tabitha, arise. and she opened her eyes and when she saw Peter, she sat up.

40 And he gave her his hand, and lift her up, and when he had called the Saints & widows, presented her alive.

41 And it was known thorowout all Joppa, and many believed in the Lord.

42 And it came to pass, that he tarried many dayes in Joppa, with one Simon a tanner.

CHAP. X.

Cornelius sendeth for Peter.

THere was a certain man in Cesarea, called Cornelius, a Centurion of the band, called the Italian band,

2 A devout man and one that feared God with a all his house, which gave b much alms to the people, and c prayed to God c alwyay.

3 He saw in a vision evidently, about the ninth hour of the day, an angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius.

4 And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, what is it Lord? And he said unto him, a Thy prayers and b thine alms are come up for a memorial before God.

5 And now c send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter.

6 He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner: whose house is by the sea side: he shal tell thee what thou oughtest to do.

7 And when the angel which spake unto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout souldier of them that d waited on him continually.

8 And when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to * Joppa.

9 ¶ On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went up e upon the f house to pray, about the sixth hour.

10 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a b trance.

11 And saw the heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him as it had been a great sheet, knit at the four corners, & let down to the earth

*Whereas were & all manner of fourfourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

13 And there came a voice to him: Rise, Peter; kill, and eat.

14 But Peter said, l Not so, Lord, for I have never eaten any thing that is m common or unclean.

15 And the voice spake unto him, again the second time, what God hath cleansed, that call thou not common.

16 This was done thrice; and the vessel was received up again into heaven.

17 Now while Peter doubted in himself, what this vision, which he had seen, should mean: behold the men, which were sent from Cornelius had made enquiry for Simons house, and stood before the gate.

18 And called, and asked, whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there?

19 ¶ o While Peter thought on the vision, the spirit said unto him, Behold three men seek thee.

20 Arise therefore, and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them.

21 Then Peter went down to the men, which were sent unto him from Cornelius, and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: What is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they said, Cornelius the centurion a just man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by an holy angel, to send for thee into his house and to hear words of thee.

23 Then called he them in, and p lodged them: And on the morrow Peter went away with them, and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

24 And the morrow after they entred into Cesarea: and Cornelius awaited for them, and had b called together his kinsmen and near friends.

25 And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and c fell down at his feet, and worshipped him.

26 But Peter took him up, saying, Stand up, I my self also am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said unto them, ye know how that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a d Jew, to keep company, or come unto one of another nation, but God hath shewed me, that e I should not call any man common or unclean:

29 Therefore came I unto you without gainsaying, assoon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me.

30 And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour, and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing,

31 And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Joppa, and call hither Simon who is surname is Peter: he is lodged in the house of one Simon a tanner, by the sea side, who when he cometh, shall speak unto thee.

33 Immediatly therefore I sent to thee, and thou hast well done, that thou art come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of God.

34 ¶ Then Peter opened his mouth and said: g of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons:

35 But in every nation he that h feareth him, and i worketh righteousness k is accepted with him.

36 The word which God sent unto the children of Israel preaching peace by Jesus Christ, (he is m Lord of all)

37 That word (I say) you know which was published throughout all Judea, and began from Galilee after the baptism which John preached.

38 How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the holy Ghost, and with power, who went about doing good and healing all that were oppressed of the devil: n for God was with him.

39 And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem, whom they slew, and o hanged on a tree:

40 p Him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly;

41 Not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God even to us who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead

42 And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testifie that it is he which was ordained of God to be the q Judge of quick and dead.

43 To him gave all the prophets witness, that through his Name whosoever believeth in him shall receive a remission of sins.

44 ¶ While Peter yet spake these words, the holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

45 And they of the circumsion which believed, were astonished, as many, as came with Peter: because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the holy Ghost.

46 For they heard them speak with tongues, and d magnifie God. Then answered Peter.

47 Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the holy Ghost as well as we.

48 And he commanded them to be baptized in the e name of the Lord: Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

CHAP. XI.

Peter going unto the Gentiles.

AND the Apostles, and brethren that were in Judea, heard that the a Gentiles had also received b the word of God.

2 And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, they that were of the circumcision c contended with him.

3 Saying, Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them.

4 But Peter e rehearsed the matter from the beginning, and expounded it by order unto them, saying,

5 I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision, a certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sheet let down from heaven by four corners: and it came even to me

7 And I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise Peter, slay, and eat.

8 But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entred into my mouth.

9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, what God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

10 And this was done three times, & all were drawn up again into heaven.

11 And behold, immediately, there were three men already come unto the house where I was, sent from Cesarea unto me:

12 And the g spirit bad me go with them, nothing doubting; Moreover these six brethren accompanied me, and we entred into the mans house:

13 And he shewed us how he had seen an angelin his house which stood and said unto him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon whose surname is Peter:

14 Who shal tell thee words where-by thou, and all thy house shal be h saved.

15 And as I began to speak, the holy Ghost fell on them, i as on us at the beginning.

16 Then remembred I the word of the Lord, how that he said, * John indeed baptized with water; but ye shal be baptized with the holy Ghost.

17 For as much then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ; what was I that I could withstand God?

18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and g glorified God, saying, then hath God also to the Gentiles, granted repentance unto life.

19 ¶ b Now they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Steven, c travelled as far as Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch preaching the word to none, but unto the Jews only.

20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and d Cyrene, which when they were come to Antioch, spake unto the Grecians, preaching the Lord Jesus.

21 And f the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and turned unto the Lord.

22 ¶ Then tidings of these things came g unto the ears of the Church which was in Jerusalem, and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch.

23 Who when he came, & had seen the grace of God, was glad and exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they h would cleave unto the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and full of the holy Ghost, & of faith, & much people was added unto the Lord.

25 Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus for to seek Saul.

26 And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves * with the church and taught much people, and the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.

27 ¶ And in these days came prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch.

28 And there stood up one of them, j named Agabus, and m signified by the spirit, that there should be great dearth throughout all the world: which came to pass in the days of Claudius Cesar.

29 Then the disciples n every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judea.

30 Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of p Barnabas, and Saul.

CHAP. XII.

Peter going into the Gentiles.

NOw about that time, Herod the king * stretched forth his hands, to vex certain of the church.

2 And he killed James the brother of John with the sword.

3 And because he saw it b pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also (Then were the days of unleavened bread)

4 And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, & delivered him to four quaternions of souldiers to keep him, intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.

5 Peter therefore was kept in prison, but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

6 And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter b was sleeping between two souldiers bound with two chains, and the keepers before the door kept the prison.

7 And behold, the c angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the * prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.

8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thy self, and bind on thy sandals, and so he did. And he said unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, & follow me.

9 And he went out, and followed him, and wist not that it was true which was done by the angel: but thought he saw a vision.

10 When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city, which opened to them of his own accord, and they went out & passed on thorow one street, and forthwith the angel departed from him.

11 And when Peter was come to himself, He said, Now I know of a surety, that the Lord hath sent his angel, and d hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

12 And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose surname was Mark, where many were gathered together, praying.

13 And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damosell came * to hearken, named Roda.

14 And when she knew Peters voice she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate.

15 And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, It is f his angel.

19 And vvhen Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, & commanded that they should be † put to death. And he went down from Judea to Cesaria, and there abode.

20 ¶ And Herod was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon, but they came vvith one accord to him, and having made Blastus, † the kings chamberlain their friend, desired peace, because their countrey vvas nourished by the kings countrey.

21 And upon a set day Herod arayed in royal apparel, sat upon his throne, and made an oration unto them.

22 And the people gave a shout, saying, i It is the voyce of a god, and not of a man.

23 And immediatly the angel of the Lord k smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten up of worms, and gave up the ghost.

24 l But the word of God grew, and multyplied.

24 And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their * ministery, and took vvith them John, whose surname was Mark.

Paul & barnabas sent to the Gentiles.

NOw there vvere in the church that vvas at Antioch, certain prophets and teachers: as Barnabas & Simeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, which had been † brought up with Herod the Tetrarch, and Saul.

2 As they ministred to the Lord, and fasted, the holy Ghost said, a Separate me Barnabas and Saul, for the vvork vvhereunto I have called them.

3 And when they had fasted & prayed, and b laid their hands on them, they sent them avvay.

4 So they being sent forth by the holy Ghost, departed unto Seleucia, and from thence they sailed to c Cyprus.

5 And vvhen they vvere at Salamis, they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also John to their minister.

6 And when they had gone thorow the isle unto Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, vvhose name vvas † Barjesus;

7 Which was with the deputy of the countrey, Sergius Paulus a prudent man, who called for Barnabas & Saul, and desired to hear the vvord of God.

8 But * Elymus the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) l withstood them, seeking to turn avvay the deputy from the faith.

9 Then Saul, vvho also is called Paul, filled vvith the holy Ghost, set his eyes on him.

10 And said, O full of all subtillity and all mischief, e thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, vvilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?

11 And now behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be f blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediatly there fell on him a mist and a darkness, and he went about, seeking some to lead him by the hand.

12 Then the deputy, vvhen he savv what was done, believed, g being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Now when Paul and his company loosed from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia: and John departing from them returned to Jerusalem.

14 ¶ But vvhen they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the Synagogue on the sabbath day and sat dovvn.

15 And a after the reading of the law, & the prophets, the ruler of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, ye men & brethren, If ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on.

16 Then Paul stood up, and beckning with his hand, said, Men of Israel, and ye that fear God, give audience.

17 The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people, b when they dvvelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, & k with an high arm brought he them out of it.

18 And about the time of fourty years † suffered he their manners in the vvilderness.

19 And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Cannan, d he divided their land to them by lot.

20 And after that e he gave unto them judges, about the space of four hundred and fifty years, until Samuel the prophet.

21 f And afterward they desired a king, & God gave unto them Saul the son of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamine, by the space of fourty years.

22 And when he had removed him, g he raised up unto them David to be their king, to whom also he gave testimony, and said, b I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after mine own heart, vvhich shal fulfill all my vvill.

23 i Of this mans seed hath God, according to his promise, raised unto Israel a Saviour, Jesus.

24 k When John had first preached before his coming, the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.

25 And as John fulfilled his course, he said, l whom think ye that I am? * I am not he. But behold, there cometh one after me, whose shoes of his feet I am not vvorthy to loose.

26 Men and brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and m whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this salvation sent.

27 For they that dvvell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the voices of the prophets, which are read every sabbath day, n they have fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 o And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate that he should be slain.

29 And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a sepulchre.

37 But he whom God raised again saw no corruption.
38 ¶ Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins.
39 And by him all that believe c are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.
40 Beware therefore, least that come upon you which is spoken of d in the prophets.
41 Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which you shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.
42 And when the Jews were gone out of the synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them † the next sabbath.
43 Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas, who speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in the grace of God.
44 ¶ And the next sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God.
45 But when the Jews, saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming.
46 Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, it was e necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seing ye put it from you, and judge your selves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we † turn to the Gentiles.
47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, g I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth:
48 And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed.
49 And the word of the Lord was published thorowout all the region,
50 h But the Jews stirred up the devout and honourable e women, and the chief men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul, and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts
51 But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came to Iconium, 52 And the disciples were filled with joy, and with the holy Ghost.

CHAP. XIV.

Paul and Barnabas persecuted.

AND it came to pass in * Iconium, that they a went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews, and also of the Greeks b believed.
2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil affected against the brethren.
3 c Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, which gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders done by their hands.
4 But the multitude of the city was d divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the Apostles.
5 And when there was an e assault made f both of the Gentiles, and also of the Jews, with the rulers to use them despitefully, and to stone them
6 They were ware of it, and g fled unto Lystra, and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and unto the region that lieth round about:
7 And there they b preached the gospel
8 ¶ And there sate a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mothers womb, h who never had walked.
9 The same heard Paul speak, who stedfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had k faith to be healed,
10 Said with a loud voice, stand up right on thy feet. And he l leaped and walked.
11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lift up their voices, saying m in the speech of Lycaonia, The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.
12 And they called Barnabas Jupiter, and Paul Mercurius, because he was the chief speaker.
13 Then the priest of Jupiter, which was before their city, brought oxen, & garlands unto the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the people.
14 Which when the Apostles, Barnabas and Paul heard of, they n rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out,
15 And saying, Sirs, o why do ye these things? p we also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you, that ye should turn from these q vanities unto the q living God, which made heaven and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein,
16 ¶ r Who in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways.
17 Nevertheless, he left not himself u without witness, in that he did good, and gave us rain from heaven, and x fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.
18 And with these sayings, scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them.
19 ¶ And there came thither certain Jews, from a Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the people, b & having stoned Paul, drew him out of the 20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, & came into the city, and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles.

28 And there they abode long time with the disciples,

CHAP. XV.

Dissention about circumcision.

ANd certain men which came down a from Judea, taught the brethren, and said, b Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.

2 When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small c dissention and disputation with them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders about this question.

3 And being brought on their way by the church, they passed thorovv d Phenice and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren

4 And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and they declared all things e that God had done with them,

5 But there arose up certain of the †sect of the pharisees which believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses.

6 And the f Apostles and elders came together for to consider of † this matter.

7 And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, and said unto them, a Men & brethren, ye know how that a good while ago, God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should b hear the word of the Gospel, and believe.

8 And God which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, giving them the holy Ghost, even as he did unto us;

9 And put no difference between us and them, c purifying their hearts, by faith.

10 Now therefore why tempt ye God, d to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

11 But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, we shal be saved, even as f they.

12 ¶ Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders, God had wrought among the Gentiles by them.

13 ¶ And after they had held their peace, * Jamesanswered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me.

14 h Simon hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gentiles to take out of them a people i for his Name.

15 And to this agree the words of the prophets, as it is written.

16 After this k I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David which is fallen down: and I will build again l the ruines thereof, and I will set it up.

17 That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, & all the Gentiles upon whom my Name is called, saith the Lord, m who doth all these things.

18 Known unto God are all his vvorks from the beginning of the vvorld.

19 Wherefore my sentence is, n that vve trouble not them vvhich from among the Gentiles are turned to God

20 But that vve vvrite unto them, that they abstain from o pollutions of p idols, and from fornication, & from things strangled, and from blood.

21 For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him being read in the synagogues every sabbath day.

22 Then pleased it the Apostles & elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch, with Paul & Barnabas: namely Judas surnamed Barsabas, & Silas, chief men among the brethren.

23 And wrote letters by them after this manner, The apostles, and elders, and brethren, send greeting unto the brethren vvhich are of the Gentiles in Antioch, and Syria, and Cilicia.

24 Forasmuch as vve have heard, that certain vvhich vvent out from us have troubled you vvith words, * subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the lavv, to whom we gave no such commandments;

25 It seemed good unto us, being assembled vvith one accord, to send chosen men unto you, with our beloved Barnabas and Paul.

26 Men that † have hazarded their lives a for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

27 We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things:

29 That ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication; from vvhich if ye keep your selves, ye shall do vvell. Fare ye vvell.

30 So vvhen they vvere dismissed, they

35 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

36 ¶ And some days after, Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brethren, in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do.

37 And Barnabas determined to take with them John, whose surname was Mark.

38 But Paul thought not good to take him with them, c who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work.

39 And the * contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other, and so Barnabas took Mark, and sailed unto Cyprus.

CHAP. XVI.

Paul circumciseth Timothy, &c.

THen came he to a Derbe, and Lystra: and behold a certain disciple was there, b named Timotheus, the son of a certain woman which was a Jewess, and believed: but his father was a Greek:

2 Who was well reported of by the brethren that were at Lystra and c Iconium.

3 Him would Paul have to go forth with him, and took, and d circumcised him, because of the Jews which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Greek.

4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep, a that were ordained of the apostles and elders, which were at Jerusalem.

5 And so were the churches b established in the faith, and increased in number daily.

6 Now when they had gone throughout Phrygia, and the region of Galatia, c and were forbidden of the holy Ghost to preach the word in Asia.

7 After they were come to * Mysia, they assayed to go into Bithynia: but the Spirit suffered them not.

8 And they passing by Mysia, came down to * Troas.

9 And a vision appeared to Paul in the night: There stood a man of Macedonia, and d prayed him, saying, come over into Macedonia & help us.

10 And after he had seen the vision, e immediatly we endeavoured to go into Macedonia, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel unto them.

11 Therefore loosing from Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothracia, & the next day to Neapolis:

12 And from thence to Philippi, which is the * chief city of that part of Macedonia, and a colony: and we were in that city abiding certain days.

13 And on the sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made, and we sat down and spake unto the women, which resorted thither.

14 And a f certain woman, named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, which worshipped God g heard us, g whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul.

15 And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, if ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained us.

16 ¶ And it came to pass as we went to prayer, a certain damsel possessed with h a spirit of * divination, met us: which brought her master much gain by sooth-saying.

17 The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation.

18 And this did she many days: but Paul being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the Name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And he came out the same hour.

19 ¶ And when her masters saw that k the hope of their gains was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drew them into the * market place unto the rulers.

20 And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men being Jews do exceedingly l trouble our city,

21 And teach customs which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romans.

22 And the multitude rose up together against them, and the magistrats rent off their clothes, a and commanded to beat them.

23 And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jaylor * to keep them safely:

24 Who having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the * stocks.

25 And at midnight Paul and Silas b prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken, and immediatly c all the doors were opened, and every ones bands were loosed.

27 And the keeper of the prison a waking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled.

28 d But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thy self no harm, for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and sprang in and came e trembling, and fell f down before Paul and Silas,

30 And brought them out and said

35 And when it was day, the magistrates sent the sergeants, saying, i Let those men go.

36 And the keeper of the prison told this, saying to Paul; The magistrates have sent to let you go. Now therefore depart, and go in peace.

37 But Paul said unto them, They have k beaten us openly uncondemned being Romans, and have cast us into prison, & now do they thrust us out privily? Nay verily, but let them come themselves and fetch us out.

38 And the sergeants told these words unto the magistrates: and they feared when they heard that they were Romans.

39 And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the city.

40 And they went out of the prison, and entred into the house of Lydia, and when they had seen the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

CHAP. XVII.

Paul preached at Thessalonica.

NOw when they had passed through * Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews.

2 And Paul, a as his manner was, went in unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them b out of the scriptures,

3 Opening and alledging, that Christ c must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead, and that this Jesus whom I preach unto you is Christ.

4 And some of them d believed, and consorted with Paul and Silas: and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

5 ¶ But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 And when they found them not, they drew Jason, and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying f these that have turned the world upside down, are come hither also.

7 Whom Jason hath received: and these all do contrary to the decrees of Cesar, saying, That there is another king, one Jesus.

8 And they troubled the people, and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.

9 And when they had taken security of Jason, and of the other, b they let them go.

10 ¶ And the brethren immediatly sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews.

11 These were l more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and k searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore l many of them believed: also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men not a few.

13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also and stirred up the people.

14 And then immediatly the brethren m sent away Paul, to go as it were to the sea: But Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

15 And they that conducted Paul, brought him unto Athens, and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timotheus, for to come to him with all speed, they departed.

16 ¶ Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city * wholly given to idolatry.

17 Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.

18 Then certain philosophers of the * Epicureans, and of the Stoicks, encountred him: and some said, What will this * babler say? Other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods: because he preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection.

19 And they took him, and brought him unto Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest is?

20 For thou bringest certain strange things * to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean.

21 (For all the Athenians and strangers, which were there, spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.)

22 ¶ Then Paul stood in the mids of * Mars hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious.

23 For as I passed by, and beheld your * devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, † TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. * Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.

24 a God that made the world, and all things therein, seing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not b in temples made with hands:

25 Neither is worshipped with mens hands, c as though he needed any thing, seing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things:

26 And hath made of one blood all nations of men, for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath d determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation.

27 That they should e seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us.

Paul laboureth with his hands.

AFter these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to * Corinth.

2 And found a certain Jew named a Aquila, born in * Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla, (because that Claudius had commanded all the Jews to depart from Rome) and came unto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft, he b abode with them, and c wrought: (for by their occupation they were tent-makers)

4 And he reasoned in the synagogue d every sabbath, and perswaded the Jews, and the e Greeks.

5 And when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul was † pressed in spirit, and testified to the Jews, that Jesus was Christ.

6 And when they opposed themselves and blasphemed, g he shook his raiment, and said unto them, * your blood be upon your own heads, I am clean, from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles.

7 ¶ And he departed thence, and entred into a certain mans house named Justus, one that worshipped God, whose house joyned hard to the synagogue,

8 b And Crispus the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house: and many of the Corinthians hearing, believed, and were baptized.

9 Then spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, i be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace:

10 For I am with thee, and no man shal set on thee, to hurt thee: for I have k much people in this city.

11 And he † continued there a year and six moneths, teaching the word of God among them.

12 ¶ And when Gallio was the deputy of * Achaia, the Jews made insurrection l with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat.

13 Saying, This fellow perswadeth men to worship God m contrary to the law.

14 And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, If it were a matter of wrong, or wicked lewdness, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you.

15 But if it be a question of words and names, and of your law, look ye to it; for n I will be no judge of such matters.

16 And he drave them from the judgment seat.

17 Then all the Greeks took Sosthenes the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat: and Gallio cared for none of those things.

18 ¶ And Paul after this tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, & sailed thence into Syria, o and with him Priscilla and Aquila: p having shorn his head in Cenchrea, for he had a vow.

19 And he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he himself entred into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.

20 When they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented not.

21 But bad them farwell, saying, I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Jerusalem: but I will return again unto you, q if God will; and he sailed from Ephesus.

22 And when he had landed at * Cesarea, and gone up, and saluted the church, he went down to Antioch.

23 And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and went over all the countrey of b Galatia, and Phrygia, in order, c strengthening all the disciples.

24 ¶ d And a certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Ephesus.

25 This man was * instructed in the way of the Lord, and being fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing onely the baptisme of John.

26 And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue, whom when Aquila, and Priscilla had heard, e they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly.

27 And when he was disposed to pass into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him, who when he was come helped them much which had f believed through grace.

28 For he mightily convinced the Jews and that publickly, g shewing by the scriptures, that Jesus was Christ.

CHAP. XIX.

The holy Ghost given by Pauls hands.

AND it came to pass, that a while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts, came to Ephesus, and finding certain disciples,

2 He said unto them, Have ye received the b holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, We have not so much as heard * whether there be any holy Ghost.

3 And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, Unto Johns baptisme.

4 Then said Paul, d John verily baptized with the baptisme of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should should come after him, that is on Christ Jesus.

5 When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

6 And when Paul had e laid his hands upon them, the holy Ghost came upon them, and they f spake g with tongues, and prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 And he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly, for the space of three moneths, disputing and perswading the things concerning a the kingdom of God.

9 But when divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil b of that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and c separated the disciples, disputing daily in the schoole of one Tyrannus.

10 And this continued by the space of two years, so that all they which dwelt in Asia, heard the word of the Lord Jesus both Jews and Greeks.

11 And God wrought d special miracles by the hands of Paul:

12 So that from his body, were brought unto the sick, handkerchiefs, or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.

13 ¶ Then certain of the * vagabond Jews, exorcists, took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits, the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth.

14 And there were seven sons of one Sceva a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so.

15 And the evil spirit answered, and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know, but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leapt on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus; and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.

18 And many that believed came, and g confessed, and shewed their deeds.

19 Many also of them which used curious arts, brought their books together, and burned them before all men; and they counted the price of them, and found it * fifty thousand pieces of silver.

20 b So mightily grew the word of God, and prevailed.

21 ¶ After these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through i Macedonia, and k Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome.

22 So he sent into Macedonia two of them that ministred unto him: Timotheus and l Erastus, but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.

23 And the same time there arose no small stir about that way.

24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silver smith, which made * silver shrines for Diana, brought no small gain unto the crafts men:

25 Whom he called together, with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that n by this craft we have our wealth.

26 Moreover ye see, and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath perswaded and turned away much people, saying, That they be o no gods which are made with hands.

27 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought: but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia, and the a world worshipeth.

28 And when they heard these sayings, they were b full of wrath, and b Pro. cryed out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

29 And the whole city was filled with confusion, and having caught c Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Pauls companions in travell, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

30 And when Paul would have entred in unto the people, the disciples d suffered him not.

31 And certain of the chiefe of Asia, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.

32 Some therefore cryed one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused, and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander beckned with the hand, and would * have made his defence unto the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours, cryed out, Great is * Diana of the Ephesians.

35 And when the † towne clark had appeased the people, he said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of * Couthe Ephesians is † a worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell * downe from Jupiter?

36 Seing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.

37 For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess.

38 Wherefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, * the lawes are open, and there are deputies, let them implead one another.

39 But if ye enquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a * lawfull assembly.

40 For we are in danger to be called in question for this days uproar, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of † this concourse.

41 And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

and when the Jews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return thorow Macedonia

4 And there accompanied him into Asia, Sopater a of Berea and of the Thessalonians, Aristarchus, and Secundus, and Gaius, b of Derbe, and Timotheus, and of Asia c Tychicus, and Trophimus.

5 These going before tarried for us at d Troas.

6 And we sailed away from e Philippi, after the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them to Troas in five days, where we abode seven days.

7 And upon the f first day of the week, when the disciples came together b to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow, and continued his speech until midnight.

8 And there were g many lights in the upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eutychus, being fallen into a deep sleep, and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

10 And Paul went down, & fell on him, and embracing him, said, trouble not your selves, for his life is in him.

11 When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed.

12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted

13 And we went before to ship, and sailed unto * Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go a foot.

14 And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to † Mitylen

15 And we sailed thence and came the next day over against Chios, and the next day we arrived at * Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium, and the next day we came to * Miletus.

16 For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia; for he hasted, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost.

17 ¶ And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church.

18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know k from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons.

19 Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations which befell me, by the lying in wait of the Jews.

20 l And how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publickly, and from house to house.

21 Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, m repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

22 And now behold, I go n bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there.

23 Save that the holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying, That bonds and afflictions * abide me.

24 o But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto my self, so that I might a finish my course with joy, and the ministery which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testifie the gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men, 27 b For I have not shunned to declare unto you c all the counsel of God.

28 ¶ Take heed therefore unto d your selves, and to all the flock, over the which the holy Ghost hath made you overseers to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his e own blood.

29 For I know this, that after my departing, shall f grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

30 Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.

31 Therefore watch, and remember that by the space of g three years, I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.

32 And now brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able h to build you up, and i to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified.

33 k I have coveted no mans silver, or gold, or apparel.

34 Yea, you your selves know, k that these hands have ministred unto my necessities, and to them that were with me.

35 l I have shewed you all things, how that so labouring, ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

36 ¶ And when he thus had spoken, he o kneeled down, and prayed with them all.

37 And they all wept sore, and o fell on Pauls neck, and kissed him.

38 Sorrowing most of all for the words which he spake that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ship.

3 Now when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed unto Syria, and landed at b Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden.

4 And finding disciples, we tarried there seven days: who said to Paul through the spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem.

21 And they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews, which are among the Gentiles, o to forsake Moses, saying, that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs.

22 What is it therefore, the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come.

23 Do therefore this that we say to thee: p we have four men which have a vow on them.

24 Them take, and purifie thy self with them, and be at charges with them, that they may * have their heads; and all may know that those things whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing, but that thou thy self also walkest orderly, and keepest the law.

26 r Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them, entred into the temple, s to signifie the accomplishment of the days of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them.

27 And when the seven days were almost ended, t the Jews which were of Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and f laid hands on him,

28 Crying out, Men of Israel, help: this is the man that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place; and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place.

29 (For they had seen before with him in the city, Trophimus an Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple)

30 And all the city was moved, & the people ran together: and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple, and forth with the doors were shut.

31 And g as they went about to kill him, tidings came unto the chief captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.

32 Who immediatly took souldiers, and centurions, and ran down unto them: and when they saw the chief captain, and the souldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then the chief captain came near, and took him, and commanded him to be b bound with two chains, and i demanded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle.

35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was that he was born of the souldiers for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, k Away with him.

37 And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said unto the chief captain, May I speak unto thee? who said, Canst thou speak Greek?

38 l Art not thou that Egyptian which before those days madest an uproar, and ledest out into the wilderness four thousand men that were * murderers?

Paul's first oration to the people.

MEn, brethren, and fathers, hear ye my defence which I make now unto you.

2 ¶ And when they heard that he spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they a kept the more silence: and he saith,)

3 b I am verily a man which am a Jew, born in Tarsus a city in Cilicia yet c brought up in this city at d the feet of Gamaliel and taught according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, and was e zealous towards God, as ye all are this day.

4 f And I persecuted this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.

5 As also the high priest g doth bear me witness, and all the estate of the elders: from whom also I received h letters unto the brethren, and went to Damascus, to bring them which were there, bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished.

6 And it came to pass, that as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus, about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.

7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice, saying unto i me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 And I answered, who art thou, Lord? and he said unto me, I am k Jesus of Nazareth whom thou persecutest.

9 And they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid: but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me.

10 And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus, and there it shall be told thee of all things, which are appointed for thee to do.

11 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus.

12 And one Ananias a devout man, according to the law, having a m good report of all the Jews which dwelt there, 13 Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked upon him.

14 And he said, The God of our fathers hath chosen thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and n see that just One, and shouldest o hear the voice of his mouth.

15 For thou shalt be his witness unto all men of p what thou hast seen q and heard.

16 And now why tarriest thou? Arise, and be baptized, and a wash away thy sins, b calling on the Name of the Lord.

17 And it came to pass, that when I was come again to Jerusalem, even c while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance.

18 And saw him saying unto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem, for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.

19 And I said, Lord they know that I imprisoned, and beat in every synagogue r them that believed on thee.

20 a And when the blood of thy martyr Steven was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him.

21 And he said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles.

22 And they gave him audience unto t this word, and then lift up their voices, and said, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live.

23 And as they cryed out, & cast off their clothes, & threw dust into the air,

24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bad that he should be † examined by scourging: that he might know wherefore they cryed so against him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful, for you to scourge a man that is u a Roman, and uncondemned?

26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest, for this man is a Roman.

27 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yea.

28 And the chief captain answered, with a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free-born.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have *examined him: & the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands and commanded the chief priests, and all their † council to appear, and b brought Paul down, and set him before them.

CHAP. XXIII.

Paul pleadeth his cause.

5 Then said Paul, * I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: For it is written, d Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissention between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided.

8 b For the Sadducees say, that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit; but the Pharisees * confesse both.

past arose, and strove, saying, We find no evil in this man: but if a spirit, or an angel hath spoken to him, let us not fight against God.

10 And when there arose a great dissention, the chief captain fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the souldiers to go down, and take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

11 And the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good chear, Paul: for as thou hast testified of mein Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome.

12 And when it was day, certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves † under a curse: saying, that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more than fourty which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief priests & elders, & said, We have bound our selves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing till we have slain Paul.

15 Now therefore, ye with the council, signifie to the chief captain, that he bring him down to you to morrow as though ye would enquire somthing more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him.

16 And when Pauls sisters son heard of their laying in wait, he went and entred into the castle, and told Paul.

17 Then Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me to him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?

20 And he said, The Jews have agreed to desire thee, that thou wouldest bring down Paul to morrow into the council, as though they would enquire somwhat of him more perfectly.

21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than fourty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready looking for * a promise from thee.

22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man, that thou hast shewed these things to me.

23 a And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred souldiers to go to Cesarea, and horsmen threescore and ten, and * spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night.

24 And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto Felix the governour.

25 And he wrote a letter after this manner:

26 Claudius Lysias unto the most excellent governour Felix, sendeth greeting.

27 This man was taken of the Jews and should have been killed of them: Then came I with an army and rescued him, having understood that he was a Roman.

28 And when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth unto their council:

29 Whom I perceived to be accused of questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death, or of bonds.

30 And when it was told me, how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee and gave commandment to his accusers also, to say before thee what they had against him. Farewel.

31 Then the souldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to * Antipatris.

32 On the morrow they left the horsmen to go with him, and returned to the castle.

35 I will hear thee, said he, when thine accusers are also come. And he commanded him to be kept in Herods judgment hall.

CHAP. XXIV.

Paul accused by Tertullus.

AND after five days Ananias the high priest descended a with the elders, and with a certain Orator named Tertullus who informed the governour against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence;

3 We accept it always, and in all places, * most noble Felix, with all thankfulness.

4 Notwithstanding, that I be not farther tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words.

5 For we have found this man a † pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ring-leader of the † sect of the Nazarens;

6 Who also hath gone about to a profane the temple: Whom we took b and would have judged according to our law.

7 c But the chief captain Lysias came upon us & with great violence, took him away out of our hands;

8 Commanding his accusers to come unto thee, by examining of whom thy self mayest take knowledge of all those things whereof, we accuse him.

9 And the Jews also assented saying, that these things were so.

10 Then Paul, after that the governour had beckned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I do know, that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for my self:

11 Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem for to worship.

16 And herein do I exercise my self to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men.

17 f Now after many years, I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.

22 And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them and said, when Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.

23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him a have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance b to minister, or come unto him.

24 And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife *Drusilla which was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, & heard him concerning the faith in Christ.

26 He hoped also that d money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftner, and communed with him.

27 But after two years Portius Festus came into Felix room: and Felix willing e to shew the Jews a pleasure left Paul bound.

CHAP. XXV.

The Jews accuse Paul before Festus.

NOw when Festus was come into the province, after three days, he ascended from Cesarea to Jerusalem.

2 a Then the high priest, and the b chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him,

3 And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying wait in the way to kill him.

4 c But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cesarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.

5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there be * any wickedness in him.

6 And when he had tarried among them more than ten days, he went down unto Cesarea, and the next day sitting in the judgment seat, commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jerusalem, stood round about, and d laid many and grievous complaints against Paul which they could not prove.

8 While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against e Cesar, have I offended any thing at all.

9 But Festus willing to do the Jews a pleasure answered Paul and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Cesars judgment seat, where I ought to be judged, to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof they accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them, f I appeal unto Cesar.

12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Cesar? unto Cesar shalt thou go.

13 And after certain days, a king Agrippa, and * Bernice came unto Cesarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had been there many days, Festus declared b Pauls cause unto the king, saying, There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix:

15 About whom when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests, and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him.

16 To whom I answered, it is not the manner of the Romans to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused, have the accusers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

17 Therefore when they were come hither without any delay, on the morrow I sat on the judgment seat, and I commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things, d as I supposed:

19 e But had certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of one Jesus which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

20 And because * I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters.

21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the * hearing of * Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Cesar.

22 Then Agrippa said unto Festus, I would also hear the man my self. To morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

CHAP. XXVII.

Paul foretelleth the voyage, &c.

AND when it was determined that we should sail unto Italy, they delivered Paul, and certain other prisoners, unto one named Julius, a * centurion of Augustus * band.

* Or, A captain of an hoo footmen

2 And entring into a ship of Adramyttium, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia, one Aristarchus a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us.

* It was about the tenth part of a Roman legion.

3 And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.

4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under Cyprus, because the windes were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra a city of Lycia.

6 And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy, and he put us therein.

* A little Island over against Cnidus.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against * Gnidus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed * under * Crete over against Salmone.

* Or, Cnidi.

8 And hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called the Fair-havens, nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.

9 Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, because the 4 fast was now already past, Paul admonished them.

11 Nevertheless, the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship † more than those things which were spoken by Paul.

13 And when the south-wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crete.

14 But not long after there * arose against it a tempestuous wind called * Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.

16 And running under a certain Island which is called Clauda, we had much work to come by the boat:

20 And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved, was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence, Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss.

22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer, for there shall be no loss of any mans life among you, but of the ship.

25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me.

26 Howbeit, we must be cast upon a certain Island.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up, and down † in Adria, about midnight, the shipmen, deemed that they drew near to some country.

† The Adriatick sea

28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.

29 Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.

30 And as the ship-men were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the fore-ship.

31 Paul said to the centurion, and to the souldiers, * Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.

* Ps. 37. 3. & 10. 11

32 Then the souldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

36 Then were they all of * good cheer and they also took some meat.

37 And we were in all in the ship, two hundred threescore and sixteen souls.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightned the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.

39 And when it was day they knew not the land: but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible to thrust in the ship.

40 And when they had * taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoised up the main sail to the wind, and made towards shore.

* Or, cut the anchors they left them in the sea.

41 And falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship a ground, and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.

42 And the souldiers counsel was e to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.

a Psal. 109,4. a Jer. 38 10, 11. b

43 But the centurion, willing d to save Paul, keept them from their purpose, and commanded that they which could swim, should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land.

44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship: & so it came to pass, that they escaped all safe to land.

CHAP. XXVIII.

Paul entertained of the barbarians.

AND when they were escaped, then they knew that the iland was called * Melita.

* Now called Malta an iland between Africa and Sicely.

2 And the Barbarous people shewed us a no little kindnes: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.

3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, & laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

4 And when the Barbarians saw the venemous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves b No doubt this man is a murderer, whom though he hath escaped the sea, c yet veangeance suffereth not to live.

5 And he d shook off the beast into the fire, and felt no harm.

6 Howbeit, they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was e a god.

7 In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the iland whose name was Publius, who received us, and lodged us three dayes courteously.

8 And it came to pass, that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever, and of a † boody flix, to whom Paul entred in, and prayed, and laid his hands on him, and healed him.

9 So when this was done, others also which had diseases in the iland came and were healed.

10 Who also honoured us with many honours, and when we departed, they laded us with such things as were necessary.

11 And after three moneths we departed in a ship of Alexandria which had wintered in the isle, whose signe was * Castor and pollux.

12 And landing at * Syracuse, we tarried there three dayes.

13 And from thence we fet a compass, and came to Rhegium, and after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to † Puteoli:

14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we went toward Rome.

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Appii-Forum, & the three taverns: whom when Paul saw he thanked God, and took courage.

16 And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himself, with a souldier that kept him.

17 And it came to pass, that after three days, Paul called the chief of the Jews together. And when they were come together, he said unto them Men and brethren, though I have committed nothing against the people, or customs of our fathers, yet was I delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans.

18 Who when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me

19 But when the Jews spake against it, I was constrained to appeal unto Cesar, not that I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore, have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you: because that b for the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain.

21 And they said unto him, we neither received letters out of Judea concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that came, shewed or spake any c harm of thee.

22 But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that every where it is d spoken against.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging: to whom he expounded, and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, both e out of the law of Moses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening.

24 And some f some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not.

25 And when they † agreed not among themselves, they departed after that Paul had spoken one word, well spake the holy Ghost, by Esaias the prophet, unto our fathers,

26 Saying, * Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand, and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive.

27 For the heart of this people is waxed gross and their ears are dul of hearing, and their eyes have they * closed, lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them

28 Be it known therefore unto you, that the salvation of God is sent unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it.

29 And when they had said these words, the Jews departed, & had great reasoning among themselves.

30 And Paul dwelt two whole years in his own hired house, and received all that came in unto him.

CHAP. I.

What the gospel is.

PAul a servant of Jesus Christ, called to b an apostle, c separated unto the gospel of God;

Deut. 34, 5. b Acts 12, 2.

2 (which he had * promised afore by his prophets in the holy scriptures

* Or, foreshewed Ga: 4.

3 Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who was c made of the seed of David acording to the d flesh:

4 And * declared to be the Son of God, † with power, according to the Spirit of holiness, by the resurrection † from the dead.

5 By whom we have received grace & apostleship *for obedience to the faith † Gr: I. among all nations, for his Name.

6 Among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ.

7 To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace be to you, and peace, from God our father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

8 First I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world

9 For God is my witness whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you, always in my prayers

10 Making request, (if by any means, now at length, I might have a prosperous journey by the will of God) to come unto you.

11 For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end you may be established.

12 That is, that I may be * comforted together with you by the mutual faith both of you and me.

13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that often times I purposed to come unto you, * (but was let hitherto) that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles.

14 I am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the Barbarians: both to the wise, and to the unwise.

15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also.

16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the b power of God unto salvation, to every one that believeth, to the c Jew first, and also to the Greek.

17 For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, e The just shal live by faith.

18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness, and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in righteousness.

19 Because that which may be known of God. is manifest in them, for God f hath shewed it unto them.

20 For the invisible things of him, from the creation of the world, are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and God-head, so that they are without excuse:

21 Because that when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful, but became vain in their * imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

22 Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools:

23 And d changed the glory of the uncorruptible God, into an image made like to corruptible man, & to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things:

24 Wherefore God also * gave them up to e uncleanes * through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves

25 Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature * more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever, Amen.

26 For this cause God gave them up unto d vile affections, for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature.

27 And e likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman burned in their lust one towards another, men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompense of their errour which was meet.

28 And even as they did not like * to retain God in their knowledge, God give them over to * a reprobate mind, to do these things which are not convenient:

29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness, full of f envie, murder, debate, deceit, malignity, whisperers.

30 Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventers of evil things, disobedient to parents, 31 Without understanding, covenant breakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful.

32 Who knowing the judgement of God (that they which commit such things are worthy of death) not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them.

CHAP. II.

The sins of the Gentiles.

THerefore * thou art inexcusable O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another thou condemnest thy self: for thou that judgest, doest the same things.

2 † But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth, against them which commit such things.

3 And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest the same; that thou shalt escape the judgement of God?

4 Or dispisest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance, and long-sufferings, not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to a repentance?

5 But after thy hardness, and impenitent heart, b treasurest up unto thy self wrath against the a day of wrath, and revelation of the righteous judgement of God:

6 b Who will render to every man according to their deeds:

7 To them, who † by patient continuance in well doing, seek for glory, and honour, and immortality; eternal life.

8 But unto them that are † contentious, and do not obey the c truth but obey unrighteousness, indignation, and wrath.

9 Tribulation, and anguish upon every soul of man that † doth evil, of the d Jew first, & also of the † Gentile.

10 But glory, honour, and peace, to every man that * worketh good, to the Jew first and also to the * Gentile.

without law, shal also perish without law, and as many as have sinned in the law shal be judged by the law.

13 For f not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shal be justified.

14 For when the gentiles which † have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law: these having not the law, are a law unto themselves,

15 Which shew the work of the law written in their hearts, their * conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts * the mean while accusing or else excusing one another,

16 In the day when God shal judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ, according to my Gospel.

17 Behold thou art called a Jew, and restest in the law, and makest thy boast of God,

18 And knowest his will, and * approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law.

19 And art confident that thou thy self art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness,

20 An instructer of the foolish, a teacher of babes: which hast the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law.

21 Thou therefore which teachest another: teachest thou not thy self? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?

22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou commit sacrilledge?

23 Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking of the law dishonourest thou God?

24 For the Name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles, through you as it is written:

25 For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law, but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision.

26 Therefore if the circumcision keep the righteousnes of the law, shal not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

27 And shal not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law judge thee, who by the letter and circumcision doest transgres the law?

28 For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly, neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh.

29 But he is a Jew which is one inwardly, and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and a not in the letter, whose praise is b not of men but of God.

CHAP. III.

The Jews prerogative.

WHat advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision?

2 Much every way, * chiefly, because that unto them were committed the a oracles of God.

3 For what if some did not believe? shal their unbelief make the faith of God without effect?

4 † God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar, as it is written, c That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest d overcome when thou art * judged.

5 But if our unrighteousnes commend the righteousnes of God, what shal we say? Is God unrighteous, who taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man)

6 God forbid: for then how shal God judge the world?

7 For if the truth of God hath more abounded * through my lie unto his glory; why yet am I also judged as a sinner?

8 And not rather as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm, that we say, Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just.

9 What then? are we better than they? * No, in no wise: for we have before proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin.

10 As it is written, There is e none righteous, no not one:

11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that f seeketh after God.

12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable, there is none that doth † good, no not one.

13 Their g throat is an open sepulchre, with their tongues they have used deceit, the h poyson of asps is under their lips.

14 Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness:

15 k Their feet are swift to shed blood.

16 Destruction and misery are in their ways.

17 And the way of peace have they not known:

18 There is no l Fear of God before their eyes.

19 Now we know that what things soever the law saith: it saith to them Who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

20 Therefore by the deeds of the law, there shal no flesh be a justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.

21 But now the righteousnes of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets.

22 Even the righteousnes of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all, and upon all them that believe: for there is no † difference:

23 For all have sinned, and * come short of the b glory of God.

24 Being justified freely by his * grace: through the redemption that is in Jesus Christ:

25 Whom God hath * set forth to be a propitiation, through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousnes which for the remission of sins that are past, come through the forbearance of God.

26 To declare, I say at this time his righteousnes: that he might be b just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.

27 Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith.

28 Therefore we conclude, that a man is justified by faith, without the deeds of the law.

29 Is he the God of the Jews only? Is he not also of the Gentiles? Yea, of the Gentiles also:

CHAP. IV.

Abrahams seed received the promise.

WHat shal we say then, that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh hath found.

2 For if Abraham were justified a by works, he hath wherof to glory, but not before God.

3 For what saith the scripture, Abraham b believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousnes.

4 * Now to him that worketh, is the reward * not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, * his faith is counted for righteousnes.

6 Even as David also diserlbeth the blessednes of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousnes without vvorks.

7 Saying, c Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

8 Blessed is the man to vvhom the Lord vvill not impute sin.

9 Cometh † this blessednes then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say, that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousnes.

10 How was it then reckoned? when he vvas in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

11 And he received the signe of circumcision, a seal of the righteousnes of the faith, vvhich he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousnes might be imputed unto them also:

12 And the father of circumcision, to them vvho are not of the circumcision only, but also vvalk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised.

13 For the promise that he should be the b heir of the vvorld, was not to Abraham, nor to his seed through the law, but through the righteousnes of faith.

14 For if they which are of the lavv be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect.

15 Because the lavv worketh wrath: † for vvhere no lavv is, there is no transgression.

16 c Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace: to the end the promise might * be sure to all the seed, not to that onely vvhich is of the lavv, but to that also vvhich is of the faith of Abraham, vvho is the father of us all.

17 (As it is vvritten, d I have made thee a father of many nations) * before him whom he believed, even God who quickneth the dead, and calleth those things vvhich be not, as though they vvere.

18 Who * against hope, believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations: according to that vvhich vvas spoken, e So shal thy seed be.

19 † And being not weak in faith, f he considered not his ovvn body * novv dead, when he vvas about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadnes of Sarahs vvomb.

20 He * staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief: but vvas strong in faith, giving glory to God.

21 And being fully perswaded, that * vvhat he had promised, he vvas able also to perform.

22 And therefore it vvas imputed to him for righteousnes.

23 Now it vvas not vvritten for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him

24 But for us also, to vvhom it shal be imputed, * if vve believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord, from the dead;

25 Who vvas delivered for our † offences, and vvas raised again for our b justification.

CHAP. V.

Being justified by faith, we have peace with God.

THerefore being justified by faith vve have peace vvith God through our Lord Jesus Christ.

2 a By vvhom also vve have access by faith, into his grace wherein vve stand and † rejoyce in hope of the glory of God.

3 And not onely so, but vve glory in * tribulation also, b knowing that tribulation † vvorketh patience.

4 And patience experience: and † experience, hope:

5 And hope maketh not ashamed: † because the love of God is * shed abroad in our hearts, by the holy Ghost vvhich is given unto us.

6 For vvhen vve vvere yet vvithout strength, in c due time Christ died for the ungodly.

7 For scarcely for a righteous man vvill one die: yet peradventure for a * good man some vvould even dar to die.

8 But God commendeth his love tovvard us, in that vvhile vve vvere yet sinners, Christ died for us.

9 Much more then being now justified by his blood, vve shal be saved from vvrath thorovv him.

10 For if when we were enemies, we vvere reconciled to God, by the death of his son, much more being reconciled, vve shal be saved by his life.

11 And not onely so, but vve also † joy in God, † through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have novv received the * atonement.

12 Wherefore, as c by one man sin entred into the vvorld, and death by sin: and so death * passed upon all men † for that all have sinned.

13 For until the lavv sin was in the world: but sin is not † imputed when there is no lavv.

14 † Nevertheless, death reigned from Adam to Moses even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adams transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come.

15 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift: For if through the offence of one many be dead: much more by the grace of God, & the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, Christ, hath abounded unto many.

16 And not as it was * by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgement vvas by one to condemnation: but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.

17 For if * by one mans offence, death reinged by one, much more they vvhich receive abundance of grace, and of the gift of righteousnes, shal reign in life by one Jesus Christ.

18 ¶ Therefore as by the offence of one iudgment came upon all men to condemnation: even so by the * righteousnes of one, the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life.

19 For as by one mans disobedience many vvere made sinners: so by the obedience of one, shal many be made reighteous.

20 Moreover the lavv entred, that the offence might abound: but where sin abounded, grace did much more abound.

21 That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace † reign through reighteousnes unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VI.

We may not liue in sin.

WHat shal vve say then? shal vve continue in sin, that grace may abound.

2 God forbid: how shal we that are dead to sin, liue any longer therein.

3 Knovv ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ, vvere baptized unto his death,

4 Therefore vve † are buried vvith him by baptisme into death, that like as Christ was raised up from the dead * by the glory of the Father, even so vve also should vvalk in newness of life.

5 For if we have been * planted together in the likness of his death: we shal be also in the likness of his resurrection.

6 Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that hence forth we should not serve sin.

7 For he that is dead is † freed from sin

8 Now if we be dead vvith Christ, we believe, that vve shal also liue with him:

9 Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead, dieth no more, death hath no more dominion over him.

10 For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.

11 Likewise reckon ye also your selves to be dead indeed unto sin: but alive unto God, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

12 Let not sin b reign therefore in your mortall body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

13 Neither yield ye your members, as † instruments of unrighteousnes unto sin: but yield your selves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousnes unto God.

14 For sin shal not have dominion over you, for ye are not under the lavv, but under grace.

15 What then? shal we sin because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

16 Know ye not, that to vvhom ye yield your selves servants to obey, his servants ye are: to whom ye obey whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousnes?

17 But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin: but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine, which was delivered to you.

18 Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousnes.

19 I speak after the manner of men: because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanes, and to iniquity, unto iniquity: even so now yield your members servants to righteousnes, unto holines.

20 For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free † from righteousnes

21 What fruit had ye then in those things, whereof ye are now ashamed: for the * end of those things is death

22 But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit * unto holines, and the end everlasting life.

23 For the wages of sin is death: but the gift of God is eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VII.

No law hath power over a man, &c.

KNow ye not brethren (for I speak to them that know the lavv) how that the lavv hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth.

2 For the a woman which hath an husband, is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth: but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the lavv of her husband

3 So then, if while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shal be called an adultress: but if her husband be dead she is free from that law: so that she is no adultress, though she be married to another man.

4 Wherefore my brethren, ye also are become dead to the law by the body of Christ, that ye should be married to another: even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring b forth fruit unto God.

5 For when we were c in the flesh, † the motions of sins vvhich were by the law, did work in our members to bring forth fruit unto death.

6 But now we are * delivered from the lavv, * that being dead vvherein we were * held, that vve should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the c oldness of the letter.

7 What shal vve say then? Is the law sin? God forbid: Nay, I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had * not known lust, except the law had said, † Thou shalt not covet.

8 But sin taking occasion by the commandment, vvrought in me all manner of * concupiscence: for without the lavv sin was dead.

9 † For I was alive vvithout the law once, but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.

10 And the commandment which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death.

11 For sin taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.

12 Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.

13 Was that then which is good, made death unto me? b God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good, that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

14 For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, sold under sin.

15 For that which I do, † I allow not: for what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.

16 If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law, that it is good.

17 Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know, that in me (that is in my flesh) dwelleth no good thing. For to will is present with me: but how to perform that which is good, I find not.

19 For the good that I would, I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do.

20 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that * do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

21 b I find then a law, that when I would do good, evil is present with me.

22 For † I delight in the law of God after the inward man:

23 But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin, which is in my members.

24 * O wretched man that I am, who shall deliver me from the body of this death?

25 I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then, with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with my flesh, the law of sin.

CHAP. VIII.

Who are free from condemnation, &c.

THere is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the spirit.

2 For the law of the spirit of life in Christ Jesus, hath made me free from the law of sin and death.

3 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of * sinful flesh, and for sin condemned sin * in the flesh.

4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh, do mind the things of the flesh: but they that are after the spirit the things of the spirit.

6 For † to be carnally minded is death: but † to be spiritually minded, is life and peace.

7 Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.

8 So then, they that are in the flesh, cannot please God.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the spirit, if so be that the spirit of God dwell in you. † Now if any man have not the spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin: but the spirit is life, † because of righteousness.

11 But if the spirit of him that raised Jesus from the dead, dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead, b shall quicken your mortal bodies, by his spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore brethren, we are debters, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

13 For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the spirit do mortifie the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

15 For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear: but ye have received the * spirit of adoption, † whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

16 The spirit it self beareth witness with our spirits that we are the children of God.

17 And if children then heirs; heirs of God, and joynt heirs with Christ: if so be that we suffer with him that we may also be glorified together.

18 For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared † with the glory, which shall be revealed in us.

19 For the earnest expectation of the creature, waiteth for the d manifestation of the sons of God.

20 For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same * in hope.

21 Because the creature it self also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption, into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

22 For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travelleth in pain together, until now.

23 † And not only they, but our selves also which have the first fruits of the spirit, even we our selves groan within our selves, waiting for the adoption, to wit the redemption of our bodies.

24 For we are saved by hope, but hope that is seen is not hope, for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

26 Likewise the spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the spirit it self maketh intercession for us, with groanings, which can not be uttered.

27 And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the Saints, according to the will of God.

28 And we know that all things work together for good, to them that love God, to them who are the called, according to his purpose.

29 For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate, to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the first born amongst many brethren.

30 Moreover, whom he did predestinate, them he also called: & whom he called, them he also justified: & whom he justified, them he also glorified.

31 What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?

32 He that e spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how CHAP. IX.

Pauls zeal for the Jews.

I Say the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conſcience also bearing me witneſs in the holy Ghoſt.

2 That I have great heavineſs, and continual ſorrow in my heart.

3 For I could with that my ſelf were * accurſed from Chriſt, for my brethren, my kinſmen according to the fleſh;

4 Who are Iſralites * to whom pertaineth the adoption, and * the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the Law, and the ſervice of God, and the promiſes.

5 Whoſe are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the fleſh Chriſt came: who is overall God bleſſed for ever, Amen.

6 Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect: For they are not all Iſrael, which are of Iſrael:

7 Neither becauſe they are the ſeed of Abraham, are they all children: but a in Iſaac ſhal thy ſeed be called.

8 That is, they which are the b children of the fleſh, theſe are not the children of God: but the children of the promiſe are counted for the ſeed.

9 For this is the word of promiſe, * At this time will I come, and Sarah ſhal have a ſon.

10 And not only this, but when Rebecca alſo had conceived by one, even by our father Iſaac.

11 (For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that * the purpoſe of God, according to election might ſtand, not of works a but of him that calleth:

12 b It was ſaid unto her, The elder ſhall ſerve the younger.

13 As it is written, c Jacob have I loved, but Eſau have I hated.

14 What ſhal we ſay then? Is there unrighteouſneſs with God? d God forbid.

15 For he ſaith to Moſes e I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compaſſion on whom I will have compaſſion.

16 So then, it is f not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that ſheweth mercy.

17 For the ſcripture ſaith unto Pharaoh, g Even for the ſame purpoſe have I † raiſed thee up, that I might ſhew my power in thee, and that my Name might be declared † thorowout all the earth.

18 Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardneth.

19 Thou wilt then ſay unto me, why doth he yet find fault? For who hath reſiſted his will?

20 Nay, but O man who h art thou that * repleſt againſt God? ſhal the thing formed ſay to him that formed it, Why haſt thou made me thus?

21 Hath not the † potter power over the clay, of the ſame lump, to make † one veſſel unto honour, and another to diſhonour?

22 What if God willing to ſhew his wrath, and to make his power known, i endured with much long-ſuffering the veſſels of wrath, fitted to deſtruction.

23 And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the veſſels of mercy, which he had before prepared unto glory?

24 Even us whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but alſo of the Gentiles.

25 As he ſaith alſo in Oſee, k I will call them my people, which were not my people: and her beloved, which was not beloved.

26 And it ſhall l come to paſs, that in the place where it was ſaid unto them, Ye are not my people, there ſhall they be called the children of the living God.

27 Eſaias alſo cryeth concerning Iſrael, m Though the number of the children of Iſrael be as the ſand of the ſea, a remnant ſhall be ſaved.

28 For he will finiſh the work, and cut it ſhort in righteouſneſs: becauſe a ſhort work will the Lord make upon the earth.

29 And as Eſaias ſaid before, Except the Lord of Sabbaoth had left us a ſeed, we had been as Sodom and been made like unto Gomorrah.

30 What ſhal we ſay then? That the Gentiles which followed not after righteouſneſs, have attained to righteouſneſs, even the righteouſneſs which is of faith:

31 But Iſrael which followed after the law of righteouſneſs, hath not attained to the law of righteouſneſs.

32 Wherefore? becauſe they ſought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law: for they ſtumbled at that a ſtumbling ſtone.

33 As it is written b Behold, I lay in Sion a ſtumbling ſtone, and rock of offence: and whoſoever believeth on him, ſhall not be aſhamed.

CHAP. X.

The righteouſneſs of the law. &c.

BRethren, my hearts deſire and prayer to God for Iſrael is, that they might be ſaved.

2 For I bear them record, that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they being ignorant of Gods righteouſneſs, and going about to eſtabliſh their own righteouſneſs, have not ſubmitted themſelves unto the righteouſneſs of God.

4 For Christ is the end of the law † for righteousnes to every one that believeth.

5 For Moses describeth the righteousnes which is of the law, that a the man which doth those things shall live by them.

6 But the righteousnes which is of faith, speaketh on this wise, b Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? That is, to bring Christ down from above.

7 Or who shall descend into the deep? That is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.

8 But what saith it? c The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart; that is the word of faith which we preach.

9 That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

10 For with the heart man † believeth unto righteousnes; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

11 For the scripture saith, d Whosoever believeth on him, shal not be ashamed.

12 For there is no † difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all, is rich unto all that call upon him.

13 e For whosoever shall call upon the Name of the Lord shall be saved.

14 How then shall they call on him, in whom they have not believed? and how shal they believe on him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written: f How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things:

16 But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith g Lord, who hath believed † our * report?

17 So then, faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yea, verily, a their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world.

19 But I say,* Did not Israel know? First Moses saith, b I will provoke you to jealousie by them that are no people, c and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

20 But Esaias is very bold, and saith, e I was found of them that sought me not: * I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.

21 But to Israel he saith, d All day long have I stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gain-saying people.

CHAP. XI.

God hath not cast off all Israel.

I Say then, hath God cast away his people? God forbid? For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith † of Elias, how * he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying,

3 a Lord, they have killed thy prophets, & digged down thine altars; & I am left alone, and they seek my life.

4 But what saith the † answer of God unto him? b I have reserved to my self seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal.

5 Even so then at this present time also c there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

6 d And if by grace, then it is no more of works, otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace, otherwise work is no more work.

7 What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for, but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were * blinded.

8 According as it is written f God hath given them the spirit of * slumber, g eyes that they should not see; and eares that they should not hear unto this day.

9 And David saith, b Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumbling block, and a recompense unto them.

10 Let their eyes be darkned, that they may not see, and bow down their back alway.

11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? † God forbid: But rather through their fall, salvation is come unto the Gentiles, to provoke them to jealousie.

12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles, how much more their fulnes?

13 For I speak to you Gentiles, inasmuch as I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnifie mine office.

14 If by any means I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh and might save some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world; what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?

16 For if the a first fruit be holy, the lump is also holy; and if b the root be holy, so are the branches.

17 † And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou being a wild olive-tree wert grafted in * amongst them, and with them partakest of the root and fatnes of the olive tree:

18 Boast not against the branches: but if thou boast, thou beares not the root, but the root thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, the branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in.

20 Well † because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not high minded but fear.

21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee.

22 Behold therefore the goodnes and severity of God, on them which fell, severity; but towards thee, goodnes, if thou continue in his goodnes: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off.

23 And they also if they bide not still in unbelief, shal be grafted in: for God is able to graff them in again.

24 For if thou wert cut out of the olive-tree which is wild by nature, and wert grafted † contrary to nature into a good olive-tree: how much more shal these which be the natural branches,

16 Be of the same mind one towards another. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits.

17 Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men.

18 If it be possible, as much as lyeth in you, live peaceably with all men.

CHAP. XIII.

Subjection, and duties to all degrees.

LEt every soul a be subject unto the b higher powers: for there is no power but of God. The powers that be, are * ordained of God.

2 Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist, shall receive to themselves * damnation.

3 For rulers are not a terrour † to good works, but † to evil: will thou then not be afraid of the power, do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same.

4 For he is the minister of God to thee † for good: but if thou do that which is evil, be afraid: for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to † execute wrath upon him that doth evil.

5 Wherefore ye must needs be subject not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake.

6 For, for this cause * pay ye tribute also, for they are Gods ministers attending continually upon this very thing.

7 c Render therefore to all their dues, tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom, fear to whom fear, honour to whom honour.

12 The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light.

13 Let us walk honestly as in the day, not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying.

14 But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh to fulfil the lusts thereof.

CHAP. XIV.

Not to condemn one another, &c.

HIm that is weak in the faith receive you; but not to doubtful disputations.

2 For one believeth that he may eat all things, another who is weak eateth herbs.

3 Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not, and let not him which eateth not, judge him that eateth; for God hath received him.

4 Who art thou that judgest another mans servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth: yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand.

5 One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike: let every man be fully perswaded in his own mind.

6 He that regardeth a day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day to the Lord, he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.

7 For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord: and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lords.

9 For to this end Christ both died and rose and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living.

10 But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.

11 For it is written, As I live saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.

12 So then every one of us shall give an account of himself to God.

13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumbling block, or any occasion to fall in his brothers way.

14 I know, and am perswaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean of it self: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean.

15 But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not charitably. Destroy not him with thy meat for whom Christ died.

16 Let not then your good be evil spoken of.

17 For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink, but righteousness and peace, and joy in the holy Ghost.

18 For he that in these things serveth Christ, is acceptable to God, and approved of men.

19 Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, & things wherewith one may edifie another.

20 For meat, destroy not the work of God: all things indeed are pure, but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence.

21 It is good neither to eat flesh nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.

22 Hast thou faith? Have it to thy self before God: Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.

23 And he that doubteth, is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith, for whatsoever is not of faith, is sin.

CHAP. XV.

The strong must bear with the weak.

WE then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please our selves.

2 Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good to edification.

3 For even Christ pleased not himself, but as it is written, The reproaches of them that reproached thee, fell on me.

4 For whatsoever things were written aforetime, were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.

5 Now the God of patience and consolation, grant that you be like minded one towards another, according to Christ Jesus.

6 That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorifie God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

7 Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us, to the glory of God.

8 Now I say, that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers.

9 And that the Gentiles might glorifie God for his mercy, as it is written, For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy Name.

10 And again he saith, Rejoyce ye Gentiles with his people.

11 And again, praise the Lord all ye Gentiles, and laud him all ye people.

12 And again Esaias saith, There shall be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles, in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope through the power of the holy Ghost.

14 And I my self also am perswaded of you my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.

15 Nevertheless brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you, in some sort, as putting you in mind, because of the grace that is given to me of God.

16 That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministring the Gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be 21 But as it is written, a To whom he was not spoken of, they shal see, and they that have not heard shal understand.

22 For which cause also I have been much hindred from coming to you.

27 It hath pleased them verily, and their debters they are. For b if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things.

28 When therefore I have performed this, and have sealed to them † this fruit, I will come by you into Spain.

29 And I am sure that when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.

PAul called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ, * through the will of God and Sosthenes our brother.

2 Unto the church of God which is at Corinth, to them that are a sanctified in Christ Jesus, b called to be Saints, with all that in every place call upon the Name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both theirs and ours.

3 Grace be unto you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I thank my God always * on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ.

5 That in every thing ye are inriched by him, † in all utterance, and in all knowledge:

6 Even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you.

7 So that ye come behind in no gift: waiting for the † coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

8 Who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be c blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 a God is faithful by whom ye were called unto the b fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 c Now, I beseech you, brethren, by the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no † divisions among you: but that ye be perfectly * joyned together in the same mind, and in the same judgment.

11 For it hath been declared unto me of you my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 Now this I say, that every one of you saith, I am of Paul, and I of d Apollo, and I of Cephas, and I of Christ.

13 Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized † in the Name of Paul?

14 I thank God † that I baptized none of you, but Crispus and Gaius.

15 Lest any should say, that I had baptized in mine own name.

16 And I baptized also the household of Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: * not with wisdom of * words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish, foolishness: but unto us which are saved, it is the power of God.

19 For it is written, a I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

20 b Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? Hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

21 For after that, in the wisdom of God, the world by wisdom d knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

22 † For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom.

23 But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumbling block, and unto the Greeks foolishness,

24 But unto them which are called both Jews & Greeks, Christ the † power of God, and the wisdom of God.

25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

26 For ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble are called,

27 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to * confound the wise: and God hath chosen the weak things of the world, to * confound the things which are mighty,

28 And † base things of the world, & things g which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are:

29 That no flesh should * glory in his presence.

30 But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us b wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption:

31 That according as it is written: He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

CHAP. II.

Pauls preaching the power of God.

AND I brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech, or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God.

2 For I * determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

3 And I was with you in weakness and in fear, and in much trembling.

4 And my speech, and my preaching was not with a enticing words of mans wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit, and of power.

5 That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

6 Howbeit we speak wisdom among them that are b perfect, yet c not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought.

7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom which God ordained before the world unto our glory.

8 Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the a Lord of glory.

9 But as it is written b Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entred into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

10 But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the † deep things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him: Even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is of God, that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

13 c Which things also we speak, not in the words which mans wisdom teacheth, but which the holy Ghost teacheth, comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

CHAP. III.

The ministers God's workmen.

AND I, brethren, could not † speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto a babes in Christ.

2 I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, & strife and divisions are ye not carnal, and walk † as men?

4 For while one saith, I am of Paul, and another, I am of Apollo, are ye not carnal?

5 Who then is Paul? and who is Apollo? but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man.

6 I have planted, Apollo watered: but God gave the increase.

7 * So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth: but God that giveth the increase.

8 Now he that planteth, and he that watereth, are one, b and every man shall receive his own reward, according to his own labour.

9 For we are † labourers together § with God, ye are God's § husbandry, ye are God's building.

10 According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise master-builder I have laid the foundation, & another buildeth thereon: But let every man take heed how he a buildeth thereupon.

11 For other foundation can no man lay, than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

12 Now if any man build on this foundation, gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;

13 Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it † shall be revealed † by fire: and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.

14 If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.

15 If any man's work shall be burnt, he shall suffer loss, but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.

16 b Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God * destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

18 Let no man deceive himself: If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, c let him become a fool that he may be wise.

19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God: for it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

20 And again, d The Lord knoweth the * thoughts of the wise that they are vain.

21 Therefore let no man glory in men, for all things are yours.

22 Whether Paul, or Apollo, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; c all are yours;

23 And f ye are Christ's, and Christ g is God's.

CHAP. IV.

The apostles our fathers in Christ.

LET a man so account of us, as of the † ministers of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God.

2 Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.

3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of † mans † judgment; yea, I judge not mine own self.

4 For I know nothing by myself, yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.

5 * Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the heart: † and then shall every man have praise of God.

6 And these things, brethren, I d have † in a figure transferred to my self, and to Apollo, for your sakes: that ye might learn in us not * to think of men, above that which is written, that none of you be puffed up for one against another.

7 For who † maketh thee to differ from another? And b what hast thou that thou didst not receive it? Now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it?

8 Now e ye are full, now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us, and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.

9 For I think that God hath set forth us the apostles last, as it were * appointed to death: for we are made a † spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.

10 We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ: We are weak, but ye are strong: ye are honourable, but we are † despised.

11 Even unto this present hour we both hunger and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwelling place

12 d And labour, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless: being persecuted, we suffer it.

13 e Being defamed † we intreat, we are made as the filth of the world, and are the off-scouring of all things unto this day.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you.

15 For though ye have ten thousand instructers in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers, for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.

2 And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed, might be taken away from among you.

3 For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have * judged already, as though I were present concerning him that hath so done this deed.

CHAP. VI.

Of going to law, &c.

DAre any of you having a matter against another, go † to law † before the unjust, and not before the Saints?

2 Do ye not know that the Saints shal judge the world? And if the world shal be judged by you, are ye unworthy to † judge the smallest matters?

3 Know ye not that we shal judge angels? How much more things that pertain to this life?

4 If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are † least esteemed in the church.

5 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man amongst you? no not one that shall be able to judge † between his brethren?

6 But brother † goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.

7 Now therefore, there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another: a Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer your selves to be defrauded?

8 Nay, you do wrong, and defraud, and that your brethren.

9 Know ye not that the unrighteous shal not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived, neither fornicators nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor * effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,

10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

11 And such were a some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified b in the Name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

12 All things are lawful unto me, But c all things are not * expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the d power of any.

15 Know ye not that your e bodies are the members of Christ? shal I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot? God forbid.

16 What, know ye not that he which is joyned to an harlot, is one body? for two (f saith he) shal be one flesh.

17 But he that is g joyned unto the Lord, is one spirit.

18 Flee fornication. every sin that a man doth, is without the body: but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body.

19 What, h know ye not that your body is the temple of the holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God and ye are not your own?

Of marriage and continency.

NOw † concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

3 Let the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.

own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath no power of his own body, but the wife.

5 * Defraud you not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may * give your selves to fasting and prayer, and † come together again, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinency.

6 But I speak this by permission, and not † of commandment.

7 For I would that all men were even as I my self: but every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

8 I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, It is good for them if they abide even as I.

9 But if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.

10 And unto the married I command, yet not I, a but the Lord, † Let not the wife depart from her husband

11 But and if she * depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.

12 But to the rest speak I, not the Lord, if any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

13 And the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.

14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband, else were your children unclean, b but now are they holy.

15 But if the unbelieving † depart, let him depart: A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us † to peace.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?

17 But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one so let him walk, and so ordain I in all churches.

18 Is any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised? is any called in uncircumcision? let him not be circumcised.

19 Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God.

20 Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lords † freeman: likewise also he that is called being free, is Christs servant.

23 Ye are c bought with a price, d be not ye the servants of men.

24 Brethren, let every man wherein he is called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins, I have no commandment of the Lord, yet I give my judgment, as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful.

26 I suppose therefore that this is good for the present distress, I say that it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.

28 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned, and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned, nevertheless, such shal have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

29 But this I say, brethren, the † time is short, it remaineth, that both they that have wives, be as though they had none:

30 And they that weep, as though they wept not: and they that rejoyce, as though they rejoyced not: and they that buy, as though they possessed not

31 And they that use this world, as not abusing it: for the * fashion of this world e passeth away.

32 But I would have you without carefulness. He that is unmarried, careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord.

33 But he that is married, careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.

34 There is difference also between a wife, and a virgin, the unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy, both in body, and in spirit, but she that is married, careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

35 And this I speak for your own profit, not that I may cast a snare upon you: but for that which is comely, and that you may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

36 But if any man think that he * behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry.

37 Nevertheless he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart, that he will keep his virgin, doth well.

38 So then, he that giveth her in marriage doth well: but he that giveth her not in marriage, doth better.

39 The b wife is bound by the law, as long as her husband liveth: but if her husband † be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will, only in the Lord.

40 But she is happier if she so abide, after my judgment: and I think also that I have the Spirit of God.

4 As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that d an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one.

Ministers to live by the gospel.

AM I not an apostle? am I not free? a have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? are not you my work in the Lord?

2 If I † be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord.

3 Mine † answer to them that do examine me, is this:

4 Have we not power to eat and to drink?

5 Have we not power to lead about a sister, a * wife as well as other apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?

6 Or I only and Barnabas, have not we power to forbear working?

7 Who goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

8 Say I these things † as a man? or saith not the law the same also?

9 For it is written in the law of Moses, b Thou shalt not muzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn: doth God take care for oxen?

10 Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? for our sakes no doubt this is written: that he that ploweth, should plow in hope, and that he that thresheth in hope, should be partaker of his hope.

11 d If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shal reap your carnal things?

12 If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? nevertheless, we have not used this power, but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.

13 e Do ye not know, that they which minister about holy things, * live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar, are partakers with the altar.

14 Even so hath the Lord ordained, that they which preach the gospel, should live of the gospel.

15 But I have used none of these things, neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for it were † better for me to die, than that any man should make my glorying void.

16 For † though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me, yea, woe is unto me if I preach not the gospel.

17 For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, a dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me.

18 What is my reward then? Verily, that when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I abuse not my power in the gospel.

19 For though I be free from all men, yet have I made my self servant unto all, that I might gain the more.

20 And unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law.

21 To them that are without law, as without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ) that I might gain them that are without law.

22 To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak, † I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.

23 And this I do for the gospels sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

24 Know ye not that they which run in a race, run all, but one receiveth the prize? so run, that ye may obtain.

25 † And every man that striveth for the mastery, is temperate in all things: now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible.

26 I therefore so run, not as uncertainly: so fight I, not as one that beateth the air:

27 But I † keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I my self should be a † cast away

Abuses in their holy Assemblies.

BE ye * followers of me, even as I also am of Christ.

2 a Now I praise you, brethren, that you remember me in all things, and keep the * ordinances, as I delivered them to you.

3 But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ: and the head of the woman is the man, and the head of Christ is God.

4 Every man praying, b or prophecying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head.

5 But every woman that prayeth, or c prophesieth with her head uncovered, dishonoureth her head, for that is even all one as if she were shaven.

6 For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: But if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.

7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as he is the d image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.

8 For the man is not of the woman, but the woman of the man.

9 Neither was the man e created for the woman: but the woman for the man.

10 For this cause ought the woman to have power * on her head, f because of the angels.

11 Nevertheless, neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man in the Lord.

12 For as the woman is of the man: even so is the man also by the woman: but all things of God.

13 Judge in your selves, is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered?

14 Doth not even nature it self teach you, that if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?

15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a † covering.

16 But if any man seem to be † contentious: we have no such custom, neither the churches of God.

4 Now there are c diversities of gifts but the same Spirit.

5 And there are differences of * administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diversities of * operations, but it is the same God, which worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the spirit is given to every man † to profit withal.

8 For to one is given by the Spirit, the word of wisdom, to another the word of knowledge, by the same spirit

9 To another faith by the same Spirit, to another the gift of healing by the same Spirit.

10 To another the working of miracles, to another prophesie; to another discerning of spirits, to another divers kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues.

11 But all these worketh that one and the self same Spirit, dividing to every man severaly, as he will.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many are one body: so also is Christ.

13 For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whither we be Jews or † Gentiles, whither we be bond, or free: and have been all made to drink in one Spirit.

14 For the body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot shal say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body: is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear shal say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee; nor again, the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 Nay much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary.

23 And those members of the body which we think to be less honourable, upon these we * bestow more abundant honour, and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.

24 For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacketh.

25 That there should be no * schism in the body, but that the members should have the same care one for another.

26 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it, or one member be honoured, all the members rejoyce with it.

27 Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular.

28 And a God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondly b prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, * diversities of tongues

29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all * workers of miracles?

30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?

31 But covet earnestly the best gifts: And yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.

CHAP. XIV.

Prophecy commended, &c.

FOllow after charity, and † desire spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may prophesie.

2 For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men but unto God: for no man † understandeth him: howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.

3 But he that prophesieth, speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.

4 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue, edifieth himself: but he that prophesieth, edifieth the church.

5 I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth, than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.

6 Now brethren, if I come unto you, speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shal speak to you, * either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophecying, or by doctrine?

7 And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the * sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?

8 For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shal prepare himself to the battel?

9 So likewise you, except ye utter by the tongue words † easie to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air.

10 There are, it may be so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them are without * signification.

11 Therefore, if I know not the † meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a Barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a Barbarian unto me.

12 Even so ye, for as much as ye are zealous † of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excell to the edifying of the church.

13 Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue, pray that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitfull.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and will pray with understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.

16 Else when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shal he that occupieth the room of the unlearned, a say, Amen at thy giving of thanks, seing he understandeth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verily givest thanks well: but the other is not edified.

18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than you all.

19 Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

20 Brethren be not children in understanding: howbeit, in malice b be ye children, but † in understanding be † men.

21 In the law it is c written, with men of other tongues, and † other lips will I speak unto this people: and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore tongues are for a signe, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.

23 If therefore the whole church be come together into some place, and all speak with tongues, & there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad?

24 But if all prophesie, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned: He is convinced of all, he is judged of all

25 And thus are the d secrets of his heart made manifest, and so falling down on his face, he will worship God, and report that God is in you of a truth.

26 † How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation: let all things be done unto edifying.

27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course, and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church, & let him speak to himself, and to God.

29 Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the * other b judge.

30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.

31 For ye may all prophesie one by one, that all may learn, and all may be * comforted.

By Christ's resurrection, he proveth the necessity of ours.

MOreover brethren, I declare unto you the gospel, which I preached unto you, which also you have received, and wherein ye stand.

Or, bold fast. † Greek by what speech. a 1 Sal. 13: 5: 6 b Psal. 16: 10 c John 20: 19 d Acts 9: 4 Ch. 9: 1 † Gr. an abortive Acts 9 3: 4: 5 1 Tit. 1: 15: 16: 17 f John 3: 16 a Cor. 3: 10 Ph. 2: 13 2 Co. 4: 7 g Ps. 19 22. 3 1 Cor. 11: 1

2 By which also ye are saved, if ye * keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

3 For I delivered unto you first of all, that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins a according to the scriptures:

4 And that he was buried, and that he arose again the third day b according to the scriptures:

5 And that he was c seen of Cephas, then of the twelve.

6 After that he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once: of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep

7 After that he was seen of James, then of all the apostles.

8 And last of all, he was d seen of me also, as of † one born out of due time.

9 e For I am the least of the apostles that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.

10 But by the grace of God I am f what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me, was not in vain: but I laboured more abundantly than they all; g yet not I, but the grace of God, which was with me.

11 Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you, that there is no resurrection of the dead?

h 2 Tim. 2: 18 Acts 23: 8

13 But if there be h no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen.

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain:

15 Yea and we are found false witnesses of God, because we have testified of God, that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.

Rom. 4: 24

16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised.

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain, ye are yet in your sins.

18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ, are perished.

19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, i we are of all men most miserable.

i Mat. 25: 32

20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become k the first fruits of them that sleep.

21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

28 And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

29 Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all, why are they then baptized for the dead?

30 And why stand we in jeopardy every hour?

31 I protest by * your rejoycing, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, a I die daily.

32 If b after the manner of men I † have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? c Let us eat and drink for to morrow we die.

33 Be not deceived: * evil communications corrupt good manners.

34 † Awake * to righteousness, & sin not: for some have not the knowledge of God; I speak this to your shame.

35 But some will say, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?

36 Thou fool, that which thou sowest, is not quickned except it die.

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat or of some other grain.

38 But God giveth it a body, as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruption:

43 It is sown in dishonour, it is raised in glory; it is sown in weakness it is raised in power.

51 Behold, I shew you a mysterie; we shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed.

52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump (for the trumpet shal sound, and the dead shal be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed)

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shal have put on incorruption, & this mortal shal have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, b Death is swallowed up * in victory.

55 c O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?

56 The sting of death is sin, d and the strength of sin is the law.

57 But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory, * through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58 Therefore my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as you know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

The reason of his not coming.

BUT I determined this with my self, that I would not come again to you in heaviness.

2 For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me?

3 And I wrote this same unto you, lest when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoyce, having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

5 But if any hath caused grief, he hath not grieved me, but in part: that I may † not overcharge you all.

6 Sufficient to such a man is this * punishment which was inflicted of many.

7 So that contrariwise, ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.

8 Wherefore I beseech you, that you would confirm your love towards him

9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient in all things:

10 § To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgive any thing, § to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it, * in the person of Christ.

14 Now † thanks be unto God, which always causeth § us to triumph in Christ, & maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.

15 For we are unto God a † sweet savour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish.

16 To the one we are the savour of death unto death, and to the other the savour of life unto life: and who is sufficient for these things?

17 For we are not as many, which * corrupt the word of God, but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God: † speak we in Christ.

CHAP. III.

The commendation of Pauls ministery.

DO we begin again to commend our our selves? or need we, as some others, epistles of commendation from you, or letters of commendation from you.

2 Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men.

3 Forasmuch as § ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ, ministred by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God, not in tables of stone, but in fleshly tables of the heart.

§ Or, writing manifestly to be the Epistle. a R. 3:28

4 And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward:

Jo. 15:5 Or, fit

5 Not that we are sufficient of our selves a to think any thing as of our selves; but our sufficiency is of God.

or, meet, or quick. nuth.

6 Who also hath made us * able ministers of the new testament, not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the † spirit giveth life.

7 But

7 But if the ministration of death §written and ingraven in stones, was § glorious, so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses, for the glory of his countenance, which glory was to be done away.

8 How shal not the ministration of the Spirit be rather glorious?

9 For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.

10 For even that which was made glorious, had no glory in this §respect by reason of the glory that excelleth.

11 For if that which is done away, § was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.

12 Seing then that we have such hope, we use great * plainness of speech.

13 And not b as Moses, which put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the end of that which is abolished.

14 But their c minds were §blinded: for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away, in the reading of the old testament: which vail is d done away in Christ.

15 But even unto this day when Moses is read, the vail § is upon their heart.

16 Nevertheless, when it shal turn to the Lord the vail shall be taken away.

17 Now the Lord is that Spirit, and § where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

18 But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image, from glory to glory, even as * by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAP. IV.

Pauls diligence in preaching.

THerefore seing we § have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not:

2 But have renounced the hidden things of § dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God a deceitfully, but by manifestation of the truth, commending our selves to every mans conscience, in the sight of God.

3 But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost:

4 In whom the b God of this world hath blinded the mind of them which believe not, lest the § light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the c image of God, should shine unto them.

5 For we preach not our selves, but Christ Jesus the Lord, and our selves your servants for Jesus sake.

6 For God who § commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God, in the d face of Jesus Christ.

7 But we have this treasure in * earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

8 We are troubled on every side, yet not § distressed; we are perplexed, but * not in despair:

9 Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed.

10 Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body.

11 For we which live, are alway delivered unto death for Jesus sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

12 So then death worketh in us, but life in you.

13 We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, e I believed, and therefore have I spoken: we also believe, and therefore speak;

14 Knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jesus, shal raise up us also by Jesus, and shal present us with you.

15 For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many, redound to the glory of God.

16 For which cause we faint not, but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is f renewed day by day.

17 For our light affliction which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory.

18 While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen, are temporal: but the things which are not seen, are eternal.

CHAP. V.

We must all appear before Christ.

FOr we know, that if our earthly house of this a tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house, which is from heaven.

3 * If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked.

4 For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened § not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

5 Now he that hath wrought us for the self same thing, is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are alway confident, knowing that whiles we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord.

7 (For we walk by faith, not by sight)

8 § We are confident I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

9 Wherefore we * labour, that whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.

10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that every one may receive the things § done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore the terrour of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God, and I trust also, are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For we commend not our selves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that you may have some what to answer them, which glory § in appearance, and not in heart.

14 For the love of Christ † constraineth us, because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead:

15 And that he died for all, that they which live, should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and roseagain.

16 Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have d known Christ after the flesh yet now henceforth know we him no more.

17 Therefore if any man be in Christ * he is a new creature: * old things are past away, behold, all things are † become new.

18 And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministery of reconciliation,

19 To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them, and hath † committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then we are ambassadours for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us; we pray you † in Christs stead, be ye reconciled to God.

21 For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin, that we might be made the righteousnes of God in him.

CHAP. VI.

Pauls faithfulness in the ministery.

WE then as workers together with him, beseech you also, that ye receive not the grace of God in vain:

2 (For he saith, * I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold now is the accepted time, behold, now is the day of salvation)

3 a Giving no offence in any thing, that the ministery be not blamed:

4 But in all things § approving our selves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In stripes, in imprisonments, * in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings.

10 As sorrowful, yet alway rejoycing: as poor, yet making many rich: as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 O ye Corinthians, our mouth is open unto you, our heart is enlarged.

12 Ye are not straitned in us, but ye are straitned in your own bowels.

13 Now § for a recompense in the same (I speak as unto my children) be ye also enlarged.

14 Be ye not § unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what § fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

15 And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?

16 And what agreement hath the b temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God, as God hath said, * I will dwell in them, and walk in them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 * Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing, and I will receive you.

18 * And will be a Father unto you, and ye shal be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

CHAP. VII.

Paul exhorteth to purity.

HAving therefore these promises (dearly beloved) let us cleanse our selves from all * filthiness of the flesh and spirit, * perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 a Receive us, we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man.

3 I speak not this to condemn you: for I have said before, that you are in our hearts to die, and live with you.

4 Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is § my glorying of you, I am filled with comfort, I am § exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.

5 For when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without were fightings, within were fears.

6 Nevertheless, God that comforteth those that are § cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus.

7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning your § fervent mind toward me, so that I rejoyced the more.

8 For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season.

9 Now I rejoyce, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry * after a godly manner, that ye might receive damnage by us in nothing.

10 For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of, but the sorrow of the world b worketh death.

11 For behold, this self same thing that ye sorrowed § after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of your selves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge: In all things ye have approved your selves to be clear in this matter.

12 Wherefore though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Ti-

CHAP. VIII.

Contribution to the saints.

MOreover, brethren, we * do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia,

2 How that in a a great trial of affliction, the abundance of their joy, and their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of † their liberality.

3 For to their power (I bear record) yea, and beyond their power, they were willing of themselves:

4 Praying us with much intreaty, that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministring to the Saints.

5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us, by the will of God.

6 Insomuch that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also.

7 Therefore (as ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us) see that ye abound in this grace also.

8 I b speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, † and to prove the sincerity of your love.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became c poor, that ye through his poverty might be † rich.

10 And herein I give my advice, for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be † forward a year ago.

11 Now therefore perform the doing of it, that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which you have.

12 For if there be first a willing mind, it is d accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 For I mean not that other men be eased, and you burdened.

14 But by an equality: that now at this time, your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want, that there may be equality.

e Exod 26, 18: 15 As it is written, He that had e gathered much, had nothing over, and he that had gathered little, had no lack.

16 But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

17 For indeed he accepted the exhortation, but being more forward of his own accord, he went unto you.

18 And we have sent with him the brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches.

19 And not that only, but who was also chosen of the churches to travel with us with this * grace, which is administred by us to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind.

20 † Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administred by us.

21 Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which I have in you.

23 Whether any do enquire of Titus, he is my partner, and g fellow helper concerning you: or our brethren be enquired of, they are the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore shew ye to them, and before the churches the proof of your love, & our boasting on your behalf.

CHAP. IX.

He shewed why he sent Titus.

FOr as touching the ministring to the Saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you.

2 For I know the forwardness of your mind, for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that Achaia was ready a year ago, and * your zeal hath provoked very many.

3 Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf, that as I said, ye may be ready.

4 Lest haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, you) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up before hand † your bounty * whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, not of covetousness.

6 But this I say, † He which soweth sparingly, shal reap sparingly: and he which soweth bountifully, shal reap, † bountifully.

7 Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give, not grudgingly, or of necessity: for * God loveth a chearfull giver.

8 And God is able to make all grace abound toward you, that ye always having all sufficiencie in all things, may abound to every good work.

9 (As it is written; * He hath dispersed abroad, he hath given to the poor, his righteousness remaineth for ever.

10 Now he that * ministreth seed to the sower, both a minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sowen, and increase the fruits of your right eousness.)

11 Being inriched in every thing to all bountifulness, which causeth through us thanksgiving to God.

12 For the † administration of this service ner onely supplieth the want of the Saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God.

Pauls authority against adversaries.

NOw I Paul my self beseech you by the meekness, and gentleness of Christ: who * in presence am † base among you, but being absent, am bold toward you:
2 But I beseech you, that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence wherewith I think to be bold against some, which think of us, as if we walked according to the flesh
3 For though we † walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh.
4 (For the weapons of our warefare are not carnal, but † mighty through God, to the pulling down of strong holds.)
5 Casting down * imaginations, and † every high thing that exalteth it self against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ.
6 And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled,
7 Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? if any man trust to himself that he is Christs, let him of himself think this again, that as he is Christs, even so are we Christs.
8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority (which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction) I should not be ashamed.
9 That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.
10 For his letters (say they) are weighty and powerful, but his † bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible.
11 Let such an one think this, that such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present.
12 For we dare not make our selves of the number, or compare our selves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves † by themselves, & comparing themselves † amongst themselves, are not wise.
13 But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the † rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.
14 For we stretch not our selves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you, for we are come as far as to you also, in preaching the gospel of Christ.
15 Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, † of other mens labours, but having hope, when our faith is increased, that we shal be * enlarged by you, according to our rule abundantly,
16 To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another mans * line of things made ready to our hand:
17 * But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.
18 For, not he that commendeth himself is approved, but whom a the Lord commendeth.

CHAP. XI.

Pauls commendation of himself.

WOuld to God you could bear with me a little † in my folly, and indeed * bear with me.
2 For I am jealous over you with † godly jealousie: for I have * espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chast virgin to Christ.
3 But I fear least by any means as the serpent beguiled Eve * through his subtilty, so your minds should be * corrupted from the † simplicity that is in Christ.
4 For if he that cometh preacheth a another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.
5 For I † suppose, I was not a whit behind the very † chiefest apostles.
6 But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge, but we have been throughly made manifest among you in all things.
7 Have I committed an offence in abasing my self that you might be exalted because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely.
8 I robbed other churches, taking wages of them to do you service.
9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargable to no man: for that which was laking to me, the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied, and in all things I have keept my self from being burdensome to you, and so will I keep my self.
10 As the truth of Christ is in me; no man shal † stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.
11 Wherefore? because I love you not? God knoweth.
12 But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion, that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.
13 For such are false apostles, deceitful * Workers, * transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ
14 And no marvel, for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light
15 Therefore it is no great thing, if his ministers also be † transformed as the ministers of righteousness, whose end shal be according to their works.
16 I say again, Let no man think me a fool: if otherwise, yet as a fool * receive me, that I may boast my self a little.
17 That which I † speak, I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly in this confidence of boasting.
18 Seing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also.
19 For ye suffer fools gladly, seing ye your selves are wise.
20 For ye suffer if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face,
21 I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak: howbeit wherein soever any is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also.

24 Of the Jews five times received I fourty *d stripes save one.

25 Thrice was I beaten *e with rods, *f once was I stoned: thrice I *g suffered shipwrak: a night and a day I have been in the deep.

26 In journeying often, in perils of † waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine own countrey men, in perils of the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren.

27 In wearinesse and painfulnesse, in watchings often, in hunger, & thirst, in fastings often, in cold & nakednesse

28 Besides those things that are * without that which † cometh upon me daily, the care of all the churches.

29 b Who is weak, & I am not weak? † who is offended, and I burn not?

30 If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities.

31 The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which is blessed for ever more, knoweth that I lie not.

32 a In Damascus the governour under Aretas the king, kept the city with a garison desirous to apprehend me.

33 And thorow a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

CHAP. XII.

Paul boasteth of infirmities.

IT is not expedient for me, doubtlesse to glory, † I will come to a visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 * I knew a man in Christ above fourteen years ago, whether in the body, I cannot tell, or whether out of the body, I cannot tell, God knoweth:

3 And I knew such a man (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell, God knoweth.)

4 How that he was caught up into paradise, and heard † unspeakable words, which it is not * lawfull for a man to utter.

5 Of such a one will I glory, yet of my self I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.

6 For though I would desire to glory, I shal not be a fool: For I will say the truth. But now I forbear, least any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.

7 And least I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a * thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

8 For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weaknes. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ * may rest upon me.

10 Therefore † I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ sake: for when I am weak, a then am I strong.

11 I am become a fool in glorying, ye have compelled me. For I ought to have been commended of you, for in nothing † am I behind the very chiefest Apostles, though I be nothing.

12 Truly the signs of An apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs and wonders, and mighty deeds.

13 For what is it wherein ye were inferiour to other churches, except it be that I my self was not burdensome to you, forgive me this wrong.

14 Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you; for I seek not yours, but c you; for the children ought not to lay up for the d parents, but the parents, for the children.

15 And I will very gladly spend, and be spent for † you, though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.

16 But be it so, I did not burden you, nevertheless being crafty, I b caught you with guile.

17 Did I † make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you?

18 I desired Titus: and with him I sent a brother: did Titus make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

19 Again, think you that we excuse our selves unto you? we speak before God in Christ, but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

20 For I fear lest, when I come, I shal not find you such as I would, & that I shal be found unto you such as you would not, lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifs, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults.

21 And lest when I come again, my God will humble me among you, and that I shal bewaile many which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanesse, & fornication, and lasciviousnes which they have committed.

CHAP. XIII.

He threatneth obstinate sinners.

THis is the third time I am † coming to you, in the a mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

2 I told you before, and foretell you as if I were present the second time, and being absent now I write to them which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that if I come again, I will b not spare:

3 Since ye seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty in you.

4 For though he was crucified through a weaknes, yet he liveth by the power of God: for we also are weak * in him, but we shal live with him by the power of God toward you.

5 * Examine your selves, whether ye be in the faith: prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be * reprobates?

6 But I trust that we shal know that we are not reprobates.

7 Now I pray to God that ye do no evil, not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is honest, though ye be * as reprobats.

¶ The second epistle to the Corinthians, was written from Philippi, a city of Macedonia, by Titus & Lucas.

The Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Galatians.

CHAP. I.

Paul preacheth patiently

Paul an apostle (*not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead.

2 And all the brethren which are with me, unto the churches of Galatia

3 Grace be to you, and peace, from God the father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ.

4 Who gave himself for our sins, that he might † deliver us from this present evil a world, according to the will of God, and our Father.

5 To whom be glory, † for ever and ever. Amen.

6 I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ, unto another Gospel:

7 Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

8 But * though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

9 As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you, than that ye have received let him be accursed.

10 For do I now * persuade men or God? or do I seek to please men: for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.

11 But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me, is not after man.

12 For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ.

13 For ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it:

14 And profited in the Jews religion above many my † equals in mine own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the a traditions of my fathers.

15 But when it pleased God, who b separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace,

16 To reveal his son in me, that c I might preach him among the heathen immediately I * conferred not with flesh and blood;

17 Neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me, but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus.

18 Then after three years * I went up to Jerusalem † to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen days.

19 But other of the apostles saw I none, save James the Lord's brother.

20 Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before God I lie not.

21 Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia.

22 * And was unknown by face unto the churches of Judea, which were in Christ.

23 But they heard onely that he which d persecuted us in times past now preacheth the faith, which once he destroyed.

24 And they e glorified God in me.

CHAP. II.

Paul reproveth Peter at Antioch.

Then fourteen years after I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also.

2 And I went up by Revelation, and † communicated unto them that Gospel, which I preach among the Gentiles, but * privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means I should a run, or had run in vain.

3 But neither Titus who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised:

4 And that because of false brethren unawares brought in: who came in privily to spie out our liberty, which we have b in Christ Jesus that they might bring us into bondage.

5 To whom we gave place by subjection no not for an hour, that the truth of the Gospel might continue with you.

6 But of these, who seemed to be some what, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me, God accepteth no mans person) for they who seemed to be some what, in conference added nothing to me,

7 But contrariwise, when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter.

8 For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same † was mighty in me toward the Gentiles.)

9 And when James, Cephas, and John, * who seemed to be Pillars, perceived the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship, that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.

10 Onely they would that we should remember the poor, the same which I was also forward to do.

11 But when † Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was † to be blamed.

12 For before that certain came from James, he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come he withdrew, and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Jews † dissembled likewise with him, insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation.

14 But when I saw that they † walked not uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter before them all, If thou being a Jew livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews: † why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?

15 We who are Jews by nature, and not b sinners of the Gentiles.

16 Knowing that a man is not justified by the c works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ: even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

17 But if while we seek to be justified † by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners: is therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid.

18 For if I build again the things which I † destroyed, I make my self a transgressour.

19 For I through the law, † am dead to the law, that I might live unto God.

20 I am crucified with Christ: Nevertheless, I live, yet not I, but Christ liveth in me, and the life which I now live in the flesh, I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousnes come by the law, then Christ is dead * in vain.

CHAP. III.

He asketh what moveth them to leave the faith, and hang on the law.

O Foolish Galatians, who hath † bewitched you, that you should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you.

2 This only would I learn of you, Received ye the spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith.

3 Are ye so foolish? Having begun in the spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?

4 Have ye suffered * so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain.

5 He therefore that ministreth to you the spirit, & worketh miracles among you, doth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

6 Even as Abraham d believed God and it was * accounted to him for righteousnes.

7 Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8 And the scripture foreseeing that God would justifie the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, b In thee shal all nations be blessed.

9 So then, they which be of faith, are blessed with faithful Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, c Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law, to do them.

11 But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, d the just shal live by faith.

12 And the law is not of faith: but * the man that doth them, shal live in them.

13 Christ hath redeemed us from the e curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree.

14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ: that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men, though it be but a mans * covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth or added thereto.

16 Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not And to seeds, as of many, but as of one, And to thy seed, g which is Christ.

17 And this I say, that the covenant that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance be of the law: it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then serveth the law. It was added h because of transgressions: till the seed should come, to whom the promise was made: and it was i ordained by angels in the hand of a k mediatour.

20 Now a meadiatour is not a Mediatour of one, but God m is one.

21 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: For if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousnes should have been by the law.

22 But the scripture hath concluded n all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith, which should afterwards be revealed.

24 Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.

26 For ye are all the o children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

27 a For as many of you as have been baptized b into Christ, have c put on Christ.

28 There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are d all one in Christ Jesus.

29 And if ye be Christs, then are ye Abrahams seed, and heirs according to the promise.

6 And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth d the Spirit of his Son into your hearts: crying, Abba, Father.

7 Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son: and if a son, then an heir † of God through Christ.

8 Howbeit, then when ye knew not God, ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods.

9 But now after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, how † turn ye again unto the vveak and beggerly ‖elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage:

10 Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years.

11 I am afraid of you, least I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

12 Brethren, I beseech you, e be as I am: for I am as ye are, ye have not injured me at all.

13 Ye know how through infirmity of the flesh, I preached the gospel unto you at the first.

14 And my ‖temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected, but received me as an b angel of God, even as Christ Jesus.

15 § Where is then the blessedness you speak of? for I bear you record, that if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemie, because I tell you the truth?

17 § They zealously affect you but not well: yea, they would exclude § you, that you might affect them.

18 But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, & not only vvhen I am present vvith you.

19 My little children, of vvhom I travel in birth again, until Christ be formed in you:

20 I desire to be present vvith you now, and to change my voice, for † I stand in doubt of you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the lavv?

22 For it is vvritten, that Abraham had two sons, the one by a bond maid, the other by a free-vvoman.

23 But he who was of the bond-woman was born after the flesh: but he of the free-vvoman was by promise.

24 Which things are ‖an allegory, for these are the two * covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which gendreth to bondage, vvhich is Agar.

25 For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and ‖answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.

26 But Jerusalem which is above, is free, which is the mother of us all.

27 For it is vvritten, † Rejoyce thou barren that bearest not, break forth and cry, thou that travellest not, for the desolate hath many more children than she vvhich hath an husband.

28 Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise.

29 But as then, he that vvas born after the flesh, persecuted him that vvas born after the Spirit, even so it is now.

30 Nevertheless, vvhat saith the Scripture? † Cast out the bond-woman and her son: for the son of the bond-vvoman shal not be heir vvith the son of the free-vvoman.

31 So then, brethren, vve are not children of the bond-vvoman, but of the free.

CHAP. V.

Christian liberty to be made use of.

§ STand fast therefore in the liberty vvherevvith Christ hath made us free, and be not intangled again with the † yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, b I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shal profit you nothing.

3 For I testifie again to every man that is circumcised, that he is debtor to do the vvhole lavv.

4 Christ is become of no effect unto you: vvhosoever of you are † justified by the lavv: ye are fallen from grace.

5 For we through the spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.

6 For d in Jesus Christ, neither circumcision availeth any thing nor uncircumcision, but † faith which worketh by love.

7 Ye did run vvell; § who did hinder you, that ye should not obey the truth?

8 This perswasion cometh not of him that calleth you.

9 A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.

10 I have confidence in you through the Lord, that you will be none other wise minded: but he that troubleth you shal bear his judgement, whosoever he be.

11 And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? then is the offence of the crosse ceased.

12 I vvould they vvere even cut off vvhich trouble you.

13 For brethren, ye have been called unto liberty, a only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another.

14 For all the lavv is fulfilled in one word, even in this: b Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self.

15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed ye be not consumed one of another.

16 § This I say then, † Walk in the spirit, and § ye shal not fulfill the lust of the flesh.

17 For the flesh lusteth against the spirit, and the spirit against the flesh, and these are contrary, the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

18 But if ye be led of the spirit, ye are not under the lavv.

19 Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these: adultery, fornication, uncleanes, lasciviousnes,

20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies,

21 Envyings, murders, drunkennes, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things, shal not inherit the kingdom of God.

22 But the d fruit of the spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentlenes, goodnes, faith,

23 Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.

He exhorteth to mildness.

BRethren, if a man be † overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, † restore such a one in the * of meekness, considering thy self, lest thou also be tempted.

2 Bear ye one anothers burdens, and a so fulfill the law of Christ.

3 For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

4 But let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another

5 For b every man shall bear his own r burden.

6 Let him that is taught in the word, communicate unto him that teacheth, in all good things.

7 Be not deceived God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shal he also reap.

8 For he that sowerh to his flesh, shal of the flesh reap corruption: but he that soweth to the spirit, shall of the spirit reap everlasting life.

9 And let us not be weary in well doing: for a in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

10 As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith.

11 Ye see how large a letter I have written unto you with e mine own hand.

12 As many as desire to make a † fair shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised: only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ.

¶ The epistle of PAUL the Apostle to the EPHESIANS.

CHAP. I.

The true foundation of mans salvation.

PAul, an apostle of Jesus Christ, † by the will of God, to the Saints which are at Ephesus, and to the faithful in Christ Jesus.

2 Grace be to you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 a Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual † blessings in heavenly * places in Christ:

4 According as he hath b chosen us * in him, before the † foundation of the world, that we should be holy, and without blame, before him in love:

5 Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will:

6 To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved:

7 In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace.

8 Wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence:

9 Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure, which he had purposed in himself,

10 That in the dispensation of the fulness of times, he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in † heaven, and which are on earth, even in him:

11 In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him, who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will.

12 That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first * trusted in Christ:

13 In whom ye also trusted after that ye heard the voice of truth, the gospel of your salvation, in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with the holy spirit of promise,

14 Which is the † earnest of our inheritance, * until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.

15 Wherefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love unto all the Saints,

16 Cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers;

17 That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the father of glory, may give unto you the spirit of wisdom, & † revelation * in the knowledge of him

18 The eyes of your understanding being enlightned: that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the Saints:

19 And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working † of his mighty power,

20 Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, & and set him * at his own right hand, in the heavenly places:

21 Far above all * principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and c every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come:

22 And hath d put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church.

A Nd you hath he a quickened, who were dead in treſpaſſes and ſins.

2 Wherein in times paſt ye walked according to the courſe of this world, according to the b prince of the power of the air, the ſpirit that now worketh in the children of diſobedience.

3 Among whom alſo we all had our converſation in times paſt, in the luſts of our c fleſh; fulfilling † the deſires of the fleſh, and of the mind, and were by nature the b children of wrath, even as others.

4 But God who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,

5 Even when we were dead in ſins, hath quickned us together with Chriſt, (by † grace ye are ſaved,)

6 And hath raiſed us up together, and made us ſit together in heavenly places in Chriſt Jeſus.

7 That in the ages to come, he might ſhew the exceeding riches of his grace, in his kindneſs toward us *through Chriſt Jeſus.

8 For by grace are ye ſaved, through faith, and that not of your ſelves: it is the d gift of God,

9 Not of works, leſt any man ſhould boaſt.

10 For we are his f workmanſhip, created in Chriſt Jeſus unto good works which God hath before * ordained that we ſhould walk in them.

11 Wherefore remember that ye being in time paſſed Gentiles in the fleſh, who are called uncircumciſion * by that which is called the circumciſion in the fleſh made by hands;

12 That at that time ye were without Chriſt, being aliens from the common-wealth of Iſrael, and ſtrangers from the covenants of promiſe, having no hope, and g without God in the world:

13 But now in Chriſt Jeſus, ye who ſometimes were far off, are made nigh by the blood of Chriſt.

14 For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the b middle wall of partition between us,

15 Having abolliſhed in his fleſh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances, for to make in himſelf, of twain, one new man, ſo making peace.

16 And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the croſs, having ſlain the enmity * thereby.

17 And came and preached peace to you, which were † afar off, and to them that were nigh.

18 For † through him we both have an acceſs † by one Spirit, unto the father.

19 Now therefore, ye are no more ſtrangers and foreiners, but fellow-citizens with the Saints, and of the houſhold of God.

20 And † are built upon the foundation of the apoſtles and prophets; Jeſus Chriſt himſelf being the chief corner-ſtone.

21 In whom all the building fitly framed together, groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord:

5 Which in other ages was not made known unto the ſons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apoſtles and prophets † by the ſpirit.

6 That the Gentiles ſhould be fellow heirs, & of the ſame body, and partakers of his promiſe in Chriſt by the Goſpel:

7 Whereof I was made a miniſter, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me, by the effectual working of his power.

8 Unto me, who am † leſs than the leaſt of all ſaints, is † this grace given, that b I ſhould preach among the Gentiles the † unſearchable riches of Chriſt.

15 Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named:

16 That he would grant you according to the riches of his glory to be ſtrengthened with might, by his ſpirit in the inner man.

17 That Chriſt may dwell in your hearts by faith, that ye being rooted and grounded in love,

18 May be able to comprehend with all ſaints, what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height,

19 And to know the love of Chriſt which paſſeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulneſs of God, 20 Now unto him, that is able to do exceeding abundantly, above all that we aſk or think, according to the power that worketh in us.

CHAP. IV.

To put on the new man.

1 Therefore the priſoner of the Lord, beſeech you, that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called

2 With all lowlineſs and meekneſs, with long ſuffering, forbearing one another in love.

3 Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

4 There is b one body, and c one spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling.

5 d One Lord, one faith, one baptism,

6 One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in f you all.

7 But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

8 Wherefore g he saith, When he ascended up on high, he led * captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.

9 (Now that he ascended, what is it, but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?

10 He that descended, is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things)

11 And he gave k some apostles: and some prophets: and some evangelists, and some pastours, and teachers;

12 For the perfecting of the Saints, for the work of the ministery, for the edifying of the body of Christ.

13 Till we all come * in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the * stature of the fulness of Christ.

14 That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine by the sleight of men, & cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive:

15 But * speaking the truth in love, may grow up in him in all things, which is the head, even Christ,

16 * From whom the whole body fitly joined together, and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body, unto the edifying of it self in love.

17 This I say therefore, and testifie in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind.

18 Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the * blindness of their heart.

19 Who being past feeling, have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

20 But ye have not so learned Christ.

21 If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus.

22 That ye put off, concerning the former conversation, the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts.

23 And be a renewed in the spirit of your mind:

24 And that ye b put on the c new man, which after God is created in righteousness, and † trueholiness.

25 Wherefore putting away lying, a speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another.

26 Be ye angry and sin not, let not the sun go down upon your wrath.

27 Neither give place to the devil.

28 Let him that stole, steal no more; but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have † to give to him that needeth.

29 Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good * to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

30 And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption.

31 Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, & evil-speaking, be put away from you, with all malice.

32 * And be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.

CHAP. V.

General exhortations.

BE ye therefore followers of God, as dear children,

2 And a walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet smelling savour.

3 But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named amongst you, as becometh saints:

4 Neither * filthiness, nor foolish talking, * nor jesting which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks.

5 For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ, and of God.

6 Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things, cometh the wrath of God upon the children of * disobedience.

7 Be not ye therefore c partakers with them.

8 For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye d light in the Lord: † walk as children of light.

9 (For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness & righteousness, and truth.)

10 Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord.

11 And have no e fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather † reprove them.

12 For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret.

13 But all things that are * reproved, are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest, is light.

14 a Wherefore he saith, b Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall * give thee light.

15 † See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise.

16 † Redeeming the time because the c days are evil.

17 Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is.

18 And be d not drunken with wine, wherein is * excess: but be filled * with the Spirit.

19 Speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord.

20 Giving thanks always for all things unto God, and the Father, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

21 Submitting your selves one to another in the fear of God.

22 ¶ Wives, submit your selves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord.

23 For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the Saviour of the body.

24 Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing.

25 Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it:

26 That he might sanctifie and cleanse it with the washing of water, by the word.

27 That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle, or any such thing: but that it should be holy and without blemish.

28 So ought men to love their wives, as their own bodies: he that loveth his wife, loveth himself.

29 For no man yet ever hated his own flesh: but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church.

30 For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.

31 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joyned unto his wife, and they two shall be † one flesh.

32 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ & the church.

33 Nevertheless, let every one of you in particular, so love his wife, even as himself, and the wife see that she reverence her husband.

CHAP. VI.

The duties of children and servants.

1 CHildren, a obey your parents, b in the Lord: for this is right.

2 c Honour thy father and mother (which is the first commandment † with promise.

3 That it may be well with thee, & thou mayest live long on the earth.

4 And ye fathers d provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

5 e Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear & trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ:

6 Not with eye service, as men-pleasers, but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart.

7 With good will, doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men.

8 Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doth, the same shal he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free.

9 And ye masters, do the same things unto them * forbearing threatning: knowing that † your master also is in heaven, neither is there † respect of persons with him.

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, & in the power of his might.

11 Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against † principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against * spiritual wickedness in * high places.

13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and * having done all, to stand.

14 Stand therefore having your loins girt about with † truth, and having on the breast-plate of righteousness:

15 And your feet shod † with the preparation of the gospel of peace.

16 Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shal be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the spirit, which is the word of God:

18 Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance, and supplication for all Saints

19 And for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel:

20 For which I am an ambassador * in bonds: that * therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

21 But that ye also may know my affairs, and how I do, Tychicus a beloved brother, and faithful minister in the Lord, shal make known to you all things.

22 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that ye might know our affairs, and that he might comfort your hearts.

23 ¶ Peace be to the brethren, and love, with faith from God the father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

24 Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ * in sincerity. Amen.

IF there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the spirit, if any bowels and mercies:
2 Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be like minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.
3 Let nothing be done through strife, or vain glory, but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other, better than themselves.
4 † Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.
5 * Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:
6 Who being in the form of God, thought it not a robbery to be equal with God:
7 But made † himself † of no reputation, and took upon him the b form of a servant, and was made * in the likeness of men.
8 And being found in * fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.
9 Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a Name which is above every name:
10 That a at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, * of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth.
11 And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father:
12 Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence: c work out your own salvation with f fear and trembling.
13 For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do, of his good pleasure.
14 Do all things without murmurings and disputings:
15 That ye may be blameless, and * harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom * ye shine as lights in the world:
16 Holding forth the word of life, that I may rejoyce in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.
17 Yea, and if I be † offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy and rejoyce with you all.
18 For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoyce with me.
19 § But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timotheus shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.
20 For I have no man † like minded who will naturally care for your state
21 For all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christs.
22 But ye know the proof of him, that as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel.
23 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.
24 But I trust in the Lord, that I also my self shal come shortly.
25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus my brother and companion in labour, and fellow souldier, but your messenger, and he that ministred to my wants.
26 For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.

Finally, my brethren, rejoyce in the Lord, to write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.

2 Beware of dogs, beware of a evil workers, beware of the concision.

3 For we are the circumcision which b worship God in the spirit: and rejoyce in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.

4 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more:

5 Circumcised the eight day, of the c stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrews, as touching the law, d a Pharisee:

6 Concerning zeal, e persecuting the church: touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.

7 But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ.

8 Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss, for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord i for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ.

9 And f be found in him, not having mine own righteousness which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ: the righteousness which is of God by faith.

10 That I may know him, and the k power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death.

11 If by any means I might attain unto the b resurrection of the dead.

12 Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also i I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.

13 Brethren, I count not my self to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and † reaching forth unto those things which are before.

14 I press toward the k mark, for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

15 Let us therefore, as many as be a perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you.

16 Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same things.

17 Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so, as ye have us for an ensample.

18 (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even c weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ:

19 Whose d end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.)

20 For our conversation is in heaven, from whence also we f look for the Saviour the Lord Jesus Christ.

21 Who shall change our vile bodies, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working, whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself.

THerefore, my brethren, dearly beloved, and longed for, a my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.

2 I beseech Euodias: and beseech Syntiche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord.

3 And I intreat thee also, true yokefellow, help those women which laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with others my fellow labourers, b whose names are in the book of life.

4 c Rejoyce in the Lord always, and again I say rejoyce.

5 Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is d at hand.

6 e Be careful for nothing, but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your request be made known to God.

7 And the f peace of God which passeth all understanding shal keep your hearts & minds * through Christ Jesus.

8 Finally brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are * honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report, if there be any vertue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

11 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content.

12 I know both how to * be abased, and I know how to abound: every where & in all things I am * instructed, both to be full, and to be hungry, both to abound, and to suffer need.

13 I can do all things † through Christ which strengtheneth me.

14 Notwithstanding, ye have well done, that ye did communicate with my affliction.

15 Now ye Philippians, know also that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church communicated with me, as concerning giving and receiving but ye only.

16 For even in Thessalonica, ye sent once and again unto my necessity.

17 Not because I desire a gift: but I desire fruit that may abound to your account.

18 But

18 But * I have all, and abound, I am full, having received of Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, an odour of a sweet smell, a a sacrifice acceptable, well pleasing to God

19 But my God shall supply all your need, according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus.

20 Now unto God, and our Father, be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

CHAP. I.

Paul thanketh God for their faith

PAul an apostle of Jesus Christ a by the will of God and Timotheus our brother.

2 To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ, which are at Colosse, grace be unto you, & b peace from God our Father, & the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We give thanks c to God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you.

4 Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have d to all the saints.

5 For the e hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel.

6 Which is come unto you, as it is in all the world, & bringeth forth fruit, as it also doth in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth.

7 As ye also learned of Epaphras our dear fellow servant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ.

8 Who also declared unto us your love in the spirit.

9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you: and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will, f in all wisdom and spiritual understanding;

10 That ye might b walk worthy of the Lord * unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God.

11 Strengthened with all might according to † his glorious power, unto all patience and long-suffering c with joyfulness.

12 Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the † inheritance of the saints in light.

13 Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, & hath translated us into the kingdom of his † dear Son.

14 In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins.

15 Who is the g image of the g invisible God, the first born of every creature.

16 For by him were all things created that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers, all things were created by him, and for him.

17 * And he is before all things, and by him all things consist.

18 And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the first born from the dead, that * in all things he might have the preeminence

19 For it pleased the Father, that in him should all fulness dwell.

20 And (* having made peace through the blood of his cross) by him to reconcile all things unto himself: by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven.

21 And you that were sometimes alienated, and enemies † in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled,

22 In the body of his flesh, through death, to present you holy and unblameable, and unreprovable in his sight.

23 If ye continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, and which was preached to every creature which is under heaven, whereof I Paul am made a minister.

24 Who now rejoyce in my sufferings for you, and fill up that which is behind of the afflictions of b Christ in my flesh, for his bodies sake, which is the church.

25 Whereof I am made a minister, according to the dispensations of God, which is given to me for you, † to fulfil the word of God;

26 Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages, and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints.

27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ * in you the hope of glory:

28 Whom we preach warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus.

29 Whereunto I also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me † mightily.

CHAP. II.

He exhorteth to be constant in Christ.

FOr I would that ye knew what great * conflict I have † for you, and for them at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my * face in the flesh.

2 That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgment of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ.

3 † In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

4 And this I say, lest any man should beguile you with inticing words.

5 For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit: joying and beholding your order, & the stedfastness of your faith in Christ.

6 As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him.

14 And above all these things, put on charity, which is the k bond of perfectness.

15 And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body: & be ye thankful.

16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, in all wisdom, teaching & admonishing one another in psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

17 And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, a do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God, and the Father by him.

18 b Wives, submit your selves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord.

19 Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them.

20 d Children, obey your parents in all things, for this is well pleasing unto the Lord.

21 e Fathers provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.

22 f Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh, not with eye-service, as men pleasers, but in singleness of heart, fearing God.

CHAP. I.

Thanksgiving and prayer.

PAul, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the a Thessalonians, which is in God the Father, and in the Lord Jesus Christ: grace be unto you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 b We give thanks to God always for you all, c making mention of you in our prayers.

3 Remembring without ceasing, your d work of faith, and e labour of love, and f patience of hope † in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God, and our Father:

4 Knowing, brethren * beloved, your election of God.

5 For our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also g in power, and in the holy Ghost, and in much assurance, as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.

6 And ye became h followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the holy Ghost.

7 So that ye were ensamples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For k from you sounded out the word of the Lord, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith to God ward is spread abroad, so that we need not to speak any thing.

9 For they themselves shew of us, what manner of entring in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols, l to serve the living and true God,

10 And m to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus which delivered us from the wrath to come.

CHAP. II.

An exhortation to godliness.

FOr your selves brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain.

2 But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully intreated, as ye know, † at Philippi, we were a bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God † with much contention.

3 For our exhortation was b not of deceit, nor of uncleanness: nor in guile.

4 But as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak, not as pleasing men, but God which * trieth our hearts.

5 For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloak of covetousness, God is witness:

6 Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might have been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ.

7 But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children.

8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were dear unto us.

9 For ye remember brethren our labour and travel, for c labouring night and day, because we would not d be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, e how holily, and justly, and unblameably we behaved our selves among you that believe:

11 As you know how we exhorted & comforted, & † charged every one of you, f as a father doth his children,

12 That ye would g walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

13 For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because when ye received the word of God: which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the b word of men: but (as it is in truth) the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.

14 For ye, brethren became followers † of the churches of God, which in Judea are in Christ Jesus: for for ye also have suffered like things of your own countrey men, even as they have of the Jews.

16 Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles, that they might be saved: to c fill up their sins alway: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time, in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more aboundantly to see your face with great desire.

18 Wherefore we vvould have come unto you, (even I paul) once and again: but a Satan hindred us.

19 For what is our hope, or joy, b or crown of * rejoycing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming?

20 For ye are our glory, and joy.

CHAP. III.

Paul sendeth Timothy, &c.

WHerefore when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left at Athens a alone:

2 And sent Timotheus our brother and minister of God, and our fellow labourer in the gospel of Christ to establish you, and to comfort you, concerning your faith:

3 That no man should be moved by these afflictions, for your selves know, that we are † appointed thereunto.

4 For verily when we were with you, we told you before, that we should suffer tribulation, even as it came to pass, and ye know.

5 For this cause when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter have tempted you, & our labour be in vain.

6 But now when Timotheus came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, as we also to see you:

7 Therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress, by your faith:

8 For now we * live, if ye stand fast in the Lord.

9 For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before b our God,

10 Night and day praying exceedingly, that we might see your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith.

11 Now God himself, and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, * direct our way unto you.

12 And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and towards all men, even as we do towards you:

13 To the end he may establish your hearts d unblameable in holiness before God: even our Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, with all his saints.

CHAP. IV.

An exhortation to godliness, &c.

FUrthermore then we * beseech you, brethren, & exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received of us, how ye ought to walk, and to please God, so ye would abound more & more.

2 For ye know what commandments we gave you, by the Lord Jesus.

3 For this is the a will of God, even * your sanctification that ye should abstain from fornication:

4 That every one of you should know how to * possess his vessel in sanctification and honour:

5 Not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles which know not God:

6 That no man go beyond and * defraud his brother * in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such; as we also have forewarned you, and testified:

7 For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness.

8 He therefore that * despiseth, despiseth not man but God, who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly love, ye need not that I write unto you: for ye your selves are b taught of God to love one another.

10 And indeed ye do it towards all the brethren which are in all Macedonia: but we beseech you, brethren, that ye increase more and more:

11 And that ye study to be quiet, and to do your c own business: and to vvork vvith your ovvn hands (as vve commanded you)

12 That ye may * vvalk honestly towvard them that are vvithout, and that ye may have lack * of nothing.

13 But I vvould not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them vvhich are asleep, that ye sorrovv not, even as others vvhich have no hope.

14 For if vve believe that Jesus died, and rose again, even so e them also vvhich sleep in Jesus, vvill God bring vvith him.

15 For this vve say unto you† by the vvord of the Lord, that vve vvhich are f alive, and remain unto the coming of the Lord, shal not prevent them vvhich are asleep.

16 For the Lord himself shal descend from heaven vvith a shout, vvith the voice of the arch-angel, and vvith the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shal rise first.

17 Then vve vvhich are alive & remain, shal be caught up together vvith them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: & so shal vve ever be vvith the Lord.

18 Wherefore * comfort one another vvith these vvords.

CHAP. V.

Christes coming to judgement.

BUt of the a times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I vvrite unto you:

2 For your selves knovv perfectly, that the b day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

3 For vvhen they shal say, peace & safety: then suddenly destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a vvoman vvith child, and they shal not escape.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

5 Ye are all the a children of light, and the children of the day: vve are not of the night, nor of darkness:

6 Therefore let us b not sleep, as do others: but let us vvatch and be sober.

7 For they that sleep, sleep in the night: and they that be drunken, are drunken in the night.

¶ The first epistle unto the Thessalonians, was written from Athens.

The second Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the THESSALONIANS.

CHAP. I.

The punishment of the ungodly.

PAul and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians, a in God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Grace be unto you, & peace from God our Father, & the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 b We are bound to thank God always for you brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all towards each other aboundeth.

4 So that we our selves glory in you in the churches of God, for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure:

5 Which is a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which c ye also suffer.

6 Seeing it is a righteous thing with God d to recompense † tribulation to them that † trouble you:

7 And to you who are troubled, rest with us † when the Lord Jesus shal be revealed from heaven, with † his mighty angels,

8 In flaming fire, * taking vengeance on them that e know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 Who shal be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power;

10 When he shal come to be † glorified in his saints, and to be † admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.

11 Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our God would * count you worthy of this calling, and fulfill all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power.

12 That the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

CHAP. II.

He willeth them to continue stedfast.

NOw we beseech you brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him,

2 That ye be not soon † shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter, as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand.

3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a d falling away first, and that k man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition,

4 Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped: so that he as God, sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.

5 Remember ye not, that when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

6 And now ye know what * withholdeth, that he might be revealed in his time.

7 For the a mystery of iniquity doth b already work; only he who now letteth, will let, until he be taken out of the way.

8 And then shal † that wicked be revealed whom the Lord shal consume with the c spirit of his mouth, and shal destroy with the † brightness of his coming.

9 Even him whose coming is after the working of Satan, † with all power, and signs, and lying wonders,

10 And † with all deceivableness of unrighteousness, in them that perish: because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And for this cause God shal send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:

The apostles craveth their prayers.

FInally, brethren, a pray for us, that the word of the Lord † may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you:

2 And that we may be delivered from † unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have † not faith.

3 But the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and keep you from evil.

4 And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do, and will do the things which we command you.

5 And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into * the patient waiting for Christ.

6 Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye * withdraw your selves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which ye received of us.

7 For your selves know how ye ought to follow us: for we behaved not our selves disorderly among you.

8 Neither did we eat any man's bread † of nought; but wrought with labour and travel night & day, that we might not be † chargeable to any of you.

9 Not because we have not power, but to make our selves an ensample unto you to follow us.

10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat.

11 For we hear that there are some which walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are † busie bodies.

12 Now them that are such, we command, and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.

13 But ye, brethren, † be not weary in well-doing.

14 And if any man obey not our word, by this epistle, * note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed.

CHAP. I.

Pauls charge to Timothy.

PAul an apostle of Jesus Christ † by the commandment of God our Saviour, and the Lord Jesus Christ, which is our hope,

2 Unto Timothy, my own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace from God our Father, and Jesus Christ our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that they b teach no other doctrine:

4 Neither give c heed to fables, and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith: so do.

5 Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfained.

6 From which some * having swerved, have turned aside unto vain jangling,

7 Desiring to be teachers of the law, understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully,

9 Knowing this that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly, and for sinners, for unholy, & profane, for murderers of fathers, & murderers of mothers, for manslayers

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for * men stealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound * Or, doctrine.

11 According to the * glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.

12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministery.

13 Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecuter, and * injurious. But I obtained mercy because I did it ignorantly, in unbelief.

14 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith, and love, which is in Christ Jesus.

15 This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus b came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am chief.

16 Howbeit, for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first, Jesus Christ might shew forth all long-suffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.

17 Now unto the King † eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory † for ever and ever: Amen.

Prayer must be made for all men.

I * Exhort therefore that first of all supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks be made for a all men,

2 b For kings, and for all that are in * authority, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.

7 b Whereunto I am ordained a Preacher and an apostle (I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not) a c teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity.

8 I will therefore that men pray every where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

9 In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefastness and sobriety, not with * broidred hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly aray.

10 But which becometh women professing godliness with good works.

11 Let the woman learn in silence † with all subjection.

12 But d I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in † silence.

13 For e Adam was first formed, then Eve.

14 And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression:

15 Notwithstanding she shall be saved in child-bearing, if they continue in faith and charity, and holiness with sobriety.

CHAP. III.

Of bishops, deacons, and their wives.

THis is a true saying, If a man, desireth the office of a bishop, he desireth a a good work.

2 b A bishop then must be c blameless the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, * of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach.

3 Not * given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, nor † covetous:

4 One that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all † gravity:

5 (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?)

6 Not a * novice, lest being lifted up with pride, he fall into the condemnation of the devil.

7 Moreover, he must have a good report of them which are without, lest he fall into reproach, and the snare of the devil.

8 Likewise must the deacons be grave, not double tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre.

9 Holding the d mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.

10 And let these first be proved, then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.

11 Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.

12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children, and their own houses well.

13 For they that † have used the office of a deacon well, purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee † shortly.

15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and * ground of the truth.

16 And without controversie, great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the spirit, seen of angels, preached † unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, * received up into glory.

CHAP. IV.

Paul giveth precepts to Timothy.

NOw the spirit speaketh * expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to a seducing spirits, & doctrines of devils

2 Speaking lies in hypocrisie, having their conscience seared with a hot iron

3 Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe, and know the truth.

4 For every creature of God is good and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving:

5 For it is sanctified by the word of God, and prayer.

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith, and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.

7 But refuse profane and old wives fables and exercise * thy self rather unto godliness.

8 For bodily exercise profiteth * little, but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

9 This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation:

10 For therefore we both labour & suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the e Saviour of all men, especially of those that believe.

11 These things command & teach.

12 Let no man despise thy youth, but be thou an * example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

13 Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

REbuke not an elder, but intreat him as a father, and the younger men as brethren:

2 The elder women as mothers, the younger as sisters with all † purity.

3 *Honour widows that are widows indeed.

4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to shew * piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God.

5 Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth * in supplications, and prayers night and day.

6 But she that liveth *in pleasure, is dead while she liveth.

7 And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless.

8 But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own * house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.

9 Let not a widow be * taken into the number, under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man.

10 Well reported of for good works, if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed the saints feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.

CHAP. I.

Paul's charge to Timothy.

PAul an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will of God, according to the promise of life, which is in Christ Jesus.

2 To Timothie my dear a beloved son: grace, mercy, and Peace from God the Father, and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 I thank God whom I serve from my forefathers with † pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day.

4 Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindfull of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance, that thou † stir up the a gift of God which is in thee, by the putting on of my hands:

7 For God hath not given us the spirit of fear, but of power, of love, and of a sound mind.

8 Be not therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God;

9 Who hath saved us, & called us with an holy calling, & not according to our works, but according to his own purpose & grace, which was given us, in Christ Jesus, before the † world began,

10 But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who a hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.

11 b Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles,

12 For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless, I am not ashamed, for I know whom I have *believed, and I am perswaded, that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.

13 Hold fast the form of † sound words which thou hast heard of me, in faith and love, which is in Christ Jesus.

14 That good thing which was c committed unto thee, keep by the holy Ghost which dwelleth in us.

15 This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia be turned away from me, of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord give mercy unto the house of Onesiphorus, for he oft * refreshed me, and was not ashamed of d my chain,

17 But when he was in Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me,

18 The Lord grant unto him, that he may find mercy of the Lord in that day: and in how many things he ministred unto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

CHAP. II.

Timothy exhorteth to perseverance,

THou therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

2 And the things that thou hast heard of me * among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.

3 Thou therefore endure * hardness as a good souldier of Jesus Christ.

4 No man that warreth, † intangleth himself with the affairs of this life, that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a souldier.

5 And if a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned except he strive lawfully.

6 †The husband man that laboureth must be first partaker of the fruits.

7 Consider what I say, and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jesus Christ of the seed of David, was raised from the dead, according to my gospel:

9 Wherein I suffer trouble as an evil doer, even unto bonds: but the word of God is a not bound.

10 Therefore I endure all things for the elects sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.

11 It is a faithful saying: for if we be a dead with him, we shall also live with him:

12 If we b suffer, we shal also reign with him, if we c deny him, he also will deny us.

13 If we believe not, yet he abideth faithfull; he cannot deny himself.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord, that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers.

15 Study to shew thy self approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, a rightly dividing the word of truth.

16 But shun profane and vain babblings, for they will increase unto more ungodliness.

17 And their word will eat as doth a † c canker, of whom is Hymeneus and Philetus:

¶ The Epistle of Paul to TITUS.

CHAP. I.

For what end Titus was left in Crete.

PAul a a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of Gods elect, and the acknowledging of the truth which is after godliness.

2 ✲ In hope of eternal life, which God that cannot lie, promised ✲ before the world began:

3 But hath in due time manifested his word through preaching, which was committed unto me, according to the commandment of God our Saviour:

4 To Titus mine own son after the common faith, Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour.

5 For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are ✲ wanting, and † ordain elders in every city, as I † had appointed thee.

6 If any be blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithfull children, not accused of riot, or unruly.

7 For a bishop must be blameles, as the steward of God: not self-willed, not soon angry, not ✲ given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre.

8 But a lover of hospitality, a lover of ✲ good men, sober, just, holy, temperate.

9 Holding fast the faithful word, ✲ as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gain-sayers:

10 For there are many unruly and vain talkers, and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision.

11 Whose mouths must be † stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucres sake.

12 One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are always liars, evil beasts, slow-bellies.

13 This witness is true: wherefore rebuke them † sharply, that they may be found in the faith;

14 b Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men that turn from the truth.

15 Unto the c pure all things are pure, but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving, is nothing pure: but even their mind and conscience is defiled.

16 They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, & disobedient, and unto every good work ✲ reprobate.

CHAP. II.

Paul giveth direction unto Titus.

BUt speak thou the things which become sound doctrine:

2 That the aged men be ✲ sober, grave temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience.

3 The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh ✲ holiness, not ✲ false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things.

4 That they may teach the young women to be ✲ sober, to love their husbands, to love their children.

5 To be discreet, chast, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

6 Young men likewise exhort to be ✲ sober-minded.

7 In all things shewing thy self a pattern of good works, in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity,

8 Sound speech that cannot be condemned, that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.

9 Exhort a servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well in all things, not ✲ answering again:

10 Not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity, that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

11 For the grace of God ✲ that bringeth salvation, b hath appeared to all men, 12 Teaching us that denying c ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world.

13 a Looking for that blessed hope and the glorious appearing of the great God, and our Saviour Jesus Christ.

14 Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purifie unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

15 These things speak and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

CHAP. III.

To reject obstinate hereticks.

PUt them in mind to be a subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work.

2 To speak evil of no man, to be no † brawlers, but gentle, shewing all meekness unto all men.

3 For we our b selves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.

4 But after that the kindness and ✲ love of God our Saviour toward man appeared,

5 c Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the d washing of regeneration, and renewing of the holy Ghost.

6 Which he shed on us † abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

7 That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

8 This is a faithfull saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God, might be careful to † maintain

7 For we have great joy and consolation in thy love, because the bowels of the Saints are * refreshed by thee, brother.

8 Wherefore, though I might be much bold in Christ to enjoyn thee that which is convenient:

9 Yet for loves sake I rather beseech thee, being such a one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ.

10 I beseech thee e for my son † Onesimus, whom I have begotten in my bonds.

11 Who in time past was to thee unprofitable: but now profitable to thee and to me:

12 Whom I have sent again: thou therefore receive him, that is mine a own bowels.

13 Whom I would have retained with me, that in thy stead he might have ministred unto me in the bonds of the gospel.

14 But without thy mind would I do nothing, that thy benefit should not be, as it were of necessity, * but willingly.

15 For perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receive him for b ever.

16 Not now as a servant, * but above a servant, a brother beloved, especially to me, but how much more unto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord?

17 If thou count me therefore a partner, receive him as * my self.

18 If he hath wronged thee, or oweth thee ought, put that on mine account.

19 I Paul have written it with mine own hand, I will repay it: † albeit I do not say to thee, how thou owest unto me even thine own self besides.

20 Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee in the Lord: refresh my bowels in the Lord.

21 Having confidence in thy obedience, I wrote unto thee, knowing that thou wilt also do more than I say.

22 But withal prepare me also a lodging: for I trust that through your prayers I shal be given unto you.

23 There salute thee Epaphras my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus.

24 * Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas, Lucas, my fellow labourers.

25 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

CHAP. I.

Christ preferred before angels. &c.

GOd, who at † sundry times, and in a divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets.

2 Hath in these b last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds.

3 c Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high,

4 Being made so much better than the angels as he hath by inheritance obtained a † more excellent name than they.

5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time, Thou art my son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, b I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son.

6 And again, when he bringeth in the c first begotten into the world, he saith, And let all the angels of God worship him.

7 And of the angels he saith, Who a maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a * scepter of righteousness is the scepter of thy kingdom.

9 Thou hast loved righteousness & hated iniquity, therefore God even thy God hath anointed thee with the oyl of gladness above thy fellows.

10 And b thou Lord in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the works of thine hands.

CHAP. II,

We muſt be obedient unto Chriſt.

THerefore we ought to give the more earneſt heed to the things which we have heard, leſt at any time we ſhould † let them † ſlip.

2 For if the word ſpoken by angels was ſted faſt, and every tranſgreſſion and diſobedience received, a a juſt recompenſe of reward:

3 How ſhal we eſcape, if we neglect ſo great ſalvation, which at the firſt began to be ſpoken by the Lord: and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him.

4 God alſo bearing them witneſs, both with ſigns and wonders, & with divers miracles, and * gifts of the holy Ghoſt, according to his own will.

5 For unto the angels hath he not put in ſubjection the world to come whereof we ſpeak.

6 But one in a certain place teſtified, ſaying, b what is man, that thou art mindful of him: or the ſon of man that thou viſiteſt him.

7 Thou madeſt him, a * little lower than the angels: thou crowneſt him with glory and honour, and didſt ſet him over the works of thy hands.

8 Thou haſt put all things in ſubjection under his feet: For in that he put all in ſubjection under him, he left nothing that is not c put under him. But now we ſee not yet al things put under him.

9 But we ſee Jeſus, who was made a little lower than the angels, † for the ſuffering of death, crowned with glory and honour, that he by the d grace of God ſhould taſte death for every man.

10 For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many ſons unto glory, to make the * captain of their ſalvation perfect through ſufferings.

11 For both he that a ſanctifieth, and they who are ſanctified, are all of one: for which cauſe he is not aſhamed to call them brethren,

12 Saying, I will declare thy Name unto my brethren, in the midſt of the church will I ſing praiſe unto thee.

13 And again, b I will put my truſt in him: and again, c Behold, I, and the children which God hath given me.

14 Foraſmuch then as the children are partakers of fleſh and blood, he alſo himſelf likewiſe took part of the ſame, that through death, he might deſtroy him that had the d power of death, that is the devil.

15 And deliver them, who through fear of death were all their life time ſubject to bondage.

16 For verily * he took not on him the nature of angels: but he took on him the ſeed of Abraham.

17 Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren that he might be a merciful and faithful high prieſt, in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the ſins of the people.

18 For in that he himſelf hath ſuffered, being e tempted, he is f able to ſuccour them that are tempted.

CHAP. III.

Chriſt is more excellent than Moſes.

WHerefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heaveniy calling, conſider the apoſtle and high prieſt of our profeſſion Chriſt Jeſus.

2 Who was faithful to him that † appointed him, as alſo Moſes was faithful in all b his houſe.

3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moſes, in aſmuch as he who hath builded the houſe hath more honour than the houſe.

4 For every houſe is builded by ſome man: but he that built all things is God.

5 And Moſes verily was faithful in all his houſe, as a ſervant, for a teſtimony of thoſe things which were to be * ſpoken after.

6 But Chriſt as a Son over his own houſe, * whoſe houſe are we, if we hold faſt the confidence, and the rejoycing of that hope firm unto the end.

7 Wherefore as the holy ghoſt ſaith, c To day if ye will hear his voice,

8 d Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderneſs.

9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and ſaw my works fourty years.

10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and ſaid, They do alway erre in their hearts, and they have not known my ways.

11 So I ſware in my wrath, † They ſhal not enter into my reſt.

12 Take heed brethren, leſt there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God

13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day, leſt any of you be hardned through the a deceitfulneſs of ſin.

14 For we are made partakers of Chriſt, if we hold the begining of our confidence ſted faſt unto the end.

15 While it is ſaid, To day if b ye will hear his voice, hearden not your hearts as in the provocation.

16 For ſome when they had heard did provok: howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Moſes.

17 But with whom was he grieved fourty years? was it not with them that had ſinned, whoſe c carkaſes fell in the wilderneſs?

18 And to whom ſware he, that they ſhould not enter into his reſt, † but to them that believed not?

19 So we ſee that they could not enter in, becauſe of unbelief.

CHAP. IV.

The Chriſtians reſt is by faith.

LEt us therefore a fear, leſt a promiſe being left us of entring into his reſt, any of you ſhould ſeem to come ſhort of it.

2 For unto us was the goſpel preached as well as unto them: but † the b word preached did not profit them,

3 For we which have believed, do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shal enter into my rest, although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise: And c God did rest the seventh day from all his works.

5 And in this place again, If they shal enter into my rest.

6 Seing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom * it was first preached entred not in because of unbelief.

7 Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To day, after so long a time: as it is said, To day, if ye will hear his voyce, harden not your hearts.

8 For if * Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.

9 There remaineth therefore a * rest to the people of God.

10 For he that is entred into his rest, he also hath ceased from his d own works, as God did from his.

11 Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of † unbelief.

12 For the word of God is quick and powerful, and sharper than any two edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joynts and marrow, and is a * discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

13 Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight; but all things are naked & open unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

14 Seing then that we have a great high priest that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.

15 For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities: but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet b without sin.

16 Let us therefore come * boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help † in time of need.

CHAP. V.

Not to fall from the faith.

For every high priest, taken from among men, is * ordained for men in things pertaining to God; that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins.

2 Who * can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way, for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity:

3 And by reason hereof he ought as for the people, so also for a himself to offer for sin.

4 And b no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

5 So also Christ glorified not himself, to be made an high priest: but he that said unto him, Thou art my Son, to day have I begotten thee.

6 As he saith also in another place, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

7 Who in the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications, with strong crying and tears unto him that was able to save him from death, and was heard * in that he feared.

8 Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered;

9 And being made perfect, he became the Author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him.

10 Called of God an high priest after the order of Melchisedick.

11 Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seing ye are dull of hearing.

12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God, and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat.

13 For every one that useth milk, is † unskilful in the word of righteousness; for he is a babe.

14 For strong meat belongeth to them that are * of full age, even those who by reason * of use have their senses exercised d to discern both good and evil.

CHAP. VI.

The authority of Christs priesthood.

Therefore leaving the * principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection, not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, & of faith towards God.

2 Of the doctrine of * baptismes, and of laying on of hands, and of a resurrection of the dead, and of b eternal judgement.

3 And this will we do if God permit.

4 For it is d impossible for those who were once enlightned, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the f holy ghost,

5 And have tasted the g good word of God, and the h powers of the world to come,

6 If they shal fall away, to renew them again unto repentance: seing g they crucifie to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open k shame.

7 For the i earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them * by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God.

8 But that which beareth thorns and briers, is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing, whose end is to be burned.

9 But beloved, we are perswaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.

10 For God is not k unrighteous, to forget your work and l labour of love which ye have shewed toward his Name, in that ye have ministred to the Saints, and do minister.

11 And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence, to the full assurance of hope unto the end.

12 That ye be not slothful, but followers of them, who through faith and patience, inherit the promises.

13 For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, he sware by himself,

CHAP. VII.

Christ's priesthood above Aarons

FOr this a Melchisedec king of *Salem, priest of the most high God who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, & blessed him.

a Gen: 14, 18. Called Jerusalem. Esa: 22, 1. Jer. 23, 9. Dan' 9 24 * The Syriac translateth of whom neither father nor mother are written in the genealogie

2 To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all: first being by interpretation *king of righteousness: and after that also king of Salem, which is king of peace.

3 * Without father, without mother, † without descent, having neither beginning of daies, nor end of life: but made like unto the son of God, abideth a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils

5 And verily they that are the sons of Levi, who received the office of the priest hood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham.

† Gr. without pedigree a Num: 2, 21. † Gr. pedigree b Gal: 3, 16. & Or. translated taken away Or. translation Heb: 12, 29. † Gr. unlosable.

6 But he whose † descent is not counted from them, received tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the b promises.

7 And without all contradiction, the less is blessed of the better.

8 And here men that die, receive tithes: but there he receiveth them, of whom it is witnessed that he liveth.

9 And as I may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham;

10 For he was yet in the loins of his father when Melchisedec met him

11 If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people received the law) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron?

12 For the priesthood being * changed, there is made of necessity a * change also of the law.

13 For he of whom these things are spoken, pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.

14 For it is evident that our Lord sprang out of Judah, of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning the priesthood:

15 And it is far more evident: for that after the similitude of Melchisedec, there ariseth another priest.

16 Who is made not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an * endless life.

17 For he testifieth, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

18 For there is verily a disanulling of the commandment going before, for the weakness and unprofitableness thereof.

19 For the law made nothing perfect, * but the bringing in of a better hope did, by the which we draw nigh unto God.

20 And in as much as not without an oath he was made priest.

21 (For those priests were made * without an oath, but this with an oath, by him that said unto him * The Lord sware, and will not repent, thou art a priest for ever, after the order of Melchisedec.)

22 By so much was Jesus made a surety of a better testament,

23 And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death.

24 But this man because he continueth ever, hath an * unchangeable priest-hood.

25 Wherefore he is able also to save them * to the uttermost, that come unto God by him, seing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.

26 For such an high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens.

27 Who needeth not daily, as those a high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the peoples: for this he did b once, when he offered up himself.

28 For the law maketh men high priests, which have infirmitie, but the word of the oath which was since the law, maketh the Son, who is † consecrated for evermore.

Or, in dissolvable Rev: 11, 28 John 6, 18 Or, but it was the beginning to Or, without swearing of another * Psal. 110, 4. Or, which passeth not from one to another * Or a never-more-alter b Gen: 10: 10. Gr. perfected.

CHAP. VIII.

The Levitical priesthood abolished.

NOw of the things which we have spoken, this is the * sum: We have such an high priest, who is a set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens;

2 A minister of the * sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.

3 For every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.

4 For if he were on earth he should not be a priest, seing that * there are priests that offer gifts according to the law.

5 Who serve unto the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was * admonished of God, when he was about to make the tabernacle. For see (saith he) that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now hath he obtained a more excellent ministery, by how much also he is the b Mediatour of a better * covenant, which was established upon c better promises.

been sought for the second.

8 For finding fault with them, he saith, a Behold, the days come (saith the Lord) when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and the house of Judah.

9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt, because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord, * I will † put my laws into their mind, and write them † in their hearts, and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people.

11 And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, & every man his brother, saying know the Lord: For all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

12 For I will be a merciful to their unrighteousnes, & their sins, & their iniquities will I remember no more.

13 In that he said, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old, is ready to † vanish away.

CHAP. IX.

The rites of the law inferiour to Christ.

Then verily the first covenant had also * ordinances of divine service and a worldly sanctuary.

2 For there was a tabernacle made, the first wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the shew-bread, which is called the * sanctuary.

3 And after the second vail, the tabernacle which is called the † holiest of all.

4 Which had the * golden censer, and the ark of the covenant, overlaid round about with gold, wherein was the a golden pot that had manna, and b Aarons rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant.

5 And over it the Cherubims c of glory shadowing the Mercy-seat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus ordained, the priest went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God.

7 But into the second went the high priest alone once every year, not without blood which he offered for himself, and for the errours of the people

8 The holy ghost this signifying, that the way unto the Holiest of all was not made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing:

9 which was a figure for the time then present, * in which were offered both gifts, and sacrifices that could not make him that did the service d perfect, as pertaining to the conscience.

10 Which stood onely in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and * carnal ordinances imposed on them until the e time of reformation.

11 But Christ being come an high priest of good things to come by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building.

12 Neither by the blood of goats & calves, but by his own blood he entred in once into the Holy place, having obtained eternall redemption for us.

13 For if the blood of bulls and of goats, & the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth, to the Purifying of the flesh.

14 How much more shall the blood of Christ who through the eternal Spirit, offered himself without † spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works, to serve the living God.

15 And for this cause he is the Mediatour of the new testament, that by means of death for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament: they which are called might receive the promise of eternal Inheritance.

16 For where a * testament is, there must also of necessity * be the a death of the Testatour.

17 For a testament is of force * after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all whilest the testatour liveth.

18 Whereupon neither the first testament was † dedicated without blood.

19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves, and of b goats with water, and * scarlet wooll, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people,

20 Saying, This is the blood of the testament which God hath * enjoyned unto you.

21 Moreover he sprinkled likewise with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministery.

22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood: and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was therefore necessary that the paterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these, but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

24 For Christ is not entred into the holy places made with hands which are the * figures of the true, but into heaven it self, now to appear in the presence of God for us.

25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entreth into the Holy place, every year with blood of others.

26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in the end of the world, hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

27 And as it is d appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgement:

28 So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many and unto them that f look for him shall he appear the second time without sin, unto salvation.

CHAP. X.

The weakness of the law sacrifices.

For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the * very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually, make the comers thereunto perfect.

2 For then would they not have ceased to be offered, because that the worshippers once purged, should have had no more conscience of sins?

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of b sins every year.

4 For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should c take away sin.

5 Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body ✻ hast thou prepared me.

6 In burnt-offerings and sacrifices for sin, thou hast had no pleasure:

7 Then said I a Lo, I come, (in the ✻ volume of the book it is written of me) to do thy will, O God:

8 Above when he said, Sacrifice, and offering, and burnt offerings, and offerings for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein, which are offered ✻ by the law.

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will (O God:) He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

11 And every priest b standeth daily ministring & offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins.

12 But this man after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God.

13 From thenceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

15 Whereof the holy Ghost also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before,

16 This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord: I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;

17 And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

19 Having therefore, brethren, ✻ boldness to enter into the holiest, by the blood of Jesus,

20 By a new and living way which he hath ✻ consecrated for us, through the vail, that is to say, d his flesh:

21 And having an high priest over the house of God.

22 Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water.

23 Let us hold fast the profession of our † faith without wavering, (for he is faithful that promised.)

24 And let us consider one another to provoke unto love, and to good works:

25 Not forsaking the assembling of our selves together, as the manner of some is: but exhorting one another and so much the more as ye see the day approaching.

26 For if we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins,

27 But a certain fearful looking for of judgment, and † fiery indignation which shall devour the e adversaries.

28 He that f despised Moses law died without mercy under two or three witnesses.

29 Of how much sorer punishment suppose ye shall he be thought worthy who hath g trodden under foot the son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an † unholy thing, and hath done h despite unto the spirit of grace?

30 For we know him that hath said, e vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord: and again, The Lord shall judge his people.

31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the i hands of the living God.

32 But call to remembrance the former days, in which after ye were e illuminated, ye endured a great fight of afflictions;

33 Partly whilest ye were made a ✻ gazing stock, both by reproaches, and afflictions, and partly whilest ye became companions of them that were so used.

34 For ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in your selves that ye have in heaven a better, and an enduring substance.

35 Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompense of reward.

36 For ye have need of patience, that after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise:

37 For yet a little while, and he that shall come, will come, and will not tarry.

38 Now the h just shall live by faith but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him.

39 But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition; but of them that believe, to the saving of the soul.

CHAP. XI.

The nature and efficacy of faith.

NOw faith is the ✻ substance of things hoped for, the ✻ evidence of things not seen.

2 For by it the elders obtained a † good report.

3 Through faith we understand that the a worlds were framed by the b word of God, so that things which are seen, were not made of things which do appear.

4 By faith c Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Kain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead, † yet speaketh.

5 By faith Enoch was translated, that he should not see death, and was not found, because God had translated him: For before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

6 But d without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God, must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

7 By faith e Noah being warned of God of things not seen as yet, ✻ moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house, by the which he condemned the world and became heir of the † righteousness which is by faith.

8 By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed, and he went out, not knowing † whither he went.

9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in *tabernacles with Isaac, and Jacob, the heirs with him, of the same promise.

10 For he looked for a city which hath a foundations whose builder, and maker is God.

11 Through faith also Sara, her self received strength to conceive seed, & was delivered of a child when she was † past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised:

12 Therefore sprang there even of one, and him as good as b dead, so many as the c stars of the skie in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.

13 These all died † in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were perswaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers, and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things declare plainly that they seek a country.

15 And truly if they had been mindfull of the country, from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned.

16 But now they desire a better country, that is, an d heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called e their God; for he hath † prepared for them a city.

17 By faith Abraham when he was tried, offered up Isaac: and he that had received the promises, offered up his onely begotten son.

18 * Of whom it was said, That in Isaac shall thy seed be called.

19 * Accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a † figure.

20 By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.

21 By faith Iacob when he was a dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph, & worshipped leaning upon the * top of his staffe.

22 By faith Joseph when he died, † made mention of the departing of the children of Israel, and gave commandment concerning his bones.

23 By faith Moses when he was born, was hid three moneths of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child, and they not afraid of the kings commandment.

24 By faith Moses when he was † come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaohs daughter,

25 Chusing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season,

26 Esteeming the reproach † of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompense of the reward.

27 By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible.

28 Through faith he * keept the passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the first born should a touch them.

29 By faith they b passed thorow the red sea, as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to do, were drowned.

30 By faith the c walls of Jericho fell down, after they were compassed about seven days.

31 By faith the d harlot Rahab perished not with them * that believed not, when she had received the spies with peace.

32 And what shal I more say? For the time would fail me to tell of Gideon, and of Barak, and of Samson, and of Jephthah, of David also, and Samuel, and of the prophets.

33 Who through faith e subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, g stopped the mouths of lions.

34 h Quenched the violence of fire, i escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens,

35 l Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were * tortured, not excepting deliverance that they might obtain a better resurrection.

36 And others had trial of cruel m mockings, & scourgings, yea moreover, of bonds and imprisonment.

37 They were stoned, they were sawen asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandred about in sheep skins, and goat-skins, being destitute, afflicted, tormented.

38 Of whom the world was not worthy: they wandred in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens, and caves of the earth.

39 And these all having obtained a good report through faith, received n not the promise, 40 God having * provided some better things for us, that they without us should not be made perfect.

CHAP. XII.

An exhortation to faith and patience.

WHerefore seing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us † lay aside every weight, & the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us.

2 Looking unto Jesus the b † author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him, endured the crosse, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be c wearied, and faint in your minds.

4 Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin,

5 And ye have forgotten the exhortation, which speaketh unto you as unto children, My son, dispise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him.

6 For a whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

CHAP. I.

We must rejoice under the cross of Christ

JAmes a servant of God, and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting.
2 My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations.
3 b Knowing this that the trying of your faith, worketh patience.
4 But let patience have her c perfect work, d that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.
5 If any of you lack wisdom, let him e ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not: and it shall be given him.
6 But let him ask in faith, nothing f wavering, for he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea, driven with the winds, and tossed.
7 For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.
8 A double minded man is unstable in all his ways.
9 Let the brother of low degree rejoyce in that he is exalted.
10 But the rich in that he is made low, g because as the flower of the grass, he shal pass away.
11 For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth; so also shal the rich man fade away in his ways.
12 c Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is d tryed, he shal receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.
13 Let no man e say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with * evil: neither g tempteth he any man.
14 But every man is tempted when he is h drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.
15 Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin, and sin when it is finished, bringeth forth death.
16 Do not err, my beloved brethren.
17 Every good gift, and every perfect gift is i from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no k variableness, neither shadow of turning.
18 Of his own will begat he us, with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first fruits of his creatures.
19 Wherefore my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, n slow to speak, n slow to wrath.
20 For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.
21 Wherefore † laying asi de all filthiness, and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the ingraffed word, which is able to save your souls.
22 But be ye o doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.
23 For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass.
24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.
25 But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shal be blessed in his * deed.
26 If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this mans religion is vain.
27 Pure religion, and undefiled before God, and the Father, is this, to visit the fatherless, and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the p world.

CHAP. II.

Regard not the rich.

MY brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ the Lord of a glory with b respect of persons.
2 For if there come unto your † assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come ain also a poor man in vile raiment.
3 And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here * in a good place: and say to the poor, Stand thou there? or sit here under my footstool:
4 Are ye not then partial in your selves, and are become * judges of evil thoughts?
5 Hearken, my beloved brethren: Hath not God c chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of * the kingdom, which he hath promised to them that love him?
6 But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment seats?
7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy Name † by the which ye are called?
8 If ye fulfill the royal law, according to the scripture: Thou shalt d love thy neighbour as thy self, ye do well.
9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law, as transgressours.
10 For whosoever shal keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.

16 And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be you warmed and filled: notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body: what doth it profit?

17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being † alone.

18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith † without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

19 Thou believest that there is one God, thou doest wel: the devils also believe and tremble.

20 But wilt thou know, O vain man that faith without works is dead

21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his sonne on the altar?

22 * Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect:

23 And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, * Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousnes: and he was called, The a friend of God.

24 Ye seethen how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only 25 Like wise, also was not c Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out an other way?

26 For as the body without the * spirit is d dead, so faith without works is dead also.

MY brethren, be not many a masters, knowing that we shal receive the greater † condemnation.

2 For in many things we b offend all: If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

3 Behold, we put bits in the horses mouths, that they may obey us, and we turn about their whole body.

4 Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very smal helm whithersoever the governour listeth.

5 Even so the tongue is a little member, and c boasteth great things: behold, how great a * matter a little fire kindleth.

6 And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity, so is the tongue amongst our members that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature, and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For every † kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of † mankind.

8 But the tongue can no man tame, it is an unruly evil, d full of deadly poison.

9 Therewith bless we God, even the Father: and therewith curse we men which are made after the e similitude of God:

10 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing: my brethren these things ought not so to be.

11 Doth a fountain send forth at the same † place, sweet water & bitter

12 Can the fig-tree, my brethren bear olive berries? neither a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt-water and fresh.

13 Who is a wise man, and endued with knowledge among st you? let him shew out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom.

14 But if ye have bitter † envying, and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth.

15 This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is f earthly, † g sensual, b devilish.

16 For where envying and strife is, there is † confusion, and every evil work.

17 But the wisdom that is from above, is first b pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easie to be intreated, full of mercy, and good fruits, † without partiality, & without hypocrisie.

18 And the fruit of righteousnes is sown in peace of them that make peace.

11 Behold, we account them happy which endure. Ye have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the a end of the Lord: that the Lord is very † pitiful, and of tender mercy.

12 But above all things, my brethren b swear not neither by heaven, neither by the earth; neither by any other oath: but let your yea, be yea, and your nay, nay: c lest ye fall into † condemnation.

13 Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? let him sing psalms

14 Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him anointing him with oil in the Name of the Lord:

15 And the prayer of faith shal save the sick, and the Lord shal raise him up: and if he have committed sins they shal be forgiven them.

16 f Confess your faults one to another, & pray one for another, that ye may be healed: the effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

f Gen. 19. 25, 36 6 And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto them that after should live ungodly.
7 And delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked

8 (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing, and hearing, g vexed his righteous soul from day to day, with their unlawful deeds.)

9 The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly h out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished.

10 But chiefly them that walk after the flesh, in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government. * presumptuous are they self-willed, they are not afraid to speak evil of † dignities.

11 Whereas angels, which are greater in power & might, bring not a railing accusation against them before the Lord.

12 But these, as natural brute beasts, k made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not, and shall utterly perish in their own corruption;

13 And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it a pleasure to l riot in the day time: spots they are, and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings, while they feast with you.

14 Having eyes full of * adultery, and that cannot cease from sin: beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practises: † cursed children:

15 Which have forsaken the right way, & are gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness.

16 But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass speaking with mans voice, forbade the madness of the prophet.

17 These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest, to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.

18 For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were * † clean escaped from them who live in errour.

19 While they d promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

20 For if after they have † escaped the pollutions of the world, through the † knowledge of the Lord, & Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again intangled therein, and overcome, the e latter end is worse with them than the beginning.

21 For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them.

22 But it is happened unto them according to the true f proverb, The dog is turned to his own vomit again, and the sow that was washed, to her wallowing in the mire.

CHAP. III.

Christs coming to judgment.

THis second epistle (beloved) I now write unto you; in both which I stir up your * pure minds by way of † remembrance.

2 That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, & of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord & Saviour.

3 Knowing this first, that there shall come in the a last days b scoffers, walking after their own lusts,

4 And saying, c where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell a-sleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God, the heavens were of old, & the earth * standing out of the water, and in the water:

6 Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished:

7 But the heavens and the earth which are now, * by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment, and perdition of ungodly men.

8 But (beloved) d be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

9 The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, (as some men count slackness) but is long-suffering to us-ward: not willing e that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

10 But the day of the Lord will come as f a thief in the night, in the which the heaven shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burnt up.

11 Seing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all † holy conversation and godliness,

12 * Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat.

13 Nevertheless, we, a according to his promise, look for new heavens, and a new earth wherein dwelleth righteousness.

14 Wherefore (beloved) seing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him b in peace, c without spot, and blameless.

15 And account that the d long-suffering of the Lord is salvation, even as our beloved brother Paul also, according to the wisdom given unto him, hath written unto you.

16 As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things, in which are some things hard to be understood † which they that are unlearned & unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures unto their own destruction.

17 Ye therefore, beloved, seing ye know these things before, e beware lest † ye also being led away with the errour of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness.

18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ: to him be glory both now † and for ever. Amen.

CHAP. I.

An exhortation to holiness of life.

THat which was a from the beginning, b which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our † hands have handled of the word of life

† Gr. touched

2 (For the life was manifested, and c we have seen it, and bear witness, and shew unto you, that eternal life which was with the Father, and was d manifested unto us.)

3 That which we have seen and heard, declare we unto you, that ye also e may have fellowship with us, and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.

4 And these things write we unto you, that your † joy may be full.

5 This then is the message which we have † heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

6 If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth.

7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son c cleanseth us from all sin.

8 If we say that we have a no sin, we deceive our selves, and the truth is not in us.

9 If we confess our sins, he is b faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his c word is not in us.

CHAP. II.

Christ our advocate, &c.

MY * little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man b sin, we have an Advocate c with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous.

2 And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the d whole world.

3 And hereby we do know that we know him, e if we keep his commandments.

4 He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the * love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him.

6 He that saith he abideth in him, ought himself also so to walk even a as he walked.

7 Brethren, I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment which ye had from the beginning. the old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.

8 Again a b new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him, and in you: because the c darkness is past, and the d true light now shineth.

9 He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now.

10 He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of † stumbling in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother, is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.

12 I write unto you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you e for his names sake.

13 I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning: I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one: I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the father.

14 I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning: I have written unto you young men, because ye are strong, & the word of God abideth in you, & ye have overcome the wicked one.

15 b Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 * For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And the † world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doth the will of God, abideth for ever.

18 Little children, it is the † last time: and as ye have heard that Antichrist shal come, even now are there * many antichrists, whereby we know that it is the last time.

19 They went out from us, but they were † not of us: for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out that they might be made manifest, that they were not all of us.

20 But ye have m an unction from the holy One, and ye shal know all things.

21 I have n not written unto you, because ye know not the truth: but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 Who is a liar, but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist that denieth the Father & the Son.

23 Whosoever a denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father; * but he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also.

24 Let that therefore abide in you, which ye have heard from the beginning: if that which ye have heard from the beginning shal remain in you, ye also shal continue in the Son, and in the Father.

25 And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life.

26 These things b have I written unto you, concerning them that seduce you.

27 But the anointing which ye have received of him, abideth in you: and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shal abide in * him.

28 And now, little children abide in him; that when he shal appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

29 If * ye know that he is righteous, * ye know that every one which doth righteousness, is born of him.

CHAP. III.

Gods love in making us his sons.

BEhold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not: because it knew him not.

2 Beloved, a now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shal be: but we know that when he shal appear, we shal be b like him: for we shal see him as he is.

3 And every man that hath this hope * in him, purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

4 Whosoever committeth sin, c transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law.

6 Whosoever abideth in him, g sinneth not: whosoever sinneth, hath not seen him, neither knowen him.

7 Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doth righteousnes, is h righteous, even as he is righteous.

8 He that commiteth sin, is of the devil: for the devil sinneth from the beginning: for this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.

9 Whosoever is born of God, doth not commit sin: for his seed remaineth in him, and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.

10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doth not righteousnes, is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.

11 For this is the * message that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another.

12 Not as Cain, who was of that a wicked one, and b slew his brother: and wherefore slew he him? because his own works were evil, and his brothers righteous.

13 d Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you.

14 We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren: (he that loveth not his brother abideth in death)

15 Whosoever hateth his brother, is a murderer, and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.

16 Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

17 But whoso hath this g worlds good, and seeth his brother hath need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, h how dwelleth the love of God in him?

18 My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue, but in deed and in truth.

19 And hereby we know that we are of the truth: and shal † assure our hearts i before him.

20 For if our heart condemn us, God is k greater than our heart, and l knoweth all things.

21 Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence towards God.

22 And m whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

23 And this is his commandment, that we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, n as he gave us commandment.

Not to believe all teachers, &c.

BEloved, believe not every spirit, but a try the spirits, whether they are of God: because b many false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, is of God.

3 And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God: and this is that spirit of Antichrist, whereof you have heard, that it should come, and even now already it is in the world.

4 * Ye are of God little children, and have overcome them, because greater is he that is in you, than he that is a in the world.

5 They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them.

6 We are of God, he that knoweth God, c heareth us: he that is not of God, heareth not us: Hereby know we the Spirit of truth, and the spirit of errour.

7 Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God: and every one that loveth, is born of God, & knoweth God.

8 He that loveth not, knoweth not God: for God is love.

9 In this was manifested the love of God towards us, because that God f sent his * only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.

10 Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, & sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

12 No man hath seen God at any time, if we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us.

13 Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.

14 And b we have seen, and do testifie, that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.

15 Whosoever shal i confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

16 And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love, and he that dwelleth in love, dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is † our love made perfect, that we may * have boldness in the day of judgment, because as he is, k so are we in the world.

18 There is no fear in love, but perfect love casteth our fear, because fear hath torment: he that feareth is not made perfect in love.

19 We love him, because he first loved us.

20 If any man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar. For he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?

21 And l this commandment have we from him, that he who loveth God: loveth his brother also.

6 This is he that came by water & blood, even Jesus Christ, not by water only, but by water and blood: and it is the Spirit that a beareth witness, because the spirit is truth.

7 For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, & the holy Ghost: and these three are one.

8 And there are three that bear witness in earth, the Spirit, & the water, & the Blood: and these three † agree in one

9 If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God, which he hath testified of his Son.

10 He that believeth on the Son of God, hath the witness in himself, and he that believeth not God, hath made him a liar, because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son.

11 And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life: and this life is in his Son.

12 He that hath the Son, g hath life: and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life.

13 a These things have I written unto you that believe on the Name of the Son of God, that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the Name of the Son of God.

14 And this is the confidence that we have * in him, that if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us.

15 And if we know that he hear us whatsoever we ask, we know that we have b the petitions that we desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, a he shal ask & he shal give him life for them that sin not unto death: * there is a sin unto death: I do not say that he shal pray for it.

17 All unrighteousness is sin, and there is a sin not unto death.

18 We know that whatsoever is born of God, sinneth not: but he that is begotten of God, keepeth himself, and that e wicked one toucheth f him not

19 And we know that we are of God, & the whole world lieth in wickedness.

20 And we know that the Son of God is come, & hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true: and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. b This is the true God, & eternal life.

¶ The second Epistle of JOHN.

THe Elder unto the a elect Ladie, and her children, whom I love in the truth: and not I only, but also all they that have known the truth

2 For the truth sake which dwelleth in us, and shal be with us c for ever:

3 Grace be with you, mercy, and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the d Son of the Father, in truth and love.

4 I rejoyced greatly, that I found of thy children walking in the truth as we have received a commandment from the Father.

5 And now I e beseech thee, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that which we had from the beginning, that we f love one another.

6 And * this is love, that we walk a after his commandments. This is the commandment, that as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it.

7 For many b deceivers are entred into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh: This is a deceiver, and an Antichrist

8 Look to your selves, that we lose not those things which we have * wrought, but that we receive a full reward.

9 Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God: he that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son.

10 If there come any unto you, and e bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him, God speed.

11 For he that biddeth him God speed, is partaker of his evil deeds.

12 Having many things to write unto you, I would not write with paper and ink, but I trust to come unto you, and speak † face to face, that our joy may be full.

13 The children of thy elect sister greet thee. Amen.

2 Beloved, I * wish † above all things that thou mayest † prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.

3 For I rejoyced greatly when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as thou walkest in the truth.

4 I have no greater joy, than to hear that my children walk in truth.

5 Beloved, thou doest faithfully whatsoever thou doest to the b brethren, and to strangers;

6 Which have born witness of thy charity before the church: whom if thou bring forward on their journey † after a godly sort, thou shalt do well

7 Because that for his Names sake they went forth, taking nothing of the Gentiles.

8 We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be † fellow helpers to the truth.

9 I wrote unto the church, but Diotrephes who loveth to have the preeminence among them receiveth us not 10 Wherefore if I come, I † will remember his deeds which he doth, † prating against us with malicious words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them that would, and casteth them out of the church.

JUde the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James to them that are sanctified † by God a the Father, and b preserved in Jesus Christ, and called.

2 Mercy unto you, and peace, and love be multiplied.

3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, & exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto c the saints.

4 For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, d turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, & denying the only Lord God, & our Lord Jesus Christ.

5 I will therefore put you a in remembrance, though ye once know this, how that b the Lord having saved his people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not.

6 And the angels which kept not their * † first estate, but left their † own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness, unto the judgment of the great day.

7 Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them, in like manner giving themselves over to fornication, and going after † strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

8 Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion and † speak evil of dignities.

9 Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil, he disputed about the a body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee.

10 But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they b know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they † corrupt themselves.

11 Wo unto them, for they have gone in the way of Kain, and * ran greedily after the errours of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gain-saying of Core.

12 These are spots in your feasts of charity when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; † trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots:

† Gr. autumn trees

13 Raging waves of the sea, foming out their own shame: wandring stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

14 And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten a thousand of his saints.

15 To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them, of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, & of all their hard speeches, which ungodly sinners have spoken b against him.

16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts, and their mouth speaking great swelling words, having mens persons in admiration c because of advantage.

17 But beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ:

18 How that they told you there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own † ungodly lusts.

19 These be they who a separate themselves, sensual, having b not the Spirit.

20 But ye, beloved, c building up your selves on your most holy faith: praying in the holy Ghost.

21 Keep your selves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.

22 And of some a have compassion, making a difference:

23 And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire: hating even the garment spotted by the flesh.

24 Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to † present you faultless before the presence of his glory, with exceeding joy,

15 And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they * burned in a furnace: and his voice as the d sound of many waters.

16 And he had in his e right hand seven stars: and f out of his mouth went a sharp two edged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

8 And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna, write, These things saith the First and the Last, which was dead, and is alive.

9 I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich,) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.

10 i Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a k crown of life.

14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou q hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balak to cast a stumbling block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication.

15 So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate.

2 b Be watchfull, and strengthen the * things which remain, that are † ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

3 Remember therefore, how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast and repent. * If therefore thou shalt not watch, I a will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

4 Thou hast a few names even in Sardis, which have not defiled their garments, and they shal walk with me in white: for they are worthy.

5 He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment, and I will not blot out his name out of the * book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

6 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

7 And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia, write, These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; & shutteth, and no man openeth.

8 I know thy works, Behold, I have set before thee an open door, and b no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.

9 Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie: behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the * word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, d to try them that dwell upon the earth.

11 Behold, I e come quickly, hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.

12 Him that overcometh, will I make a f pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my g new name.

13 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches

14 And unto the angel of the church * of the Laodiceans, write, These things saith the Amen, the faithfull and true witness, the b beginning of the creation of God;

15 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot, I would thou wert cold or hot.

16 So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will † spue thee out of my mouth.

17 Because thou sayest, I am rich, & increased with goods, & have need of nothing: and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked.

18 I counsell thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich, and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear, and anoint thine eyes with eye-salve, that thou mayest † see.

19 * As many as I love, I * rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore & repent

20 Behold, a I stand at the door & knock: if any man hear my voice, & open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, & he with me.

21 To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne; even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

22 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAP. IV.

The elders about the throne worship God.

A Fter this I looked, and behold, a a door was opened in heaven, & the first voice which I heard, was as it were of a trumpet, talking with me, which said, Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter.

2 And immediatly I was in the spirit: and behold, a throne was set in heaven, and b one sat on the throne:

4 And round about the throne were four and twenty seats, and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white raiment, and they had on their heads d crowns of gold.

5 And out of the throne proceeded lightnings, and thundrings, & voices; and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven spirits of God.

AND I saw in the right hand of him that sate on the throne, a book written within, and on the backside, sealed with seven seals.

2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice: a Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?

3 And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to * look thereon.

4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open, & to read the book, neither to look thereon.

5 And * one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, b the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof.

6 And I beheld, and lo, in the midst of the throne, and of the four beasts, and in midst of the elders, stood c a lamb as it d had been slain; having seven horns, and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God, sent forth into all the earth.

7 And he came, and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne.

8 And when he had taken the book the four beasts, and four and twenty elders fell down before the lamb, having every one of them harps, & golden vials full of * odours, which are the prayers of Saints.

9 And they sung a e new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast f redeemed us unto God by thy blood, out of g every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation:

10 * And hast made us unto our God, kings and priests, and h we shal reign on the earth.

11 And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels i round about the throne, & and the beasts, and the elders, and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands,

12 Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the lamb that was slain, to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

13 And l every creature, which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, honour, glory, and power be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever.

2 And I saw, and behold, a a white horse, and he that b sat on him had a bow, and a c crown was given unto him, and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

3 And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 And there went out another horse that was d red: and power was given to him that sate thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another, and there was given unto him a great e sword.

5 And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo a black horse: and he that sat on him had a pair of ballances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, * A measure of wheat for a penny, & three measures of barley for a penny, and see thou hurt not the oyl and the wine.

7 And when he had opened the fourth seal. I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held.

10 And they g cryed with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, doest thou not b judge and avenge our blood on them that † dwell on the earth?

11 And white robes were given unto every one of them, and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellow-servants also and their brethren that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and lo, there was a great earth-quake, and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood.

13 And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig-tree casteth her * untimely figs when she is shaken of a mighty wind.

The ſervants of God ſealed.

AND after theſe things, I ſaw * four angels, ſtanding on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind ſhould not blow on the earth, nor on the ſea, nor on any tree.

2 And I ſaw another angel * aſcending a from the eaſt, having the ſeal of the living God; and he cryed with a b loud voyce to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the ſea,

3 Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the ſea, nor the trees, c till we have ſealed the ſervants of our God in their foreheads.

4 And I heard the number of them which were ſealed, and their were ſealed an hundred and fourty and four thouſand, of d all the tribes of the children of Iſrael:

5 Of the tribe of Judah were ſealed twelve thouſand. Of the tribe of Reuben were ſealed twelve thouſand Of the tribe of Gad were ſealed twelve thouſand.

6 Of the tribe of Aſer were ſealed twelve thouſand. Of the tribe of Nephthaliwere ſealed twelve thouſand. Of the tribe of Manaſſes were ſealed twelve thouſand.

7 Of the tribe of Simeon were ſealed twelve thouſand. Of the tribe of Levi were ſealed twelve thouſand. Of the tribe of Iſachar were ſealed twelve thouſand.

8 Of the tribe of Zabulon were ſealed twelve thouſand, of the tribe of Joſeph were ſealed twelve thouſand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were ſealed twelve thouſand.

9 After this I beheld, and lo a great multitude which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and peoples, & tongues, ſtood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands.

10 And cryed with a * loud voyce, ſaying, b Salvation to our God, which ſitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.

14 And I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sate like unto the Son of man, having on his head a golden crovvn, and in his hand a sharp sickle.

15 And another angel came out of the temple, crying vvith a loud voice to him that sate upon the cloud: * Thrust in thy sickle, and reap, for the time is come for thee to reap, for the harvest of the earth * is ripe.

16 And he that sate on the cloud, thrust in his sickle in the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel came out of the temple which was in heaven, he also having a a sharp sickle.

18 And another angel came out from the altar vvhich had povver over fire, and cryed vvith a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and b gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for her grapes are fully ripe.

19 And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great wine-press of the vvrath of God.

20 And the c wine-press was troden without the city, and blood came out of the vvine-press, even unto the d horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

CHAP. XV.

The seven last plagues.

A Nd I savv another sign in heaven, b great and marvellous, seven c angels having the seven last plagues, for in them is filled up the vvrath of God.

2 And I savv as it vvere a sea of glass mingled with fire, and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God.

4 * Who shal not fear thee, O Lord, and glorifie thy Name? for thou only art holy: for all nations shal come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and behold the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened.

6 And the seven angels came out b of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed f in pure and white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles.

7 And one of the four beasts gave unto the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God: * who liveth for ever, and ever.

8 And the temple was filled with smoak from the glory of God, and from his povver, and no man e vvas able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels vvere fulfilled.

CHAP. XVI.

The angels pour out their Vials of wrath.

A Nd I heard a great voice a out of the temple, saying to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth.

2 And the † first went and poured out his vial upon the earth, and there fell a † noisom and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them vvhich vvorshipped his image.

3 And the second angel poured out his vial b upon the sea, and it became a as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea.

4 And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers & fountains of vvaters, and they became blood.

5 And I heard the angel of the vvaters say, Thou art righteous, O Lord, which art, and vvast, and shalt be, because thou hast d judged thus.

6 For they have shed the blood of saints, and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink, for they are vvorthy.

7 And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so Lord God Almighty, true & righteous are thy judgments.

8 And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun, and povver was given * unto him to scorch men with fire.

9 And men were * scorched with great heat, & blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues, & they repented not, to give him glory.

10 And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast, and his kingdom was full of darkness, and they gnawed their tongues for pain.

11 And blasphemed the God of heaven, because of their pains, and their sores, and repented not of their deeds.

12 And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates, e and the vvater thereof vvas dried up, that the way of the † kings of the east might be prepared.

13 And I savv three unclean spirits like frogs come g out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

14 For they are the spirits of devils working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth, and of the vvhole vvorld, to gather them to the battel of that great day of God Almighty.

The scarlet whore of Babylon.

AND there came * one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither, I will shew unto thee the * judgment of the great a whore, that sitteth upon many waters:

2 With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the b inhabiters of the earth have been made c drunk with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he carried me away in the spirit into the d wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet-coloured beast full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

4 And the woman was arrayed in purple, and scarlet colour, and † decked with gold & precious stone, and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand, full of abominations, and filthiness of her fornication.

5 And upon her forehead was a name written, e MYSTERIE, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE * MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

6 And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the Saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, & of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads, and ten horns.

8 The beast that thou sawest, was and is not, and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition, and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder (whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world) when they behold the beast that was, and is not * and yet is.

9 And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.

10 And there are seven kings, five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come: and when he cometh, he must continue a a short space.

11 And the beast that was and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.

12 And the b ten horns which thou sawest, are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet: but receive power as kings, * one hour with the beast.

13 These have one mind, and shall give their * power and strength unto the beast.

14 These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: * for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings, and they that are with him, are c called, and chosen & faithful.

15 And he saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall * hate the whore, and shall make her desolate, and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and d burn her with fire.

17 For e God hath put in their hearts to fulfill his will, and to agree and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled.

18 And the woman which thou sawest, is that great city which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

CHAP. XVIII.

Babylon fallen.

AND after these things I saw another angel come down * from heaven, having great power, and the earth was lightned with his glory.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, * Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of b devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a c cage of every unclean, and hateful bird.

3 For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the † abundance of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, d saying, Come out of her my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

5 For her sins have † reached unto heaven: and God hath remembred her iniquities.

6 Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double, according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled, fill to her double.

7 How much she hath glorified herself, & lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit * a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine, and she shall be utterly burnt with fire: * for strong is the Lord God who † judgeth her.

9 And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication, and lived deliciously with her, shall b bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoak of her burning,

10 Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city: for in one hour is thy judgment come.

24 And in her was found the blood of prophets and of Saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth.

CHAP. XIX.

Gods judgements righteous, &c.

AND after these things I heard a great voyce of much people in heaven, saying, a Alleluja, b salvation, and glory and honour, and power unto the Lord our God.

2 For true and righteous are his judgements, for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.

3 And again they said, Alleluja: and her smoak rose up for ever and ever.

4 And the four and twenty elders, and the four beasts fell down, & worshipped God that sat upon the throne, saying, Amen, Alleluja.

5 And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great.

6 And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thundrings, saying, Alleluja: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.

7 Let us be glad, and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath † made her self ready.

8 And to her was granted that she should be arayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the † righteousnes of saints.

9 And he saith unto me, Write. * Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God.

10 And I fell at his feet to worship him: and he said unto me, †* See thou do it not: I am thy fellow servant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus, worship God: for the testimony of Jesus, is the spirit of prophecy.

11 And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse, and he that sat upon him was called faithful & true. f and in righteousnes he doth judge and make war.

12 His eyes were as a g flame of fire, and on his head were b many crowns, and he had a name written that i no man knew but himself.

13 * And he was clothed with a vesture d dipt in blood, and his name is called, The word of God.

14 And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

15 And a out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shal rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of almighty God.

16 And he hath on his vesture, and b on his thigh a name written, * KING c OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun, and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that flee in the midst of heaven, * Come and gather your selves together unto the supper of the great God.

18 That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

19 And I saw † the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies gathered together to make war against him that sate on the horse, and against his army.

20 And the beast was taken: and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, & them that worshipped his image. These both were A cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.

21 And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sate upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth; and all the fouls were filled with their flesh.

7 And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison,

8 And shall go out to deceive the nations, which are in the four quarters of the earth, * Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battel: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea

9 And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and r compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and f fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them.

10 And the devil that deceived them, was cast into the lake of fire & brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night † for ever and ever.

11 And I saw a great g white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away, and there was found no place for them.

12 And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God: and the b books were opened: and another * book was opened, which is the book of life, and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, i according to their works.

13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it: and death, and * hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their work.

14 And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire: this is the second death.

15 And whosoever was not found written in the book of life, was cast into the lake of fire.

CHAP. XXI.

A new heaven, and a new earth, &c.

AND * I saw a new heaven, and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away, and there was no more sea.

2 And I John saw the a holy city, new Jerusalem coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a b bride adorned for her husband;

3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they c shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

4 * And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes: and there shall be d no more death, neither sorrow, nor a crying: neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

5 And he that sat upon the throne, said, * Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write, for these words are true and faithful.

6 And he said unto me, It is done: * I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. * I will give unto him that is athrist, of the b fountain of the water of life freely.

7 He that overcometh shall inherit all things, and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.

8 But the d fearful and unbelieving and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.

9 And there came unto me one of the seven angels, which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the Lambs wife.

10 And he carried me away in the Spirit to a e great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God.

11 Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a Jasper stone clear as Crystal.

12 And had a wall great and high, and had f twelve gates, and at the gates g twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel.

13 b On the east three gates, on the north three gates, on the south three gates, and on the west three gates.

14 And the wall of the city had f twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 And he that talked with me, had k a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the city lieth four-square, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs: the length and the breadth, and the height of it are equal.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and fourty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it, was of jasper, and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were l garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation

3 And there shal be † no more curse, but the throne of God, and of the Lamb shal be in it, and his servants shal serve him.

4 And they shal f see his face, and his name shall be in their foreheads.

5 * And there shal be no night there, and they need g no candle, neither light of the sun: for the Lord God giveth them light, and they shal reign for ever and ever.

6 And he said unto me, These sayings are faithful and true. And the Lord b God of the holy prophets sent his angel to shew unto his servants the things which must shortly be done.

7 Behold, I come quickly: blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book.

8 And I John a saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard, and seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel, which shewed me these things.

9 Then saith he unto me, * See thou do it not: for I am thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book. worship God.

10 And he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand.

11 † He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

12 And behold, I come quickly, and my c reward is with me, d to give every man according as his work shal be.

13 I am Alpha and Omega, * the beginning and the end, the e first and the last.

14 Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city.

15 † For without are c dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie.

16 I Jesus have sent mine angel, to testifie unto you these things in the churches, I am the f root, and the offspring of David, and the bright and g morning star.

17 And the Spirit and the Bride say, Come. And let him that heareth h say, Come. * And let him that is a i thirst Come: And whosoever will, let him take the water of k life freely.

18 For † I testifie unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, * if any man shal add unto these things, God shal add unto him the plagues that are written in this book.

19 And if any man shal take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shal take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.

20 He which testifieth these things, saith, Surely * I come quickly. Amen. Even so l Come Lord Jesus.

21 The * grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.
